"None are more hopelessly enslaved than those who falsely believe they are free."
[Goethe]

"The ideal tyranny is that which is ignorantly self-administered by its victims. The most perfect slaves are, therefore, those which blissfully and unawaredly enslave themselves [because of their own legal ignorance]."
[Dresden James]

Our Mission

"Is this not the fast [act of faith, worship, and OBEDIENCE] that I [God] have chosen [for believers]:
To loose the bonds of wickedness,
To undo the heavy burdens,
To let the oppressed go free,
And that you break every yoke [franchise, contract, tie, dependency, or "benefit" with the government]?"
[Isaiah 58:6, Bible, NKJV]

"The Spirit of the Lord God is upon Me,
Because the Lord has anointed Me
To preach good tidings to the poor;
He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,
To proclaim liberty to the [government] captives
And the opening of the prison [government FARM] to those who are bound;
To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord,
And the day of vengeance of our God;"
[Isaiah 61:1-2, Bible, NKJV]

On Why you should care about fighting crime and corruption in government

On PERSONAL REPONSIBLITY for protecting ONE'S OWN freedom

"Liberty means responsibility. That's why most men dread it."
[George Bernard Shaw]

"Freedom, liberty, and sovereignty are NOT spectator sports."
[SEDM]

"The price of freedom is eternal vigilance on EVERYONE'S part, not just OUR part."
[SEDM]

"You can only DESERVE or have a RIGHT to that which you are willing to GIVE and to EARN. That's a corollary to The Golden Rule in Matt. 7:12: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you. It is also a restatement of the requirement for equal protection and equal treatment that is the foundation of American jurisprudence."
[SEDM]

"A person dependent on somebody else for everything from potatoes to opinions may declare that he is a free [SOVEREIGN] man, and his government may issue a certificate granting him his freedom, but he will not be free. ... How can he be free if he can do nothing for himself? ... Men are free precisely to the extent that they are equal to their own needs. The most able are the most free."
[Wendell Berry, "Discipline and Hope" in A Continuous Harmony (1972), p. 124]

"The privilege against self-incrimination [Fifth Amendment] is neither accorded to the passive resistant, nor the person who is ignorant of their rights, nor to one who is indifferent thereto. It is a fighting clause. Its benefits can be retained only by sustained combat. It cannot be claimed by an attorney or solicitor. It is only valid when insisted upon by a belligerent claimant in person."
[U.S. v. Johnson, 76 F.Supp. 538 (1947), Emphasis added]

"The person who risks nothing does nothing, has nothing, and IS nothing. They may avoid suffering and sorrow, but they cannot learn, feel, change, grow, love, and live. Chained by their certitudes, they are a slave, they have forfeited their freedom. Only a person who risks is free."

[Unlimited Liability Universe, Family Guardian Fellowship;
SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Spirituality/Articles/UnlimitedLiabilityUniverse.htm>]

"But he who looks into the perfect law of liberty [the Bible, Form #13.001] and continues in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a DOER of the work, this one will be blessed in what he does."
[James 1:25, Bible, NKJV]

Enemies of freedom

"If you make yourselves sheep, the wolves will eat you."
[Benjamin Franklin]

"The chief enemies of republican freedom are mental sloth, conformity, bigotry, superstition, credulity, monopoly in the market of ideas, and utter, benighted ignorance."
[Adele v. State of Florida, 385 U.S. 39, 49 (1967)]

"...the greatest menace to freedom is an inert [passive, ignorant, and uneducated] people [who refuse, as jurists and voters and active citizens, to expose and punish evil in our government]"
[Whitney v. California, 274 U.S. 357 (1927)]

"This I say, therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you should no longer walk as the rest of the Gentiles walk, in the futility of their mind, having their understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart; who, being past feeling, have given themselves over to lewdness, to work all uncleanness with greediness."
[Eph. 4:17-19, Bible, NKJV]

"The only thing necessary for evil to triumph is for good men to do nothing or to trust bad men to do the right thing."
[SEDM]

"...it is not good for a soul to be without knowledge,"
[Prov. 19:2, Bible, NKJV]

"It is dangerous to be right when the government is wrong."
[SEDM]

"My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge."
[Hosea 4:6, Bible, NKJV]

"...we should no longer be [presumptuous] children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the cunning craftiness of deceitful plotting, but speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the head—Christ."
[Eph. 4:14, Bible, NKJV]

"One who turns his ear from hearing the law [God's law or man's law], even his prayer is an abomination."
[Prov. 28:9, Bible, NKJV]

"If a nation expects to be ignorant and free... it expects what never was and never will be."
[Thomas Jefferson]

"But this crowd that does not know [and quote and follow and use] the law is accursed."
[John 7:49, Bible, NKJV]

"Salvation is far from the wicked, For they do not seek Your [God's] statutes."
[Psalm 119:155, Bible, NKJV]

"Most people prefer to believe that their leaders are just and fair, even in the face of evidence to the contrary, because once a citizen acknowledges that the government under which he lives is lying and corrupt, the citizen has to choose what he or she will do about it. To take action in the face of corrupt government entails risks of harm to life and loved ones. To choose to do nothing is to surrender one's self-image of standing for principles. Most people do not have the courage to face that choice. Hence, most propaganda is not designed to fool the critical thinker but only to give moral cowards an excuse not to think [or act] at all.

Sources of freedom

"Ye shall know the Truth and the Truth shall make you free"
[Jesus in John 8:32, Bible, NKJV]

"Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will lift you up [above your government]."
[James 4:10, Bible, NKJV]

"But as for me and my house, WE WILL SERVE [ONLY] THE LORD! "
[Josh. 24:15, Bible, NKJV]

"And thou shalt teach them ordinances and laws [of both God and man], and shalt shew them the way wherein they must walk, and the work [of obedience to God] that they must do. "
[Exodus 18:20, Bible, NKJV]

"This Book of the Law [God's Law] shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success. Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go."
[Joshua 1:8-9, Bible, NKJV]

"Only the educated are free. "
[Epictetus, Discourses]

"Knowledge will forever govern ignorance, and people who mean to be their own governors, must arm themselves with the power which knowledge gives."
[James Madison]

"The American people have always regarded education and acquisition of knowledge as matters of supreme importance which should be diligently promoted [in order to maintain and protect their liberty]. The Ordinance of 1787 declares: 'Religion, morality and knowledge being necessary to good government and the happiness [and liberty] of mankind, schools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged.'"
[Meyer v. State of Nebraska, 262 U.S. 390 (1923)]

"Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, Religion and morality are indispensable supports. In vain would that man claim the tribute of Patriotism who should labor to subvert these great Pillars of human happiness, these firmest props of the duties of Men and citizens. The mere politician, equally with the pious man, ought to respect and to cherish them. A volume could not trace all their connections with private and public felicity. Let it simply be asked, "where is the security for property, for reputation, for life, if the sense of religious obligation desert the oaths which are the instruments of investigation in courts of justice?" And let us with caution indulge the supposition that morality can be maintained without religion. Whatever may be conceded to the influence of refined education on minds of peculiar structure, reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle."
[George Washington, Farewell Address]

"Humble obedience to the Constitution by public servants is the paramount 'compelling state interest'."
[SEDM]

"We of this mighty western Republic have to grapple with the dangers that spring from popular self-government tried on a scale incomparably vaster than ever before in the history of mankind, and from an abounding material prosperity greater also than anything which the world has hitherto seen.

As regards the first set of dangers, it behooves us to remember that men can never escape being governed. Either they must govern themselves or they must submit to being governed by others. If from lawlessness or fickleness, from folly or self-indulgence, they refuse to govern themselves then most assuredly in the end they will have to be governed from the outside. They can prevent the need of government from without only by showing they possess the power of government from within. A sovereign cannot make excuses for his failures; a sovereign must accept the responsibility for the exercise of power that inheres in him; and where, as is true in our Republic, the people are sovereign, then the people must show a sober understanding and a sane and steadfast purpose if they are to preserve that orderly liberty upon which as a foundation every republic must rest.

[President Theodore Roosevelt; Opening of the Jamestown Exposition; Norfolk, VA, April 26, 1907]

Protection of those such as us who teach others about freedom, rights, religion, and morality

"...The constitutional rights of those spreading their religious beliefs through the spoken and printed word are not to be gauged by standards governing retailers or wholesalers of books. The right to use the press for expressing one's views is not to be measured by the protection afforded commercial handbills. It should be remembered that the pamphlets of Thomas Paine were not distributed free of charge. It is plain that a religious organization needs funds to remain a going concern. But an itinerant evangelist, however misguided or intolerant he may be, does not become a mere book agent by selling the Bible or religious tracts to help defray his expenses or to sustain him. Freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of religion are available to all, not merely to those who can pay their own way. . ."

[Murdock v. Pennsylvania, 319 U.S. 105 (1943)]

"Those who already walk submissively will say there is no cause for alarm. But submissiveness is not our heritage. The First Amendment was designed to allow rebellion [especially towards government corruption and tyranny] to remain as our Heritage. The Constitution was designed to keep the government [and especially the government, with their SLAVE SURVEILLANCE NUMBERS (SSNs)] off the backs of the people. The Bill of Rights was added to keep the precincts of belief and expression, of the press, of political and social activities free from [government, and especially IRS] surveillance. The Bill of Rights was designed to keep agents of government and official eavesdroppers [in the government] away from Assemblies of People [this ministry]. The aim was to allow men to be free and independent to assert their rights against government."

Laird v. Tatum, [408 U.S. 1; 92 S.Ct. 2318 (1972)]

"This court has not yet fixed the standard by which to determine when a danger shall be deemed clear; how remote the danger may be and yet be deemed present; and what degree of evil shall be deemed sufficiently substantial to justify resort to abridgment of free speech and assembly as the means of protection. To reach sound conclusions on these matters, we must bear in mind why a state is, ordinarily, denied the power to prohibit dissemination of social, economic and political doctrine which a vast majority of its citizens believes to be false and fraught with evil consequence. [274 U.S. 357, 375] Those who won our independence believed that the final end of the state was to make men free to develop their faculties, and that in its government the deliberative forces should prevail over the arbitrary. They valued liberty both as an end and as a means. They believed liberty to be the secret of happiness and courage to be the secret of liberty. They believed that freedom to think as you will and to speak [and educate] as you think are means indispensable to the discovery and spread of political truth; that without free speech and assembly discussion would be futile; that with them, discussion affords ordinarily adequate protection against the dissemination of noxious doctrine; that the greatest menace to freedom is an inert people; that public discussion [and education] is a political duty; and that this should be a fundamental principle of the American government. 3 They recognized the risks to which all human institutions are subject. But they knew that order cannot be secured merely through fear of punishment for its infraction; that it is hazardous to discourage thought, hope and imagination; that fear breeds repression; that repression breeds hate; that hate menaces stable government; that the path of safety lies in the opportunity to discuss [and educate other people about] freely supposed grievances and proposed remedies; and that the fitting remedy for evil counsels is good ones. Believing in the power of reason as applied through public discussion, they eschewed silence [274 U.S. 357, 376] coerced by law [for a corrupted government]-the argument of force in its worst form. Recognizing the occasional tyrannies of governing majorities, they amended the Constitution so that free speech and assembly should be guaranteed."

Biblical Relationship of Christians to the Government or "State"

"You shall make no covenant [contract or franchise] with them [foreigners, pagans], nor with their [pagan government] gods [laws or judges]. They shall not dwell in your land and you shall not dwell in theirs [by becoming a "resident" in the process of contracting with them], lest they make you sin against Me [God]. For if you serve their gods under [contract or agreement or franchise], it will surely be a snare to you."
[Exodus 23:32-33, Bible, NKJV]

"Therefore, my brethren, you also have become dead to the law [man's law] through the body of Christ [by shifting your legal domicile to the God's Kingdom], that you may be married to another—to Him who was raised from the dead, that we should bear fruit as [agents, fiduciaries, and trustees] to God. For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions which were aroused by the law were at work in our members to bear fruit to death. But now we have been delivered from the law [man's law], having died to what we were held by, so that we should serve in the newness of the Spirit [and newness of God's Holy law] and not in the oldness of the letter."
[Rom. 7:4-6, Bible, NKJV]

"Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? [Whoever therefore wants to be a friend \["citizen", "resident", "taxpayer", "inhabitant", "franchisee", "public officer, or "subject" under a king or political ruler\] of the world \[for any man-made kingdom other than God's Kingdom\] makes himself an enemy of God.](#)"
[James 4:4, Bible, NKJV]

"And when you saw that Mahesh king of the Ammonites came against you, you said to me, '[No, but a king \[or political ruler\] shall reign over \[above and superior in sovereignty to\] us,](#)' when the Lord your God was your king. [ . . . ] And all the people said to Samuel, "Pray for your servants to the Lord your God, that we may not die; for [we have added to all our sins the evil of asking a king \[or political ruler above us\] for ourselves.](#)"
[1 Sam. 12:12, 19, Bible, NKJV]

"Do not walk in the [statutes of your fathers \[the heathens\], nor observe their judgments \[court rulings\], nor defile yourselves with their \[pagan government\] idols. I am the LORD your God: Walk in \[My statutes\]\(#\), keep My judgments, and do them; hallow My Sabbaths, and they will be a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God."](#)
[Ezekial 20:10-20, Bible, NKJV]

"You shall have no other gods [including political rulers, governments, or earthly laws] before Me or [My commandments]."
[Exodus 20:3, Bible, NKJV]

"But as for me and my house, WE WILL SERVE [ONLY] THE LORD!"
[Josh. 24:15, Bible, NKJV]

On why you should begin your Journey to Freedom

"Again, the kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and hid; and for joy over it he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.
[Matt. 13:44, Bible, NKJV]

"The [law of Your \[God's\] mouth](#) is better to me Than thousands of coins of gold and silver.
[Prov. 119:72, Bible, NKJV]

"Be diligent to [investigate and expose the truth for yourself and thereby] present yourself and the public servants who are your [fiduciaries and stewards under the Constitution] approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, [rightly dividing the word \[and the deeds\] of truth. But shun profane babblings \[government propaganda, tyranny, and usurpation\] for they will increase to more ungodliness. And their message \[and their harmful effects\] will spread like cancer \[to destroy our society and great \[Republic\]\(#\)\]."](#)
[2 Tim. 2:15-17, Bible, NKJV]

"The violence [verbal, financial, and physical] of the [wicked \[corrupt government\]](#) will destroy them [passive believers] because they refuse to do justice."

[Prov. 21:7, Bible, NKJV]

"Better is a little with righteousness, than vast revenues without justice."

[Prov. 16:8, Bible, NKJV]

Why the Journey to Freedom can be lonely

The Narrow Way

"Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it. Because narrow is the gate and difficult is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it."

[Matt. 7:13-14, Bible, NKJV]

---

"Liberty Means Responsibility. That's why most men dread it."

[George Bernard Shaw]

"The fact is that the average man's love of liberty is nine-tenths imaginary, exactly like his love of sense, justice and truth. He is not actually happy when free; he is uncomfortable, a bit alarmed, and intolerably lonely. Liberty is not a thing for the great masses of men. It is the exclusive possession of a small and disreputable minority, like knowledge, courage and honor. It takes a special sort of man a [truly GODLY man] to understand and enjoy liberty - and [he is usually \[regarded wrongfully and unjustly as\] an outlaw in democratic societies.](#)"

[H.L. Mencken, Baltimore Evening Sun, Feb. 12, 1923]

"The most dangerous man, to any government, is the man who is able to think things out for himself, without regard to the prevailing superstitions and taboos. Almost inevitably he comes to the conclusion that the government he lives under is dishonest, insane and intolerable, and so, if he is romantic, he tries to change it. And even if he is not romantic personally he is very apt to spread discontent among those who are."

1. Introduction

This document is intended as a basic introduction to freedom concepts. It:

1. Gives a basic background on who we are.
2. Lists the steps necessary to become free and sovereign. See Section 2.
3. Identifies later in Section 6.14 the prerequisites for becoming a Member of the Sovereignty Education and Defense Ministry (SEDM) fellowship. Membership is and always has been absolutely free. Those prerequisites are to complete all the steps that pertain to your situation up to step 14 of Section 2 and to submit our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 to us through email as indicated at the bottom of the agreement.
4. Provides situational tools and resources that Members can use after becoming Members useful in defending their life, liberty, and property from compelled participation in government franchises and licenses. See Section 5.12 and following.
5. Provides a path to get help with problems you may face as a Member.

The sheer volume of materials on the SEDM website can be daunting to new Members and visitors to our website. This is a natural consequence of the irreducible complexity of the legal field in general. The Founding Fathers alluded to this undesirable consequence of a free society based on law when they said:

"It poisons the blessing of liberty itself. It will be of little avail to the people, that the laws are made by men of their own choice, if the laws be so voluminous that they cannot be read, or so incoherent that they cannot be understood; if they be repealed or revised before they are promulgated, or undergo such incessant changes that no man, who knows what the law is to-day, can guess what it will be to-morrow. Law is defined to be a rule of action; but how can that be a rule, which is little known, and less fixed?"

"It has been frequently remarked, with great propriety, that a voluminous code of laws is one of the inconveniences necessarily connected with the advantages of a free government. To avoid an arbitrary discretion in the courts, it is indispensable that they should be bound down by strict rules [of statutory construction and interpretation] and precedents, which serve to define and point out their duty in every particular case that comes before them; and it will readily be conceived from the variety of controversies which grow out of the folly and wickedness of mankind, that the records of those precedents must unavoidably swell to a very considerable bulk, and must demand long and laborious study to acquire a competent knowledge of them."
[Federalist Paper No. 78, Alexander Hamilton]

"Another effect of public instability is the unreasonable advantage it gives to the sagacious, the enterprising, and the moneyed few over the industrious and uniformed mass of the people. Every new regulation concerning commerce or revenue, or in any way affecting the value of the different species of property, presents a new harvest to those who watch the change, and can trace its consequences; a harvest, reared not by themselves, but by the toils and cares of the great body of their fellow-citizens. This is a state of things in which it may be said with some truth that laws are made for [benefit of] the FEW, not for the MANY."
[Federalist Paper No. 62, James Madison]

There is so much information to digest within the legal realm that it can sometimes be difficult to know where to even begin for the neophyte who has received no legal training. Add to this problem the following additional aggravating factors, and you have what might at first glance seem like an insurmountable volume of information to digest:

1. The fact that K-12 public schools and even universities teach NOTHING about law to the average American. Law, in fact, has become a "priesthood", and those who know it serve the modern day function of a witch doctor for a civil religion of socialism. The average American, even if they wanted to learn about law, is not able to do it in any public or government school, because public servants who run these institutions don't want the master knowing how to supervise them. Even people who have a PhD very seldom have taken even ONE COURSE in law. This, in fact, is how most of the evil is perpetuated and the reason we as a country are perceived as "an abomination" by much of the rest of the world:

"One who turns his ear from hearing the law [God's law or man's law], even his prayer is an abomination."
[Prov. 28:9, Bible, NKJV]

2. The skepticism of the audience our ministry attracts, in which so many Members insist on evidence to prove everything we assert.
3. The fact that our Member Agreement and Disclaimer encourage and even mandate that readers should challenge, not trust, and consistently question everything that everyone says, including us.

4. The fact that what may appear to be extraordinary or sensational claims made by our Ministry require extraordinary proof in order to even get people's attention so they will even want to study subjects we cover. Media sensationalism and reality TV has desensitized the average American to the point where they are numb to the truth and don't trust anyone anymore, no matter how much evidence you hand them. You will find no greater source on the internet of evidence to prove the subjects we cover here.

"For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only He [God] who now restrains will do so until He is taken out of the way. And then the lawless one [Satan] will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and destroy with the brightness of His coming. The coming of the lawless one [Satan] is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved [don't be one of them!]. And for this reason God will send them strong delusion [from their own government], that they should believe a lie, that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness."
[2 Thess. 2:3-17, Bible, NKJV]

5. The fact that the government challenges and even fraudulently denies our more important research because they are attempting to protect their illegal activities.

"The truth about the corruption with our own government is so precious to the government that it must be surrounded by a bodyguard of lies."

All of the above factors combine to impose a high burden of proof upon us and an enormous logistical problem in getting the minimum but most important information and tools to the curious but brain washed American public to institute expedient change. What many of our Members have said they want most is a simplified checklist of measurable steps they can follow to achieve basic freedom and sovereignty that directs their studies to abbreviate and accelerate the progress of their freedom education. Achieving the goal of being free and sovereign on your part requires the following skills:

1. A thorough understanding of the concept of freedom and liberty.
2. A basic understanding of law.
3. A basic understanding of how to do legal research.
4. Computer skills, so that you can prepare administrative correspondence and legal pleadings.
5. A basic understanding of constitutionally protected rights so that they can recognize when they are being violated and know what to do about it.
6. An understanding of the tax codes and regulations.
7. A basic understanding of WHO you are in relation to the government, including your citizenship and domicile and all the legal terms that describe it accurately.
8. Developing your critical thinking skills to the point where you know what questions are important to ask when you are confronted by government employees in order to silence their ignorant presumptions about you.
9. A basic understanding of the administrative remedies, forms, and procedures for defending your sovereignty and rights available to SEDM Members.
10. A basic understanding of the legal remedies available for defending your sovereignty and rights available to SEDM Members.
11. A basic understanding of how to navigate the SEDM Website.
12. A method to connect to like-minded men and women who share your concern so that you can have a support network and share what you learn with others as you participate in the Ministry.

We have painstakingly prepared this document in furtherance of the above goals so that you as a new or prospective Member can quickly come up to speed and function confidently in defending your rights and sovereignty.

As a general rule, we recommend the following approach to studying this document and other documents on our website to avoid becoming overwhelmed or distracted, given that it covers a very broad range of subjects that in many cases at least initially are unfamiliar to the average American:

1. This document is organized in a progression of increasing complexity:
  - 1.1. Supporting links for many subjects are provided for reference purposes ONLY for those readers who wish to study the subject mentioned further.
  - 1.2. You need not and should not read any of the supporting links the first time you go through a document.
2. This document is designed to function both as a learning tool, and as a reference tool for those who have already learned the subjects it covers. No matter how long you have been studying freedom subjects, there is something here

1 that will be new and useful to anyone and everyone at every stage of their development. Don't expect to know or to
2 learn everything here immediately or even the first year of study. We are still learning after studying the subject for
3 over ten years. Be patient with yourself.

4 3. Read the entirety of this document at least once WITHOUT following any of the supporting links provided, focusing
5 ONLY on this document so you can get a firm grasp of what it is about. This will help you avoid getting distracted.

6 4. After reading the document completely, skim back over it and follow ONLY supporting links that interest you or
7 which cover subjects that are important or relevant to your circumstances. A year from now, you may wish to reread it
8 again as a review.

9 5. The best place to learn the basics for those who are just getting started with law is the SEDM Liberty University. Turn
10 off the TV and systematically follow the procedural steps in the order listed to read and review the materials. You
11 have been deliberately dumbed down during your public school education about law and history, so there is a lot to 12 make up for. Print out the Table of Contents of the Liberty University and use it as a checklist to go through it.

IMPORTANT NOTE: This document and our website are updated frequently to reflect changes in the law, changes in government procedures and forms, and changes in our website. We therefore highly recommend that if you are relying on this document to make important decisions, you should obtain and use the most recent version available. You can obtain the latest version from the opening page of our website (<http://sedm.org>) in the banner entitled “START HERE” surrounded by the checkered flags.

If you want to see if you have the latest version, the version date for the document you have is indicated in the lower left corner of every page of the document, in the document footer. This same method of document version control is implemented in every document available on our website. This date is also indicated in the right column of our Forms/Pubs page in the column entitled “Date of Last Revision” so that you will know the version available on our website without the need to click on the link and open the document to check the version number indicated.

This document, like all other documents, services, and communication available from or through the SEDM website and ministry, is protected by the following franchises and agreements on our website:

1. SEDM Website Disclaimer
<http://sedm.org/footer/disclaimer/>
2. SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001
<http://sedm.org/participate/member-agreement/>

Any of the following activities shall constitute constructive consent to the terms of the above agreements by all those engaging in such activities:

1. Contacting us for help with your problems.
2. Asking questions either via email or using our Contact Us Page.
3. Requesting our services through the SEDM Ministry Bookstore, such as IMF Decoding, paralegal help, etc.
4. Obtaining ministry materials or information offered through the SEDM Ministry Bookstore.
5. Participating in the Ministry as a volunteer or agent.
6. Signing our Member Agreement and submitting it to the Ministry through email.
7. Signing up for our Member Subscriptions or availing yourself of any of its benefits.
8. Downloading any of the free materials or information available on the SEDM website at <http://sedm.org>.
9. Making a donation to the ministry.
10. Signing up to be part of our Member Forums.
11. Submitting or sending any of the materials appearing on this website to any third party in any administrative or legal matter, and especially one involving any Member or Officer of this ministry.
12. Using any of the materials or output of services available through this website as evidence in any legal or administrative enforcement proceeding.
13. Making any commercial use whatsoever of the materials or services available through this ministry so as to benefit anyone OTHER than the ministry. This includes: 1. Trying to enjoin the materials; 2. Slandering the authors as a way to maximize revenues to a corrupted de facto government from ILLEGAL enforcement of the Internal Revenue Code; 3. Selling the materials available through this website in violation of the copyright.

Lastly, we have prepared the following simplified and brief introduction course to our ministry.

Ministry Introduction Course, Form #12.014
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

You can view the above document from our opening page at <http://sedm.org> by clicking on the large letters that say “MINISTRY INTRODUCTION” in the center of the page. This is an excellent summary of what we do and why we do it for busy professionals.

2. Basic Checklist to Liberty

"And I heard another voice from heaven saying, "Come out of her [Babylon, the Great Harlot, a socialist democracy in which all "citizens" are in fact government "officers"], my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues. For her sins have reached to heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities. Render to her just as she rendered to you, and repay her double according to her works; in the cup which she has mixed, mix double for her. In the measure that she glorified herself and lived luxuriously, in the same measure give her torment and sorrow; for she says in her heart, 'I sit as queen, and am no widow, and

1 will not see sorrow.' Therefore her plagues will come in one day—death and mourning and famine. And she will be utterly
2 burned with fire, for strong is the Lord God who judges her.
3 [Rev. 18:4-8, Bible, NKJV]

4 Knowledge and preparation are the best defense you can have for your freedom and sovereignty. Please ensure that you
5 execute as many of the following steps to achieving sovereignty as you can prior to stopping withholding in order to
6 provide the best protection possible for your rights and liberties. These steps will lawfully help to remove you and your
7 property from government jurisdiction and minimize risk exposure. Each step is preceded by a “Date Accomplished” box
8 so that you can write the date that you accomplished it. Members wishing to use any of the materials on our website to 9 interact with the government or legal profession in the context of tax matters must complete up to step 14 before they may
10 do so. Otherwise, they become “Members in Bad Standing”.

11 Please DO NOT contact us or even offer to pay us to complete any of the steps in this section. You and only you must 12 complete the steps in this section entirely on your own without our assistance or that of any member. The reason for 13 this is that:

- 14 1. Our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 forbids us from rendering services to those who are statutory “taxpayers”, 15 “U.S. citizens”, “U.S. residents”, or federal instrumentalities.
- 16 2. You are presumed to be a non-member, statutory “taxpayer”, “U.S. citizen”, “U.S. resident”, and/or federal 17 instrumentality unless and until you have un rebutted evidence in your administrative record with the government that 18 demonstrates otherwise and which is admissible in a court of law. That evidence, in fact, is generated by executing the 19 steps in this section BEFORE either demanding our services or “USING” any materials other than those needed to 20 complete these steps.
- 21 3. If we interact with or help people attempting to complete the steps, some malicious, malingering, and LYING public 22 servant would be hired as a mole, come in and procure help from us, and then accuse us on the court record of 23 interfering with the lawful administration of the tax laws, and do so UNLAWFULLY in a foreign state outside of their 24 jurisdiction. We therefore need and politely request your assistance in staying out of harm’s way and from being 25 accused of violating or intending to violate any law.

26 We caution that our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 also requires that:

- 27 1. Anyone are free to read and obtain our materials and by doing so, they mandatorily become Members.
  - 28 2. Anyone, including non-Members or those who are non-compliant, may obtain or “use” all the materials listed in this 29 section that are required to complete Steps 1 through 14 of this section:
    - 30 2.1. By viewing, downloading, or using materials off our site or procuring our services or help in using them,
31 including through the Member Forums, they mandatorily become Members.
    - 32 2.2. Completing up to step 14 of this section also makes them “Members in Good Standing”.
  - 33 3. All materials and services OTHER than our “tax information, materials, or services” are available for “use” by any 34 Member, including those who have not completed steps 1 through 14 of this section.
  - 35 4. Only those who are Members and who have completed up to step 14 of this section and thereby become “Members in 36 Good Standing” may “use” our tax services or materials other than those listed in this section in order to interact with 37 third parties in the government or the legal profession.
    - 38 4.1. By “use”, we mean using them in your interactions with any third party, such as the state or federal governments,
39 financial institutions, employers, or the legal profession.
    - 40 4.2. For a list of “tax information and services”, see section 2 of our Member Agreement, Form #01.001.
  - 41 5. Non-Members are not authorized to “use” any of our materials or services, including our tax materials.
  - 42 6. Compliant Member Only Content forms such as Form #09.007 require people to register for a free forum account to 43 download.
    - 44 6.1. Users are warned that what we mean by “complaint members” is that they have followed all the steps PRIOR to 45 the form on the step that they are at, not that they have completed all the way up to Step 14 of these procedures.
    - 46 6.2. For example. If you want to download Form #09.007 and submit it in step 10, then you must have completed all 47 the PREVIOUS steps if you wish to do so.
    - 48 6.3. We do this to prevent people from skipping steps or avoiding becoming compliant at all. This protects the 49 credibility and effectiveness of our tools and processes.

2		SECURE YOUR COMPUTER. Secure your computer and protect your privacy using the resources available at: Computers, Technology, and Information Security Topic, Section 5: Computer and Information Security  http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Computers/Computers.htm
3		READ, SIGN, AND SUBMIT OUR MEMBER AGREEMENT. Download, carefully read, print, sign, and submit us the following: SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm WARNING: You should not use any of the materials on our website to interact with the legal profession or the government for any tax years for which you do not satisfy all of the requirements of membership. To do otherwise is an unauthorized and possibly illegal abuse of our materials.
4		LEARN THE BASICS OF LAW, GOVERNMENT, TAXES, AND SOVEREIGNTY. This will allow you to understand the constitution, statutes, regulations, and government in general. Do these in the sequence presented: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Legal Research and Writing Techniques Course, Form #12.013-teaches you how to do legal research so that you can critically evaluate everything you will learn beyond this point.  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm</li> <li>2. Citizenship and Sovereignty Course, Form #12.001  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm</li> <li>3. Federal and State Income Taxation of Individuals Course, Form #12.003  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm</li> <li>4. Government Franchises Course, Form #12.012  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm</li> <li>5. Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm</li> </ol>
5		LEARN YOUR STATUS AND RIGHTS! If you don't know what your rights are and your status in relation to the government, then YOU DON'T HAVE ANY RIGHTS and people are going to walk all over you! Learn your rights and status or get on your knee pads and learn to be a good little slave. The resources below are very helpful for that purpose. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Enumeration of Inalienable Rights, Form #10.002  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm</li> <li>2. Famous Quotes About Rights and Liberty, Form #08.001  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm</li> <li>3. Know Your Rights and Citizenship Status, Form #10.009-optional. 6		QUIT MAKING PRESUMPTIONS, CORRECT YOUR LANGUAGE, AND CHALLENGE THE PRESUMPTIONS OF OTHERS ABOUT YOUR STATUS. Read our document on presumptions for an excellent description of this main technique for unlawfully abusing government authority to enslave you: Presumption: Chief Weapon for Unlawfully Enlarging Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.017  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm Learn about “words of art” and correct the words you use to describe yourself and others: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Foundations of Freedom, Video 4: Willful Government Deception and Propaganda, Form #12.021  http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DvnTL_Z5asc</li> <li>2. Watch Your Language When Dealing With the Government, Sovereignty Forms and Instructions Online, Form #10.004, Instructions, Step 2.6  http://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/Instructions/2.6WatchLanguageWithGovt.htm</li> <li>3. Legal Deception, Propaganda, and Fraud, Form #05.014  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm</li> <li>4. Sovereignty Forms and Instructions Online, Form #10.004: Cites by Topic  http://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/FormsInstr-Cites.htm</li> </ol> The key to regaining your rights and sovereignty is to understand how the government surreptitiously and stealthily abuses “words of art” and presumption in a legal context, how to prove that the presumption exists, and what questions to ask to expose the presumption. All presumption is a violation of due process of law when it injures your rights.
7		READ CHAPTERS 3 THROUGH 5 OF THE FREE GREAT IRS HOAX, Form #11.302 BOOK. This will give you a thorough education in law, legal research, rights, and taxation. Pay particular attention to Chapter 4, which shows you what your rights are. If you don’t know what your rights are, then YOU DON’T HAVE ANY! Great IRS Hoax, Form #11.302  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm
8		FAMILIARIZE YOURSELF WITH OUR WEBSITE AND JOIN OUR FORUMS AS A MEMBER. Visit our website below and visit and carefully examine each of the topic areas listed in the menus at the top of the opening page. This will give you a basic understanding of what we offer.  http://sedm.org You should also apply for FREE membership for our site so you have a place to post your questions in our forums without contacting us privately, and will have a way to meet and interact with other likeminded people who can help you. 9		CORRECT YOUR CITIZENSHIP AND COMMERCIAL RELATIONSHIP WITH THE GOVERNMENT. Read and send in the following two documents to the government to correct your citizenship and “taxpayer” status and restore your sovereignty: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Resignation of Compelled Social Security Trustee, Form #06.002 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm</li> <li>2. Legal Notice of Change in Domicile/Citizenship Records and Divorce from the United States, Form #10.001 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm</li> </ol> These documents establish legally admissible evidence in your administrative record of your withdrawal of consent to be civilly governed and your true status, prevent false presumptions, and act as a reliance defense useful if you are ever criminally indicted for any tax crime. They establish the laws that you are relying upon in establishing your status. They also establish fact if they go un-rebutted by the government recipient that forms an estoppel and default against the government. NOTE: If you have already used your own documents to accomplish the above rather than ours, you need not complete this step. The only requirement we have is that you send us YOUR version of the above documents in editable form so that we can review them and use them to improve our materials. NOTE: Even if the government responds to either of the above to say you aren’t allowed submit these or they won’t act on them, they would have to commit crimes described in the documents themselves and violate the law to not act upon them as indicated in the documents themselves. We don’t require that the government ACCEPT or ACT upon these forms in order to become a member, but that you have at least sent them in and have proof that you sent them in admissible in court using our Certificate/Proof/Affidavit of Service, Form #01.002
10		UPDATE YOUR PASSPORT TO CORRECTLY REFLECT YOUR NATIONALITY AND DOMICILE AND ABANDONMENT OF GOVERNMENT FRANCHISES. Do this by either: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Renewing it using the following procedure if you are up for renewal: Getting a USA Passport as a “state national”, Form #09.007 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm</li> <li>2. Amending it if you already have one: Passport Amendment Request, Form #06.016 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm</li> </ol> We recommend doing this BEFORE you start sending affidavits to anyone. The reason is that using the above procedure to obtain a passport disconnects you from franchises and the numbers associated with them. That way the Affidavits you subsequently send out in later steps that are notarized using the “national” passport will not connect you indirectly to any franchise such as Social Security.

11		QUIT USING IDENTIFYING NUMBERS AND CORRECT EXISTING EIN APPLICATIONS. The only people with a legal requirement to use identifying numbers are government statutory “employees” and “public officers”. All you do by using such numbers is create false presumptions that you are a government “employee” or “public officer” over which they have jurisdiction and who is domiciled on federal territory. Read the following form so you understand why it is unlawful to use them for the average American: About SSNs and TINs on Government Forms and Correspondence, Form #05.012  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm If compelled by third parties to use a Taxpayer Identification Number, present the following form: Why It is Illegal for Me to Request or Use a “Taxpayer Identification Number”, Form #04.205  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm If compelled to join Social Security or use a Social Security Number, present the following form and demand that they rebut it. Why You Aren’t Eligible for Social Security, Form #06.001  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm If you own a business or run a trust and the entity applied for an EIN, send in the following amendment to the original SS-4 Application: Employer Identification Number (EIN) Application Permanent Amendment Notice, Form #06.022  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm

12		RESUBMIT/CORRECTED TAX WITHHOLDING PAPERWORK. Do so at your job and with your business associates WITHOUT a federal identifying number using the following resources: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. New Hire Paperwork Attachment, Form #04.203 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm</li> <li>2. About IRS Form W-8BEN, Form #04.202 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm</li> </ol> DO NOT submit IRS Form W-4, which is only for federal “public officers” or “employees” and not private human beings. This is explained in the following: Why Your Government is Either a Thief or You are a “Public Officer” for Income Tax Purposes, Form #05.008 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm After you submit the New Hire Paperwork Attachment, regulate your withholding and reporting according to the instructions in the following book. This book also gives some pointers on companies that won’t honor the New Hire Paperwork Attachment and/or W-8BEN above. Federal and State Tax Withholding Options for Private Employers, Form #04.101 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm Provide a copy of SSA Form 521 to your private employer with the number removed proving that you quit the system if you previously gave them a federal identifying number. Warn them that any use of that number constitutes FRAUD beyond that point for which you will file a criminal complaint. If your private employer or business associate refuses to accept correctly completed forms reflecting your true status as a “non-resident non-person” not engaged in the “trade or business” franchise, send the legal department of the organization the following form as the last step before you sue them personally and individually: Legal Notice to Correct Fraudulent Tax Status, Reporting, and Withholding, Form #04.401 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm If, after receiving the above, the private employer still will not stop filing the fraudulent information returns and stop withholding, then you will have to sue the payroll clerk personally and individually in state and not federal court but NOT the company. This will provide a remedy without jeopardizing your job or the company. We don’t have forms for this purpose at this time, but you can retain us to provide paralegal services to prepare the pleadings. To do so, please read the following and submit the Litigation Support Client Intake Application at the end to us: Litigation Support Client Intake Packet, Form #01.003 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm

13		QUIT FILLING OUT GOVERNMENT FORMS AND PROVIDE MANDATORY ATTACHMENTS WITH ALL FORMS YOU ARE FORCED TO FILL OUT. The only people with a legal requirement to fill out government forms are government statutory “employees” and “public officers”. All you do when you fill out and submit government forms is create false presumptions that you are a government “employee” or “public officer” over which they have jurisdiction. If compelled by third parties to submit any kind of government tax form: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Use AMENDED forms rather than ORIGINAL IRS form provided below:  http://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/Forms/IRS/IRSFormsPubs.htm</li> <li>2. Attach the following forms prepared according to the instructions:  Tax Form Attachment, Form #04.201  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm  Affidavit of Citizenship, Domicile, and Tax Status, Form #02.001  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm</li> </ol> The only forms you should file with the government are those that are NOT for “taxpayers”. All the IRS forms are only for franchisees called “taxpayers”. If you want a “nontaxpayer” form you will either need to modify the standard government forms as we did (AMENDED) or make your own form. If there is anyone we could not get to stop filing false information returns on us, then we make it a point to annually file the following forms to ensure that we are not wrongfully prosecuted for willful failure to file pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7203. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. State Demand to File Response: Nonresident Nontaxpayer/Nonfiler, Form #07.203  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm</li> <li>2. Federal Demand to File Response: Nonresident Nontaxpayer/Nonfiler, Form #07.303  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm</li> </ol> Filing the above forms if your record has information returns (e.g. W-2, 1042S, 1098, and 1099) builds a good administrative record that will prevent the IRS from making a referral for prosecution to the U.S. Department of Justice for prosecution. It also serves as a great “jury entertainment package” if it every goes to trial which can significantly help your chances of an acquittal. Attach as many exhibits as you can to make sure the jure and the IRS have plenty of incriminating information that will damn the government’s case. When compelled to submit any kind of government form other than a tax form in the future, make sure you use the forms provided in the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. SEDM Liberty University, Section 4: Avoiding Government Franchises, Licenses, and Identity Theft  http://sedm.org/LibertyU/LibertyU.htm</li> <li>2. SEDM Forms/Pubs, Section 1.6: Avoiding Government Franchises  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm</li> </ol>

14		REGULARLY, ANNUALLY, AND CONSISTENTLY CORRECT ALL INFORMATION RETURNS FILED AGAINST YOUR NAME. If you don't, you could become the unlawful target of a failure to file prosecution pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7203, tax evasion. The years affected will be those that fit ANY of the circumstances below: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. For periods AFTER the Path to Freedom process has been completed...OR</li> <li>2. For which no return has been filed and therefore, for which you might be prosecuted for willful failure to file. . . . OR</li> <li>3. For which you are or have been the target of IRS enforcement activity. . . . OR</li> <li>4. For which you seek a refund of illegally withheld and reported taxes using our forms #15.001 or #15.002. . . . OR</li> </ol> NOTE: Don't bother correcting information returns for prior years in which returns were already filed as a statutory "taxpayer" unless you ALSO go back and correct those returns with substitute forms. There is a three year statute of limitation upon corrections to prior returns, and IRS does not make any NONtaxpayer forms, such as an amended return that changes a RESIDENT into a non-resident non-person nontaxpayer. Forms #15.001 and #15.002 therefore had to be created as CUSTOM forms to correct this problem for those: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Wishing refund of funds illegally withheld as a nontaxpayer not filing TAXPAYER statutory returns.</li> <li>2. Those wishing to go back and correct prior RESIDENT returns and correct their status and the corresponding false information returns.</li> </ol> If you don't have the original false information returns in your possession, then make sure you send a FOIA request to the IRS for the returns as well as the IRS Form W-3 and 1096 filed with them. 15		QUIT FILING RESIDENT FORMS. IRS Form 1040 is a “resident” form and the place it makes you APPEAR to be a resident of is the District of Columbia and no part of any state of the Union. Your status as a franchise customer of a government called a statutory “citizen”, or “resident” is what makes you a statutory “taxpayer” franchisee. For details on the domicile/residence SCAM, see: Why Domicile and Becoming a “Taxpayer” Require Your Consent, Form #05.002  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm The only forms that a man or woman domiciled in a state of the Union can lawfully file without committing perjury is one of the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. 18		RESPOND TO ALL JURY SUMMONS PROPERLY. Jury summons are used to establish the nationality and residency of people. They are frequently mailed by the DOJ/IRS prior to criminally indicting someone to establish, usually falsely, that the party is domiciled on federal territory within the judicial district. You must respond with the following form or you could be the victim of such a FALSE criminal indictment. See section 6.7.14 later for details. Jury Summons Response Attachment, Form #06.015  http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm Both members AND non-members may use this form to respond to a jury summons.

20		PAY OFF YOUR CREDIT CARDS AND CUT THEM UP. As long as you are in debt, you will need to use government identifying numbers and will be in national credit databases that will make privacy impossible. The Bible condemns debt. “The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower [is] servant to the lender.”  [Prov. 22:7, Bible, NKJV] “Owe no one anything except to love one another. for he who loves another has fulfilled the law.”  [Romans 13:8, Bible, NKJV] “For the Lord your God will bless you just as He promised you; you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow. you shall reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over you.”  [Deut. 15:6] “The Lord will open to you His good treasure, the heavens, to give the rain to your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand. You shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow.”  [Deut. 28:12] “You shall not charge interest to your brother--interest on money or food or anything that is lent out at interest.”  [Deut. 23:19 ] “To a foreigner you may charge interest, but to your brother you shall not charge interest, that the Lord your God may bless you in all to which you set your hand in the land which you are entering to possess.”  [Deut. 23:20.] If you would like to know more about why debt is evil, see Great IRS Hoax, Form #11.302, Section 2.8.11. As a bare minimum, you should pay off all debt other than your home and cut up your credit cards. Ideally, you should also place your real estate and the loan for the real estate inside an entity such as a trust or corporation and get it out of your name.

1 After you have completed the above process:

1. You can use any of the forms on our website without modification and without the risk of misrepresenting your true status.
2. You will be ineligible to apply for or use a Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) or Social Security Number (SSN). See:
- Why It is Illegal for Me to Request or Use a "Taxpayer Identification Number", Form #04.205
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
3. You will have un-rebutted, court-admissible evidence in the state and federal government's records and the public record of your true status as:
- 3.1. A statutory "non-resident non-person" if you do not work for the national government as a public officer.
- 3.2. A "nonresident alien" pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B) if you work for the national government as a public officer.
- 3.3. A non-citizen national of the United States*** of America pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21).
- 3.4. A constitutional citizen pursuant to the Fourteenth Amendment.
- 3.5. NOT:
- 3.5.1. A statutory "national and citizen of the United States** at birth" or "U.S. citizen" pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1401 born in a U.S. territory.
- 3.5.2. A statutory "non-citizen national of the United States** at birth" per 8 U.S.C. §1408 born in a possession.
- 3.5.3. A statutory "non-citizen national of the United States***" per 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(22)(B) and 8 U.S.C. §1452. All these people are born in U.S. possessions.
- 3.6. A "stateless person" in relation to federal jurisdiction.
- 3.7. A "nontaxpayer" and not the "taxpayer" described in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(14).
4. The state and federal governments, if they fail to rebut correspondence they receive from you:
- 4.1. Will have produced evidence that they agree with your status above and that it is unlawful to make you the target or civil or criminal tax enforcement.
- 4.2. Are estopped from changing their position later under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(b)(6).
5. If you use any number at all to describe yourself, it will be an Individual Taxpayer Identification Number procured using an AMENDED IRS Form W-7 with our Tax Form Attachment, Form #04.201 attached.:
- AMENDED IRS Form W-7
<http://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/Forms/IRS/IRSFormW7Amended.pdf>
6. You will be ineligible for Social Security Benefits, Medicare, Medicaid, or any other franchise or public benefit.
7. Private employers may not lawfully withhold or deduct for Social Security, Medicare, etc. Individual Taxpayer Identification Numbers are FORBIDDEN for use in participating in such benefits. See:
- 7.1. IRS Publication 1915: Understanding Your IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number \(ITIN\)
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/PropertyPrivacy/NumericalID/p1915.pdf>
- 7.2. About SSNs and TINs on Government Forms and Correspondence, Form #05.012
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
8. You will be a statutory "non-resident non-person" and a Constitutional but not Statutory Citizen as described in the following forms:
- 8.1. Non-Resident Non-Person Position, Form #05.020
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
- 8.2. Tax Form Attachment, Form #04.201
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
- 8.3. Affidavit of Citizenship, Domicile, and Tax Status, Form #02.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
9. It will be a CRIME in violation of 18 U.S.C. §911, 18 U.S.C. §912, and 18 U.S.C. §654 for either you or the government to claim that you are any of the following or to file information returns implying these statuses:
- 9.1. A "taxpayer" as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(14).
- 9.2. An "individual" or "person" under the Internal Revenue Code.
- 9.3. A statutory "U.S. citizen" as defined in 8 U.S.C. §1401.
- 9.4. A statutory "U.S. resident" as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(4).
10. If you want to file a tax return for any given year, you must file one of the following forms or an amended version thereof that you have made yourself.
- 10.1. Federal Nonresident Nonstatutory Claim For Return of Funds Unlawfully Paid to the Government-Long, Form #15.001

10.2.2. Affidavit of Citizenship, Domicile, and Tax Status, Form #02.001

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

11. You will be a PRIVATE human being, a “transient foreigner”, and not a “person” or “individual” who is immune from federal civil law as a foreign sovereign who is protected by the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. Chapter 97 and the Minimum Contacts Doctrine. If you want to litigate in defense of your rights, the only place you can go is a de jure, constitutional state court using the common law and NOT statutory law. Statutory civil law, in fact, can and does apply almost exclusively to government public officers and statutory “employees” as defined in 5 U.S.C. §2105 and not to private human beings. By the admission of no less than the U.S. Supreme Court, government has no jurisdiction over PRIVATE conduct, and the Constitution can and does protect ONLY private conduct. This is exhaustively confirmed by:

Some people have asked us for a way to measure their progress and continue to improve AFTER completing the above process. They want a study plan and checklist for improving their legal knowledge and progress. We suggest the following approach for such a situation:

1. Study the materials in our Liberty University in the sequence they are presented. You may wish to print out the table of contents of the Liberty University and put check marks next to the things you have studied or read. To visit our Liberty University, go to:

SEDm Liberty University

<http://sedm.org/LibertyU/LibertyU.htm>

2. Our site has two master indexes of all of the publications, pleadings, and forms available. You may wish to use these resources as a checklist to keep track of things you have read, the version you have read, and any changes since you read that version. See the following:

2.1. SEDm Resource Index, Form #01.008

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

2.2. SEDm Resource Revision History, Form #01.009

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

3. If you wish to minimize the amount of time you spend keeping up to date, we recommend using the following resources to locate changes we have made to publications you may have already read. This allows you to review only the changes without having to reread the ENTIRE document. Some of our documents can be time consuming to read and we don’t want to force you to reread the entire document to stay up to date.

3.1. Site Activity-shows all updates to forum topics. Must be logged in to view. Basic Members can use this.

<http://sedm.org/participate/activity/>

3.2. SEDm Forums, Forum #1.1: Website Updates-lists changes to the website in date sequence.

<http://sedm.org/forums/>

3.3. SEDm Resource Revision History, Form #01.009-contains a detailed, chronological list of all the specific changes to each form, publication, and resource on our website.

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

3. Maintaining and Improving Defense of Your Freedom and Sovereignty Beyond the Basic Checklist

*“But he who looks into the perfect law of liberty [God’s law] and continues in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work, this one will be blessed [by the Lord Himself] in what he does.”
[James 1:25, Bible, NKJV]*

*“If you abide in My [God’s] word, you are My disciples indeed. And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.”
[Jesus in John 8:31-32, Bible, NKJV]*

Once you have completed the steps to freedom earlier in section 2, do the following to maintain and protect the sovereignty you established above:

1. Turn off the TV. It's mental junk food and poison.

"Teach me, O LORD, the way of Your statutes [law].
And I shall keep it to the end.
Give me understanding, and I shall keep Your law;
Indeed, I shall observe it with my whole heart.
Make me walk in the path of Your commandments,
For I delight in it.
Incline my heart to Your testimonies,
And not to covetousness.
Turn away my eyes from looking at worthless things [TV].
And revive me in Your way.
Establish Your word to Your servant,
Who is devoted to fearing You.
Turn away my reproach [the corrupted government] which I dread,
For Your judgments are good.
Behold, I long for Your precepts;
Revive me in Your righteousness."
[Psalm 119:33-40, Bible, NKJV]

2. Connect to media sources that tell the WHOLE truth. The current corporate media publishes biased and deceptive propaganda about freedom and government corruption subjects. The link below has a lot of unbiased sources that you should rely upon:

Family Guardian Website: Media and Intelligence Topic
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/MediaIntell/mediaintell.htm>

3. Dedicate yourself to diligently learning how to stay free and sovereign by reading the free materials in the Liberty University at the address below. The price of liberty is eternal vigilance and the main reason people get hurt is because of their own ignorance. Education is the ONLY thing they can't take away from you in the end:

<http://sedm.org/LibertyU/LibertyU.htm>

4. Mature your Christian faith. Modern privileged churches have been gagged by I.R.C. §501(c)(3) status from addressing the subject of the proper Biblical relationship between Christians and Churches, on the one hand, and the government on the other hand. Balance your Christian education by studying the following resources and subjects:

- 4.1. Read the following document, which exposes common false beliefs within most Christian churches:

Policy Document: Corruption Within Modern Christianity, Form #08.012
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 4.2. Listen to the sermons on our website:

<http://sedm.org/Sermons/Sermons.htm>

- 4.3. Visit our Pastor's Corner:

Nike Insights-Pastor Stockton
<http://nikeinsights.famguardian.org>

- 4.4. Chalcedon Foundation Website:

<http://chalcedon.edu>

- 4.5. The nature of the Bible NOT as a history book, but a LAW book that applies to ALL, not just to the Israelites. See:

- 4.5.1. Bible Law Course, Form #12.015

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 4.5.2. The Institutes of Biblical Law, Rousas Rushdoony, Library of Congress Catalog Number 72-79485, 1973 available at <http://chalcedon.edu>

- 4.6. How to use the Bible as a law book in the everyday affairs of life. See:

Laws of the Bible, Form #13.001

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 4.7. The proper relationship of Christians to the government. See:

Delegation of Authority Order from God to Christians, Form #13.007
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 4.8. The proper relationship of churches to the government. See:

What Pastors and Clergy Need to Know About Government and Taxation Course, Form #12.006
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

5. Learn how to use the valuable Legal Research Sources page to locate statutes, regulations, cases, etc. so that you can competently verify everything we say in all of our publications and also challenge false statements by judges and government prosecutors. This link also appears at the top of our Litigation Tools page:

Legal Research Sources, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/LegalRef/LegalResrchSrc.htm>

6. Get an account on a legal research service and teach yourself how to locate statutes, regulations, and cases, etc. just like your government opponents do. Candidates include the following. Of the choices, Versus Law is the least expensive and a very good start for those who don't practice law full time:

6.1. Fastcase: <http://fastcase.com>. Plans cost $65/mo. or $100/mo.

6.2. Lois Law: <http://www.loislawschool.com/>

6.3. Lexis-Nexis: <http://www.lexisnexis.com/>

6.4. TheLaw.net: <http://theleaw.net>. $575/year for a single person. Our personal favorite. Uses the Fastcase search engine but costs half of what Fastcase costs.

6.5. Versus Law: <http://versuslaw.com>. Plans cost $13.95/mo.; $24.95/mo., and $39.95/mo. Best service for those who don't have a lot of money to spend but who want good database coverage without frills.

6.6. Westlaw: <http://westlaw.com>

7. Develop a broad understanding of all freedom subjects. Taxes are only a very small part of the total corruption of the government. Below are some resources on this subject:

7.1. Recommended Reading and Viewing, Family Guardian Website:

<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Education/RecReadingAndViewing.htm>

7.2. Family Guardian Website: Sovereignty and Freedom Page:

<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Freedom/Freedom.htm>

8. Whenever anyone tries to allege that any federal law imposes any kind of "duty" upon you, DEMAND that they produce either the statute and the implementing regulation published in the Federal Register OR proof that you are a federal instrumentality exempt from the requirement for implementing regulations published in the Federal Register as required by the following:

Federal Enforcement Authority Within States of the Union, Form #05.032
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

9. If called upon to respond to a tax collection or other government enforcement action, ensure that you carefully avoid all of the flawed arguments documented in the pamphlet below or you may be penalized or sanctioned for entertaining "frivolous" arguments:

Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid, Form #08.004
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

4. Basics of freedom and sovereignty

4.1 Summary of the BASICS of Freedom

This section summarizes all the basics that you need to know to be free. The most important principles we want to emphasize throughout this document in order for you to protect and defend your status as free, Sovereign, and "foreign" but not "alien" in respect to a government that is obviously totally corrupted are that:

1. Freedom BEGINS with acknowledging the source of all freedom and sovereignty, which is God.

1.1. God is the Creator and owner of the entire universe. Deut. 10:14.

1.2. When God gave us a dominion mandate over the Earth, he lent us his property with conditions. Genesis 1:28. We thereby became trustees and fiduciaries over the Earth under the Bible trust indenture.

1.3. The Bible is a trust indenture that manages God's property, which is all of creation. It gives rise to duties on the part of us as His trustees. We call the Bible a delegation of authority order, and it delegates a portion of His sovereignty to us. We can therefore only be "sovereign" when acting under that delegation order. See:

Delegation of Authority Order from God to Christians, Form #13.007
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

1.4. Every duty under God's dominion mandate and Bible delegation order gives rise to a corresponding natural right.

1.5. Natural rights and corresponding duties toward God are inseparable. You can't have one without the other. Anyone who violates this requirement is a thief because they want something for nothing.

2. Freedom is the RESULT of accepting God's dominion mandate and delegation order and thereby taking complete, personal, and exclusive responsibility for ourselves and for the management of his property. He who is faithful in little, meaning their own property, is faithful in much, meaning God's property.
- 2.1. Both of the things the Serpent offered Eve in the Garden of Eden were limited liability and limited responsibility. See:

The Unlimited Liability Universe, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Spirituality/Articles/UnlimitedLiabilityUniverse.htm>

- 2.2. When Adam and Eve ate the fruit in the Garden of Eden, they both blamed someone else, which proved that all they really were interested in from the beginning was to avoid responsibility for obedience to God under his trust indenture as trustees.
- 2.3. The Serpent was ejected from the Garden like Adam and Eve because of INIQUITY of trading, meaning the abuse and destruction of the equal rights of others through commerce. Ezekial 28:16. InIQUITY and InEQUITY are synonymous. This is the same thing the Serpent government does now: Offer social insurance franchises and limited liability in exchange for EVERYTHING you own!

"By the abundance of your trading [corrupt and injurious commerce]
You became filled with violence within,
And you sinned;
Therefore I [God] cast you [Satan] as a profane thing
Out of the mountain of God;
And I destroyed you, O covering cherub,
From the midst of the fiery stones.

"Your heart was lifted up [ABOVE all others to become SUPERIOR] because of your beauty;
You corrupted your wisdom for the sake of your splendor;
I cast you to the ground,
I laid you before kings,
That they might gaze at you."
[Ezekial 28:16-17, Bible, NKJV]

- 2.4. To read the story of Adam and Eve, see Genesis Chapters 2-3.
- 2.5. God cursed the ground when sin occurred because he wanted man to work, be productive, and take responsibility. The problem and reward is always at the physical Earthly source of production.
3. We all start out equal. See the Declaration of Independence:
- 3.1. ALL your freedom in relation to any government or civil ruler BEGINS with equality. You cannot become free until you are EQUAL to government in the eyes of the REAL law or common law.
- 3.2. You can only become UNEQUAL or INFERIOR to anyone, including government, WITH your informed consent.
- 3.3. The basis for the Constitution is equal protection and equal treatment.
- 3.4. Being "sovereign" means being ABSOLUTELY and PERFECTLY equal to any and all governments and non-consenting humans.
- 3.5. Consent removes equality. It is a maxim of law that anything you consent to cannot form the basis for a remedy in court, which means all the protections of the common law are removed if you consent.

*"Volunt non fit injuria.
He who consents cannot receive an injury. 2 Bouv. Inst. n. 2279, 2327; 4 T. R. 657; Shelf. on mar. & Div. 449.*

*Consensus tollit errorem.
Consent removes or obviates a mistake. Co. Litt. 126.*

*Melius est omnia mala pati quam malo consentire.
It is better to suffer every wrong or ill, than to consent to it. 3 Co. Inst. 23.*

*Nemo videtur fraudare eos qui sciunt, et consentiunt.
One cannot complain of having been deceived when he knew the fact and gave his consent. Dig. 50, 17, 145."

- 3.6. If you previously consented to ANYTHING the government does, then the ONLY way you can restore your absolute equality in relation to that specific government is to REMOVE your informed consent.
- 3.6.1. The Declaration of Independence explains WHY we must do this:

1                   "When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have
2                   connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which
3                   the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they
4                   should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.
5                   Declaration of Independence, 1776; SOURCE: [http://www.archives.gov/exhibits/charters/declaration\_transcript.html]

6                   3.6.2. The above is why members must complete the process in section 2 of this document BEFORE they may be
7                   considered "sovereign" and therefore EQUAL to the government in court under the common law and not
8                   subject to the statute law. Civil statutory law is the equivalent of an employment agreement for federal
9                   instrumentalities. See Why Statutory Civil Law is Law for Government and Not Private Persons, Form
10                  #05.037. By withdrawing your consent, you quit your statutory "employee" or agent position within the 11                  government.

12               3.7. Withdrawing consent means:

13               3.7.1. Quitting any and all government franchises. This includes Social Security, Medicare, etc.

14               3.7.2. Abandoning all civil statuses to which public rights attach, such as "taxpayer" (under the tax code), "driver"
15               (under the vehicle code), "spouse" (under the family code), "resident" under the tax code, etc.

16               3.7.3. Correcting your civil status in government records to that of a STATUTORY "non-resident non-person"
17               RATHER than a STATUTORY "citizen", "resident", or "person".

18               3.8. Men are equal in their responsibilities and opportunities, but not equal in their abilities, competence, or outcome
19               of their efforts.

20               3.9. "Equal protection" as used by the courts:

21               3.9.1. "Equal Protection" does NOT imply that you can be FORCED to surrender your equality (in relation to the 22               government) to become STATUTORY "citizens" or "residents" subject to the civil law protection franchise.
23               It implies that you get to choose WHICH of the two systems of protection are best for you:

24               3.9.1.1. The civil statutory law in the case of PUBLIC OFFICERS called statutory "citizens";

25               3.9.1.2. The COMMON law in the case of exclusively private people.

26               3.9.2. "Equal protection" and First Amendment freedom of association requires that you MUST be able to choose
27               to be protected ONLY by the common law and NOT the statutory civil law. Anyone who tries to take away
28               that choice is literally destroying ALL your PRIVATE rights and replacing them with PUBLIC rights and 29               FRANCHISE PRIVILEGES. This is a violation of the Unconstitutional Conditions Doctrine of the U.S.
30               Supreme Court.

31               3.10. The quickest and easiest way to guarantee a loss of equality and sovereignty is to put yourself into a desperate
32               situation where you will lose your life if you don't acquire something from someone else. At that point of 33               desperation, you will give up anything and everything to preserve your life and thus become chattel of others.
34               For an example, see the story of the FIRST pyramid scheme in Genesis 47. In political language, the Genesis 47
35               story is called STEALING rights by creating emergencies.

36               3.11. To learn more about the legal requirement for equality of rights and treatment, see:

37               3.11.1. Foundations of Freedom, Video 1: Introduction, Form #12.021

40               <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

41               4. The only way you can lose your sovereignty, property, or equality lawfully to a de jure government under the operation
42               of civil statutory law is to consent to it.

43               4.1. The process of consenting removes any possible remedy for violation of rights beyond that point.

44               4.2. Consent circumscribes the boundary between a DONATION and THEFT.

45                   "Volunt non fit injuria.

46                   He who consents cannot receive an injury. 2 Bouv. Inst. n. 2279, 2327; 4 T. R. 657; Shelf. on mar. & Div. 449.

4.3. Consent to lose your property can be manifested:

4.3.1. DIRECTLY through written agreement or oral (parole) agreement.. OR

4.3.2. By “registering” the property such as when a vehicle is registered with the DMV.. . . OR

4.3.3. By using government/PUBLIC property in connection with otherwise PRIVATE property. It is a crime to use PUBLIC property for a PRIVATE purpose or benefit so when you mix PUBLIC with PRIVATE, one of them has to change character or a crime is being committed. For instance, by connecting PUBLIC SSNs and TINs to otherwise private property or PRIVATE transactions. This changes how the title is held and implicitly converts the PRIVATE property to PUBLIC property.

4.3.4. By consenting to a CIVIL STATUS as the property owner which adversely affects how TITLE to the property is held. For instance, consenting to hold title to the property as a public officer by VOLUNTARILY associating it with an SSN or TIN transmutes the property from ABSOLUTE ownership to QUALIFIED ownership in which the government shares ownership with the party consenting to the status.

5. There are THREE types of “rights”:

5.1. Public Rights.

5.1.1. Also called “privileges” or “franchises”.

5.1.2. Exist in relations between governments and their citizens or inhabitants.

5.1.3. Have domicile as a prerequisite. If you aren’t domiciled on the territory of the grantor of the right or representing an entity or person so domiciled, then you can’t exercise this right.

5.1.4. Created by Congress and therefore are owned and controlled by and “property” of Congress.

5.1.5. Created in civil statutes.

5.1.6. Attach to STATUS of people on the land, but not to the land.

5.2. Private Rights.

5.2.1. Exist in relations between human beings or between nonresidents and governments only.

5.2.2. Attach to land and not status, just like the Constitution.

5.2.3. Also called “natural rights”.

5.2.4. Protected by the Common Law and NOT statutory law.

5.2.5. Are litigated in a common law court in equity.

5.3. Constitutional Rights.

5.3.1. Exist between human beings and governments.

5.3.2. Acknowledged but not CREATED by the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

5.3.3. Attach to LAND protected by the constitution.

5.3.4. Both residents and nonresidents can litigate to defend this right in court.

6. There are TWO types of property: PUBLIC and PRIVATE.

6.1. PRIVATE property is property you own ABSOLUTELY and EXCLUSIVELY.

6.2. PUBLIC property is property the government owns or controls. The only property the government can own or control under the constitution are shipyards, docks, etc. There is nothing in the constitution that allows government to own land. Land was given to families, not to government or corporation. The Earth belongs to the Lord, and not Caesar. Psalm 24:1.

6.3. The foundation of ownership of property is the RIGHT TO EXCLUDE any and all others from using or benefitting from YOUR exclusively owned PRIVATE property.

6.4. Remedies for protecting property:

6.4.1. STATUTORY law protects ONLY PUBLIC property.

6.4.2. COMMON LAW and equity protects ONLY PRIVATE property.

6.5. There are TWO types of property ownership:

6.5.1. Absolute: Shared with no one and owned only by you.

6.5.2. Qualified: Shared with others.

6.6. To learn more about PRIVATE and PUBLIC property, read:

Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030, Section 3

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

7. How your property transmutes from PRIVATE to PUBLIC (government), often without your knowledge.

7.1. The purpose of establishing government is to protect EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE INDIVIDUAL rights and PRIVATE property.

7.2. The purpose of establishing government is to keep PRIVATE property and PUBLIC property separate and never allowing them to comingle or convert without the express consent of the owner. See:

Separation Between Public and Private, Form #12.025

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 7.1. Government only has jurisdiction over PUBLIC property. It cannot regulate or tax PRIVATE property. Otherwise, they are depriving you of the right to exclude THEM from “using or benefit from the use” of your PRIVATE property.
- 7.2. Any attempt to convert PRIVATE property to PUBLIC property without the consent of the PRIVATE owner is a taking in violation of the Fifth Amendment Takings Clause.

What is mine cannot be taken away without my consent. Jenk. Cent. 251. Sed vide Eminent Domain.

Id quod nostrum est, sine facto nostro ad alium transferi non potest.

What belongs to us cannot be transferred to another without our consent. Dig. 50, 17, 11. But this must be understood with this qualification, that the government may take property for public use, paying the owner its value. The title to property may also be acquired, with the consent of the owner, by a judgment of a competent tribunal.”

[Bouvier’s Maxims of Law, 1856;

SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviersMaxims.htm>]

- 7.3. Governments STEAL PRIVATE property by willfully confusing PRIVATE rights with PUBLIC rights and privileges. They will call PRIVILEGES such as Social Security, Medicare, etc. “rights” so that you will not be able to distinguish a right from a privilege, and therefore, not be able to exclude their control over PRIVATE rights.
- 7.4. All property is conclusively presumed to be PRIVATE until the government satisfies the burden of proving that you CONSENTED to donate it to the public.
- 7.5. The foundation of socialism is state ownership or control of all property.
- 7.5.1. That means one of the following in relation to the property:
- 7.5.1.1. ALL property is presumed to be PUBLIC and government owned, and CANNOT be treated as PRIVATE. . . .OR
- 7.5.1.2. Title to the property is held as a public officer called a “citizen” or “resident” or “taxpayer” and you are the equitable owner while they are the legal owner. This is how most property is held today and the use of the SSN/TIN in connection with title to the property is legal evidence of this relationship.
- 7.5.2. If you want to fight socialism, you have to insist on learning and enforcing the laws of PRIVATE property ownership.
- 7.6. The act of “registering” property transmutes ownership from ABSOLUTE to QUALIFIED and requires:
- 7.6.1. Informed consent of the original owner to lawfully transmute the ownership interest.
- 7.6.2. Notification and opportunity to NOT consent to the transmutation on whatever form does the transmutation. Otherwise, there is an illicit fraud being perpetrated on the original PRIVATE owner.
- 7.7. All government franchise privileges are PUBLIC property loaned by the government to the benefit recipient/franchisee.
- 7.8. The process of applying for a government “benefit” constitutes constructive consent to abide by the terms of a government civil franchise.
- 7.9. The borrower of government property is always servant to the lender. Prov. 22:7. Therefore, if you want to be free and NOT a servant of any government, you cannot apply for, accept, or use government property in connection with your otherwise PRIVATE financial transactions. For instance, you:
- 7.9.1. Cannot connect a SSN or TIN to a financial transaction without converting it from PRIVATE to PUBLIC and doing so ABSENT duress to use or disclose the number.
- 7.9.2. Must reserve all rights in all interactions with any government.
- 7.9.3. Must define all terms on all government forms to ensure that no property is either requested or loaned and no right accrue to the government.
- 7.9.4. Must turn every interaction with any government into a LOAN of exclusively PRIVATE property to the government which makes the government servant to you as the lender, rather than the other way around.
8. The purpose of government.
- 8.1. Governments are formed exclusively to:
- 8.1.1. Protect PRIVATE rights.
- 8.1.2. Promote “justice”.
- 8.2. A government that does not protect you from ITSELF or abuses its authority to convert PRIVATE property or PRIVATE rights into PUBLIC rights without the EXPRESS, DEMONSTRATED evidence of your consent to the conversion is no government at all, but instead is a:
- 8.2.1. Criminal protection racket. See:
- 8.2.1.1. Government Mafia-Clint Richardson

8.2.1.2. Top 10 Reasons Why the Mafia is Better than the State

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BiHGprxyA-0>

8.2.2. Sham trust rather than a “public trust”.

8.3. There are only TWO types of government:

8.3.1. Governments by consent. Do not enforce any civil obligation against you without your express consent in EACH specific case. Also called “de jure” government.

8.3.2. Terrorist government. Operate by force or fraud or both. Also called “de facto” government.

8.4. The sinful tendency of corrupt governments is to:

8.4.1. Protect ONLY their OWN property or PUBLIC property.

8.4.2. Make all property PUBLIC, sometimes deceptively without your consent or even knowledge. If they can control non-harmful uses of the property or take the property away, then THEY are the owner, not you. The essence of property “ownership” is in fact to control who can benefit from or use the property and to deny the use by others.

8.4.3. Destroy or dilute your ownership interest and undermine your right to exclude others, including governments, from benefitting from the use of your property.

8.5. The purpose of law is to provide remedies and recompense for violation of equal rights and loss of property.

8.6. The purpose of government is to identify, isolate, ostracize, instruct, and punish those who injure others. In that sense, it cleanses society of injury. Note that its job is NOT to punish “law breakers”, because laws that punish malum prohibitum offenses that don’t injure others are unjust.

8.7. The American government is based exclusively upon delegated authority and private property.

8.7.1. You can’t delegate what you don’t have.

The power which is derived cannot be greater than that from which it is derived.”

[Bouvier’s Law Dictionary Unabridged, 8th Edition, pg. 2131]

“Quod per me non possum, nec per alium.”<sup>2</sup>

What I cannot do in person, I cannot do through the agency of another.”

[Bouvier’s Law Dictionary Unabridged, 8th Edition, pg. 2159]

8.7.2. The collective can have no more rights or authority than a single man, because their collective authority came from your individual authority.

8.7.3. To suggest that the collective authority is GREATER than individual authority is indirectly to advance the notion that the power of government has a “supernatural” or “superior” source and is the object of idolatry.

8.7.4. A government of delegated authority can therefore have no more authority than a single human.

8.7.5. Any violation of these rules imputes supernatural powers to government, turns government into a religion, and produces INEQUALITY, SERVITUDE, SLAVERY, and TYRANNY.

8.8. The foundation of a republican government is PRIVATE INDIVIDUAL rights and PRIVATE property in which compelled participation in any government franchise is a CRIME.

8.9. You can only become UNEQUAL or INFERIOR to government WITH your consent.

8.10. Taxes collected by any government that are used for wealth transfer or which are paid to private persons are legally defined as THEFT, not taxation:

“To lay, with one hand, the power of the government on the property of the citizen, and with the other to bestow it upon favored individuals to aid private enterprises and build up private fortunes, is none the less a robbery because it is done under the forms of law and is called taxation. This is not legislation. It is a decree under legislative forms.”

“Nor is it taxation. ‘A tax,’ says Webster’s Dictionary, ‘is a rate or sum of money assessed on the person or property of a citizen by government for the use of the nation or State.’ ‘Taxes are burdens or charges imposed by the Legislature upon persons or property to raise money for public purposes.’ Cooley, Const. Lim., 479.”

8.11. “Justice” is the main goal of any government:

1 "Justice is the end of government. It is the end of civil society. It ever has been, and ever will be pursued, until it be
2 obtained, or until liberty be lost in the pursuit."
3 [The Federalist No. 51 (1788), James Madison]

4 "With all [our] blessings, what more is necessary to make us a happy and a prosperous people? Still one thing more,
5 fellow citizens--a wise and frugal Government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another, shall leave them
6 otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not take from the mouth of labor
7 the bread it has earned. This is the sum of good government, and this is necessary to close the circle of our felicities."
8 [Thomas Jefferson: 1st Inaugural, 1801. ME 3:320]

9 8.12. "Justice" is legally defined as the right to be left alone.

10 PAULSEN, ETHICS (Thilly's translation), chap. 9.

11 "Justice, as a moral habit, is that tendency of the will and mode of conduct which refrains from disturbing the lives
12 and interests of others, and, as far as possible, hinders such interference on the part of others. This virtue springs from 13 the individual's respect for his fellows as ends in themselves and as his co equals. The different spheres of interests may 14 be roughly classified as follows: body and life; the family, or the extended individual life; property, or the totality of the 15 instruments of action; honor, or the ideal existence; and finally freedom, or the possibility of fashioning one's life as an
16 end in itself. The law defends these different spheres, thus giving rise to a corresponding number of spheres of rights,
17 each being protected by a prohibition. . . . To violate the rights, to interfere with the interests of others, is injustice. All
18 injustice is ultimately directed against the life of the neighbor; it is an open avowal that the latter is not an end in itself,
19 having the same value as the individual's own life. The general formula of the duty of justice may therefore be stated as 20 follows: Do no wrong yourself, and permit no wrong to be done, so far as lies in your power; or, expressed positively:
21 Respect and protect the right."
22 [Readings on the History and System of the Common Law, Second Edition, 1925, Roscoe Pound, p. 2]

23 8.13. The Constitution protects your right to be left alone by government.

24 "The makers of our Constitution undertook to secure conditions favorable to the pursuit of happiness. They recognized
25 the significance of man's spiritual nature, of his feelings and of his intellect. They knew that only a part of the pain,
26 pleasure and satisfactions of life are to be found in material things. They sought to protect Americans in their beliefs,
27 their thoughts, their emotions and their sensations. They conferred, as against the Government, the right to be let alone
28 - the most comprehensive of rights and the right most valued by civilized men."
29 [Olmstead v. United States, 277 U.S. 438, 478 (1928) (Brandeis, J., dissenting); see also Washington v. Harper, 494
30 U.S. 210 (1990)]

31 8.14. The sole function of "justice" in courts of "justice" is to provide remedies for injuries AFTER they occur, not to 32 proactively prevent harm or to promote some arbitrary "public good".

33 "The sole end, for which mankind are warranted, individually or collectively... in interfering with the liberty of action of 34 any of their number, is self-protection."
35 [John Stewart Mill, On Liberty, p. 223]

36 "Do not strive with [or try to regulate or control or enslave] a man without cause, if he has done you no harm."
37 [Prov. 3:30, Bible, NKJV]

38 8.15. Courts which switch from remediating harm to promoting good are not Constitutional courts, but rather franchise
39 courts in the Executive Branch acting in a political rather than legal capacity.

40 8.16. Executive Branch courts are the WORST POSSIBLE threat to your liberty, according to the person who designed 41 our three branch system of government:

42 "When the legislative and executive powers are united in the same person, or in the same body of magistrates, there
43 can be no liberty; because apprehensions may arise, lest the same monarch or senate should enact tyrannical laws, to 44 execute them in a tyrannical manner.

45 Again, there is no liberty, if the judiciary power be not separated from the legislative and executive. Were it joined 46 with the legislative, the life and liberty of the subject would be exposed to arbitrary control; for the judge would be then
47 the legislator. Were it joined to the executive power, the judge might behave with violence and oppression [sound 48 familiar?].

49 There would be an end of everything, were the same man or the same body, whether of the nobles or of the people, to
50 exercise those three powers, that of enacting laws, that of executing the public resolutions, and of trying the causes of 51 individuals."

52 [...]

In what a situation must the poor subject be in those republics! The same body of magistrates are possessed, as executors of the laws, of the whole power they have given themselves in quality of legislators. They may plunder the state by their general determinations; and as they have likewise the judiciary power in their hands, every private citizen may be ruined by their particular decisions.
[The Spirit of Laws, Charles de Montesquieu, 1758, Book XI, Section 6;
SOURCE: http://famguardian.org/Publications/SpiritOfLaws/sol\_11.htm]

8.17. Civil rulers cannot civilly “govern” those who are EQUAL.

8.17.1. By “civil rulers” or “civilly govern”, we mean enforce the civil statutory codes against someone.

8.17.2. Civil rulers under God’s law order are servants for the greater good as only God defines it in the Bible trust indenture.<sup>3</sup>

8.17.3. Being governed and being a “subject” implies INFERIORITY.

8.17.4. Those who are absolutely equal are therefore “anarchists”, meaning without EARTHLY rulers.

8.17.5. A Christian is not an “anarchist” because they have a sovereign Ruler, but He is not “Earthly” or physical, but rather spiritual and legal ONLY.

8.18. When government seeks to civilly enforce against you, it MUST procure your consent to a civil statutory status that makes you unequal and a servant rather than an equal. Such statuses include “taxpayer”, “person”, “citizen”, “resident”, etc.

8.19. Anyone in government who seeks to enforce a duty upon you has the burden of proving that:

8.19.1. You EXPRESSLY consented to become UNEQUAL and INFEROR

8.19.2. You EXPRESSLY consented to the STATUS to which the obligation attaches, such a “taxpayer”.

8.19.3. You had the LEGAL CAPACITY to LAWFULLY consent because domiciled where your rights are NOT “unalienable”. An unalienable right is one that cannot be given up by any mechanism including consent.

[Black’s Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, p. 1693]*

9. The most prevalent mechanism used by governments to LAWFULLY convert PRIVATE property to PUBLIC property is government franchises or “benefits”.

9.1. Learn how franchises work!

9.2. All franchises are contracts or agreements.

9.3. Franchises are ENGINEERED and INTENDED to create inequality between the government grantor and the benefit recipient. The surest way to make one into a “subject” and serf of government is to sign up for a franchise or demand “benefits”.

9.4. All franchises are PRIVATE law that only acquires the “force of law” with the consent of the participant/applicant.

9.5. Application for the “benefit” constitutes consent to the franchise agreement.

9.6. Once a person consents to the franchise AND uses franchise privileges in connection with a transaction, the transaction becomes “PRIVATE PROPERTY donated to a PUBLIC USE or PUBLIC OFFICE to procure the ‘benefits’ of a franchise”.

9.7. If you want to be free, you should quit franchises.

9.8. Rights conveyed by franchises are called “PUBLIC rights” or “privileges”.

9.9. IMPORTANT:

9.9.1. PUBLIC rights and “privileges” attach to statutory “status” under a franchise. For example, “citizen”, “resident”, “taxpayer”, “driver”, “spouse”, etc.

9.9.2. All CONSTITUTIONAL rights attach to LAND and NOT to the status of the people ON the land.

9.10. There are only two ways that governments can civilly reach outside their territory to reach people: debt and contract:

Debt and contract [franchise agreement, in this case] are of no particular place.

<sup>3</sup> “You know that those who are considered rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. Yet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you shall be your servant. And whoever of you desires to be first shall be slave of all. For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many.”

[Jesus in Mark 10:42-45, Bible, NKJV]

9.10.1. Franchises, which are contracts or agreements. They are the main method by which government reaches civilly outside their exclusive jurisdiction to legislatively foreign jurisdictions and enslaves those IN those jurisdictions. God says you cannot contract with any government Beast or civil ruler, and therefore He gave you no delegated authority under the Bible to become a government slave, serf, "citizen" or "subject". See Exodus 23:32-33, Judges 2:1-4, James 4:4.

9.10.2. The other method of reaching extraterritorially is debt. Debt is a product of contract and therefore a subset of contract. The Federal Reserve counterfeiting franchise SCAM implements this second method. God forbids believers to borrow and therefore they ALSO have no delegated authority to satisfy the SECOND method of reaching outside the exclusive jurisdiction of government either. See: Deut. 18:12, Deut. 23:19-10. It is a sin not to repay or to loan with usury to brothers and sisters.

9.11. Government franchises have CIVIL DOMICILE on the exclusive territory of the government as a prerequisite. They can't be enforced extraterritorially.

9.12. Attempts by governments to offer or enforce franchises OUTSIDE their exclusive territorial jurisdiction:

9.12.1. Is an act of purely PRIVATE contracting and private business activity.

9.12.2. Is NOT a government function, but a BUSINESS function.

9.12.3. Functions essentially as INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL TERRORISM if the parties in the foreign state are financially or politically coerced to participate or become unequal.

9.12.4. Cannot be protected with sovereign immunity in the courts of the government granting the franchise, or else the government is abusing sovereign immunity to protect INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL TERRORISM.

9.13. To learn about franchises, see:

9.13.1. Government Franchises Course, Form #12.012

10. Civil statutory "codes" are a VOLUNTARY government civil franchise. This franchise is also called "the social compact" by the U.S. Supreme Court:

"Consensus facit legem.

Consent makes the law. A contract [or the CIVIL STATUTORY law, which is ALSO a compact and therefore a CONTRACT] is a law between the parties, which can acquire force only by consent."

[Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;

SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviersMaxims.htm>]

10.1. The franchise is called "domicile".

10.2. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17 describes when the statutory civil law can be applied to a case, which is ONLY when you CONSENSUALLY choose a civil domicile within the protection of a specific government.

10.3. Those who are party to the "domicile" protection franchise are called "citizens" or "residents".

10.4. Those who are not are called nonresidents or "transient foreigners". The Bible calls these people "strangers".

10.5. You can be a CONSTITUTIONAL "person" or "People" WITHOUT being a STATUTORY "person".

10.6. Government refuses to enforce the main "consideration" under the "domicile protection franchise", which is the obligation of police to protect you. Hence:

10.6.1. There is no "consideration" that could form the basis for an enforceable protection contract.

10.6.2. There is therefore no "contract" or mutual obligation on EITHER party's part.

10.6.3. There IS no government because there is no enforceable right to protection.

10.7. To learn more about government civil statutory jurisdiction, see:

Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Form #05.002

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

11. There are only TWO ways that government can enforce their CIVIL statutory rules/codes against you. All of these rules are documented in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b):

11.1. If you have a domicile on their territory.

11.2. If you are acting in a representative capacity as a "public officer" of the United States federal corporation described in 28 U.S.C. §3002(15)(A). This includes participation in any government franchise because all such franchises inevitably turn you into government agents and officers. See:

Another way of stating the above two rules is that whenever a sovereign wants to reach outside its physical territory, it may only do so using its right to contract with other fellow sovereign states and people. This is called “comity”. If you aren’t domiciled on their territory, they have to produce evidence that you consented to some kind of contract or agreement with them. This is consistent with the maxim of law that debt and contract know no place:

Debt and contract [franchise agreement, in this case] are of no particular place.

12. The only group of people the government can write CIVIL statutory codes or franchises for are its own agents, officers, and employees for the most part and NOT private people. The designer of our three branch system of government, Charles de Montesquieu, calls this “political law” in his famous work The Spirit of Laws. The courts call the audience for these statutes “state actors”.

[United States v. Harris, 106 U.S. 629, 1 S.Ct. 601, 27 L.Ed. 290 (1883)]

“All the powers of the government [including ALL of its civil enforcement powers against the public] must be carried into operation by individual agency, either through the medium of public officers, or contracts made with [private] individuals.”

[Osborn v. Bank of U.S., 22 U.S. 738 (1824)]

“The power to “legislate generally upon” life, liberty, and property, as opposed to the “power to provide modes of redress” against offensive state action, was “repugnant” to the Constitution. Id., at 15. See also United States v. Reese, 92 U.S. 214, 218 (1876) ; United States v. Harris, 106 U.S. 629, 639 (1883) ; James v. Bowman, 190 U.S. 127, 139 (1903) . Although the specific holdings of these early cases might have been superseded or modified, see, e.g., Heart of Atlanta Motel, Inc. v. United States, 379 U.S. 241 (1964) ; United States v. Guest, 383 U.S. 745 (1966) , their treatment of Congress’ §5 power as corrective or preventive, not definitional, has not been questioned.”

[City of Boerne v. Flores, Archbishop of San Antonio, 521 U.S. 507 (1997) ]

- 12.1. The U.S. Supreme Court even identified a statutory “citizen” as an AGENT of government! If you don’t want to be an agent of government and therefore an agent of what the Bible calls “The Beast” in Revelation 19:19, you can’t have a domicile within the civil statutory jurisdiction of the government.

“Under our own systems of polity, the term ‘citizen’, implying the same or similar relations to the government and to society which appertain to the term, ‘subject’ in England, is familiar to all. Under either system, the term used is designed to apply to man in his individual character and to his natural capacities -- to a being or agent [of government, also called a PUBLIC OFFICER!] possessing social and political rights and sustaining social, political, and moral obligations. It is in this acceptance only, therefore, that the term ‘citizen’, in the article of the Constitution, can be received and understood. When distributing the judicial power, that article extends it to controversies between ‘citizens’ of different states. This must mean the natural physical beings composing those separate communities, and can by no violence of interpretation be made to signify artificial, incorporeal, theoretical, and invisible creations. A corporation, therefore, being not a natural person, but a mere creature of the mind, invisible and intangible, cannot be a citizen of a state, or of the United States, and cannot fall within the terms or the power of the above mentioned article, and can therefore neither plead nor be impleaded in the courts of the United States.”

[Rundle v. Delaware & Raritan Canal Company, 55 U.S. 80, 99 (1852) from dissenting opinion by Justice Daniel]

- 12.2. The reason why governments cannot regulate PRIVATE rights or anyone other than their own PUBLIC officers or agents is that they are equal to everyone else. If you can’t regulate your neighbor without his or her consent, then they can’t regulate you without YOUR express consent. Therefore you are legislatively foreign, alien, and a nonresident to the government public office and civil statutory law franchise unless and until you EXPRESSLY consent to it. Without such consent, the Declaration of Independence says any attempt to enforce civil laws against non-consenting parties is UNJUST. That consent must at least come by selecting a domicile within that government AND accepting the OFFICE implemented within the civil statute called “person”.
- 12.3. Charles de Montesquieu, the designer of our three branch system of government stated that the POLITICAL law should not EVER be mingled with the CIVIL law or else tyranny will result. We have violated that requirement by turning the CIVIL law into the POLITICAL law and using it to regulate EVERY aspect of our behavior unjustly and in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment.

The Spirit of Laws, Book XXVI, Section 15

15. That we should not regulate by the Principles of political Law those Things which depend on the Principles of civil Law.

As men have given up their natural independence to live under political laws, they have given up the natural community of goods to live under civil laws.

By the first, they acquired [PUBLIC] liberty; by the second, [PRIVATE] property. We should not decide by the laws of [PUBLIC] liberty, which, as we have already said, is only the government of the community, what ought to be decided by the laws concerning [PRIVATE] property. It is a paralogism to say that the good of the individual should give way to that of the public; this can never take place, except when the government of the community, or, in other words, the liberty of the subject is concerned; this does not affect such cases as relate to private property, because the public good consists in every one's having his property, which was given him by the civil laws, invariably preserved.

Cicero maintains that the Agrarian laws were unjust; because the community was established with no other view than that every one might be able to preserve his property.

Let us, therefore, lay down a certain maxim, that whenever the public good happens to be the matter in question, it is not for the advantage of the public to deprive an individual of his property, or even to retrench the least part of it by a law, or a political regulation. In this case we should follow the rigour of the civil law, which is the Palladium of [PRIVATE] property.

Thus when the public has occasion for the estate of an individual, it ought never to act by the rigour of political law: it is here that the civil law ought to triumph, which, with the eyes of a mother, regards every individual as the whole community.

If the political magistrate would erect a public edifice, or make a new road, he must indemnify those who are injured by it; the public is in this respect like an individual who treats with an individual. It is fully enough that it can oblige a citizen to sell his inheritance, and that it can strip him of this great privilege which he holds from the civil law, the not being forced to alienate his possessions.

After the nations which subverted the Roman empire had abused their very conquests, the spirit of liberty called them back to that of equity. They exercised the most barbarous laws with moderation: and if any one should doubt the truth of this, he need only read Beaumanoir's admirable work on jurisprudence, written in the twelfth century.

They mended the highways in his time as we do at present. He says, that when a highway could not be repaired, they made a new one as near the old as possible; but indemnified the proprietors at the expense of those who reaped any advantage from the road.<sup>41</sup> They determined at that time by the civil law; in our days, we determine by the law of politics.

- 12.4. You cannot unilaterally “elect” yourself into public office. The state must ALSO give EXPRESS evidence of its consent to accept you as said public officer.
- 12.5. You cannot lawfully “bribe” anyone through tax withholdings to treat you AS IF you are a public officer. 18 U.S.C. §210.
- 12.6. You are not a public officer if you never took an oath.
- 12.7. You are not a public officer if you were not lawfully “elected or appointed”.
- 12.8. You are not a public officer if you gave your consent to become one but the government didn’t administer an oath and issue you an appointment document. See 5 U.S.C. §3331.
- 12.9. As long as you are acting under the authority or compulsion of any civil statute, you are regarded as a ‘state actor’ and officer of the government under the State Action Doctrine of the U.S. Supreme Court. Therefore EVERYONE who either claims the “benefit” of a statute or acts under the alleged authority of any civil statute is a “state actor” and therefore “state officer”, even if they have no legitimate authority to do so. The courts would say they are acting “under the color of law” and therefore are a “state actor”. The “private person” mentioned below who is under state compulsion of a statute in fact is NOT a “private person” and is therefore a public officer EXACTLY because of the legal compulsion they speak of.

For petitioner to recover under the substantive count of her complaint, she must show a deprivation of a right guaranteed to her by the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment. Since the 'action inhibited by the first section of the Fourteenth Amendment is only such action as may fairly be said to be that of the States,' Shelley v. Kraemer, 334 U.S. 1, 13, 68 S.Ct. 836, 842, 92 L.Ed. 1161 (1948), we must decide, for purposes of this case, the following 'state action' issue: Is there sufficient state action to prove a violation of petitioner's Fourteenth Amendment rights if she shows that Kress refused her service because of a state-enforced custom compelling segregation of the races in Hattiesburg restaurants?

In analyzing this problem, it is useful to state two polar propositions, each of which is easily identified and resolved. On the one hand, the Fourteenth Amendment plainly prohibits a State itself from discriminating because of race. On the other hand, § 1 of the Fourteenth Amendment does not forbid a private party, not acting against a backdrop of state compulsion or involvement, to discriminate on the basis of race in his personal affairs as an expression of his own personal predilections. As was said in Shelley v. Kraemer, supra, § 1 of '(t)hat Amendment erects no shield against merely private conduct, however discriminatory or wrongful.' 334 U.S., at 13, 68 S.Ct., at 842.

At what point between these two extremes a State's involvement in the refusal becomes sufficient to make the private refusal to serve a violation of the Fourteenth Amendment, is far from clear under our case law. If a State had a law requiring a private person to refuse service because of race, it is clear beyond dispute that the law would violate the Fourteenth Amendment and could be declared invalid and enjoined from enforcement. Nor can a State enforce such a law requiring discrimination through either convictions of proprietors who refuse to discriminate, or trespass prosecutions of patrons who, after being denied service pursuant to such a law, refuse to honor a request to leave the premises.<sup>40</sup>

The question most relevant for this case, however, is a slightly different one. It is whether the decision of an owner of a restaurant to discriminate on the basis of race under the compulsion of state law offends the Fourteenth Amendment. Although this Court has not explicitly decided the Fourteenth Amendment state action issue implicit in this question, underlying the Court's decisions in the sit-in cases is the notion that a State is responsible for the discriminatory act of a private party when the State, by its law, has compelled the act. As the Court said in Peterson v. City of Greenville, 373 U.S. 244, 248, 83 S.Ct. 1119, 1121 (1963): 'When the State has commanded a particular result, it has saved to itself the power to determine that result and thereby 'to a significant extent' has 'become involved' in it.' Moreover, there is much support in lower court opinions for the conclusion that discriminatory acts by private parties done under the compulsion of state law offend the Fourteenth Amendment. In Baldwin v. Morgan, supra, the Fifth Circuit held that '(t)he very act of posting and maintaining separate (waiting room) facilities when done by the (railroad) Terminal as commanded by these state orders is action by the state.' The Court then went on to say: 'As we have pointed out above the State may not use race or color as the basis for distinction. It may not do so by direct action or through the medium of others who are under State compulsion to do so.' Id., 287 F.2d at 755—756 (emphasis added). We think the same principle governs here.

For state action purposes it makes no difference of course whether the racially discriminatory act by the private party is compelled by a statutory provision or by a custom having the force of law—in either case it is the State that has commanded the result by its law. Without deciding whether less substantial involvement of a State might satisfy the state action requirement of the Fourteenth Amendment, we conclude that petitioner would show an abridgement of her equal protection right, if she proves that Kress refused her service because of a state-enforced custom of segregating the races in public restaurants.

12.10. You can be an “agent” of the government through contract, but that doesn’t automatically MAKE you a “public officer”.

12.11. Without public office LAWFULLY and CONSENSUALLY filled and exercised ONLY where expressly authorized by 4 U.S.C. §72, the federal civil statutory law cannot lawfully reach you because of the separation of powers doctrine. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b) requires that the legal “person” against whom civil enforcement can lawfully be instituted MUST have a domicile on federal territory. Therefore one of the following two conditions must exist before the federal civil law can lawfully reach YOU as a human being:

12.11.1. YOU have a physical domicile on federal territory OR 12.11.2. You represent a public office that is domiciled on federal territory.

12.12. Writing or enforcing the civil statutory codes against any other non-consenting party violates government’s fiduciary duty to protect PRIVATE rights and constitutes unconstitutional eminent domain without compensation. See:

Why Statutory Civil Law is Law for Government and Not Private Persons, Form #05.037
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

13. The Thirteenth Amendment outlawed slavery EVERYWHERE, including on federal territory. Therefore slavery is a crime both in states of the Union and on federal territory.

1       “. . . the Supreme Court in the Insular Cases <sup>4</sup> provides authoritative guidance on the territorial scope of the term "the
2       United States" in the Fourteenth Amendment. The Insular Cases were a series of Supreme Court decisions that
3       addressed challenges to duties on goods transported from Puerto Rico to the continental United States. Puerto Rico, like
4       the Philippines, had been recently ceded to the United States. The Court considered the territorial scope of the term
5       "the United States" in the Constitution and held that this term as used in the uniformity clause of the Constitution
6       was territorially limited to the states of the Union. U.S. Const. art. I, § 8 ("[A]ll Duties, Imposts and Excises shall be
7       uniform throughout the United States." (emphasis added)); see Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244, 251, 21 S.Ct. 770, 773,
8       45 L.Ed. 1088 (1901) ("[I]t can nowhere be inferred that the territories were considered a part of the United States.
9       The Constitution was created by the people of the United States, as a union of States, to be governed solely by 10       representatives of the States; ... In short, the Constitution deals with States, their people, and their representatives.");
11       Rabang, 35 F.3d at 1452. Puerto Rico was merely a territory "appurtenant and belonging to the United States, but not 12       a part of the United States within the revenue clauses of the Constitution." Downes, 182 U.S. at 287, 21 S.Ct. at 787.

13       The Court's conclusion in Downes was derived in part by analyzing the territorial scope of the Thirteenth and 14       Fourteenth Amendments. The Thirteenth Amendment prohibits slavery and involuntary servitude "within the United 15       States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction." U.S. Const. amend. XIII, § 1 (emphasis added). The Fourteenth 16       Amendment states that persons "born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are 17       citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside." U.S. Const. amend XIV, § 1 (emphasis added). The 18       disjunctive "or" in the Thirteenth Amendment demonstrates that "there may be places within the jurisdiction of the 19       United States that are not] part of the Union" to which the Thirteenth Amendment would apply. Downes, 182 U.S. at 20       251, 21 S.Ct. at 773. Citizenship under the Fourteenth Amendment, however, "is not extended to persons born in any 21       place 'subject to [the United States '] jurisdiction,' " but is limited to persons born or naturalized in the states of the 22       Union. Downes, 182 U.S. at 251, 21 S.Ct. at 773 (emphasis added); see also id. at 263, 21 S.Ct. at 777 ("[I]n dealing
23       with foreign sovereignties, the term 'United States' has a broader meaning than when used in the Constitution, and 24       includes all territories subject to the jurisdiction of the Federal government, wherever located." ). <sup>5</sup>
25       [Valmonte v. I.N.S., 136 F.3d. 914 (C.A.2, 1998)]

26
27       " That it does not conflict with the Thirteenth Amendment, which abolished slavery and involuntary servitude, except as a
28       punishment for crime, is too clear for argument. Slavery implies involuntary servitude—a state of bondage; the 29       ownership of mankind as a chattel, or at least the control of the labor and services of one man for the benefit of 30       another, and the absence of a legal right to the disposal of his own person, property, and services [in their entirety].
31       This amendment was said in the Slaughter House Cases, 16 Wall. 36, to have been intended primarily to abolish slavery,
32       as it had been previously known in this country, and that it equally forbade Mexican peonage or the Chinese coolie
33       trade, when they amounted to slavery or involuntary servitude and that the use of the word 'servitude' was intended to 34       prohibit the use of all forms of involuntary slavery, of whatever class or name."
35       [Plessy v. Ferguson, 163 U.S. 537, 542 (1896)]

36       " Other authorities to the same effect might be cited. It is not open to doubt that Congress may enforce the Thirteenth
37       Amendment by direct legislation, punishing the holding of a person in slavery or in involuntary servitude except as a
38       punishment for a crime. In the exercise of that power Congress has enacted these sections denouncing peonage, and 39       punishing one who holds another in that condition of involuntary servitude. This legislation is not limited to the 40       territories or other parts of the strictly national domain, but is operative in the states and wherever the sovereignty of 41       the United States extends. We entertain no doubt of the validity of this legislation, or of its applicability to the case of 42       any person holding another in a state of peonage, and this whether there be municipal ordinance or state law
43       sanctioning such holding. It operates directly on every citizen of the Republic, wherever his residence may be."
44       [Clyatt v. U.S., 197 U.S. 207 (1905)]

45       13.1. Consequently, the government is without authority to write law that imposes ANY kind of duty or obligation
46       against you other than simply to provide remedy AFTER injuring the equal rights of others. That would be a 47       violation of the Thirteenth Amendment prohibition against involuntary servitude.

48       "The doctrine that each one must so use his own as not to injure his neighbor — sic utere tuo ut alienum non laedas
49       — is the rule by which every member of society must possess and enjoy his property; and all legislation essential to
50       secure this common and equal enjoyment is a legitimate exercise of State authority. Except in cases where property
51       may be destroyed to arrest a conflagration or the ravages of pestilence, or be taken under the pressure of an immediate 52       and overwhelming necessity to prevent a public calamity, the power of the State over the property of the citizen does not 53       extend beyond such limits."
54       [Munn v. Illinois, 94 U.S. 113 (1876) ]

Armstrong v. United States, 182 U.S. 243, 21 S.Ct. 827, 45 L.Ed. 1086 (1901); and Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244, 21 S.Ct. 770, 45 L.Ed. 1088 (1901).

Columbia. See Downes, 182 U.S. at 261, 21 S.Ct. at 777 (stating that the "mere cession of the District of Columbia" from portions of Virginia and Maryland did not "take [the District of Columbia] out of the United States or from under the aegis of the Constitution." ).

Love does no harm to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfillment of [the ONLY requirement of] the law [which is to avoid hurting your neighbor and thereby love him].
[Romans 13:9-10, Bible, NKJV]

"Do not strive with a man without cause, if he has done you no harm."
[Prov. 3:30, Bible, NKJV]

"With all [our] blessings, what more is necessary to make us a happy and a prosperous people? Still one thing more, fellow citizens--a wise and frugal Government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another, shall leave them otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not take from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned. This is the sum of good government, and this is necessary to close the circle of our felicities."
[Thomas Jefferson: 1st Inaugural, 1801. ME 3:320]

13.2. If someone is trying to abuse the authority of civil law to impose a mandatory duty upon you, then the only kind of law they can be enforcing is private or contract law to which you had to expressly consent at some point. The consent you had to give was your permission to assume the duties of a public office, because everyone to exercises the authority of the civil law is regarded as a "state actor" under the State Actions Doctrine of the U.S. Supreme Court. Your reaction should always be to insist that they produce evidence of your consent IN WRITING. This is similar to what the courts do in the case of the government, where they can't be sued or compelled to do anything without you producing an express waiver of sovereign immunity by THEM. They got that authority and that sovereignty from you(!), because it was delegated to them by We The People, so you must ALSO have sovereign immunity. Your job as a vigilant American who cares about his freedom and rights is then to discover by what lawful mechanism you waived that sovereign immunity and the following document is very helpful in determining that mechanism:

Requirement for Consent, Form #05.003
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

14. A slave is someone who satisfies any one or more of the following:

- 14.1. With NO PRIVATE rights or PRIVATE property.
- 14.2. Who cannot exercise the most basic element of their ownership of their property, which is the right to EXCLUDE anyone and everyone, including the GOVERNMENT, from using or benefitting from the use of their PRIVATE property.
- 14.3. Who cannot ABSOLUTELY own PRIVATE PROPERTY. Instead, ownership is:
  - 14.3.1. Held exclusively by the government or
  - 14.3.2. Is QUALIFIED ownership in which the REAL owner is the government and the party holding title has merely equitable interest in the fruits.
- 14.4. Who is compelled to satisfy the obligations of a public office against his/her will. Such offices include the following statutory civil statuses and others:
  - 14.4.1. "citizen" (under civil statutory law).
  - 14.4.2. "resident" (under the domicile civil protection franchise).
  - 14.4.3. "taxpayer" (under the income tax franchise).
  - 14.4.4. "driver" (under the vehicle code franchise).
  - 14.4.5. "spouse" (under the family code franchise), etc.
- 14.5. Who is compelled to obey the civil statutory laws without evidence on the record that they EXPRESSLY consented to:
  - 14.5.1. A civil domicile within the EXCLUSIVE jurisdiction of said government.
  - 14.5.2. The office of "citizen" and were lawfully elected or appointed to that office with the proper oath.
- 14.6. Who can be unilaterally "elected" into public office as a PRIVATE human through a false third party information return, such as IRS Forms W-2, 1042-S, or 1099.
- 14.7. Who is not allowed to challenge third party information returns that elect them into the "public office" called "taxpayer".
- 14.8. Who can be connected with any statutory status in civil franchises or civil law to which public rights attach without their EXPRESS WRITTEN consent. This is a Fifth Amendment taking without compensation, a violation of the right to contract and associate, and a conversion of PRIVATE property to PUBLIC property.
- 14.9. Who is SOMEONE ELSE'S PROPERTY. That property is called a "person", "taxpayer" (under the tax code), "driver", "spouse" (under the family code). You volunteered to become someone else's property by invoking these statuses, which are government property.

- 14.10. Who is compelled to economic or contractual servitude to anyone else, including a government. All franchises are contracts. Therefore, compelled participation is compelled contracting.
- 14.11. Whose ownership of property was converted from ABSOLUTE to QUALIFIED without their EXPRESS written and informed consent.
- 14.12. Who is not allowed to EXCLUDE government from benefitting from or taxing property held as ABSOLUTE title.
15. You will never be free as long as you are conducting commerce with the government and thereby subject to their jurisdiction. All such commerce implies a waiver of sovereign immunity pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1605 and inevitably makes you into a slave and a serf of tyrants. Black's Law Dictionary defines "commerce" as "intercourse". This is the same "intercourse" that Babylon the Great Harlot is having with The Beast, which the Bible defines as the kings and political rulers of the earth in Rev. 19:19.

"Commerce. ...Intercourse by way of trade and traffic between different peoples or states and the citizens or inhabitants thereof, including not only the purchase, sale, and exchange of commodities, but also the instrumentalities [governments] and agencies by which it is promoted and the means and appliances by which it is carried on..."
[Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 269]

"Come, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot [Babylon the Great Harlot] who sits on many waters, with whom the kings of the earth [politicians and rulers] committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth were made drunk [indulged] with the wine of her fornication."
[Rev. 17:1-2, Bible, NKJV]

"And I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against Him who sat on the horse and against His army."
[Rev. 19:19, Bible, NKJV]

On the subject of not associating with a corrupted government, the bible says the following:

*"Come out from among them [the unbelievers and government idolaters]
And be separate, says the Lord.
Do not touch what is unclean [the government or anything made by man].
And I will receive you.
I will be a Father to you,
And you shall be my sons and daughters,
Says the Lord Almighty."*
[2 Corinthians 6:17-18, Bible, NKJV]

"And have no fellowship [or association] with the unfruitful works of [government] darkness, but rather reprove [rebuke and expose] them."
[Eph. 5:11, Bible, NKJV]

"But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law [man's law]."
[Gal. 5:18, Bible, NKJV]

"Shall the throne of iniquity [the U.S. Congress and the federal judiciary], which devises evil by [obfuscating the] law [to expand their jurisdiction and consolidate all economic power in their hands by taking it away from the states], have fellowship with You? They gather together against the life of the righteous, and condemn innocent blood [of "nontaxpayers" and persons outside their jurisdiction, which is an act of extortion and racketeering]. But the Lord has been my defense, and my God the rock of my refuge. He has brought on them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; the Lord our God [and those who obey Him and His word] shall cut them off [from power and from receiving illegal bribes cleverly disguised by an obfuscated law as legitimate "taxes".]"
[Psalm 94:20-23, Bible, NKJV].
QUESTION FOR DOUBTERS: Who else BUT Congress and the judiciary can devise "evil by law"?)

Nevertheless, God's solid foundation stands firm, sealed with this inscription: 'The Lord knows those who are His,' and, 'Everyone who confesses the name of the Lord must turn away from [not associate with] wickedness [wherever it is found, and especially in government].'"
[2 Tim. 2:19, Bible, NKJV]

"It shall be a statute forever throughout your generations, that you may distinguish between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean, and that you may teach the children of Israel all the statutes [laws] which the LORD [God] has spoken to them by the hand of Moses."
[Lev. 10:9-11, Bible, NKJV]

If you would like an excellent summary of the above concepts written by one of the Founding Fathers, see:

4.2 God's Religion v. Government's Religion<sup>6</sup>

The preceding section provided an itemized list of components of freedom. This section applies those concepts to compare God v. Government as competitors for the affection, worship, allegiance, and obedience of the people. Both implement religions of their own. Unfortunately, many Americans are fooled by government propaganda into joining and obeying the government's religion and thereby:

1. Committing the worst sin in the Bible, which is idolatry.
2. Serving two masters.
3. Firing God as their protector.
4. Bringing judgment, slavery, and subjection upon themselves.

Any attempt to treat any government as having more power, authority, or rights than a single human, in fact, constitutes idolatry. All corrupted governments abuse franchises to create and promote inequality as a way to profit personally and illegally. By doing so they are indirectly implementing a state-sponsored religion that "worships"/obeys the state rather than the true and living and only God.

The source of all government power in America is The Sovereign People, who are humans and are also called "natural persons". Any power that did not come from this "natural" source is, therefore "supernatural". All religions are based on the worship of such "supernatural beings" or "superior beings".

"Religion. Man's relation to Divinity, to reverence, worship, obedience, and submission to mandates and precepts of supernatural or superior beings. In its broadest sense includes all forms of belief in the existence of superior beings exercising power over human beings by volition, imposing rules of conduct, with future rewards and punishments. Bond uniting man to God, and a virtue whose purpose is to render God worship due him as source of all being and principle of all government of things. Nikulnikoff v. Archbishop, etc., of Russian Orthodox Greek Catholic Church, 142 Misc. 894, 255 N.Y.S. 653, 663."

By "worship", we really mean "obedience" to the dictates of a supernatural or superior being.

"worship 1. chiefly Brit: a person of importance—used as a title for various officials (as magistrates and some mayors) 2: reverence [obedience] offered a divine being or supernatural power; also: an act of expressing such reverence 3: a form of religious practice with its creed and ritual 4: extravagant respect or admiration for or devotion to an object of esteem <~ the dollar>."

[Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, ISBN 0-87779-510-X, 1983, p. 1361]

In this respect, both law and religion are twin sisters, because the object of BOTH is "obedience" and "submission" to a "sovereign" of one kind or another. Those in such "submission" are called "subjects" in the legal field. The only difference between REAL religion and state worship is WHICH sovereign: God or man:

"Obedientia est legis essentia.
Obedience is the essence of the law. 11 Co. 100."
[Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;
SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviersMaxims.htm>]

A quick way to determine whether you are engaging in idolatry is to look at whether the authority being exercised by a so-called "government" has a "natural" source, meaning whether any human being who is not IN the government can lawfully exercise such authority. If they cannot, you are dealing with a state-sponsored religion and a de facto government rather than a REAL, de jure government. The nature of that de facto government is described in:

Below is a table that compares God's Religion v. Government's Counterfeit Satanic Religion in the context of many of the subjects discussed in the preceding section so that you can see all the parallels. The sheer number of parallels between the two is astounding. Few people even consider these and are amazed when they see them for the first time:

59	Purpose of sex within church	Procreation	Recreation Fornication
60	Truth is	Absolute and sovereign	Relative to whoever is in charge (and whatever corrupted politicians will let even more corrupted judges get away with before they get removed from office for misconduct)

Isn't that interesting? The other thing you MUST conclude after examining the above table is that if anyone in government is a "superior being" relative to any human in the society they govern, then the government unavoidably becomes an idol and a god to be "worshipped" and submitted to as if the government or its servants individually were a religion. In the feudal system of British Common Law from which our legal system derives, they even call judges "Your Worship":

"worship 1. chiefly Brit: a person of importance—used as a title for various officials (as magistrates and some mayors) 2: reverence offered a divine being or supernatural power; also: an act of expressing such reverence 3: a form of religious practice with its creed and ritual 4: extravagant respect or admiration for or devotion to an object of esteem <~ the dollar>."

We started with a government of law and not of men but we ended up with the opposite because of our apathy and ignorance:

"The government of the United States has been emphatically termed a government of laws, and not of men. It will certainly cease to deserve that high appellation, if the laws furnish no remedy for the violation of a vested legal right."
[Marbury v. Madison, 5 U.S. 137, 1 Cranch 137, 2 L.Ed. 60 (1803)]

A government run by judges, instead of law is called a "kritarchy". Such a government is described as a government of men and not of law. Since judges are also "public servants", then a "kritarchy" also qualifies as a "dulocracy":

"Dulocracy. A government where servants and slaves have so much license and privilege that they domineer."
[Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 501]

The book of Judges in the Bible shows what happens to a culture that trusts in man and the flesh and their own feelings rather than in God's law for their sense of justice and morality. Below is an excerpt from our Bible introducing the book of Judges to make the moral lessons contained in the book crystal clear:

The Book of Judges stands in stark contrast to Joshua. In Joshua an obedient people conquered the land through trust in the power of God. In Judges, however, a disobedient and idolatrous people are defeated time and time again because of their rebellion against God.

In seven distinct cycles of sin to salvation, Judges shows how Israel had set aside God's law and in its place substituted "what was right in his own eyes" (21:25). The recurring result of abandonment from God's law is corruption from within and oppression from without. During the nearly four centuries spanned by this book, God raises up military champions to throw off the yoke of bondage and to restore the nation to pure worship. But all too soon the "sin cycle" begins again as the nation's spiritual temperance grows steadily colder.

The Book of Judges could also appropriately be titled "The Book of Failure."

Deterioration (1:1-3:4). Judges begins with short-lived military successes after Joshua's death, but quickly turns to the repeated failure of all the tribes to drive out their enemies. The people feel the lack of a unified central leader, but the primary reasons for their failure are a lack of faith in God and lack of obedience to Him (2:1-2). Compromise leads to conflict and chaos. Israel does not drive out the inhabitants (1:21, 27, 29, 30); instead of removing the moral cancer [IRS, Federal Reserve?] spread by the inhabitants of Canaan, they contract the disease. The Canaanite gods [money, sex, covetousness] literally become a snare to them (2:3). Judges 2:11-23 is a microcosm of the pattern found in Judges 3-16.

Deliverance (3:5-16:31). In verses 3:5 through 16:31 of the Book of Judges, seven apostasies (fallings away from God) are described, seven servitudes, and seven deliverances. Each of the seven cycles has five steps: sin, servitude, supplication, salvation, and silence. These also can be described by the words rebellion, retribution, repentance, restoration, and rest. The seven cycles connect together as a descending spiral of sin (2:19). Israel vacillates between obedience and apostasy as the people continually fail to learn from their mistakes. Apostasy grows, but the rebellion is not continual. The times of rest and peace are longer than the times of bondage. The monotony of Israel's sins can be contrasted with the creativity of God's methods of deliverance.

Depravity (17:1-21:25). Judges 17:1 through 21:25 illustrate (1) religious apostasy (17 and 18) and (2) social and moral depravity (19-21) during the period of the judges. Chapters 19-21 contain one of the worst tales of degradation in the Bible. Judges closes with a key to understanding the period: "everyone did what was right in his own eyes" (21:25) [a.k.a. "what FEELS good"]. The people are not doing what is wrong in their own eyes, but what is "evil in the sight of the Lord" (2:11). [The Open Bible, New King James Version, Thomas Nelson Publishers, Copyright 1997, pp. 340-341]

The hypocrisy and idolatry represented by a government of judges or of men rather than law not only violates the first and greatest Commandment in the Bible found in Exodus 20:3 and Matt. 22:37-38, but also more importantly violates the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution:

First Amendment:

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

How do government servants make themselves or the government they are part of into a "superior being"? Here are just a few highly unethical and evil ways:

1. Writing laws that apply to everyone but them.
2. Enforcing laws against everyone BUT themselves.
3. Abuse official, judicial, or sovereign immunity to make themselves exempt from all laws EXCEPT those the government individually and expressly consents to while refusing the ability of the average American to do the same thing.
4. Refusing to recognize or protect the First Amendment right of people NOT to be a CUSTOMER of the civil statutory protection called a "citizen" or "resident" and to thereby be protected ONLY by the common law rather than the civil law. This makes government essentially into a criminal protection racket in which "taxes" are really nothing more than a bribe to get criminals in government to CIVILLY leave you alone. Since justice is the right to be left alone, it also produces INJUSTICE. Government are nothing more than a "body corporate" whose only product is "protection". What other corporation can FORCE you to buy their product? A government founded to provide PROTECTION that won't even protect you from ITSELF has no business collecting monies to protect you from anyone ELSE.
5. Imputing to themselves more rights or methods of acquiring rights than the people themselves have. In other words, who are the object of PAGAN IDOL WORSHIP because they possess "supernatural" powers. By "supernatural", we mean that which is superior to the "natural", which is ordinary human beings.
6. Printing (counterfeiting) unlimited amounts of money to fund their socialist takeover of America while putting everyone else into jail for doing the same thing. This is the main purpose of the corrupt Federal Reserve.

7. Having a monopoly on anything, INCLUDING “protection”, and who turn that monopoly into a mechanism to force EVERYONE illegally to be treated as uncompensated public officers in exchange for the “privilege” of being able to even exist or earn a living to support oneself.
  8. Making judges, juries, or any decision maker into either federal benefit recipients or "taxpayers" in tax cases, thus making the judge and/or jury into criminals with a financial conflict of interest that makes it impossible to win against the government in any proceeding involving the violation of the tax or franchise codes.
  9. Abusing executive enforcement powers to "selectively enforce" against political enemies to protect their own self-interest rather than the interest of the average American.
  10. Lying with impunity in ALL of their publications and not being responsible for the accuracy of ANY of their government publications, and especially tax publications
  11. Forcing everyone who wants their help to sign under penalty of perjury with accurate and truthful information while not being EQUALLY accountable for doing the same when they communicate with the public.
  12. Enforcing laws outside their territory, thus abusing the legal system as an excuse to engage in acts of international LEGALIZED terrorism.
  13. Lying to or misleading a grand jury and not be held accountable for it because they would have to prosecute themselves if they did.
  14. Corrupt judges suppressing admission of evidence in court that is would undermine their power or control over society. This is especially true in cases against wrongdoers in government.
  15. Corrupt judges making cases unpublished where the government was litigated against and lost, thus preventing them from being cited as precedent.
- Nonpublication.com
<http://www.nonpublication.com/>
16. Corrupt judges threatening prosecuting attorneys with loss of licenses for corruption cases against themselves or anyone in government.
  17. Corrupt judges telling juries that they must rule in the case based on what the judge says is the law rather than based on a reading of the actual law. This substitutes the judge's will for what the law says, violates the separation of powers, and makes the judge into the judge, jury, and executioner and the people into SLAVES.
  18. Abuse of the legal system to terrorize and persecute Americans for their political activities or to coerce them into giving up some right that the law entitles them to. Most Americans can't afford legal representation and government abuses this vulnerability by litigating maliciously and endlessly against their enemies to terrorize them into submission and run up their legal bills. This makes their victims into a financial slave of an expensive attorney who is licensed by the same state he is litigating against, which imparts a conflict of interest that prejudices the rights of his client.

Sec. 1589. - Forced labor

Whoever knowingly provides or obtains the labor or services of a person -

(3) by means of the abuse or threatened abuse of law or the legal process.

shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than 20 years, or both. If death results from the violation of this section, or if the violation includes kidnapping or an attempt to kidnap, aggravated sexual abuse or the attempt to commit aggravated sexual abuse, or an attempt to kill, the defendant shall be fined under this title or imprisoned for any term of years or life, or both

By making itself a “superior being” relative to the people it governs and serves and using the color but not actual force of law to compel the people to pay homage to and “worship” and to serve it with their stolen labor (extorted through illegally enforced income taxes), Congress has mandated a religion, with all the many necessary characteristics found in the legal definition of “religion” indicated above, and this is clearly unconstitutional. The only way to guarantee the elimination of the conflict of law that results from putting government above the people is to:

1. Make God the sovereign over all of creation.
2. Make the people servants to God and His fiduciary agents.
3. Create government as a servant to the People and their fiduciary agent. Make the only source of government authority that of protecting the people from evil, injustice, and abuse.

There is no other rational conclusion one can reach based on the above analysis. There is simply no other way to solve this logical paradox of government becoming a religion in the process of making itself superior to the people or the “U.S. citizens”. The definition of “religion” earlier confirmed that God must be the origin of earthly government, when it said:

1 "Bond uniting man to God, and a virtue whose purpose is to render God worship due him as source of all being and principle of all
2 government of things."

3 One of our readers, Humberto Nunez, wrote a fascinating and funny article showing just how similar government and most 4 religions really are:

5 GOVERNMENT IS A PAGAN CULT AND WE'VE ALL BEEN DRINKING THE KOOL AID

6 By: Humberto Nunez

7 Government is a pagan cult. When you join the Armed Forces, the first thing they do is shave your head. Just like in many cults,
8 where they shave your head. The Army also uses sleep deprivation in Boot Camp, just like many cults do, to brainwash their people.

9 Secret Service Agents are willing to "die for their beliefs" (in defense of The President: their cult leader).

10 Many men say that they would "die for their country". This is a form of pagan Martyrdom for the pagan cult State.

11 Many today say that "religion has caused more war... " and blah blah blah.

12 But the fact is that governments send out draft cards, not churches. Governments started WWI and WWII, not religion. In fact,
13 during times of peace governments hate religion because religion is the governments' #1 competition for allegiance, and during 14 times of war, governments use religion for their own agenda.

15 Another similarity to cults: FBI Agents even dress similar to Mormons, and have the same type of haircuts. Many cults have a dress
16 code of some kind, just like in the Army, and even in the Corporate world.

17 When you join the Moonies you would probably end up selling flowers for them, and the Moonies will keep all the profits from the 18 work you do. When you work today, the pagan cult State takes your profits (in the form of income taxes), and they won't let you
19 leave their cult (the State). If you attempt to not pay your taxes, you would be arrested and branded a criminal.

20 Now, I did a little research into the symptoms and signs of a cult and found these 5 Warning Signs: (to distinguish a cult from a 21 'normal' religion)

- 22 1. The organization is willing to place itself above the law; this is probably the most important 23 characteristic.
- 24 2. The leadership dictates, (rather than suggests) important personal (as opposed to spiritual) details of 25 followers' lives, such as whom to marry, what to study in college, etc.
- 26 3. The leader sets forth ethical guidelines members must follow but from which the leader is exempt.
- 27 4. The group is preparing to fight a literal, physical Armageddon against other human beings.
- 28 5. The leader regularly makes public assertions that he or she knows is false and/or the group has a policy of 29 routinely deceiving outsiders.

30 Now, let's break these down one by one.

31 1. The organization is willing to place itself above the law; this is probably the most important characteristic.

32 Example: Death Penalty.

33 What is the purpose and intention behind State sponsored Death Penalty? The primary purpose and intention behind State
34 sponsored Death Penalty is not to deter crime, nor is it to be tough on crime. To understand the purpose and intent behind this, we 35 must study psychology, in particular, behavioral psychology; like in training a dog. To train a dog, one must use behavioral
36 modification techniques. For example, the primary purpose and intention behind anti-smoking laws is to get you to obey the State.
37 Before you can train a dog to kill, you must first train the dog to obey simple commands; like sit, and roll over. The same is true of 38 recycling laws. Glass bottles are actually much safer for the environment than plastic bottles. The primary purpose and intention 39 behind recycling laws is not to save the environment, it is a behavioral modification technique to get the people to obey the 40 Government.

41 Now, back to State sponsored death penalty laws. The primary purpose and intention behind Death Penalty laws is to get people
42 used to the idea that the State is above the law. It is illegal for people to kill and to murder. With State sponsored Death Penalty
43 laws, the State is Above the Law.

44 There you have symptom #1:

45 1. The organization is willing to place itself above the law; this is probably the most important characteristic.

2. The leadership dictates, (rather than suggests) important personal (as opposed to spiritual) details of followers' lives, such as whom to marry, what to study in college, etc.

I can give a dozen examples of this behavioral modification ploy of cults. Recycling and anti-smoking laws were two examples I explained above. Dictating the behavior of Americans today is pervasive throughout our entire society.

3. The leader sets forth ethical guidelines members must follow but from which the leader is exempt.

We can see this today very clearly when it comes to violence. Many Americans today are forced to attend Anger Management Courses while at the same time the State uses violence (like in the Iraq War).

4. The group is preparing to fight a literal, physical Armageddon against other human beings.

Three words: War on Terrorism

5. The leader regularly makes public assertions that he or she knows is false and/or the group has a policy of routinely deceiving outsiders.

I don't think that last symptom (of a cult) needs further explanation.

Well there you have it; the Government has all of the 5 major signs/symptoms of being a cult.

For the philosophy behind The Nature of Government I recommend this read:

http://www.apfn.org/apfn/nature\_gov.htm

It is A MUST READ for all Americans and all freedom loving peoples of the world. It is so good that if I start quoting from it, I'll just end up pasting the entire article here in my article. So I'll just leave it at that and say you the reader here MUST READ IT.

Now, the atheist says "Show me God." I say, "Show me government." I do not believe in the existence of government. Now hold your horses, I know that sounds silly at first, but let me explain.

Let's say you were on a ship full of people. Now the people in that ship went insane and started hallucinating, thinking that you were an alien from another planet and that you must be killed. If those people on that ship killed you, you would really be dead, literally. Just because of the reality of the consequences of that mass hallucination (you being dead) does not prove that you were really an alien. It just proves that the people were suffering from mass hallucination. So, just because the so-called 'government' can arrest you and put you in jail, that does not prove the existence of government. It just proves mass hallucination.

Let's start again now:

The atheist says "Show me God." I say, "Show me government." Now don't tell me the White House. That is not 'government'. That is a building. That's just as if I were to show an atheist a church (a building), that would not prove the existence of God.

Ok now, you might show me a Police Officer in uniform, and offer proof on how he can actually arrest me, to prove the existence of Government.

Well, I can show an atheist a priest in uniform, but that would not prove the existence of God. Even if Congress gave priests the authority to arrest people on the streets that would still not prove the existence of God to an atheist. Just like a cop in uniform does not prove the existence of government, it only proves that the people are suffering from mass hallucination.

People today are obsessed with the laws of the pagan-cult State. The Constitution, the Bill of Rights, etc. etc, people meditating day and night on the 'laws' of the pagan-cult State, as opposed to the Law of God. Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin, these men have become cult figures. They have replaced Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Noah, Moses, as the men of God to be pondered on and studied.

Sacrifice for Protection

In ancient times, people performed human sacrifice to their pagan false gods for 'Protection' from the gods. They believed their gods also played the role of 'Provider' by performing human sacrifice for rain for their crops for example.

Today, the U.S. Fed. Govt. is asking for "Sacrifice for Protection". The State today is now saying that the people must sacrifice their Freedoms and Liberties for 'Protection' from terrorism (demons, evil spirits, etc.) and that the State will then 'Provide' them with safety.

1 This is metaphorically a form of human sacrifice. It is not a human sacrifice where you literally kill someone (like in the Death
2 Penalty), but it is a "human" sacrifice. I mean, the State is not asking the animals to sacrifice their Freedoms and Liberties, it is
3 asking us humans, so it is a "human" sacrifice as opposed to an 'animal' sacrifice in that sense. Also, there is death involved; the 4 death of our Freedoms and Liberty.

5 By the way, State sponsored Death Penalty is another form of human sacrifice for the pagan-cult State, and State sponsored 6 abortion is a form of child sacrifice for this pagan-cult State.

7 Black Robes: Judges and Devil worshippers

8 Judges wear Black Robes just like Devil worshippers. The Judges' Desk is the Altar of Baal. They bring men tied up in handcuffs
9 before the altar (Judges' desk) and these men are for the human sacrifice and the entire court proceeding is a satanic ritual.

10 Sounds crazy? Is it a coincidence that the 'language of the court' is Latin (ex: Habeas Corpus) just like the 'language of a Catholic
11 Exorcism' is also in Latin? Lawyers speak Latin in the court room just like Priests use Latin when performing exorcisms when you
12 have a 'case' of full DEMONIC POSSESSION.

13 Also, the same type of 'respect' a Priest would expect from a visitor to his church is the same type of respect a Judge expects in his 14 court room. There's even a penalty for disobeying this 'respect'; it's called "Contempt of Court".

15 Another psychological conditioning behavior modification technique being applied on the American Public is this: Television shows
16 like Judge Judy, Judge Joe, all these People's Courts television shows. The primary intention and purpose behind these so-called 17 Court Room Justice shows is to condition the public to get used to entering a court room with NO Trial by Jury. In not one of any of 18 these types of shows do you ever see a Trial by Jury; that is not a mistake, it is intentional, and by design.

19 I can go on and on with this article and offer a million more details.

20 To conclude, if the U.S. Govt. plans to attack Iran, North Korea, etc. in the future. And if there is the possibility that this War on 21 Terrorism might lead to WWII. Then, that is nothing but pagan-cult MASS SUICIDE. And the U.S. Govt. is a pagan cult, and
22 WE'VE ALL BEEN DRINKING THE KOOL AID. [Does Jim Jones from Ghana ring a bell?]

23 Now, some readers of this article (especially neo-conservatives) would automatically brand me an Anarchist. I am not an Anarchist,
24 what I am questioning is the role of government. According to the Founding Fathers of America, the role of government was to 25 protect your Individual Rights. NOT TO TAKE THEM AWAY.

26 And finally, if the people will not serve God, they will end up serving and being slaves of government. I am sure many Christians
27 would believe this, and even some followers of eastern philosophies; for this is a form of 'Bad Karma'.

28 And, if man will not serve God, then woman will not serve man. This is also a form of 'bad karma' [and it may also explain why the 29 divorce rate is so high].

30 Another fascinating and funny article that helps to clarify just how God-like our government has become is as follows:

31 The Ten Commandments of the U.S. Government, Family Guardian Fellowship

32 I. I am the Lord of the Talmud, thou shalt have no Biblical God before me.

33 II. Thou shalt not make unto thee any but Satanic images: the witch, symbol of the city government and police department of Salem,
34 Massachusetts; the five-pointed occult pentagram of Sirius, of the state religion of Egypt, emblem of the Department of Defense and
35 our Armed Forces, and the badge of U.S. law enforcement at all levels; the pyramid of Pharaoh, capped by the all-Seeing Eye of 36 Horus, emblazoned on the currency in the denomination of one shekel.

37 III. Thou shalt not take the name of thy god in vain: thou shalt not blaspheme the name Rabbi, Israeli, Zionism, "U.S. government", 38 or any politician or agency.

39 IV. Remember the Wal Mart sale on the Sabbath Day, and keep it holy by spending. Seven days must thou labor, that thereby thou 40 shalt spend ever more.

41 V. Honor thy son and thy daughter. Neither spank nor say no to them when they seek to consume the sex and violence that is 42 dangled before them from every lawful venue. Thy daughter shalt dress like a cheap harlot from the age of eight onward, and thy 43 son shall engage in bloody video games, likewise from his eighth year. All of these are legal and profitable, saith the Lord.

44 VI. Thou shalt not kill the molester of 150 children in his prison cell, and thou shalt condemn the convict who executes the molester,
45 lest such justice be encouraged, and lest it be known that the convict had greater common sense and honor than a legion of our 46 judges.

VII. Thou shalt commit adultery and televise and popularize it throughout the land, and broadcast it into Afghanistan and Iraq, that thereby the Muslims shall be vouchsafed a share in our democracy and freedom.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal from us, for we detest competition.

IX. Thou shalt indeed bear false witness, for by perjury our Law is established.

X. Covet thy neighbor's goods and thy neighbor's wife, for thereby doth our Order prosper.

We'll bet you never even dreamed that there were so many parallels between Christianity and government, did you? I'll bet you also never thought of government as a religion, but that is exactly what it has become. The idea of making government a religion or creating false idols for the people to worship is certainly not new. Here is an example from the bible, where "cities" are referred to as "gods". Notice this passage also criticizes evolutionists when it says "Saying to.. a stone 'you gave birth to me.'". Evolutionists believe that we literally descended from rocks that evolved from a primordial soup:

*"As the thief is ashamed when he is found out,
So is the house of Israel ashamed;
They and their kings and their princes, and their priests and their prophets,
Saying to a tree, "You are my father,"
And to a stone, "You gave birth to me."
For they have turned their back to Me, and not their face.
But in the time of their trouble
They will say, "Arise and save us."
But where are your gods [governments] that you have made for yourselves?
Let them arise,
If they can save you in the time of your trouble;
For according to the number of your cities
Are your gods. O Judah."
[Jeremiah 2:26-28, Bible, NKJV]*

Leaders know that if you can get people to worship false idols and thereby blaspheme God with their sin, then you can use this idolatry to captivate and enslave them. For instance, in the Bible in 1 Kings Chapters 11 and 12, we learn that Solomon disobeyed the Lord by marrying foreign wives and worshipping the idols of these foreign wives. When Solomon died, his son Rehoboam hardened his heart against God and alienated his people. Then he fought a competitor named Jeroboam over the spoils of his vast father's remnant kingdom (1 Kings 12). The weapon that Jeroboam used to compete with Rehoboam was the creation of a false idol for the ten tribes of Israel that were under his leadership. This false idol consisted of two calves of solid gold. The false idol distracted ten of the 12 tribes of Israel from wanting to reunite with the other two tribes and worship the true God. To this day, the twelve tribes have never again been able to reunite, because they were divided by idolatry toward false gods. Here is a description of how Jeroboam did it from 1 Kings 12:25-33:

Golden Calves at Bethel and Dan

<sup>25</sup> Then Jeroboam fortified Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim and lived there. From there he went out and built up Peniel.

<sup>31</sup> Jeroboam built shrines on high places and appointed priests from all sorts of people, even though they were not Levites. <sup>32</sup> He instituted a festival on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, like the festival held in Judah, and offered sacrifices on the altar. This he did in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves he had made. And at Bethel he also installed priests at the high places he had made. <sup>33</sup> On the fifteenth day of the eighth month, a month of his own choosing, he offered sacrifices on the altar he had built at Bethel. So he instituted the festival for the Israelites and went up to the altar to make offerings.

Similar to Jeroboam, our present government conquers the people by encouraging them to become distracted with false idols. These false idols include:

1. Government. This translates into worship of and slavery to government through the income tax and an obsession with petitioning government to protect people from discrimination or punishment for the consequences of their sins, including homosexuality, dishonesty, and infidelity.
2. Money. They use this lust for money to divide and conquer and control families by getting them fighting over money within their marriage. They encourage people to get marriage licenses they never needed in order to get jurisdiction over the spouses and their assets, and then they make it so easy to get divorced that it becomes economically attractive to marry people for their money. This means that people get married for all the wrong reasons, and make themselves into slaves of the state in the process of using the state courts as a vehicle to plunder their partner using community property laws.
3. Sex. A fixation with sex, homosexuality, fornication, and adultery. People who are obsessed with anything, and especially sex, are far less likely to be informed about the law or vigilant about holding their government accountable.
4. Sports and television. People who are hooked on Monday night football or the latest host soap or sitcom aren't likely to be caught visiting the law library or reading the Bible as God says they should.
5. Materialism. This manifests itself in an obsession to acquire and keep "things".
6. Sin. In the past, the government outlawed gambling and lotteries. Now most states have actually institutionalized this kind of sin. The government holds lotteries and even advertises them. Indian reservations have become havens for legalized gambling.

Have you ever visited a doctor's office for minor surgery? What the doctor does is administer a local anesthetic to numb your senses in the area he will be cutting and operating on so you won't experience pain or feel what he is doing. The government does the same thing. Before they hook you up to "The Matrix" using their umbilical called the "income tax" to painfully suck you dry, they use a "local anesthetic" that numbs your senses and your discretion. This "local anesthetic" is the sin and hedonism and idolatry they try to get you addicted to and distracted with that they use to make you into a slave:

*"Most assuredly, I say to you, whoever commits sin is a slave of sin."
[Jesus in John 8:34, Bible, NKJV]*

Once you are a slave to your sin, you are far less likely to give them any trouble about being a host organism for the federal parasite that sucks your life and your labor and your property dry. They supplement this local anesthetic called "sin" with a combination of cognitive dissonance, lies and propaganda, ignorance generated by the public fool (school) system, and an occasional media report about how they trashed a famous person to keep you in fear and immobilized to oppose their organized extortion and racketeering. This trains you never to trust or respect your own judgment well enough to even conceive of questioning authority or challenging their jurisdiction.

*"Surely oppression destroys a wise man's reason.
And a [compelled] bribe [called income tax] debases the heart."
[Ecclesiastes 7:7, Bible, NKJV]*

The concept of government as a religion especially applies to the field of taxation. The Internal Revenue Code is 9,500 pages of very fine print. We know because we have a personal copy and read it often. Our own Former Treasury Secretary Paul O'Neill calls it, and I quote:

"9,500 pages of gibberish."

[See this quote in a news article at: <http://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/Evidence/OrgAndDuties/IRSExhibit-PaulONeill-IRSCo9500PgsofGibberish.pdf>]

How many people have taken the time to read the Internal Revenue Code in its entirety, and even among those very few people who have read it completely, how many believe that they fully and completely understand it well enough to swear under penalty of perjury that facts they reveal and statements they might make about their own personal tax liability would be completely consistent with it? If you don't meet these two criteria of having read it completely and often and having a full and accurate understanding about it that is truthful and consistent with its legislative intent, then any statement you make on a tax return that is based on your state of mind in that instance becomes simply a matter of usually misinformed or ignorant "belief". There's a good word for this condition of believing something without knowing all the facts. It is called "faith" and it is the foundation of all religions in the world!:

[Heb. 11:1, Bible, NKJV]*

Isn't "faith" based on a "belief" in something which you have not seen sufficient scientific evidence to prove? If you are like most Americans who have never read or even seen any part of the Internal Revenue Code, which is the only admissible "evidence" of the legal tax obligation for ONLY statutory "taxpayers", then any action you might take and any statement you might make regarding your tax "liability" under such circumstances could be rationally described only as an act of "faith" and "belief". Here's the legal definition of "faith":

"Faith. Confidence; credit; reliance. Thus, an act may be said to be done 'on the faith' of certain representations.

"Belief; credence; trust. Thus, the Constitution provides that 'full faith and credit' shall be given to the judgments of each state in the courts of the others.

Purpose; intent; sincerity; state of knowledge or design. This is the meaning of the word in the phrase "good faith" and "bad faith". See Good faith."
[Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 599]

Even when you hire an expensive professional to prepare your tax return, you still have all of the responsibility and liability for the content and the accuracy of the return and if the IRS institutes a penalty for errors or omissions, isn't it you rather than your tax preparer who has to pay the penalty? What exactly are you "trusting" (see the definition of "faith" above) when you sign a tax return and state under penalty of perjury that it is truthful without even reading or knowing or understanding the tax code? What you are in fact "trusting" is "man" or your "government". You are trusting what the IRS told you in its publications, right? Or you're trusting an ignorant and greedy and unethical tax lawyer or a misinformed accountant to tell you what your legal responsibilities are, aren't you? That is called trusting "man" because a man wrote those publications or gave you the advice that you formed your "belief" from. The Bible says we shouldn't trust men or a "worthless" government, and instead ought to trust only Him:

"Cursed be he that confirmeth not all the words of this law [God's Law, not Caesar's law] to do them. And all the people shall say, Amen."
[Deu 27:26, Bible, NKJV]

"Behold, the nations are as a drop in the bucket, and are counted as the small dust on the scales."
[Isaiah 40:15, Bible, NKJV]

"All nations before Him are as nothing, and they are counted by Him less than nothing and worthless."
[Isaiah 40:17, Bible, NKJV]

"Cursed is the one who trusts in man [or by implication man-made government], who depends on flesh for his strength and whose heart turns away from the Lord. He will be like a bush in the wastelands; he will not see prosperity when it comes. He will dwell in the parched places of the desert, in a salt land where no one lives. But blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord, whose confidence is in Him. He will be like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream. It does not fear when heat comes; its leaves are always green. It has no worries in a year of drought and never fails to bear fruit."
[Jeremiah 17:5-8, Bible, NIV]

Now if our government had stuck to its original charter to be "a society of laws and not men", then we wouldn't be forced to have to depend on "men" to know what our tax responsibilities are because we would be able to read the law ourselves without consulting an "expert" and KNOW what we are supposed to do:

"The government of the United States has been emphatically termed a government of laws, and not of men. It will certainly cease to deserve that high appellation, if the laws furnish no remedy for the violation of a vested legal right."
[Marbury v. Madison, 5 U.S. 137, 1 Cranch 137, 2 L.Ed. 60 (1803)]

If our government had remained honorable and honest, the laws would be simple and clear and short. Read the earlier tax laws: they are very short and easy to understand. These laws were KNOWABLE by the common man. The easiest way to make the law respectable is to make it short and simple enough so that every person can read and understand it. When it grows too large and/or too complicated to be knowable by every citizen, then at that point, we have transformed our society from a society of laws to a society of men, which is the root and the foundation of tyranny and the very reason we rebelled against English monarchs to form this country! That kind of corruption of our laws began starting in around 1913, shortly after the Federal Reserve Act and the Sixteenth Amendment were passed. At that point, our government became a gigantic parasite completely unrestrained by the Constitutional limits that had kept it under control. It became a socialist bureaucracy bent on destroying our liberties and making itself into a false god.

1 The IRS publications are the only thing that most Americans have ever read that even comes close to claiming to represent
2 what is in the real tax code found in the Internal Revenue Code. Because most people can't afford a high-priced lawyer or
3 accountant who understands the tax code completely, and don't have the time to read the entire IRC or buy and read a
4 comprehensive and complete book on taxes, then Americans in effect are economically coerced into relying on and having
5 a "religious faith" in the IRS publications as their only source to understand what the tax code requires. Add to that the
6 legal ignorance perpetuated in them by our government schools and you have additional government duress. Worst yet, the 7 federal courts have said that none of these IRS publications are credible and that they "confer no rights". Read the article
8 on our website about this scam because it will blow your mind!:

Federal Courts and the IRS' own IRM Say the IRS is NOT RESPONSIBLE for Its Actions or Its Words or for Following Its Own Written Procedures!, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Articles/IRSNotResponsible.htm>

9 Even the IRS says you can't rely on their own publications in their Internal Revenue Manual:

10 "IRS Publications, issued by the National Office, explain the law in plain language for taxpayers and their advisors... While a good
11 source of general information, publications should not be cited to sustain a position."
12 [Internal Revenue Manual (I.R.M.), Section 4.10.7.2.8 (05-14-1999)]

13 So once again, if you haven't personally read the entire Internal Revenue Code, don't understand it completely, or have
14 trusted the IRS publications, then your "faith" is ill-founded and in effect becomes "bad faith" because you are relying on a
15 completely unaccountable, criminal, and lawless organization called the IRS to define and fulfill your purported legal 16 responsibilities, and that can only be described as despicable, morally wrong, and biblically unsound:

17 "Bad faith. The opposite of "good faith," generally implying or involving actual or constructive fraud, or a design to mislead or*
18 deceive another, or a neglect or refusal to fulfill some duty or some contractual obligation, not prompted by an honest mistake as to
19 one's rights or duties, but by some interested or sinister motive. Term "bad faith" is not simply bad judgment or negligence, but
20 rather it implies the conscious doing of a wrong because of dishonest purpose or moral obliquity; it is different from the negative
21 idea of negligence in that it contemplates a state of mind affirmatively operating with furtive design or ill will..."
22 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 139]

23 You are not alone in your compelled depravity and violation of God's law because most Americans, including us, are just 24 like you. But you have to trust "somebody" on this tax subject don't you, because if you don't file the government is going
25 to go after you and penalize you, aren't they? So you are compelled to have "faith" in something, right? You get to choose
26 what that "something" is, but the result is a compelled "faith" or "trust" in "something" because of demands the 27 government is making on you to satisfy your alleged tax responsibilities.

28 Now if the Constitution says in the First Amendment that "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of 29 religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof", and yet the IRS tells you under the "color of law" that you have to in 30 effect trust or have "religious faith" in "something" in order to satisfy their criminal extortion under the "color of law", then
31 isn't the government in effect "making a law respecting the establishment of a religion"? When corrupt judges make 32 rulings on tax issues that violate the Constitution and prejudice our sacred rights, aren't they making law? Isn't this kind of 33 judicial activism called "judge-made law" and isn't Congress' failure to discipline such tyrant judges the equivalent of 34 allowing them to write law that will then be used as precedent in the future? Isn't the object of that "religious faith" and
35 "trust" that the government compels us to have the fraudulent IRS Publications directly, and the IRS who prepares them
36 indirectly? So in effect, if the income tax is indeed an "enforced" or "compelled" tax, then the government has established
37 "faith in the IRS" as a religion by the operation of law. And then the federal courts of that same government have turned
38 around and said that even though the only basis for most people's beliefs is the IRS publications, they aren't trustworthy
39 nor credible, and in fact, you can be penalized for relying on what the IRS told you in them! So you are in effect being 40 compelled to trust or have "religious faith" in a lie, aren't you? But then out of the other side of that same hypocritical and 41 criminal government's mouth, the U.S. supreme Court says:

42 "Courts, no more than the Constitutions, can intrude into the consciences of men or compel them to believe contrary to their
43 faith or think contrary to their convictions, but courts are competent to adjudge the acts men do under the color of a constitutional*
44 right, such as that of freedom of speech or of the press or the free exercise of religion and to determine whether the claimed right is 45 limited by other recognized powers, equally precious to mankind. So the mind and the spirit of man remain forever free, while his 46 actions rest subject to necessary accommodation to the competing needs of his fellows."

47 "If all expression of religion or opinion, however, were subject to the discretion of authority, our unfettered dynamic thoughts or 48 moral impulses might be made only colorless and sterile ideas. To give them life and force, the Constitution protects their use.

No difference of view as to the importance of the freedoms of press or religion exist. They are "fundamental personal rights and liberties" Schneider v. State, 308 U.S. 147, 161, 60 S.Ct. 146, 150, 84 L.Ed. 155. To proscribe the dissemination of doctrines or arguments which do not transgress military or moral limits is to destroy the principal bases of democracy, --knowledge and discussion. One man, with views contrary to the rest of his compatriots, is entitled to the privilege of expressing his ideas by speech or broadside to anyone willing to listen or to read. ...

"Ordinances absolutely prohibiting [or penalizing] the exercise of the right to disseminate information are, a fortiori, invalid."

And when we raise the issue in court that the payment of federal income taxes violates our religious beliefs as documented here, then the courts frequently say that our arguments are "frivolous". See U.S. v. Lee, 455 U.S. 252 (1982) for further confirmation of how the government essentially labels our religious beliefs as being frivolous in the process of enforcing their "love for your money" in the courts. That too is a government action to create a religion, because all of the arguments here are based on the law and words right out of the mouths of the government's own judges and lawyers. Indirectly, they are saying that their own words are frivolous! That's religion and idolatry, and the object of worship is the almighty dollar. The result of them calling our claims "frivolous" is a maximization of federal revenues and personal retirement benefits of federal judges through illegal and unconstitutional extortion. That too violates Christian beliefs, which say that "covetousness" is idolatry, which is the religious worship of idols:

"Therefore put to death your members which are on the earth: fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry."
[Colossians 3:5, Bible, NKJV]

"Behold, to obey [God and His Law] is better than sacrifice, and to heed than the fat of rams. For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is an iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the Lord, He also has rejected you from being king [or sovereign over government]."
[1 Sam. 15:22-28, Bible, NKJV]

The implication of the above scripture is that when public servants in the government violate God's law, they cease to be part of the government and are acting as private individuals absent the authority of law. They are no longer the sovereigns who are serving the public they are there to protect. Instead they are serving themselves mainly and thereby violating the fiduciary relationship they have as part of the public trust and federal corporation known as the "United States government". Christians are supposed to disobey such unlawful and immoral actions, including those of courts.

"We ought to obey God rather than men."
[Acts 5:27-29, Bible, NKJV]

So we have a paradox, folks. Either Subtitle A income taxes are mandatory and enforced and "religious faith in the IRS" has become the new religion, or the taxes are instead entirely "voluntary" donations and therefore do not conflict with religious views or the First Amendment. We can't have it both ways, but the government's fraudulent way of calling them mandatory conflicts with so many aspects of our Constitution that we may as well throw the whole Bill of Rights in the toilet and tell everyone the truth: which is that all their freedoms are suspended to pay for the extravagant debts of an out-of-control government and everyone is an economic slave and a serf to the government.

In our time, government has not only become a religion, it has also become an anti-religion intent on driving Christianity out of public life so that its only competitor (God) can be eliminated and it can continue to grow in power without resistance and graduate to that of a totalitarian communist state. Christianity, it turns out, is the only competitor to government at the moment for the worship of the people, and the one thing that most minority groups focused on rights (homosexuals, women's liberation, abortion, etc) have in common is a hate for Christianity, because Christianity is the only check on their corruption and hedonism. Christianity is the salt, the preservative, and the immune system for our society, and when you want to overtake society with sin and disease and death, the first thing you have to attack is its immune system.

The kind of idolatrous thinking that accepts the income tax as legal therefore leads to socialism ultimately, and turns the government into a tyrannical police state that robs citizens of their assets and puts them to use for the alleged "common good." It is a product of mobocracy masquerading as democracy, where less privileged or poorer groups use their voting power to compel the government to plunder the assets of wealthier people for their personal benefit. This is the central approach the demagogues (I mean democrats) use: buy votes with money extorted from hard-working citizens. The

"To lay with one hand the power of government on the property of the citizen, and with the other to bestow it on favored individuals.. is none the less robbery because it is done under the forms of law and is called taxation. This is not legislation. It is a decree under legislative forms."

The only way a socialist state can justify its existence is to assert that the government knows better how to take care of you than you do, and past experience, especially with the Soviet Union, proves that approach doesn't work! Forcing you to have "faith" in the government is a violation of the First Amendment by establishing government as a "religion". Worship of government as a religion is the essence of socialism. Socialism has never worked throughout all of history, because the corruption of men at the highest levels who are in charge of the public funds always leads to usury, abuse, evil, and tyrannical oppression of the people they are supposed to serve.

"Remember the word that I said to you , 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. If they kept My word, they will keep yours also. But all these things they will do to you for My name's sake, because they do not know Him who sent Me."
[Jesus speaking in the Bible, John 15:20-21]

Our own country was formed by Christian patriots more than 200 years ago because they rejected this very thing happening to us! They founded the first country whose legal system was based entirely on Natural Law and Natural Order.

Socialism also makes us into unwitting slaves of the government. Would anyone argue that we don't already have a police state, where the Gestapo are the tyrants at the IRS, and fear of the IRS is what keeps us paying our "tribute to the king" in the form of income taxes? Would anyone argue that we are not a country full of cowards when it comes to facing our oppressors? Realistically speaking: How long can cowards remain free and sovereign? Remember that the original American colonies waged an entire violent war of independence and risked everything they had to fight against Britain when their taxes to Britain were only 7%? Now some of us are paying 50% of our income in taxes without even flinching or whimpering or fighting. We're a bunch of wimps if you ask me!

The point is that it's much more difficult to put God first with federal income taxes because out of the remaining 50% of our income left after we pay taxes, we have to feed our families and pay our bills. Is it any wonder then that less than 1% of Christians tithe 10% of their income to the church as the Bible requires in Malachi 3:8-10? They can't afford to because they are being taxed/raped and financially enslaved by the government illegally! And then the IRS compels churches to shut up about this kind of abuse by taking away their 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status if they speak up!

Now some of you, in fear, might say that we need to obey the government and not make any noise. When should a Christian disobey the civil government? (Rom. 13:7; Acts 5:27-29) When a civil government refuses people the liberty to worship and obey God freely or violates God's law, it has lost its mandate of authority from God. Then the Christian should feel justified and maybe even compelled in disobeying. How are we to worship God freely? With the first fruits of our labor and our income!

Ben Franklin , who incidentally was one of the attendees at the Constitutional Convention, believed that when a government began to be tyrannical, it was the right and even the DUTY of the citizens to rebel against that government. Here is what he said:

"Resistance to tyrants is obedience to God."

The Christian, however, is called to bear with his government whenever possible, but there must be a limit to that forbearance.

"Those who stand for nothing will fall for anything."
[Alex Hamilton]

Jesus did not call for revolution against Rome, even though it was an oppressive conqueror of Israel. On the other hand, the apostles refused to obey a government order not to preach and teach in Jesus' name (Acts 5:27-29). On that occasion, one of Jesus' apostles said:

"We ought to obey God rather than men."

Whenever the civil government forbids the practice of things that God has commanded us to do, or tells us to do things He has commanded us not to do, then we are on solid ground in disobeying the government. Blind obedience to government is never right or biblically sound. However difficult or costly it may be, we all must reserve the right to say no to things that we consider oppressive or immoral or sinful. If we don't and we make government our unquestioned god, here is the future that awaits us:<sup>7</sup>

The 23rd Psalm (A present-day Lamentation)

*The politician is my shepherd...I am in want;
He maketh me to lie down on park benches,
He leadeth me beside still factories;
He disturbeth my soul.
Yea, thou I walk through the valley of the shadow of depression and recession,
I anticipate no recovery, for he is with me.
He prepareth a reduction in my salary in the presence of my enemies;
He anointeth my small income with great losses;
My expenses runneth over.
Surely unemployment and poverty shall follow me all the days of my life,
And I shall dwell in a mortgaged house forever.*

4.3 How to Figure It All Out

To those who wish to explore American law and not be drowned by complex terminology, it helps to know some basic ideas or concepts.

1. First: know the difference between a right, endowed by one's Creator, and a privilege granted by servant government.
2. Second: know that government instituted to secure a PRIVATE right, has no power to deny that right - except by your consent - or in pursuit of justice, following due process.
3. Third: The first duty of government in protecting PRIVATE rights is to prevent them from being converted into PUBLIC rights or franchises without the EXPRESS consent of owner. This means that:
  - 3.1. They cannot compel you to accept or pay for "benefits" that you don't want.

No one is obliged to accept a benefit against his consent. Dig. 50, 17, 69. But if he does not dissent he will be considered as assenting. Vide Assent.

Quilibet potest renunciare juri pro se inducto.

Any one may renounce a law introduced for his own benefit. To this rule there are some exceptions. See 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 83."

[Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856; SOURCE:

<http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviersMaxims.htm>

- 3.2. When they assert a statutory right over your property, they have the burden of proving that you VOLUNTARILY consented to convert it from PRIVATE property to PUBLIC property BEFORE they may engage in the enforcement action. In other words, they have to prove that you voluntarily waived sovereign immunity in a manner that YOU and not THEY specify. This is exactly the same requirement they place on you when you want sue them civilly and under the concept of equal protection, it also has to apply to them.
4. Fourth: taxes are only levied on those who consent, and/or upon PUBLIC privileges or "benefits" granted by government that are VOLUNTARILY accepted.

That's pretty easy to remember.

Most of the abuses and usurpations can be traced back to consent, often acquired by dubious means.

For example, if you check your state's constitution for the delegation of the power to tax, you will find that it refers to estate, as in real and personal property. Estate is held with qualified ownership. However, private property, absolutely owned by an individual, will never be listed as being subject to a tax. In fact, in all cases where I found private property mentioned, it was in reference to being protected.

<sup>7</sup> A parody of the Bible, Psalm 23. Submitted by Pastor Wayne Teel and authored by Bob Phillips in his book The Best of the Good Clean Jokes.

If you were misled to assume that all land (<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/NASP/message/454>) is estate (i.e., real estate), and that you had to record your purchase as real estate, you've volunteered to be taxed.

Another stunner is the surrender of liberty via citizenship. According to the Declaration of Independence, we're endowed with the right to life, liberty, and private property ownership (upon which we can pursue happiness without permission of another). Yet from day one, the militia (<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/NASP/message/1444>) were under obligation to train, fight and die, on command. Apparently, the militia do not have rights - because the militia surrendered those rights to be CITIZENS.

Citizens surrender their inalienable rights in exchange for the privilege to exercise political liberty – voting, jury duty, and holding office. Which, if you read the earliest constitutions, required one to show proof of land ownership as well as taxes paid. That is the root for recording one's property in the public record. If you didn't record your otherwise private property as “estate”, you weren't taxed, nor were you eligible to vote, etc. In addition, by recording your property as estate, if you were an office holder, the land could be liened in the event someone sought restitution or compensation for injuries inflicted by your actions not warranted by one's office.

“The rights of the individual are not derived from governmental agencies, either municipal, state or federal, or even from the Constitution. They exist inherently in every man, by endowment of the Creator, and are merely reaffirmed in the Constitution, and restricted only to the extent that they have been voluntarily surrendered by the citizenship [DOMICILE, not NATIONALITY] to the agencies of government. The people's rights are not derived from the government, but the government's authority comes from the people. The Constitution but states again these rights already existing, and when legislative encroachment by the nation, state, or municipality invade these original and permanent rights, it is the duty of the courts to so declare, and to afford the necessary relief. The fewer restrictions that surround the individual liberties of the citizen, except those for the preservation of the public health, safety, and morals, the more contented the people and the more successful the democracy.”
[City of Dallas v Mitchell, 245 S.W. 944 (1922)]

The term “real ESTATE” really means that the property is recognized and regulated in government statutes that can and do ONLY regulate PUBLIC property owned or at least controlled by the PUBLIC/GOVERNMENT. Hence, it becomes “real” in the eyes of the government and consequently WITHIN the jurisdiction of government. It is otherwise “repugnant to the constitution” as held by the U.S. Supreme Court to regulate EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE property that is absolutely owned. The act of “registering” property or TITLE to property:

1. Donates an interest in the PRIVATE property to the PUBLIC in exchange for the “benefit” of one or more types of “protection”.
2. Changes the character of ownership of the property from absolute to qualified.
3. Makes the “original absolute” owner into a “qualified owner” who SHARES ownership with the government and has EQUITABLE rather than ABSOLUTE interest in the property.

Here is how the U.S. Supreme Court describes the above process of converting PRIVATE property to PUBLIC property:

“When Sir Matthew Hale, and the sages of the law in his day, spoke of property as affected by a public interest, and ceasing from that cause to be juris privati solely, that is, ceasing to be held merely in private right, they referred to

[1] property dedicated [DONATED] by the owner to public uses, or

[2] to property the use of which was granted by the government [e.g. Social Security Card], or

[3] in connection with which special privileges were conferred [licenses].

Unless the property was thus dedicated [by one of the above three mechanisms], or some right bestowed by the government was held with the property, either by specific grant or by prescription of so long a time as to imply a grant originally, the property was not affected by any public interest so as to be taken out of the category of property held in private right.”
[Munn v. Illinois, 94 U.S. 113, 139-140 (1876)]

All American people were not originally STATUTORY/DOMICILED citizens, under the original republican form of government. In fact, the majority were STATUTORY non-citizen sovereigns and aliens. But over time, the republican form

1 was transformed into the democratic form, by expanding the voter pool. No longer were voters limited to property owners
2 who paid taxes, but anyone who qualified under the 'new rules'. And those rules were relaxed more and more. Citizenship
3 changed from being an expensive privilege, sought after and paid for with obligatory duties, into an endowment at birth.
4 Worse, the vast pool of citizens were no longer drawn from civic minded and unselfish individuals with a stake in the local
5 community. Those who could manipulate large voting blocs could gain control over the treasuries and build their own
6 political empires. (Thus we have the "best" government bribery can buy -- by consent of the governed.)

7 One of the most controversial expansions of the privilege/franchise to vote was when it was extended to women. There was
8 never a "right" to vote - it was always a privilege. And that privilege was paid for with the acceptance of militia duty - the 9 obligation to train, fight and die on command. But no woman citizen / voter objected that she was not obligated equally as 10 her male counterpart to train, fight and die. Women became privileged citizens, with benefits that were unequal.

11 Finally, the transformation of the democratic form, into the democratic socialist form, in 1935, effectively removed most
12 Americans from the republican form of government, that their forefathers fought and died to bestow upon them. It was no
13 coincidence that the Social Security system was tailored to gain support of women voters. The age of retirement was set at 14 65, while life expectancy for men (in 1935) was 57, was tacit acknowledgment that the majority of beneficiaries would be 15 women. (Ida May Fuller (<http://www.ssa.gov/history/imf.html>) was the first recipient. By the time of her death, Fuller had 16 collected $22,888.92 from Social Security monthly benefits, compared to her contributions of $24.75 to the system.)

17 The eradication of private property ownership was done by reducing the status at law of the individual, via pauperization
18 (FICA), and by eliminating lawful money (<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/NASP/message/1637>) from circulation (FDR).
19 Paupers, by definition, are recipients of charity from the public treasury, which is exactly what the Congressional Research
20 Service defined "entitlements" as: "gifts from the public treasury". Once the individual American lacked standing, and
21 could not alienate title with lawful money, all property purchased with worthless notes was no longer a right, but a
22 privilege, subject to taxation and regulation. Not only was the Pauper's Oath<sup>9</sup> no longer required, but even retail 23 transactions became subject to taxation - no one had a right to buy and sell!.

24 Knowing these facts, one can maneuver through the maze of law, and determine if a law is for justice - regarding a 25 deliberate injury to the person or property of another - or if the law is regulatory - limited in scope to those who had 26 consented.

27 Likewise, any tax can be traced back to some privilege or consent. No inalienable right can be subject to taxation, lest that 28 right be negated or impaired.

29 In many sources, you can find legal authorities that admit that the American people were sovereigns, that their private
30 property rights were protected, that their natural and personal liberties were not to be trespassed by the public servants,
31 oathbound and regulated.

32 That you surrendered your magnificent birthright of sovereignty, freedom and independence, for the scraps of national 33 socialism and democracy is why we are a nation in decline, wracked by usurers, parasites and collectivist pirates. But if you
34 were a victim of fraud (like most Americans), that surrender can be reversed - once. And subsequent embrace of 35 government privilege will be presumed to be done with full knowledge and consent.

36 But make no mistake - the predators are running the show. And they dislike it when prey fight back. It's also why
37 "participation" in their democracy is futile. You cannot elect the solution to the problem when the cause is your consent... to 38 socialism, to democracy, to bribery, and to usury.

39 Take the time to read law, collect enough exhibits (<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/NASP/message/951>) to support your 40 claim, and gain confidence that the law is on your side.

41 The short list to freedom is:

- 42 1. [ ] Acquire a domicile upon private property absolutely owned, within the boundaries of the USA.
- 43 2. [ ] Withdraw consent from national socialism, and any government privilege. And . . .

3. [ ] Exercise your natural and personal liberty, as a “free inhabitant” (under the Articles of Confederation)/American national.

Caveat - when a substantial percentage of Americans withdraw consent, the current system will implode. Without sufficient "human resources" underwriting the worthless notes, the dollar bills will cease to be acceptable as legal tender. The government will be faced with a pool of recipients and insufficient donors. Furthermore, the creditor will have far less wealth to skim and may begin to foreclose. I would not be surprised if the government resigned en masse and emigrated to countries that do not extradite.

However, we hope that the newly restored republican form will rein in the abuses of democracy and socialism, that had run rampant for decades. It would be a tragedy if the only nation on Earth whose people were sovereign, was to fall, due to the ignorance of her people.

4.4 Private vs. Public

A very important subject is the division of legal authority between PUBLIC and PRIVATE rights. On this subject the U.S. Supreme Court held:

“A private person cannot make constitutions or laws, nor can he with authority construe them, nor can he administer or execute them.”
[United States v. Harris, 106 U.S. 629, 1 S.Ct. 601, 27 L.Ed. 290 (1883)]

If you can't "execute" them, then you ALSO can't enforce them against ANYONE else. Some people might be tempted to say that we all construe them against the private person daily, but in fact we can't do that WITHOUT being a public officer WITHIN the government.

“The reason why States are “bodies politic and corporate” is simple: just as a corporation is an entity that can act only through its agents, “[t]he State is a political corporate body, can act only through agents, and can command only by laws.” Poindexter v. Greenhow, supra, 114 U.S., at 288, 5 S.Ct. at 912-913. See also Black’s Law Dictionary 159 (5th ed. 1979) (“[B]ody politic or corporate”: “A social compact by which the whole people covenants with each citizen, and each citizen with the whole people, that all shall be governed by certain laws for the common good”). As a “body politic and corporate,” a State falls squarely within the Dictionary Act’s definition of a “person.”
[Will v. Michigan Dept. of State Police, 491 U.S. 58, 109 S.Ct. 2304 (U.S.Mich.,1989)]

If we do enforce the law as a private nonresident human, we are therefore criminally impersonating a public officer in violation of 18 U.S.C. §912. Other U.S. Supreme Court cites also confirm why this must be:

[Osborn v. Bank of U.S., 22 U.S. 738 (1824)]

“...we are of the opinion that there is a clear distinction in this particular between an [PRIVATE] individual and a [PUBLIC] corporation, and that the latter has no right to refuse to submit its books and papers for an examination at the suit of the state. The individual may stand upon his constitutional rights as a citizen. He is entitled to carry on his private business in his own way. His power to contract is unlimited. He owes no duty to the state or to his neighbors to divulge his business, or to open his doors to an investigation, so far as it may tend to criminate him. He owes no such duty to the state, since he receives nothing therefrom, beyond the protection of his life and property. His rights are such as existed by the law of the land long antecedent to the organization of the state, and can only be taken from him by due process of law, and in accordance with the Constitution. Among his rights are a refusal to incriminate himself, and the immunity of himself and his property from arrest or seizure except under a warrant of the law. He owes nothing to the public so long as he does not trespass upon their rights.

“Upon the other hand, the [PUBLIC] corporation is a creature of the state. It is presumed to be incorporated for the benefit of the public. It receives certain special privileges and franchises, and holds them subject to the laws of the state and the limitations of its charter. Its powers are limited by law. It can make no contract not authorized by its charter. Its rights to [201 U.S. 43, 75] act as a corporation are only preserved to it so long as it obeys the laws of its creation. There is a reserved right in the legislature to investigate its contracts and find out whether it has exceeded its powers. It would be a strange anomaly to hold that a state, having chartered a corporation to make use of certain franchises, could not, in the exercise of its sovereignty, inquire how these franchises had been employed, and whether they had been abused, and demand the production of the corporate books and papers for that purpose. The defense amounts to this: That an officer of a corporation which is charged with a criminal violation of the statute, may plead the criminality of such corporation as a refusal to produce its books. To state this proposition is to answer it. While an individual may lawfully refuse to answer incriminating questions unless protected by an immunity statute, it does not

1 follow that a corporation, vested with special privileges and franchises, may refuse to show its hand when charged with an abuse of
2 such privileges. "
3 [Hale v. Henkel, 201 U.S. 43 (1906)]

4 You MUST therefore be an agent of the government and therefore a PUBLIC officer in order to "make constitutions or 5 laws or administer, execute, or ENFORCE" EITHER. Examples of "agents" or "public officers" of the government include
6 all the following:

- 7 1. "person" (26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(1)).
- 8 2. "individual" (26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1(c)(3)).
- 9 3. "taxpayer" (26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(14)).
- 10 4. "withholding agent" (26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(16)).

11 "The government thus lays a tax, through the [GOVERNMENT] instrumentality [PUBLIC OFFICE] of the company [a
12 FEDERAL and not STATE corporation], upon the income of a non-resident alien over whom it cannot justly exercise any 13 control, nor upon whom it can justly lay any burden."
14 [United States v. Erie R. Co., 106 U.S. 327 (1882)]

15 It is extremely important to know the difference between PRIVATE and PUBLIC "persons", because we all have private 16 and public identities. This division of our identities is recognized in the following maxim of law:

17 Quando duo juro concurrunt in und personâ, aequum est ac si essent in diversis.
18 When two rights [public right v. private right] concur in one person, it is the same as if they were two separate persons. 4 Co. 118.
19 [Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;
20 SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviersMaxims.htm>]

21 The next time you are in court as a PRIVATE person, here are some questions for the next jury, judge, or government
22 prosecutor trying to enforce a civil obligation upon you as a PRESUMED public officer called a "citizen", "resident",
23 "person", or "taxpayer":

- 24 1. How do you, a PRIVATE human, "OBEY" a law without "EXECUTING" it? We'll give you a hint: It CAN'T BE 25 DONE!
- 26 2. What "public office" or franchise does the government claim to have "created" and therefore have the right to control
27 or regulate in the context of my otherwise exclusively PRIVATE property and PRIVATE rights under the 28 Constitution? Keep in mind that if there IS no privilege, then the ability to regulate, tax, or control ENDS:

29 "It is only where some right or privilege [which are GOVERNMENT PROPERTY] is conferred by the government or 30 municipality upon the owner, which he can use in connection with his property, or by means of which the use of his property is
31 rendered more valuable to him, or he thereby enjoys an advantage over others, that the compensation to be received by him
32 becomes a legitimate matter of regulation. Submission to the regulation of compensation in such cases is an implied condition of 33 the grant, and the State, in exercising its power of prescribing the compensation, only determines the conditions upon which its 34 concession shall be enjoyed. When the privilege ends, the power of regulation ceases."
35 [Munn v. Illinois, 94 U.S. 113 (1876) ]

- 36 3. Who is the "customer" in the context of the IRS: The STATUTORY "taxpayer" public office or the PRIVATE human 37 filling the office?
- 38 4. Who gets to define what a "benefit" is in the context of "customers"? Isn't it the human volunteering to be surety for 39 the "taxpayer" office and not the government grantor of the public office franchise?
- 40 5. What if I as the human compelled to become surety for the office define that compulsion as an INJURY rather than a 41 BENEFIT? Does that "end the privilege" and the jurisdiction to tax and regulate?
- 42 6. Does the national government claim the right to create franchises or privileges within a constitutional state in order to 43 tax them? The Constitution says they CANNOT and that this is an "invasion" within the meaning of Article 4, Section
44 4 of the Constitution:

45 "Thus, Congress having power to regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among the several States, and with the Indian tribes,
46 may, without doubt, provide for granting coasting licenses, licenses to pilots, licenses to trade with the Indians, and any other
47 licenses necessary or proper for the exercise of that great and extensive power; and the same observation is applicable to every 48 other power of Congress, to the exercise of which the granting of licenses may be incident. All such licenses confer authority, and 49 give rights to the licensee.

50 But very different considerations apply to the internal commerce or domestic trade of the States. Over this commerce and trade
51 Congress has no power of regulation nor any direct control. This power belongs exclusively to the States. No interference by

1 Congress with the business of citizens transacted within a State is warranted by the Constitution, except such as is strictly
2 incidental to the exercise of powers clearly granted to the legislature. The power to authorize a business within a State is plainly
3 repugnant to the exclusive power of the State over the same subject. It is true that the power of Congress to tax is a very extensive
4 power. It is given in the Constitution, with only one exception and only two qualifications. Congress cannot tax exports, and it must
5 impose direct taxes by the rule of apportionment, and indirect taxes by the rule of uniformity. Thus limited, and thus only, it reaches
6 every subject, and may be exercised at discretion. But, it reaches only existing subjects. Congress cannot authorize a trade or
7 business within a State in order to tax it."

8 [License Tax Cases, 72 U.S. 462, 18 L.Ed. 497, 5 Wall. 462, 2 A.F.T.R. 2224 (1866) ]

- 9 7. Isn't a judge compelling me to violate my religious beliefs by compelling me to serve in a public office or accept the 10 DUTES of the office? Isn't this a violation of the First Commandment NOT to serve "other gods", which can and does 11 mean civil rulers or governments?

12 But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, "Give us a king to judge us." So Samuel prayed to the Lord. And the Lord said to
13 Samuel, "Heed the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have rejected Me [God], that I should not reign over
14 them. According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt, even to this day—with
15 which they have forsaken Me and served other gods [Kings, in this case]—so they are doing to you also [government becoming
16 idolatry]. Now therefore, heed their voice. However, you shall solemnly forewarn them, and show them the behavior of the king
17 who will reign over them."

18 [1 Sam. 8:6-9, Bible, NKJV]

- 19 8. How can one UNILATERALLY ELECT themselves into public office by filling out a government form? The form 20 isn't even signed by anyone in the government, such as a tax form or social security application, and therefore couldn't
21 POSSIBLY be a valid contract anyway. Isn't this a FRAUD upon the United States and criminal bribery, using illegal
22 "withholdings" to bribe someone to TREAT you as a public officer? See 18 U.S.C. §211.
23 9. How can a judge enforce civil statutory law that only applies to public officers without requiring proof on the record
24 that you are CONSENSUALLY and LAWFULLY engaged in a public office? In other words, that you waived 25 sovereign immunity by entering into a contract with the government.

26 "It is true, that the person who accepts an office may be supposed to enter into a compact to be answerable to the government,
27 which he serves, for any violation of his duty; and, having taken the oath of office, he would unquestionably be liable, in such
28 case, to a prosecution for perjury in the Federal Courts. But because one man, by his own act [CONSENT], renders himself
29 amenable to a particular jurisdiction, shall another man, who has not incurred a similar obligation, be implicated? If, in other
30 words, it is sufficient to vest a jurisdiction in this court, that a Federal Officer is concerned; if it is a sufficient proof of a case
31 arising under a law of the United States to affect other persons, that such officer is bound, by law, to discharge his duty with 32 fidelity; a source of jurisdiction is opened, which must inevitably overflow and destroy all the barriers between the judicial
33 authorities of the State and the general government. Anything which can prevent a Federal Officer from the punctual, as well as 34 from an impartial, performance of his duty; an assault and battery; or the recovery of a debt, as well as the offer of a bribe, may be
35 made a foundation of the jurisdiction of this court; and, considering the constant disposition of power to extend the sphere of its 36 influence, fictions will be resorted to, when real cases cease to occur. A mere fiction, that the defendant is in the custody of the 37 marshall, has rendered the jurisdiction of the King's Bench universal in all personal actions."

- 40 10. Isn't this involuntary servitude in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment to serve in a public office if you DON'T 41 consent and they won't let you TALK about the ABSENCE of your consent?
42 11. Isn't it a violation of due process of law to PRESUME that you are public officer WITHOUT EVIDENCE on the 43 record from an unbiased witness who has no financial interest in the outcome?

44 "A presumption is an assumption of fact that the law requires to be made from another fact or group of facts found or otherwise
45 established in the action. A presumption is not evidence."

46 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1185]

48 "If any question of fact or liability be conclusively be presumed [rather than proven] against him, this is not due process of law.
49 [...] the presumption of innocence under which guilt must be proven by legally obtained evidence and the verdict must be
50 supported by the evidence presented; rights at the earliest stage of the criminal process; and the guarantee that an individual will 51 not be tried more than once for the same offence (double jeopardy)."

52 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 500]

- 3 12. If the judge won't enforce the requirement that the government as moving party has the burden of proving WITH 4 EVIDENCE that I was LAWFULLY "appointed or elected" to a public office, aren't I, a CONSTITUTIONALLY
5 PROTECTED HUMAN therefore PRESUMED to be EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE and therefore beyond the reach of 6 the civil statutory law?
- 7 13. Isn't the judge criminally obstructing justice to interfere with requiring evidence on the record that you lawfully 8 occupy a public office? See 18 U.S.C. §1503, whereby the judge is criminally "influencing" the PUBLIC you.
- 9 14. Isn't an unsupported presumption that prejudices a PRIVATE right a violation of the Constitution?
- 10 15. Don't the rights that UNCONSTITUTIONAL presumptions prejudicially convey to the government constitute a taking 11 of rights without just compensation in violation of the Fifth Amendment Takings Clause?
- 12 16. By what authority does the judge impose federal civil law within a constitutional state of the Union because:
13 16.1. Constitutional states are legislatively but not constitutionally foreign jurisdiction.
14 16.2. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b) requires that those with a domicile outside of federal territory cannot be 15 sued under federal law.
16 16.3. The Rules of Decision Act, 28 U.S.C. §1652 dictates that state rather than federal law applies.
17 16.4. National franchises and the PRIVATE law that implements them cannot be offered or enforced within 18 constitutional states per License Tax Cases, 72 U.S. 462, 18 L.Ed. 497, 5 Wall. 462, 2 A.F.T.R. 2224 (1866).
- 19 17. Even if we ARE lawfully serving in a public office, don't we have the right to:
20 17.1. Be off duty?
21 17.2. Choose WHEN we want to be off duty?
22 17.3. Choose WHAT financial transactions we want to connect to the office?
23 17.4. Know the precise legal mechanism by which we voluntarily connect a specific otherwise PRIVATE transaction
24 or activity to the office or PUBLIC franchise?
25 17.5. Be protected in NOT volunteering to connect a specific activity to the public office? Governments LIE by calling
26 something "voluntary" and yet refusing to protect those who do NOT consent to "volunteer", don't they?
27 17.6. Not be coerced to sign up for OTHER, unrelated public offices when we sign up for a single office? For instance,
28 do we have a right NOT become a FEDERAL officer when we sign up for a STATE "driver license" and "public
29 office" that ALSO requires us to have a Social Security Number to get the license, and therefore to ALSO 30 become a FEDERAL officer at the same time.
31 If the answer to all the above is NO, then there ARE no PRIVATE rights or PRIVATE property and there IS no
32 "government" because governments only protect PRIVATE rights and private property!

33 We'd love to hear a jury, judge, or prosecutor address this subject before they hall him away in a straight jacket to the 34 nuthouse because of a completely irrational and maybe even criminal answer.

35 The next time you end up in front of a judge or government attorney enforcing a civil statute against you, you might want to 36 insist on proof in the record during the process of challenging jurisdiction as a defendant or respondent:

- 37 1. WHICH of the two "persons" they are addressing or enforcing against.
38 2. How the two statuses, PUBLIC v. PRIVATE, became connected.
39 3. What specific act of EXPRESS consent connected the two. PRESUMPTION alone on the part of government can't. A
40 presumption that the two became connected WITHOUT consent is an unconstitutional eminent domain in violation of 41 the Fifth Amendment Takings Clause.

42 In a criminal trial, such a question would be called a "bill of particulars".

43 We can handle private and public affairs from the private, but we cannot handle private affairs from the public. The latter is 44 one of the biggest mistakes many people make when trying to handle their commercial and lawful (private) or legal (public)
45 affairs. Those who use PUBLIC property for PRIVATE gain in fact are STEALING and such stealing has always been a 46 crime.

Co., 155 Me 349, 155 A.2d. 721, 85 A.L.R.2d. 703 (superseded by statute on other grounds as stated in Poitras v. R. E. Glidden Body Shop, Inc. (Me) 430 A.2d. 1113); Connizzo v. General American Life Ins. Co. (Mo App), 520 S.W.2d. 661.

1 In law, all rights attach to LAND, and all privileges attach to one's STATUS under voluntary civil franchises. An example
2 of privileged statuses include "taxpayer" (under the tax code), "person", "individual", "driver" (under the vehicle code),
3 "spouse" (under the family code). Rights are PRIVATE, PRIVILEGES are PUBLIC.

4 In our society, the PRIVATE "straw man" was created by the application for the birth certificate. It is a legal person under
5 contract law and under the Uniform Commercial Code (U.C.C.), with capacity to sue or be sued under the common law. It
6 is PRIVATE PROPERTY of the human being described in the birth certificate.

7 The PUBLIC officer "straw man" (e.g. statutory "taxpayer") was created by the SSA Form SS-5, Application for the Social 8 Security Card. It is a privileged STATUS under an unconstitutional national franchise of the de facto government. It is 9 PROPERTY of the national government. The PUBLIC "straw man" is thoroughly described in:

Proof that There Is a "Straw Man", Form #05.042
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

10 The PRIVATE "John Doe" is a statutory "non-resident non-person" not engaged in the "trade or business"/PUBLIC
11 OFFICER franchise in relation to the PUBLIC. He exists in the republic and is a free inhabitant under the Articles of 12 Confederation. He has inalienable rights and unlimited liabilities. Those unlimited liabilities are described in

The Unlimited Liability Universe, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Spirituality/Articles/UnlimitedLiabilityUniverse.htm>

13 The PUBLIC "JOHN DOE" is a public office in the government corporation and statutory "U.S. citizen" per 8 U.S.C.
14 §1401, 26 U.S.C. §3121(e), and 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c). He exists in the privileged socialist democracy. He has "benefits", 15 franchises, obligations, immunities, and limited liability.

16 In the PRIVATE, money is an ASSET and always in the form of something that has intrinsic value, i.e. gold or silver.
17 Payment for anything is in the form of commercial set off.

18 In the PUBLIC, money is a LIABILITY or debt and normally takes the form of a promissory note, i.e. an Federal Reserve
19 Note (FRN), a check, bond or note. Payment is in the form of discharge in the future.

20 The PRIVATE realm is the basis for all contract and commerce under the Uniform Commercial Code (U.C.C.). The 21 PUBLIC realm was created by the bankruptcy of the PRIVATE entity. Generally, creditors can operate from the
22 PRIVATE. PUBLIC entities are all debtors (or slaves). The exercise of the right to contract by the PRIVATE straw man
23 makes human beings into SURETY for the PUBLIC straw man.

24 Your judicious exercise of your right to contract and the requirement for consent that protects it is the main thing that keeps
25 the PUBLIC separate from the PRIVATE. See:

Requirement for Consent, Form #05.003
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

26 Be careful how you use your right to contract! It is the most DANGEROUS right you have because it can destroy ALL
27 of your PRIVATE rights by converting them to PUBLIC rights and offices.

28 "These general rules are well settled:

29 (1) That the United States, when it creates rights in individuals against itself [a "public right", which is a euphemism for a
30 "franchise" to help the court disguise the nature of the transaction], is under no obligation to provide a remedy through the
31 courts. United States ex rel. Dunlap v. Black, 128 U.S. 40, 9 Sup.Ct. 12, 32 L.Ed. 354; Ex parte Atocha, 17 Wall. 439, 21 L.Ed. 696;
32 Gordon v. United States, 7 Wall. 188, 195, 19 L.Ed. 35; De Groot v. United States, 5 Wall. 419, 431, 433, 18 L.Ed. 700; Comegys v.

37 Dearing, 91 U.S. 29, 35, 23 L.Ed. 196. Still the fact that the right and the remedy are thus intertwined might not, if the provision
38 stood alone, require us to hold that the remedy expressly given excludes a right of review by the Court of Claims, where the decision

1 of the special tribunal involved no disputed question of fact and the denial of compensation was rested wholly upon the construction
2 of the act. See Medbury v. United States, 173 U.S. 492, 198, 19 Sup.Ct. 503, 43 L.Ed. 779; Parish v. MacVeagh, 214 U.S. 124, 29

5 [U.S. v. Babcock, 250 U.S. 328, 39 S.Ct. 464 (1919)]

6 All PUBLIC franchises are contracts or agreements and therefore participating in them is an act of contracting.

7 "It is generally conceded that a franchise is the subject of a contract between the grantor and the grantee, and that it does in fact
8 constitute a contract when the requisite element of a consideration is present.<sup>11</sup> Conversely, a franchise granted without
9 consideration is not a contract binding upon the state, franchisee, or pseudo-franchisee.<sup>12</sup> "
10 [36 American Jurisprudence 2d, Franchises, Section 6: As a Contract (1999)]

11 Franchises include Social Security, income taxation ("trade or business"/public office franchise), unemployment insurance, 12 driver licensing ("driver" franchise), and marriage licensing ("spouse" franchise).

13 "You shall make no covenant [contract or franchise] with them [foreigners, pagans], nor with their [pagan government] gods
14 [laws or judges]. They shall not dwell in your land [and you shall not dwell in theirs by becoming a "resident" or domiciliary in
15 the process of contracting with them], lest they make you sin against Me [God]. For if you serve their [government] gods [under 16 contract or agreement or franchise], it will surely be a snare to you."
17 [Exodus 23:32-33, Bible, NKJV]

18 Governments become corrupt by:

- 19 1. Refusing to recognize the PRIVATE.
- 20 2. Undermining or interfering with the invocation of the common law in courts of justice.
- 21 3. Allowing false information returns to be abused to convert the PRIVATE into the PUBLIC without the consent of the 22 owner.
- 23 4. Destroying or undermining remedies for the protection of PRIVATE rights.
- 24 5. Replacing CONSTITUTIONAL courts with LEGISLATIVE FRANCHISE courts.
- 25 6. Making judges into statutory franchisees such as "taxpayers", through which they are compelled to have a conflict of 26 interest that ultimately destroys or undermines all private rights. This is a crime and a civil offense in violation of 18
27 U.S.C. §208, 28 U.S.C. §144, and 28 U.S.C. §455.
- 28 7. Offering or enforcing government franchises to people not domiciled on federal territory. This breaks down the 29 separation of powers and enforces franchise law extraterritorially.
- 30 8. Abusing "words of art" to blur or confuse the separation between the PUBLIC and the PRIVATE. (deception)
- 31 9. Removing the domicile prerequisite for participation in government franchises through policy and not law, thus 32 converting them into essentially PRIVATE business ventures that operate entirely through the right to contract.
- 33 10. Abusing sovereign immunity to protect PRIVATE government business ventures, thus destroying competition and 34 implementing a state-sponsored monopoly.
- 35 11. Refusing to criminally prosecute those who compel participation in government franchises.
- 36 12. Turning citizenship into a statutory franchise, and thus causing people who claim citizen status to unwittingly become 37 PUBLIC officers.
- 38 13. Allowing presumption to be used as a substitute for evidence in any proceeding to enforce government franchises
39 against an otherwise PRIVATE party. This violates due process of law, unfairly advantages the government, and 40 imputes to the government supernatural powers as an object of religious worship.

41 Therefore, it is important to learn how to be EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE and a CREDITOR in all of our affairs. Freedom is 42 possible in the PRIVATE; it is not even a valid fantasy in the realm of the PUBLIC.

1	Name	"John Doe"	"JOHN DOE" (idemsonans)
2	Created by	Birth certificate	Application for SS Card, Form SS-5
3	Property of	Human being	Government
4	Protected by	Common law	Statutory franchises
5	Type of rights exercised	Private rights Constitutional rights	Public rights Statutory privileges
6	Rights/privileges attach to	LAND you stand on	Statutory STATUS under a voluntary civil franchise
7	Courts which protect or vindicate rights/privileges	Constitutional courts under Article III in the true Judicial Branch	Legislative administrative franchise courts under Articles I and IV in the Executive Branch.
8	Domiciled on	Private property	Public property/federal territory
9	Commercial standing	Creditor	Debtor
10	Money	Gold and silver	Promissory note (debt instrument)
11	Sovereign being worshipped/obeyed	God	Governments and political rulers (The Beast, Rev. 19:19). Paganism
12	Purpose of government	Protect PRIVATE rights	Expand revenues and control over the populace and consolidate all rights and sovereignty to itself
13	Government consists of	Body POLITIC (PRIVATE) and body CORPORATE (PUBLIC)	Body CORPORATE (PUBLIC) only . All those in the body POLITIC are converted into officers of the corporation by abusing franchises.

3 4.5 Basics of sovereignty

4 To the best of my knowledge and understanding of the law, in the public record, which can be found in any county
5 courthouse law library, is that:

- 6 1. We were endowed by our Creator (or creators / parents) with certain inalienable rights, among which are LIFE (right to 7 life, and all harmless activities that support that life), LIBERTY (personal liberty - the right of locomotion upon public
8 highways and waterways - which needs no permission / license to exercise), and PRIVATE PROPERTY
9 OWNERSHIP (upon which we can exercise natural liberty - absolute freedom - without asking permission of any other 10 man or men).
- 11 2. To secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, delegated the power to:
12 2.1. Secure these rights, and
13 2.2. Civilly govern those who individually and personally consent.
- 14 3. Every instance (excepting punishment for a crime) where a right is being infringed can be traced back to CONSENT.
15 Example: Conscription is definitely a violation of one's property, liberty and life, if ordered into battle, to fight and die,
16 on command. Yet, in the law, only citizens (*subjects) are so obligated. Ergo, citizenship must be consensual - not 17 imposed - otherwise the civic duties would be involuntary servitude. (Too bad the Draft Dodgers didn't know how they 18 gave consent!)
- 19 4. No right secured by government can be subject to taxation. Only government granted privileges are subject to excises, 20 imposts, and duties. This limitation can only be sidestepped by consent of the tax payer, as in the case of national 21 socialism.
- 22 5. Servant government has repeatedly admitted that the people are sovereign and the government is NOT sovereign.
23 However, the government is sovereign over its citizenry. What has been deliberately omitted from public education is 24 that no one can be "born" a U.S. citizen, unless they were born slaves (subjects). (Begg the question - was the 14th
25 amendment citizenship only for the former privately owned chattels? And were they merely shifted from private 26 ownership to public ownership? And was that why the Supreme court upheld "separate but equal" segregation? And 27 that only when national socialism dragged down everyone to the lowest legal status did the Supreme court overturn its prior ruling! I have no easy answer for that one. But I would prefer that all Americans had their sovereignty restored and let them freely choose.)

6. The enemies of the sovereign people are those who wish to take our private property (socialist pirates) or steal it via trickery (usurers, underwriters and gamblers). We also can add to the list of suspects, the legal profession, which individually or collectively, has deliberately distracted 300 million people from reading the law regarding their birthright of sovereignty, freedom and independence.

Consider this - the poorest sovereign American laborer has a superior legal status at law than Charles Windsor, Prince of Wales, the heir to the throne of England. And every sovereign American is the equal to any other monarch on this planet.

There is no sum of money nor title of nobility that would ever persuade us to bend a knee or bow in subjugation to another monarch or sovereign, now that I know what my true birthright is. We were born to be Kings and Queens, monarchs of our lives and destinies.

"The people of this State, as the successors of its former sovereign, are entitled to all the rights which formerly belonged to the King by his prerogative. Through the medium of their Legislature they may exercise all the powers which previous to the Revolution could have been exercised either by the King alone, or by him in conjunction with his Parliament; subject only to those restrictions which have been imposed by the Constitution of this State or of the U.S."
[Lansing v. Smith, 21 D. 89., 4 Wendel 9 (1829) (New York)]

"There is no such thing as a power of inherent sovereignty in the government of the United States .... In this country sovereignty resides in the people, and Congress can exercise no power which they have not, by their Constitution entrusted to it: All else is withheld."
[Julliard v. Greenman, 110 U.S. 421 (1884)]

"The sovereignty of a state does not reside in the persons who fill the different departments of its government, but in the People, from whom the government emanated; and they may change it at their discretion. Sovereignty, then in this country, abides with the constituency, and not with the agent; and this remark is true, both in reference to the federal and state government."
[Spooner v. McConnell, 22 F. 939 @ 943]

"In common usage, the term 'person' does not include the sovereign, and statutes employing the word are ordinarily construed to exclude it."
[Wilson v. Omaha Indian Tribe, 442 U.S. 653, 667 (1979)]

Our enemies have perverted generations, and polluted our language so that we may not recognize our tormentors. But I hope that someday, enough Americans awaken to their lost heritage. For when that day arrives, the heavens will rock with their exultation.

Finally, remember that if there is NO private property, or you aren't allowed to have PRIVATE property, or you have to share ownership or control of all property with the government, THEN:

1. There is no government, but just a big EMPLOYER of virtually everyone. A society without private property is a society without a government, because governments are established ONLY to protect PRIVATE property.
2. You are SOMEONE ELSE'S PROPERTY! A SLAVE. In legal parlance, this slave is called a "compelled public officer".
3. There is no happiness, because the phrase "pursuit of happiness" in the Declaration of Independence has been legally defined as the right to EXCLUSIVELY OWN PRIVATE PROPERTY. See Munn v. Illinois, 94 U.S. 113 (1876):

"The provision [Fourteenth Amendment, Section 1], it is to be observed, places property under the same protection as life and liberty. Except by due process of law, no State can deprive any person of either. The provision has been supposed to secure to every individual the essential conditions for the pursuit of happiness; and for that reason has not been heretofore, and should never be, construed in any narrow or restricted sense."

4.6 How pursuing sovereignty affects criminal convictions or those already in jail

Below is a summary of how sovereignty affects criminal enforcement or those already in jail for criminal offenses. Sovereignty:

1. Is not and should not be used as an excuse to violate any criminal law.
2. Does not affect criminal convictions.
3. Is not a "get out of jail free card".

- 1 4. Only affects one's civil statutory status and civil obligations.
2 5. DOES affect PENAL rather than CRIMINAL enforcement.
3 5.1. PENAL enforcement has statutory "citizen" or "resident" and domicile as a prerequisite.
4 5.2. CRIMINAL enforcement does not have any civil status or domicile as a prerequisite.
5 For more details on the above, see:

Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030, Section 16

6 4.7 Jesus refused a domicile, refused to participate in all human franchises, benefits, and privileges, and refused
7 the "civil status" that made them possible

8 Jesus definitely participated in God's franchise, being a member of the Holy Trinity. However, he refused to participate in 9 human franchises. It may interest the reader to learn that Jesus had NO civil status under man's law and refused to 10 participate in any government "benefit", franchise, or privilege:

11 The Humbled and Exalted Christ

12 "Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with 13 God, but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men. And being found
14 in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross. Therefore
15 God also has highly exalted Him and given Him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should
16 bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ
17 is Lord, to the glory of God the Father."
18 [Phil 2:5-11, Bible, NKJV]

19 Below is a famous Bible commentary on the above passage:

20 "Think of yourselves the way Christ Jesus thought of himself. He had equal status with God but didn't think so much of himself
21 that he had to cling to the advantages of that status no matter what. Not at all. When the time came, he set aside the privileges of
22 deity and took on the status of a slave, became human! Having become human, he stayed human. It was an incredibly humbling
23 process. He didn't claim special privileges. Instead, he lived a selfless, obedient life and then died a selfless, obedient death—and
24 the worst kind of death at that—a crucifixion."

25 "Because of that obedience, God lifted him high and honored him far beyond anyone or anything, ever, so that all created beings in 26 heaven and on earth—even those long ago dead and buried—will bow in worship before this Jesus Christ, and call out in praise
27 that he is the Master of all, to the glorious honor of God the Father."
28 [Peterson, E. H. (2005). The Message: the Bible in contemporary language (Php 2:5–11). Colorado Springs, CO: NavPress]

29 Below is a summary of lessons learned from the above amplified version of the same passage, put into the context of 30 privileges, civil status, and franchises:

- 31 1. Jesus forsook having a civil status and the privileges and franchises of the Kingdom of Heaven franchise that made that 32 status possible.
33 2. He instead chose a civil status lower for Himself than other mere humans below him in status.
34 3. BECAUSE He forsook the "benefits", privileges, and franchises associated with the civil status of "God" while here on 35 earth, he was blessed beyond all measure by God.

36 Moral of the Story: We can only be blessed by God if we do not seek to use benefits, privileges, and franchises to elevate
37 ourself above anyone else or to pursue a civil status above others.

38 "Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their trouble, and to keep oneself
39 unspotted ["foreign", "sovereign", and/or "alien"] from the world [and the corrupt BEAST governments and rulers of the 40 world]."
41 [James 1:27, Bible, NKJV]

42 One cannot be "unspotted from the world" without surrendering and not pursuing any and all HUMAN civil statuses,
43 franchises, or benefits. Those who are Christians, however, cannot avoid the privileged status and office of "Christian"
44 under God's laws.

45 The OPPOSITE of being "unspotted from the world" is the following. The pursuit of government "benefits" or the civil 46 status that makes them possible is synonymous with the phrase "your desire for pleasure" in the following passage.

1 “Where do wars and fights come from among you? Do they not come from your desires for pleasure [unearned money or
2 “benefits”, privileges, or franchises, from the government] that war in your members [and your democratic governments]? You
3 lust [after other people’s money] and do not have. You murder [the unborn to increase your standard of living] and covet [the
4 unearned] and cannot obtain [except by empowering your government to STEAL for you!]. You fight and war [against the rich and
5 the nontaxpayers to subsidize your idleness]. Yet you do not have because you do not ask [the Lord, but instead ask the deceitful
6 government]. You ask and do not receive, because you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures. Adulterers and
7 adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship [statutory “citizenship”] with the world [or the governments of the world] is
8 enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend [STATUTORY “citizen”, “resident”, “inhabitant”, “person”
9 franchisee] of the world [or the governments of the world] makes himself an enemy of God.”
10 [James 4:4, Bible, NKJV]

11 The personification of those who did the OPPOSITE of Jesus and pursued civil status, rewards, benefits, privileges, and 12 franchises were the Pharisees, and these people were the ONLY people Jesus got mad at. Here’s what He said about them
13 in one of his very few angry tirades. Back then, they had a theocracy and the Bible was their law book, so the term
14 “religion scholars” meant the lawyers of that time, not the pastors of today’s time.

15 I’ve had it with you! You’re hopeless, you religion scholars, you Pharisees! Frauds! Your lives are roadblocks to God’s kingdom.
16 You refuse to enter, and won’t let anyone else in either.

17 “You’re hopeless, you religion scholars and Pharisees! Frauds! You go halfway around the world to make a convert, but once you
18 get him you make him into a replica of yourselves, double-damned.

19 “You’re hopeless! What arrogant stupidity! You say, ‘If someone makes a promise with his fingers crossed, that’s nothing; but if he
20 swears with his hand on the Bible, that’s serious.’ What ignorance! Does the leather on the Bible carry more weight than the skin
21 on your hands? And what about this piece of trivia: ‘If you shake hands on a promise, that’s nothing; but if you raise your hand that
22 God is your witness, that’s serious’? What ridiculous hairsplitting! What difference does it make whether you shake hands or raise
23 hands? A promise is a promise. What difference does it make if you make your promise inside or outside a house of worship? A
24 promise is a promise. God is present, watching and holding you to account regardless.

25 “You’re hopeless, you religion scholars and Pharisees! Frauds! You keep meticulous account books, tithing on every nickel and
26 dime you get, but on the meat of God’s Law, things like fairness and compassion and commitment—the absolute basics!—you
27 carelessly take it or leave it. Careful bookkeeping is commendable, but the basics are required. Do you have any idea how silly you
28 look, writing a life story that’s wrong from start to finish, nitpicking over commas and semicolons?

29 “You’re hopeless, you religion scholars and Pharisees! Frauds! You burnish the surface of your cups and bowls so they sparkle in 30 the sun, while the insides are maggoty with your greed and gluttony. Stupid Pharisee! Scour the insides, and then the gleaming
31 surface will mean something.

32 “You’re hopeless, you religion scholars and Pharisees! Frauds! You’re like manicured grave plots, grass clipped and the flowers
33 bright, but six feet down it’s all rotting bones and worm-eaten flesh. People look at you and think you’re saints, but beneath the skin
34 you’re total frauds.

35 “You’re hopeless, you religion scholars and Pharisees! Frauds! You build granite tombs for your prophets and marble monuments
36 for your saints. And you say that if you had lived in the days of your ancestors, no blood would have been on your hands. You
37 protest too much! You’re cut from the same cloth as those murderers, and daily add to the death count.

38 “Snakes! Reptilian sneaks! Do you think you can worm your way out of this? Never have to pay the piper? It’s on account of people
39 like you that I send prophets and wise guides and scholars generation after generation—and generation after generation you treat
40 them like dirt, greeting them with lynch mobs, hounding them with abuse.

41 “You can’t squirm out of this: Every drop of righteous blood ever spilled on this earth, beginning with the blood of that good man
42 Abel right down to the blood of Zechariah, Barachiah’s son, whom you murdered at his prayers, is on your head. All this, I’m 43 telling you, is coming down on you, on your generation.

44 “Jerusalem! Jerusalem! Murderer of prophets! Killer of the ones who brought you God’s news! How often I’ve ached to embrace
45 your children, the way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you wouldn’t let me. And now you’re so desolate, nothing but 46 a ghost town. What is there left to say? Only this: I’m out of here soon. The next time you see me you’ll say, ‘Oh, God has blessed
47 him! He’s come, bringing God’s rule!’”
48 [Peterson, E. H. (2005). The Message: the Bible in contemporary language (Mt 23:13–39). Colorado Springs, CO: NavPress.]

49 Keep in mind that the term “hypocrite” is defined in the following passages as “trusting in privileges”, meaning franchises:
50 Jer 7:4; Mt 3:9.

51 Jesus kept Himself unspotted from the world by not choosing a domicile there. The phrase “nowhere to lay His head” in 52 the following passage is synonymous with a legal home or domicile.

The Cost of Discipleship

And when Jesus saw great multitudes about Him, He gave a command to depart to the other side. Then a certain scribe came and said to Him, "Teacher, I will follow You wherever You go."

And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head."
[Matt. 8:18-20, Bible, NKJV]

"If you were of the world, the world would love its own. Yet because you are not of [domiciled within] the world, but I [Jesus] chose you [believers] out of the world, therefore the world hates you. Remember the word that I said to you, 'A [public] servant is not greater than his [Sovereign] master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. If they kept My word, they will keep yours also [as trustees of the public trust]. But all these things they will do to you for My name's sake, because they do not know Him [God] who sent Me."
[Jesus in John 15:19-21, Bible, NKJV]

It is perhaps because of the content of this section that Jesus was widely regarded as an "anarchist". See:

Jesus Is An Anarchist, James Redford

4.8 Satan's greatest sin was abusing "privileges" and "franchises" to make himself equal to or above God

In the previous section, we showed how Christ refused privileges, benefits, and franchises and insisted on equality towards every other human. In this chapter, we compare that approach to Satan's approach. It should interest the Christian reader to know that Satan's greatest sin in the Bible was to abuse the "privileges" and therefore franchises bestowed by God to try to elevate himself to an equal or superior relation to God. By doing so, he insisted on being above every other creation of God, including humans. He did this out of pride, vanity, conceit, and covetousness.

Satan abused the "benefits" of the Bible franchise to try to become superior rather than remain equal to all other humans or believers. Below is what one commentary amazingly says on the subject:

WHAT WAS SATAN'S SIN?

Satan's sin was done from a privileged position. He was not a deprived creature who had not drunk deeply of the blessings of God before he sinned. Indeed, Ezekiel 28:11-15 declares some astounding things about the privileged position in which he sinned. That this passage has Satan in view seems most likely if one eliminates the idea that it is a mythical tale of heathen origin and if one takes the language at all plainly and not merely as filled with Oriental exaggerations. Ezekiel "saw the work and activity of Satan, whom the king of Tyre was emulating in so many ways." Satan's privileges included (1) full measure of wisdom (v. 12), (2) perfection in beauty (v. 12), (3) dazzling appearance (v. 13), (4) a place of special prominence as the anointed cherub that covered God's throne (v. 14). Verse 15 (ASV) says all that the Bible says about the origin of sin—"till unrighteousness was found in thee." It is clear, however, that Satan was not created as an evil being, for the verse clearly declares he was perfect when created. Furthermore, God did not make him sin; he sinned of his own volition and assumed full responsibility for that sin; and because of his great privileges, it is obvious that Satan sinned with full knowledge.

Satan's sin was pride (1 Ti 3:6). The specific details of how that pride erupted are given in Isaiah 14:13-14 and are summarized in the assertion, "I will be like the most High" (v. 14).

[Ryrie, C. C. (1972). A survey of Bible doctrine. Chicago: Moody Press]

Christ's greatest glory, on the other hand, was to do the OPPOSITE of Satan in this regard:

1. Jesus made his own desires and flesh "invisible" and became an agent and fiduciary of God 24 hours a day, 7 days a week:

"Whoever receives this little child in My name receives Me; and whoever receives Me receives Him who sent Me. For he who is least among you all will be great."
[Luke 9:48, Bible, NKJV]

"Father, if it is Your will, take this cup away from Me; nevertheless not My will, but Yours, be done."
[Luke 22:42, Bible, NKJV]

"And the Father Himself, who sent Me, has testified of Me. You have neither heard His voice at any time, nor seen His form."
[John 5:37, Bible, NKJV]

1       "For I have come down from heaven, not to do My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me."
2       [John 6:38, Bible, NKJV]

3       "Then Jesus cried out and said, "He who believes in Me, believes not in Me but in Him who sent Me."
4       [John 12:44, Bible, NKJV]

- 5       2. Jesus did NOT abuse the "privileges", "franchises", or "benefits" of God to elevate himself in importance or "rights"
6       either above any other human or above God:

7       "Think of yourselves the way Christ Jesus thought of himself. He had equal status with God but didn't think so much of himself
8       that he had to cling to the advantages of that status no matter what. Not at all. When the time came, he set aside the privileges of
9       deity and took on the status of a slave, became human! Having become human, he stayed human. It was an incredibly humbling
10       process. He didn't claim special privileges. Instead, he lived a selfless, obedient life and then died a selfless, obedient death—and
11       the worst kind of death at that—a crucifixion."

12       "Because of that obedience, God lifted him high and honored him far beyond anyone or anything, ever, so that all created
13       beings in heaven and on earth—even those long ago dead and buried—will bow in worship before this Jesus Christ, and call out
14       in praise that he is the Master of all, to the glorious honor of God the Father."
15       [Peterson, E. H. (2005). The Message: the Bible in contemporary language (Php 2:5–11). Colorado Springs, CO: NavPress]

16       Basically, Jesus had a servant's heart and required the same heart of all those who intend to lead others in government:

17       "But you, do not be called 'Rabbi'; for One is your Teacher, the Christ, and you are all brethren. Do not call anyone on earth your
18       father; for One is your Father, He who is in heaven. And do not be called teachers; for One is your Teacher, the Christ. But he who
19       is greatest among you shall be your servant. And whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be
21       [Jesus in Matt. 23:8-12, Bible, NKJV]

22       But Jesus called them to Himself and said to them, "You know that those who are considered rulers over the Gentiles lord it over
23       them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. Yet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great
24       among you shall be your servant. And whoever of you desires to be first shall be slave of all. For even the Son of Man did not 25       come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many."
26       [Mark 10:42–45, Bible, NKJV. See also Matt. 20:25-28]

27       Those in government who follow the above admonition in fact are implementing what the U.S. Supreme Court called "a 28       society of law and not men" in Marbury v. Madison. The law is the will of the people in written form. Those who put that 29       law above their own self-interest and execute it faithfully are:

- 30       1. Agents and/or officers of We the People.
31       2. "Trustees" and managers over God's property. The entire Earth belongs to the Lord, according to the Bible.<sup>13</sup>
32       3. Acting in a fiduciary duty towards those who have entrusted them with power.

33       "As expressed otherwise, the powers delegated to a public officer are held in trust for the people and are to be exercised in behalf
34       of the government or of all citizens who may need the intervention of the officer.<sup>14</sup> Furthermore, the view has been expressed that
35       all public officers, within whatever branch and whatever level of government, and whatever be their private vocations, are
36       trustees of the people, and accordingly labor under every disability and prohibition imposed by law upon trustees relative to the
37       making of personal financial gain from a discharge of their trusts.<sup>15</sup> That is, a public officer occupies a fiduciary relationship

4. Implementing a “covenant” or “contract” or “social compact” between them and the people. All civil and common law is based on compact.<sup>20</sup>
5. “Creatures [CREATIONS] of the law” as the U.S. Supreme Court calls them.<sup>21</sup>
6. Violating their oath and/or covenant if they use the property or rights they are managing or protecting for any aspect of private gain. In fact, 18 U.S.C. §208 makes it a crime to preside over a matter that you have a financial conflict of interest in.

All of the people in the Bible that God got most excited about were doing the above. There are many verses like those below:

1. Lev. 25:42:

“For they are My servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt; they shall not be sold as slaves.”

2. Lev. 25:55:

“For the children of Israel are servants to Me; they are My servants whom I brought out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.”

3. Numbers 14:24:

“But My servant Caleb, because he has a different spirit in him and has followed Me fully, I will bring into the land where he went, and his descendants shall inherit it.”

4. Joshua 1:2-5:

“Moses My servant is dead. Now therefore, arise, go over this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them—the children of Israel. Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon I have given you, as I said to Moses. From the wilderness and this Lebanon as far as the great river, the River Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and to the Great Sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your territory. No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life; as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not leave you nor forsake you.”

5. 2 Sam. 3:18:

“Now then, do it! For the LORD has spoken of David, saying, ‘By the hand of My servant David, I will save My people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and the hand of all their enemies.’”

6. 2 Sam. 7:8-9:

“Now therefore, thus shall you say to My servant David, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts: “I took you from the sheepfold, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people, over Israel. And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made you a great name, like the name of the great men who are on the earth.”’

God also said that you shall NOT abuse your power or commerce generally to enslave or coerce anyone:

<sup>20</sup> “A body politic,” as aptly defined in the preamble of the Constitution of Massachusetts, “is a social compact by which the whole people covenants with each citizen, and each citizen with the whole people, that all shall be governed by certain laws for the common good.”

<sup>21</sup> “No man in this country is so high that he is above the law. No officer of the law may set that law at defiance with impunity. All the officers of the government, from the highest to the lowest, are creatures of the law, and are bound to obey it.” [United States v. Lee, 106 U. S., at 220]

'If one of your brethren becomes poor [desperate], and falls into poverty among you, then you shall help him, like a stranger or a sojourner, that he may live with you.'

Take no usury or interest from him; but fear your God, that your brother may live with you.

You shall not lend him your money for usury, nor lend him your food at a profit.

I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan and to be your God.

'And if one of your brethren who dwells by you becomes poor, and sells himself to you, you shall not compel him to serve as a slave.'

As a hired servant and a sojourner he shall be with you, and shall serve you until the Year of Jubilee.

And then he shall depart from you—he and his children with him—and shall return to his own family. He shall return to the possession of his fathers.

For they are My servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt; they shall not be sold as slaves.

You shall not rule over him with rigor, but you shall fear your God.
[Lev. 25:35-43, Bible, NKJV]

Note above that it says that people who are poor or desperate should be treated not as slaves, but as “sojourners”, which today means “nonresidents” and “transient foreigners”. This is exactly the condition that our members are required to have.

The most famous example in the Bible of the violation of the above prohibition against usury was how Pharaoh used a famine to enslave his entire country, including the Israelites. See Gen. 47:13-26:

Joseph Deals with the Famine

<sup>13</sup> Now there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very severe, so that the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan languished because of the famine. <sup>14</sup> And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, for the grain which they bought; and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

<sup>15</sup> So when the money failed in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, “Give us bread, for why should we die in your presence? For the money has failed.”

<sup>16</sup> Then Joseph said, “Give your livestock, and I will give you bread for your livestock, if the money is gone.” <sup>17</sup> So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for the horses, the flocks, the cattle of the herds, and for the donkeys. Thus he fed them with bread in exchange for all their livestock that year.

<sup>18</sup> When that year had ended, they came to him the next year and said to him, “We will not hide from my lord that our money is gone; my lord also has our herds of livestock. There is nothing left in the sight of my lord but our bodies and our lands. <sup>19</sup> Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants of Pharaoh; give us seed, that we may live and not die, that the land may not be desolate.”

<sup>20</sup> Then Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for every man of the Egyptians sold his field, because the famine was severe upon them. So the land became Pharaoh's. <sup>21</sup> And as for the people, he moved them into the cities, from one end of the borders of Egypt to the other end. <sup>22</sup> Only the land of the priests he did not buy; for the priests had rations allotted to them by Pharaoh, and they ate their rations which Pharaoh gave them; therefore they did not sell their lands.

<sup>23</sup> Then Joseph said to the people, “Indeed I have bought you and your land this day for Pharaoh. Look, here is seed for you, and you shall sow the land. <sup>24</sup> And it shall come to pass in the harvest that you shall give one-fifth to Pharaoh. Four-fifths shall be your own, as seed for the field and for your food, for those of your households and as food for your little ones.”

<sup>25</sup> So they said, “You have saved our lives; let us find favor in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants.” <sup>26</sup> And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt to this day, that Pharaoh should have one-fifth, except for the land of the priests only, which did not become Pharaoh's.

Eventually, God liberated the Israelites in the famous story of Moses' exodus out of Egypt, but not before he brought a series of curses on Pharaoh for his usury in Exodus 4. Another similar source of usury was the Canaanites in the Bible, if you wish to investigate further. It is very interesting that the above history of usury occurred in the land of Canaan for that very reason. We talk about this subject at length in:

It is interesting to note that the main political objection that most Muslim countries have to the United States is related to usury created by the abuse of commerce. The Koran forbids lending money at interest. Libya and Iraq both became the target of war and intervention because they wanted to abandon the Federal Reserve fiat currency system and implement gold instead of paper money. Muslims refer to this usury as “imperialism” and literally hate it. Iran’s own leader calls for “death to America” and usury is the main reason he does so. There is no question that the abuse of commerce to create inequality, servitude, and usury is satanic because the Bible says this was the essence of Satan’s greatest sin. The Muslims are correct to PEACEFULLY protest it and oppose it.

*“You were the seal of perfection,
Full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.
<sup>13</sup> You were in Eden, the garden of God;
Every precious stone was your covering:
The sardius, topaz, and diamond,
Beryl, onyx, and jasper,
Sapphire, turquoise, and emerald with gold.
The workmanship of your timbrels and pipes
Was prepared for you on the day you were created.*

*<sup>14</sup> “You were the anointed cherub who covers;
I established you;
You were on the holy mountain of God;
You walked back and forth in the midst of fiery stones.
<sup>15</sup> You were perfect in your ways from the day you were created,
Till iniquity was found in you.*

*<sup>16</sup> “By the abundance of your trading
You became filled with violence within.
And you sinned;
Therefore I cast you as a profane thing
Out of the mountain of God;
And I destroyed you, O covering cherub,
From the midst of the fiery stones.*

You corrupted your wisdom for the sake of your splendor;

I laid you before kings,
That they might gaze at you.*

*<sup>18</sup> “You defiled your sanctuaries
By the multitude of your iniquities,
By the iniquity of your trading;
Therefore I brought fire from your midst;
It devoured you,

In the sight of all who saw you.
<sup>19</sup> All who knew you among the peoples are astonished at you;
You have become a horror,
And shall be no more forever. ”””
[Ezekiel 28:13-19, Bible, NKJV]*

That is not to say that we condone or the use of violence or terrorism to oppose usury, however. More peaceful means are available, and especially that of withdrawing our domicile and sponsorship of usurious governments and becoming non-resident non-persons. We talk about this approach in:

We conclude in the above document that the only way that changing domicile and thereby removing funding and civil jurisdiction from the government can result in violence is if the government actively interferes with you receiving the “benefits” of doing so. When they do that, violence, revolution, anarchy, and even war is inevitable eventually.

We refer to the systematic implementation of usury as the greatest sin of our present government because it was Satan's greatest sin. The Federal Reserve counterfeiting franchise is its foundation. We describe the government as an economic terrorist, the District of Columbia as the District of Criminals, and politicians as criminals because of it. It's all based on "the love of money":

"For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, for which some have strayed from the faith in their greediness, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows."
[1 Tim. 6:10, Bible, NKJV]

It is our sincere belief that if we as a country had stuck to the requirements of Lev. 25:35-43 earlier in our external relations, the problems we have with terrorism from foreign nations could be significantly reduced. The United States commits usury and economic terrorism against foreign countries, so they reciprocate with violent terrorism, but both types of terrorism are equally evil. The economic interventionism and the coercion that the usury leads to is a direct violation of the requirements of justice itself. "Justice" is legally defined as the right to be left alone. If we want to be "left alone" by the terrorists and treated with respect, then we have to quit meddling in their affairs, invading and bombing their countries mainly for economic reasons, or using our economic might to coerce them with sanctions. You will always reap what you sow.

The United States as a country sows economic violence so we reap physical violence. This is the inevitable consequence of the fact that we are all equal and any attempt to make us unequal inevitably produces wars, violence, anarchy, and political instability:

"Therefore, whatever you want men to do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets."
[Matt. 7:12, Bible, NKJV]

The U.S. Supreme Court stated the above slightly differently, when they declared the first income tax unconstitutional, which was implemented as a franchise tax that discriminated against one class of people at the expense of another and therefore, produced INEQUALITY:

"The income tax law under consideration is marked by discriminating features which affect the whole law. It discriminates between those who receive an income of four thousand dollars and those who do not. It thus vitiates, in my judgment, by this arbitrary discrimination, the whole legislation. Hamilton says in one of his papers, (the Continentalist), "the genius of liberty reprobates everything arbitrary or discretionary in taxation. It exacts that every man, by a definite and general rule, should know what proportion of his property the State demands; whatever liberty we may boast of in theory, it cannot exist in fact while [arbitrary] assessments continue." 1 Hamilton's Works, ed. 1885, 270. The legislation, in the discrimination it makes, is class legislation. Whenever a distinction is made in the burdens a law imposes or in the benefits it confers on any citizens by reason of their birth, or wealth, or religion, it is class legislation, and leads inevitably to oppression and abuses, and to general unrest and disturbance in society [e.g. wars, political conflict, violence, anarchy]. It was hoped and believed that the great amendments to the Constitution which followed the late civil war had rendered such legislation impossible for all future time. But the objectionable legislation reappears in the act under consideration. It is the same in essential character as that of the English income statute of 1691, which taxed Protestants at a certain rate, Catholics, as a class, at double the rate of Protestants, and Jews at another and separate rate. Under wise and constitutional legislation every citizen should contribute his proportion, however small the sum, to the support of the government, and it is no kindness to urge any of our citizens to escape from that obligation. If he contributes the smallest mite of his earnings to that purpose he will have a greater regard for the government and more self-respect 597*597 for himself feeling that though he is poor in fact, he is not a pauper of his government. And it is to be hoped that, whatever woes and embarrassments may befall our people, they may never lose their manliness and self-respect. Those qualities preserved, they will ultimately triumph over all reverses of fortune."

"Here I close my opinion. I could not say less in view of questions of such gravity that go down to the very foundation of the government. If the provisions of the Constitution can be set aside by an act of Congress, where is the course of usurpation to end? The present assault upon capital is but the beginning. It will be but the stepping-stone to others, larger and more sweeping, till our political contests will become a war of the poor against the rich; a war constantly growing in intensity and bitterness."

"If the court sanctions the power of discriminating taxation, and nullifies the uniformity mandate of the Constitution," as said by one who has been all his life a student of our institutions, "it will mark the hour when the sure decadence of our present government will commence." If the purely arbitrary limitation of $4000 in the present law can be sustained, none having less than that amount of income being assessed or taxed for the support of the government, the limitation of future Congresses may be fixed at a much larger sum, at five or ten or twenty thousand dollars, parties possessing an income of that amount alone being bound to bear the burdens of government; or the limitation may be designated at such an amount as a board of "walking delegates" may deem necessary. There is no safety in allowing the limitation to be adjusted except in strict compliance with the mandates of the Constitution which require its taxation, if imposed by direct taxes, to be apportioned among the States according to their representation, and if imposed by indirect taxes, to be uniform in operation and, so far as practicable, in proportion to their property, equal upon all citizens. Unless the rule of the Constitution governs, a majority may fix the limitation at such rate as will not include any of their own number."

[Pollock v. Farmers' Loan & Trust Co., 157 U.S. 429 (Supreme Court 1895)]

We talk about our opposition to usurious commerce that produces inequality in our Disclaimer, Section 9:

9. APPROACH TOWARDS "HATE SPEECH" AND HATE CRIME

This website does not enforce or support hate speech or hate crimes, violent thoughts, deeds or actions against any particular person(s), group, entity, government, mob, paramilitary force, intelligence agency, overpaid politician, head of state, queen, dignitary, ambassador, spy, spook, soldier, bowl cook, security flunky, contractor, dog, cat or mouse, Wal-Mart employee, amphibian, reptile, and or deceased entity without a PB (Physical Body).

The foundation of the religious beliefs and practices underlying this website is a refusal to contract with or engage in commerce with any and every government. Black's Law Dictionary defines "commerce" as "intercourse".

"Commerce. ...Intercourse by way of trade and traffic [money instead of semen] between different peoples or states and the citizens or inhabitants thereof, including not only the purchase, sale, and exchange of commodities, but also the instrumentalities [governments] and agencies by which it is promoted and the means and appliances by which it is carried on..."
[Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 269]

Hence this website advocates a religious refusal to engage in sex or intercourse or commerce with any government. In fact, the Bible even describes people who VIOLATE this prohibition as "playing the harlot" (Ezekiel 16:41) and personifies that harlot as "Babylon the Great Harlot" (Rev. 17:5), which is fornicating with the Beast, which it defines as governments (Rev. 19:19).

I [God] brought you up from Egypt [slavery] and brought you to the land of which I swore to your fathers; and I said, 'I will never break My covenant with you. But you have not obeyed Me. Why have you done this?

"Therefore I also said, 'I will not drive them out before you; but they will become as thorns [terrorists and persecutors] in your side and their gods will be a snare [slavery!] to you.'"

So it was, when the Angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voices and wept.

*"Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? "But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, 'Give us a king [or political ruler] to judge us.' So Samuel prayed to the Lord. And the Lord said to Samuel, 'Heed the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have rejected Me [God], that I should not reign over them. According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt, even to this day—with which they have forsaken Me [God as their ONLY King, Lawgiver, and Judge] and served other gods—so they are doing to you also [government or political rulers becoming the object of idolatry]."

Where is "separation of church and state" when you REALLY need it, keeping in mind that Christians AS INDIVIDUALS are "the church" and secular society is the "state" as legally defined? Government's tendency to compel everyone into a commercial relationship with them is defined by the Bible as the ESSENCE of Satan himself! Therefore, the religious practice and sexual orientation of avoiding commerce with governments is the essence of our religious faith:

"By the abundance of your [Satan's] trading You became filled with violence within, And you sinned; Therefore I cast you as a profane thing Out of the mountain of God; And I destroyed you, O covering cherub, From the midst of the fiery stones."

"As religion towards God is a branch of universal righteousness (he is not an honest man that is not devout), so righteousness towards men is a branch of true religion, for he is not a godly man that is not honest, nor can he expect that his devotion should be accepted; for,

1. Nothing is more offensive to God than deceit in commerce. A false balance is here put for all manner of unjust and fraudulent practices [of our public dis-servants] in dealing with any person [within the public], which are all an abomination to the Lord, and render those abominable [hated] to him that allow themselves in the use of such accursed arts of thriving. It is an affront to justice, which God is the patron of, as well as a wrong to our neighbour, whom God is the protector of. Men [in government] make light of such frauds, and think there is no sin in that which there is money to be got by, and, while it passes undiscovered, they cannot blame themselves for it; a blot is no blot till it is hit, Hos. 12:7, 8. But they are not the less an abomination to God, who will be the avenger of those that are defrauded by their brethren.

2. Nothing is more pleasing to God than fair and honest dealing, nor more necessary to make us and our devotions acceptable to him: A just weight is his delight. He himself goes by a just weight, and holds the scale of judgment with an even hand, and therefore is pleased with those that are herein followers of him.

A [false] balance, [whether it be in the federal courtroom or in the government or in the marketplace,] cheats, under pretence of doing right most exactly, and therefore is the greater abomination to God."
[Matthew Henry's Commentary on the Whole Bible; Henry, M., 1996, c1991, under Prov. 11:1]

Any individual, group, or especially government worker that makes us the target of discrimination, violence, "selective enforcement", or hate because of this form of religious practice or "sexual orientation" or abstinence is practicing HATE SPEECH based BOTH on our religious beliefs AND our sexual orientation as legally defined. Furthermore, all readers and governments are given reasonable timely notice that the terms of use for the information and services available through this website mandate that any attempt to compel us into a commercial or tax relationship with any government shall constitute:

1. "purposeful availment" in satisfaction of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. Chapter 97.
2. A waiver of official, judicial, and sovereign immunity.
3. A commercial invasion within the meaning of Article 4, section 4 of the United States Constitution.
4. A tort cognizable as a Fifth Amendment taking without compensation.
5. A criminal attempt at identity theft by wrongfully associating us with a civil status of "citizen", "resident", "taxpayer", etc.
6. Duress as legally defined. See Affidavit of Duress: Illegal Tax Enforcement by De Facto Officers, Form #02.005.

The GOVERNMENT crimes documented on this website fall within the ambit of 18 U.S.C. §2381: Treason. The penalty mandated by law for these crimes is DEATH. We demand that actors in the Department of Justice for both the states and the federal government responsible for prosecuting these crimes of Treason do so as required by law. A FAILURE to do so is ALSO an act of Treason punishable by death. Since murder is not only a crime, but a violent crime, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §1111, then the government itself can also be classified as terrorist. It is also ludicrous to call people who demand the enforcement of the death penalty for the crimes documented as terrorists. If that were true, every jurist who sat on a murder trial in which the death penalty applied would also have to be classified as and prosecuted as a terrorist. Hypocrites.

The moral of the story is that the main difference between Christ and Satan was how they handled "privileges" and "franchises" and whether they tried to use them as a means to create inequality or usury or slavery or servitude between them and others while they were on the earth.

As we say repeatedly throughout this document, franchises are the main method used to destroy and undermine equality of all under the law. Any attempt to implement them in any governmental system is SATANIC and emulates Satan's greatest sin. Those in government who institute or enforce franchises will therefore get the same punishment as Satan did for exactly the same reasons.

4.9 Main purpose of law is to LIMIT government power to ensure freedom and sovereignty of the people<sup>22</sup>

The main purpose of law is to limit government power in order to protect and preserve, freedom, choice, and the sovereignty of the people.

"When we consider the nature and theory of our institutions of government, the principles upon which they are supposed to rest, and review the history of their development, we are constrained to conclude that they do not mean to leave room for the play and action of purely personal and arbitrary power. Sovereignty itself is, of course, not subject to law, for it is the author and source of law; but in our system, while sovereign powers are delegated to the agencies of government, sovereignty itself remains with the people, by whom and for whom all government exists and acts. And the law is the definition and limitation of power."
[Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901) ]

An important implication of the use of law to limit government power is the following inferences unavoidably arising from it:

1. The purpose of law is to define and thereby limit government power.
2. All law acts as a delegation of authority order upon those serving in the government.
3. You cannot limit government power without definitions that are limiting.
4. A definition that does not limit the thing or class of thing defined is no definition at all from a legal perspective and causes anything that depends on that definition to be political rather than legal in nature. By political, we mean a function exercised ONLY by the LEGISLATIVE or EXECUTIVE branch.
5. Where the definitions in the law are clear, judges have no discretion to expand the meaning of words. Therefore the main method of expanding government power and creating what the supreme court calls "arbitrary power" is to use terms in the law that are vague, undefined, "general expressions", or which don't define the context implied.
6. We define "general expressions" as those which:

- 6.1. The speaker is either not accountable or REFUSES to be accountable for the accuracy or truthfulness or definition of the word or expression.
- 6.2. Fail to recognize that there are multiple contexts in which the word could be used.
- 6.2.1. CONSTITUTIONAL (States of the Union).
- 6.2.2. STATUTORY (federal territory).
- 6.3. Are susceptible to two or more CONTEXTS or interpretations, one of which the government representative interpreting the context stands to benefit from handsomely. Thus, “equivocation” is undertaken, in which they TELL you they mean the CONSTITUTIONAL interpretation but after receiving your form or pleading, interpret it to mean the STATUTORY context.

equivocation

EQUIVOCATION, n. Ambiguity of speech; the use of words or expressions that are susceptible of a double signification. Hypocrites are often guilty of equivocation, and by this means lose the confidence of their fellow men. Equivocation is incompatible with the Christian character and profession.

[SOURCE: <http://1828.mshaffer.com/d/search/word/equivocation/>]

Equivocation ("to call by the same name") is an informal logical fallacy. It is the misleading use of a term with more than one meaning or sense (by glossing over which meaning is intended at a particular time). It generally occurs with polysemic words (words with multiple meanings).

Albeit in common parlance it is used in a variety of contexts, when discussed as a fallacy, equivocation only occurs when the arguer makes a word or phrase employed in two (or more) different senses in an argument appear to have the same meaning throughout.

It is therefore distinct from (semantic) ambiguity, which means that the context doesn't make the meaning of the word or phrase clear, and amphiboly (or syntactical ambiguity), which refers to ambiguous sentence structure due to punctuation or syntax.

[Wikipedia topic: Equivocation, Downloaded 9/15/2015; SOURCE: <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Equivocation>]

- 6.4. PRESUME that all contexts are equivalent, meaning that CONSTITUTIONAL and STATUTORY are equivalent.
- 6.5. Fail to identify the specific context implied.
- 6.6. Fail to provide an actionable definition for the term that is useful as evidence in court.
- 6.7. Government representatives actively interfere with or even penalize efforts by the applicant to define the context of the terms so that they can protect their right to make injurious presumptions about their meaning.
7. Any attempt to assert any authority by anyone in government to add anything they want to the definition of a thing in the law unavoidably creates a government of UNLIMITED power.
8. Anyone who can add anything to the definition of a word in the law that does not expressly appear SOMEWHERE in the law is exercising a LEGISLATIVE and POLITICAL function of the LEGISLATIVE branch and is NOT acting as a judge or a jurist.
9. The only people in government who can act in a LEGISLATIVE capacity are the LEGISLATIVE branch under our system of three branches of government: LEGISLATIVE, EXECUTIVE, and JUDICIAL.
10. Any attempt to combine or consolidate any of the powers of each of the three branches into the other branch results in tyranny.

"When the legislative and executive powers are united in the same person, or in the same body of magistrates, there can be no liberty; because apprehensions may arise, lest the same monarch or senate should enact tyrannical laws, to execute them in a tyrannical manner.

Again, there is no liberty, if the judiciary power be not separated from the legislative and executive. Were it joined with the legislative, the life and liberty of the subject would be exposed to arbitrary control; for the judge would be then the legislator. Were it joined to the executive power, the judge might behave with violence and oppression [sound familiar?].

There would be an end of everything, were the same man or the same body, whether of the nobles or of the people, to exercise those three powers, that of enacting laws, that of executing the public resolutions, and of trying the causes of individuals."

In what a situation must the poor subject be in those republics! The same body of magistrates are possessed, as executors of the laws, of the whole power they have given themselves in quality of legislators. They may plunder the state by their general determinations; and as they have likewise the judiciary power in their hands, every private citizen may be ruined by their particular decisions."

4.10 How our system of government became corrupted: Downes v. Bidwell<sup>23</sup>

The dissenting opinion of Justice Harlan in the monumentally important U.S. Supreme Court case of Downes v. Bidwell described how word games would be abused to corrupt our system of government with a stern warning to future generations:

In view of the adjudications of this court, I cannot assent to the proposition, whether it be announced in express words or by implication, that the National Government is a government of or by the States in union, and that the prohibitions and limitations of the Constitution are addressed only to the States. That is but another form of saying that like the government created by the Articles of Confederation, the present government is a mere league of States, held together by compact between themselves; whereas, as this court has often declared, it is a government created by the People of the United States, with enumerated powers, and supreme over States and individuals, with respect to certain objects, throughout the entire territory over which its jurisdiction extends. If the National Government is, in any sense, a compact, it is a compact between the People of the United States among themselves as constituting in the aggregate the political community by whom the National Government was established. The Constitution speaks not simply to the States in their organized capacities, but to all peoples, whether of States or territories, who are subject to the authority of the United States. Martin v. Hunter, 1 Wheat. 304, 327.

*In the opinion to which I am referring it is also said that the "practical interpretation put by Congress upon the Constitution has been long continued and uniform to the effect that the Constitution is applicable to territories acquired by purchase or conquest only when and so far as Congress shall so direct;" that while all power of government may be abused, the same may be said of the power of the Government "under the Constitution as well as outside of it;" that "if it once be conceded that we are at liberty to acquire foreign territory, a presumption arises that 379*379 our power with respect to such territories is the same power which other nations have been accustomed to exercise with respect to territories acquired by them;" that "the liberality of Congress in legislating the Constitution into all our contiguous territories has undoubtedly fostered the impression that it went there by its own force, but there is nothing in the Constitution itself, and little in the interpretation put upon it, to confirm that impression;" that as the States could only delegate to Congress such powers as they themselves possessed, and as they had no power to acquire new territory, and therefore none to delegate in that connection, the logical inference is that "if Congress had power to acquire new territory, which is conceded, that power was not hampered by the constitutional provisions;" that if "we assume that the territorial clause of the Constitution was not intended to be restricted to such territory as the United States then possessed, there is nothing in the Constitution to indicate that the power of Congress in dealing with them was intended to be restricted by any of the other provisions;" and that "the executive and legislative departments of the Government have for more than a century interpreted this silence as precluding the idea that the Constitution attached to these territories as soon as acquired."*

These are words of weighty import. They involve consequences of the most momentous character. I take leave to say that if the principles thus announced should ever receive the sanction of a majority of this court, a radical and mischievous change in our system of government will be the result. We will, in that event, pass from the era of constitutional liberty guarded and protected by a written constitution into an era of legislative absolutism.

*Although from the foundation of the Government this court has held steadily to the view that the Government of the United States was one of enumerated powers, and that no one of its branches, nor all of its branches combined, could constitutionally exercise powers not granted, or which were not necessarily implied from those expressly granted, Martin v. Hunter, 1 Wheat. 304, 326, 331. we are now informed that Congress possesses powers outside of the Constitution, and may deal with new territory, 380*380 acquired by treaty or conquest, in the same manner as other nations have been accustomed to act with respect to territories acquired by them. In my opinion, Congress has no existence and can exercise no authority outside of the Constitution. Still less is it true that Congress can deal with new territories just as other nations have done or may do with their new territories. This nation is under the control of a written constitution, the supreme law of the land and the only source of the powers which our Government, or any branch or officer of it, may exert at any time or at any place. Monarchical and despotic governments, unrestrained by written constitutions, may do with newly acquired territories what this Government may not do consistently with our fundamental law. To say otherwise is to concede that Congress may, by action taken outside of the Constitution, engraft upon our republican institutions a colonial system such as exists under monarchical governments. Surely such a result was never contemplated by the fathers of the Constitution. If that instrument had contained a word suggesting the possibility of a result of that character it would never have been adopted by the People of the United States. The idea that this country may acquire territories anywhere upon the earth, by conquest or treaty, and hold them as mere colonies or provinces — the people inhabiting them to enjoy only such rights as Congress chooses to accord to them — is wholly inconsistent with the spirit and genius as well as with the words of the Constitution.*

The idea prevails with some — indeed, it found expression in arguments at the bar — that we have in this country substantially or practically two national governments; one, to be maintained under the Constitution, with all its restrictions; the other to be maintained by Congress outside and independently of that instrument, by exercising such powers as other nations of the earth

1 are accustomed to exercise. It is one thing to give such a latitudinarian construction to the Constitution as will bring the exercise of
2 power by Congress, upon a particular occasion or upon a particular subject, within its provisions. It is quite a different thing to say
3 that Congress may, if it so elects, proceed outside of the Constitution. The glory of our American system 381*381 of government is
4 that it was created by a written constitution which protects the people against the exercise of arbitrary, unlimited power, and the
5 limits of which instrument may not be passed by the government it created, or by any branch of it, or even by the people who
6 ordained it, except by amendment or change of its provisions. "To what purpose," Chief Justice Marshall said in Marbury v.
7 Madison, 1 Cranch, 137, 176,"are powers limited, and to what purpose is that limitation committed to writing, if these limits
8 may, at any time, be passed by those intended to be restrained? The distinction between a government with limited and unlimited
9 powers is abolished if those limits do not confine the persons on whom they are imposed, and if acts prohibited and acts allowed
10 are of equal obligation."

11 The wise men who framed the Constitution, and the patriotic people who adopted it, were unwilling to depend for their safety upon
12 what, in the opinion referred to, is described as "certain principles of natural justice inherent in Anglo-Saxon character which need
13 no expression in constitutions or statutes to give them effect or to secure dependencies against legislation manifestly hostile to their
14 real interests." They proceeded upon the theory — the wisdom of which experience has vindicated — that the only safe guaranty
15 against governmental oppression was to withhold or restrict the power to oppress. They well remembered that Anglo-Saxons
16 across the ocean had attempted, in defiance of law and justice, to trample upon the rights of Anglo-Saxons on this continent and
17 had sought, by military force, to establish a government that could at will destroy the privileges that inhere in liberty. They believed 18 that the establishment here of a government that could administer public affairs according to its will unrestrained by any
19 fundamental law and without regard to the inherent rights of freemen, would be ruinous to the liberties of the people by 20 exposing them to the oppressions of arbitrary power. Hence, the Constitution enumerates the powers which Congress and the 21 other Departments may exercise — leaving unimpaired, to the States or the People, the powers not delegated to the National
22 Government nor prohibited to the States. That instrument so expressly declares in 382*382 the Tenth Article of Amendment. It
23 will be an evil day for American liberty if the theory of a government outside of the supreme law of the land finds lodgment in 24 our constitutional jurisprudence. No higher duty rests upon this court than to exert its full authority to prevent all violation of 25 the principles of the Constitution.

26 Again, it is said that Congress has assumed, in its past history, that the Constitution goes into territories acquired by purchase or
27 conquest only when and as it shall so direct, and we are informed of the liberality of Congress in legislating the Constitution into 28 all our contiguous territories. This is a view of the Constitution that may well cause surprise, if not alarm. Congress, as I have 29 observed, has no existence except by virtue of the Constitution. It is the creature of the Constitution. It has no powers which that 30 instrument has not granted, expressly or by necessary implication. I confess that I cannot grasp the thought that Congress which 31 lives and moves and has its being in the Constitution and is consequently the mere creature of that instrument, can, at its 32 pleasure, legislate or exclude its creator from territories which were acquired only by authority of the Constitution.

33 By the express words of the Constitution, every Senator and Representative is bound, by oath or affirmation, to regard it as the 34 supreme law of the land. When the Constitutional Convention was in session there was much discussion as to the phraseology of the 35 clause defining the supremacy of the Constitution, laws and treaties of the United States. At one stage of the proceedings the 36 Convention adopted the following clause: "This Constitution, and the laws of the United States made in pursuance thereof, and all
37 the treaties made under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the several States and of their citizens and
38 inhabitants, and the judges of the several States shall be bound thereby in their decisions, anything in the constitutions or laws of 39 the several States to the contrary notwithstanding." This clause was amended, on motion of Mr. Madison, by inserting after the 40 words "all treaties made" the words "or which shall be made." If the clause, so amended, had been inserted in the Constitution as 41 finally adopted, perhaps 383*383 there would have been some justification for saying that the Constitution, laws and treaties of the 42 United States constituted the supreme law only in the States, and that outside of the States the will of Congress was supreme. But 43 the framers of the Constitution saw the danger of such a provision, and put into that instrument in place of the above clause the 44 following: "This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made,
45 or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every 46 State shall be bound thereby, anything in the constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding." Meigs's Growth
47 of the Constitution, 284, 287. That the Convention struck out the words "the supreme law of the several States" and inserted
48 "the supreme law of the land," is a fact of no little significance. The "land" referred to manifestly embraced all the peoples and
49 all the territory, whether within or without the States, over which the United States could exercise jurisdiction or authority.

50 Further, it is admitted that some of the provisions of the Constitution do apply to Porto Rico and may be invoked as limiting or
51 restricting the authority of Congress, or for the protection of the people of that island. And it is said that there is a clear distinction
52 between such prohibitions "as go to the very root of the power of Congress to act at all, irrespective of time or place, and such as 53 are operative only 'throughout the United States' or among the several States." In the enforcement of this suggestion it is said in one
54 of the opinions just delivered: "Thus, when the Constitution declares that 'no bill of attainder or ex post facto law shall be passed,'
55 and that 'no title of nobility shall be granted by the United States,' it goes to the competency of Congress to pass a bill of that
56 description." I cannot accept this reasoning as consistent with the Constitution or with sound rules of interpretation. The express
57 prohibition upon the passage by Congress of bills of attainder, or of ex post facto laws, or the granting of titles of nobility, goes no
58 more directly to the root of the power of Congress than does the express prohibition against the imposition by Congress of any 59 384*384 duty, impost or excise that is not uniform throughout the United States. The opposite theory, I take leave to say, is quite as 60 extraordinary as that which assumes that Congress may exercise powers outside of the Constitution, and may, in its discretion,
61 legislate that instrument into or out of a domestic territory of the United States.

62 In the opinion to which I have referred it is suggested that conditions may arise when the annexation of distant possessions may be
63 desirable. "If," says that opinion, "those possessions are inhabited by alien races, differing from us in religion, customs, laws,
64 methods of taxation and modes of thought, the administration of government and justice, according to Anglo-Saxon principles, may 65 for a time be impossible; and the question at once arises whether large concessions ought not to be made for a time, that ultimately our own theories may be carried out, and the blessings of a free government under the Constitution extended to them. We decline to hold that there is anything in the Constitution to forbid such action." In my judgment, the Constitution does not sustain any such theory of our governmental system. Whether a particular race will or will not assimilate with our people, and whether they can or cannot with safety to our institutions be brought within the operation of the Constitution, is a matter to be thought of when it is proposed to acquire their territory by treaty. A mistake in the acquisition of territory, although such acquisition seemed at the time to be necessary, cannot be made the ground for violating the Constitution or refusing to give full effect to its provisions. The Constitution is not to be obeyed or disobeyed as the circumstances of a particular crisis in our history may suggest the one or the other course to be pursued. The People have decreed that it shall be the supreme law of the land at all times. When the acquisition of territory becomes complete, by cession, the Constitution necessarily becomes the supreme law of such new territory, and no power exists in any Department of the Government to make "concessions" that are inconsistent with its provisions. The authority to make such concessions implies the existence in Congress of power to declare that constitutional provisions may be ignored under special or 385*385 embarrassing circumstances. No such dispensing power exists in any branch of our Government. The Constitution is supreme over every foot of territory, wherever situated, under the jurisdiction of the United States, and its full operation cannot be stayed by any branch of the Government in order to meet what some may suppose to be extraordinary emergencies. If the Constitution is in force in any territory, it is in force there for every purpose embraced by the objects for which the Government was ordained. Its authority cannot be displaced by concessions, even if it be true, as asserted in argument in some of these cases, that if the tariff act took effect in the Philippines of its own force, the inhabitants of Mandanao, who live on imported rice, would starve, because the import duty is many fold more than the ordinary cost of the grain to them. The meaning of the Constitution cannot depend upon accidental circumstances arising out of the products of other countries or of this country. We cannot violate the Constitution in order to serve particular interests in our own or in foreign lands. Even this court, with its tremendous power, must heed the mandate of the Constitution. No one in official station, to whatever department of the Government he belongs, can disobey its commands without violating the obligation of the oath he has taken. By whomsoever and wherever power is exercised in the name and under the authority of the United States, or of any branch of its Government, the validity or invalidity of that which is done must be determined by the Constitution.

In DeLima v. Bidwell, just decided, we have held that upon the ratification of the treaty with Spain, Porto Rico ceased to be a foreign country and became a domestic territory of the United States. We have said in that case that from 1803 to the present time there was not a shred of authority, except a dictum in one case, "for holding that a district ceded to and in possession of the United States remains for any purpose a foreign territory;" that territory so acquired cannot be "domestic for one purpose and foreign for another;" and that any judgment to the contrary would be "pure judicial legislation," for which there was no warrant in the Constitution or in the powers conferred upon this court. Although, as we have just decided, 386*386 Porto Rico ceased, after the ratification of the treaty with Spain, to be a foreign country within the meaning of the tariff act, and became a domestic country — "a territory of the United States" — it is said that if Congress so wills it may be controlled and governed outside of the Constitution and by the exertion of the powers which other nations have been accustomed to exercise with respect to territories acquired by them; in other words, we may solve the question of the power of Congress under the Constitution, by referring to the powers that may be exercised by other nations. I cannot assent to this view. I reject altogether the theory that Congress, in its discretion, can exclude the Constitution from a domestic territory of the United States, acquired, and which could only have been acquired, in virtue of the Constitution. I cannot agree that it is a domestic territory of the United States for the purpose of preventing the application of the tariff act imposing duties upon imports from foreign countries, but not a part of the United States for the purpose of enforcing the constitutional requirement that all duties, imposts and excises imposed by Congress "shall be uniform throughout the United States." How Porto Rico can be a domestic territory of the United States, as distinctly held in DeLima v. Bidwell, and yet, as is now held, not embraced by the words "throughout the United States," is more than I can understand.

We heard much in argument about the "expanding future of our country." It was said that the United States is to become what is called a "world power;" and that if this Government intends to keep abreast of the times and be equal to the great destiny that awaits the American people, it must be allowed to exert all the power that other nations are accustomed to exercise. My answer is, that the fathers never intended that the authority and influence of this nation should be exerted otherwise than in accordance with the Constitution. If our Government needs more power than is conferred upon it by the Constitution, that instrument provides the mode in which it may be amended and additional power thereby obtained. The People of the United States who ordained the Constitution never supposed that a change could be made in our system of government 387*387 by mere judicial interpretation. They never contemplated any such juggling with the words of the Constitution as would authorize the courts to hold that the words "throughout the United States," in the taxing clause of the Constitution, do not embrace a domestic "territory of the United States" having a civil government established by the authority of the United States. This is a distinction which I am unable to make, and which I do not think ought to be made when we are endeavoring to ascertain the meaning of a great instrument of government.

[Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901), Justice Harlan, Dissenting]

Could it possibly be doubted that if Congress has been handed by the U.S. Supreme Court ANY CIRCUMSTANCE in which it can exercise its discretion in a way that COMPLETELY disregards the entire constitution, that they would not succumb to the temptation to enact it, expand it, and make it apply through trickery to everyone, as they have done with the income tax and federal franchises in general? NOT!

"In every government on earth is some trace of human weakness, some germ of corruption and degeneracy, which cunning will discover, and wickedness insensibly open, cultivate and improve."
[Thomas Jefferson: Notes on Virginia Q.XIV, 1782. ME 2:207]

THIS in fact, is what Justice Harlan was talking about in the following excerpt in the above:

1 "These are words of weighty import. They involve consequences of the most momentous character. I take leave to say
2 that if the principles thus announced should ever receive the sanction of a majority of 3 this court, a radical and mischievous change in our system of government will be the 4 result. We will, in that event, pass from the era of constitutional liberty guarded and 5 protected by a written constitution into an era of legislative absolutism."

6 [...]

7 "This nation is under the control of a written constitution, the supreme law of the land and the only source of the powers which
8 our Government, or any branch or officer of it, may exert at any time or at any place. Monarchical and despotic governments,
9 unrestrained by written constitutions, may do with newly acquired territories what this Government may not do consistently with 10 our fundamental law. To say otherwise is to concede that Congress may, by action taken outside of the Constitution, engraft
11 upon our republican institutions a colonial system such as exists under monarchical governments. Surely such a result was 12 never contemplated by the fathers of the Constitution. If that instrument had contained a word suggesting the possibility of a
13 result of that character it would never have been adopted by the People of the United States. The idea that this 14 country may acquire territories anywhere upon the earth, by conquest or treaty, and 15 hold them as mere colonies or provinces — the people inhabiting them to enjoy only 16 such rights as Congress chooses to accord to them — is wholly inconsistent with the 17 spirit and genius as well as with the words of the Constitution."

18 "The idea prevails with some — indeed, it found expression in arguments at the bar — that we have in this country substantially
19 or practically two national governments; one, to be maintained under the Constitution, with all its restrictions; the other to be
20 maintained by Congress outside and independently of that instrument, by exercising such powers as other nations of the earth
21 are accustomed to exercise." It is one thing to give such a latitudinarian construction to the Constitution as will bring the exercise
22 of power by Congress, upon a particular occasion or upon a particular subject, within its provisions. It is quite a different thing to
23 say that Congress may, if it so elects, proceed outside of the Constitution. The glory of our American system 381*381 of 24 government is that it was created by a written constitution which protects the people against the exercise of arbitrary, unlimited
25 power, and the limits of which instrument may not be passed by the government it created, or by any branch of it, or even by the
26 people who ordained it, except by amendment or change of its provisions. "To what purpose," Chief Justice Marshall said in 27 Marbury v. Madison, 1 Cranch, 137, 176,"are powers limited, and to what purpose is that limitation committed to writing, if
28 these limits may, at any time, be passed by those intended to be restrained? The distinction between a government with limited
29 and unlimited powers is abolished if those limits do not confine the persons on whom they are imposed, and if acts prohibited
30 and acts allowed are of equal obligation."

31 [Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901), Justice Harlan, Dissenting]

32 Justice Harlan is saying that we now have a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde government. They did in fact do what he predicted:
33 Graft a monarchical colonial system for federal territory onto an egalitarian free republican system. Starting with the 34 Downes case, the U.S. Supreme Court declared and recognized essentially that:

- 35 1. NO PART of the Constitution limits what the national government can do in a territory, including the prohibition
36 against Titles of Nobility and even ex post facto laws.
37 2. As long as Congress is legislating for territories, it can do whatever it wants, including an income tax, just like every 38 other nation of the earth. In fact, this is the source of all the authority for enacting the income tax to begin with.
39 3. If Congress wants to invade the states commercially and tax them, all it has to do is:
40 3.1. Write such legislation ONLY for the territories and implement it as a franchise. Since all franchises are based on
41 contract, then they can be enforced extraterritorially, including in a state. This is the basis for the Social Security
42 Act of 1935, in fact.

43 Debt and contract [franchise agreement, in this case] are of no particular place.

44 Locus contractus regit actum.

45 The place of the contract [franchise agreement, in this case] governs the act.

46 [Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;

47 SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviertsMaxims.htm>]

1 "It is generally conceded that a franchise is the subject of a contract between the grantor and the grantee, and that it does in fact
2 constitute a contract when the requisite element of a consideration is present.<sup>24</sup> Conversely, a franchise granted without
3 consideration is not a contract binding upon the state, franchisee, or pseudo-franchisee.<sup>25</sup> "
4 [36 American Jurisprudence 2d, Franchises, §6: As a Contract (1999)]

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6 3.2. Entice people in states of the Union with a bribe to sign up for the territorial franchise, and make it IMPOSSIBLE
7 to quit the system. This uses capitalism to implement socialism.

8 3.3. Through legal deception and fraud, make the franchise legislation LOOK like:

9 3.3.1. It applies to CONSTITUTIONAL states rather than only STATUTORY "States" and territories.

10 3.3.2. It ISN'T a franchise or excise.

11 These things are done through "equivocation", in which TERRITORIAL STATUTORY "States" under 4 U.S.C.
12 §110(d) and CONSTITUTIONAL States of the Union are made ot appear and act the same. This was also done in 13 the Sixteenth Amendment, which granted no new powers to Congress, as held by the U.S. Supreme Court in 14 Stanton v. Baltic Mining Co., 240 U.S. 103 (1916). See:

Why You Aren't Eligible for Social Security, Form #06.001

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

15 3.4. Establish an EXTRACONSTITUTIONAL revenue collection apparatus that is NOT part of the constitutional
16 government. Namely the I.R.S. is not now and never has been part of the U.S. Government. Instead, it is a straw
17 man for the Federal Reserve. The Federal Reserve, in fact, is not more governmental than Federal Express. See:

Origins and Authority of the Internal Revenue Service, Form #05.005

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

18 3.5. Use propaganda and abusive regulation of the banking system and employers to turn banks and private companies
19 in states of the Union into federal employment recruiters, in which you can't open an account or pursue 20 "employment" without becoming a privileged and enfranchised public officer representing an 21 PUBLIC/GOVERNMENT office domiciled on federal territory and subject to the territorial law. See:

Federal and State Tax Withholding Options for Private Employers, Form #09.001

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

22 3.6. Bribe CONSTITUTIONAL states with "commercial incentives" or subsidies if they in essence agree by compact
23 or agreement to act as federal territories and allow the income tax to be enforced within their borders. This is 24 done through DEBT and the Federal Reserve as well as the Agreements on Coordination of Tax Administration
25 (ACTA) between the national government and the states. Now obviously, they can only do that within 26 ENCLAVES within their external borders using the Public Salary Tax Act of 1939, but they will PRETEND for 27 the sake of filthy lucre that it applies EVERYWHERE in the state by:

28 3.6.1. Not defining the term "State" within their revenue codes.

29 3.6.2. Calling those who insist on these limits "frivolous" in court.

30 3.7. Engage in an ongoing propaganda campaign to discredit and persecute all those who expose and try to remedy the 31 above. This is done by making the government UNACCOUNTABLE for the truth or accuracy of ANYTHING it
32 says or does administratively. We have been a target of that campaign. See:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

33 3.8. Legislatively create a conflict of interest in the judges administering the territorial so that they will be forced to 34 apply it to the states of the Union.

35 3.9. Get the U.S. Supreme Court, through pressure on individual justices, to allow the financial and criminal conflict
36 of interest with judges to stand and expand.

3.10. Use the U.S. Supreme Court as a method to embargo challenges to the above illegalities by denying appeals. This was done using the Certiorari Act of 1925 proposed by former President and Chief Justice William Howard Taft. This was the same President who proposed the Sixteenth Amendment and FRAUDULENTLY got it passed by lame duck Secretary of State Philander Knox.<sup>26</sup>

That last step: creating a conflict of interest in judges was accomplished starting in 1918, right after Downes v. Bidwell and just after the Sixteenth Amendment and Federal Reserve Act were passed in 1913. In particular, here is how it was accomplished:

1. Making judges into “taxpayers” started in 1918. This allowed them to become the target of political persecution by the Bureau of Internal Revenue if they properly enforce and protect the civil status of parties.
  - 1.1. This began first with the Revenue Act of 1918, 40 Stat. 1065, Section 213(a) and was declared unconstitutional.
  - 1.2. The second attempt to make judges taxpayers occurred the Revenue Act of 1932, 47 Stat. 169 and this time it stuck.
  - 1.3. This conflict of interest is also documented in Evans v. Gore, 253 U.S. 245 (1920), Miles v. Graham, 268 U.S. 501 (1925), O’Malley v. Woodrough, 309 U.S. 277 (1939), and U.S. v. Hatter, 532 U.S. 557, 121 S.Ct. 1782, (2001).
2. Judges have been allowed, illegally, to serve as BOTH franchise judges under Article IV of the Constitution and CONSTITUTIONAL judges under Article III. When given a choice of the two, they will always pick the Article IV franchise judge status, because it financially rewards them and unduly elevates their own importance and jurisdiction.
3. The IRS is allowed to financially reward judges and prosecutors for convicting those who do not consent to the identity theft. See 26 U.S.C. §7623, I.R.M. 25.2.2.

The above process is EXACTLY what they have done. From the 10,000 foot or MACRO view, it essentially amounts to identity theft. That identity theft is exhaustively described in the following:

Government Identity Theft, Form #05.046
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

Our document Legal Deception, Propaganda, and Fraud, Form #05.014 describes how that identity theft is accomplished by the abuse of conflict of interest, the rules of statutory interpretation, and equivocation from a general perspective. That language abuse is also particularized in the above document to specific other legal contexts, such as:

1. Domicile identity theft.
2. Citizenship identity theft.
3. Franchise identity theft.

Ultimately, however, all of the identity theft they employ is accomplished by misrepresenting their authority and enforcing laws outside their territory. It really boils down to:

1. Replacing PRIVATE rights with PUBLIC privileges.
2. Turning “citizens” and “residents” into the equivalent of government public officers or employees.
3. Turning all civil law essentially into the employment agreement of virtually everyone who claims to be a STATUTORY “citizen” or “resident”.
4. A commercial invasion of the states of the Union in violation of Article 4, Section 4.
5. The abuse of franchises and privileges within the states of the Union to create a caste system that emulates the British Monarchy we tried to escape by fighting a revolution.
6. Using the civil statutory law as a mechanism to limit and control PEOPLE rather than the GOVERNMENT.
7. Creating a government of UNLIMITED powers. There are no limits on what an EMPLOYER can order his EMPLOYEES or OFFICERS to do, and THAT is what you are if you claim to be a STATUTORY “citizen” under any act of Congress.

8. Using “selective enforcement” to discredit and destroy all those who attempt to QUIT their job as a government officer or employee called a STATUTORY “citizen” or “resident”. THIS is how the fraudulent identity theft scheme and government mafia protects and expands itself.

5. Opposing attempts to destroy or undermine your freedom

We emphasize that there are several things one must do in order to prevent being victimized by illegal tax enforcement or criminal prosecution by a corrupt government. These things are described in the following subsections.

5.1 Summary of how you lose your freedom

The most important thing to remember as you read this document are the causes of all the problems and corruption in the government that this document is designed to rectify and combat, which are listed below in descending order of importance:

1. Failure to stand on Biblical truth: Trusting politicians or lawyers over God’s word as an authority for human conduct. Eph. 6:12. We are in a battle and we have to stand on scriptural truth. Believers tend to bifurcate or separate God’s laws from their own personal or political or familial affairs. This leads to:
  - 1.1. Moral relativism.
  - 1.2. Dependence on man and government.
  - 1.3. Insecurity.
  - 1.4. Insufficient faith.
  - 1.5. Making you unable to be “IN the world but not OF the world”. In other words, it destroys your sanctification and holiness. See:

SEDM Sermon 8.8: God Commands us to be aliens and foreigners
<http://sedm.org/Sermons/Sermons.htm>
  - 1.6. Making your religious faith and your example irrelevant.
  - 1.7. Making you into a hypocrite by violating God’s laws.
  - 1.8. Making you into a statist who worships government above God.
  - 1.9. Making believers no better than the rest of the world.

“But you must continue in the things which you have learned and been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them, and that from childhood you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.

The judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.
More to be desired are they than gold,
Yea, than much fine gold;
Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.
Moreover by them Your servant is warned,
And in keeping them there is great reward.
[Psalm 19:7-11, Bible, NKJV]

For those readers who are serious about treating the Bible as the divinely inspired law book that it is, see. Reading the Holy Bible as a law book is the method by which we spiritually discerned everything in this document and everything on our website:

Laws of the Bible, Litigation Tool #09.001
<http://sedm.org/Litigation/LitIndex.htm>

2. Franchises: Participating in government franchises, all of which completely destroy your sovereignty and make you an indentured servant of the national government, who then becomes your parens patriae. This includes Social Security, Medicare, and the Internal Revenue Code, Subtitle A income tax. All franchises are essentially contracts between the grantor and the grantee that are the only lawful mechanism that the government can use to impose duties upon the average American. An example of a franchise is a McDonald's franchise, in which you sign up to open a store and use the McDonald's logo, and in return, you are obligated to buy from them, be supervised by them, and send a percentage of the profits to the franchise administrator. See:

Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030

3. Legal Ignorance: Refusing to read and learn and enforce the law. Law is the main vehicle used in a free society to deceive and enslave the people. You must learn the law and the various ways that it is abused to injure you if you want to be free, and your servants in government won't ever empower you with the key to your chains. The origin of all legal jurisdiction is your consent to be governed. If there are things in the civil law that you don't consent to, then you can lawfully remove yourself from the jurisdiction of said civil law by removing your consent and your legal "person" from the civil jurisdiction of the government that passed the law you don't like. Obviously, you can't remove yourself from the jurisdiction of a criminal law, but civil laws you can by changing your status and domicile. Most laws are civil, and therefore you have a lot of influence over how you govern your life.
4. Irresponsibility: Refusing to take responsibility for ourselves and/or our families and loved ones. All rights come from responsibilities to a higher power, and that power is God. You can't "own" yourself without taking EXCLUSIVE responsibility for yourself. OWNERSHIP and RESPONSIBILITY are inseparable and form two sides of the SAME coin. That coin is FREEDOM. Those who refuse to obey God and His laws ultimately must be governed by and become a slave to a civil ruler because they refuse to govern themselves. Symptoms of this problem include:
- 4.1. Refusing to help our neighbor or engage in charitable causes.
  - 4.2. Trying to collect more government "benefits" than we paid for.
  - 4.3. Asking government for "benefits" or participating in the franchises that implement them.
- The above actions sanction your government to STEAL from the HAVEs in order to give to the have nots. Governments don't produce anything. All they do is either STEAL money from nontaxpayers by constructive FRAUD or counterfeit it through fiat currency systems. Both forms of revenue generation are evil and make the government into a thief and a Robinhood, which the U.S. Supreme Court has held is unconstitutional:

"A tax, in the general understanding of the term and as used in the constitution, signifies an exaction for the support of the government. The word has never thought to connote the expropriation of money from one group for the benefit of another."
[U.S. v. Butler, 297 U.S. 1 (1936) ]

To lay with one hand the power of the government on the property of the citizen, and with the other to bestow it upon favored individuals to aid private enterprises and build up private fortunes, is nonetheless a robbery because it is done under the forms of law and is called taxation. This is not legislation. It is a decree under legislative forms.

Nor is it taxation. A "tax," says Webster's Dictionary, "is a rate or sum of money assessed on the person or property of a citizen by government for the use of the nation or state." "Taxes are burdens or charges imposed by the legislature upon persons or property to raise money for public purposes."
[Loan Association v. Topeka, 20 Wall. 655 (1874)]

5. Presumption: People governing their lives or making decisions based on presumptions instead of facts. Most of what you think you know about law and government is really just a belief that cannot be supported by legally admissible evidence, and therefore is little more than a religion. See:

Presumption: Chief Weapon for Unlawfully Enlarging Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.017
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

We remind our readers that the story of Adam and Eve described in the Bible was REALLY a story about disobeying God and His laws and commandments and refusing to take responsibility for that disobedience. God told Adam and Eve in Gen. 2:17 not to eat the fruit of the tree of knowledge of good and evil. The serpent promised Eve TWO things to entice her to eat the fruit, both of which were intended to make her believe that she would not be responsible for her actions:

- 1. The serpent said to Eve that if she ate the fruit, she would NOT die as God had promised. In other words, she would not be responsible for the consequence of her disobedience to God's command. Gen. 3:4.
- 2. The serpent also promised Eve that if she ate the fruit, she would become LIKE God. The essence of what it means to be a god is that you are omnipotent and accountable or responsible to NO ONE. Gen. 3:4.

Hence, both things promised by the serpent were designed to make Eve believe that she would be responsible for none of her actions and accountable to NO ONE for any of them. After Eve ate the fruit and God then approached both of them and asked them what they had done, the response of both Adam and Eve was to blame it on someone else, meaning refuse to take responsibility to God for their disobedience.

1. Adam blamed his decision on Eve. Gen. 3:12.
2. Eve blamed her decision on the serpent, saying that the serpent had deceived her. Gen. 3:13.

Hence, when faced with the consequences of their disobedience towards God's laws, both of them attempted to evade responsibility, which simply proves that was their motivation from the beginning for eating the fruit. Ironically, that IRRESPONSIBILITY is the legal equivalent of SOVEREIGNTY. A "sovereign", after all, is unaccountable to others for their actions and cannot be controlled by others. However, there is ONE major difference between sinful IRRESPONSIBILITY and biblical SOVEREIGNTY, which is that BIBLICAL sovereignty includes accountability to God and His laws. Atheistic sovereignty glorifies man instead of God and leads to anarchism and the dangerous accumulation or consolidation of power that is a threat to liberty rather than a protector of it.

Sovereignty. The supreme, absolute, and uncontrollable power by which any independent state is governed; supreme political authority; paramount control of the constitution and frame of government and its administration; self sufficient source of political power, from which all specific political powers are derived; the international independence of a state, combined with the right and power of regulating its internal affairs without foreign dictation; also a political society, or state, which is sovereign and independent.

*Chisholm v. Georgia, 2 Dall. 455, 1 L.Ed. 440; Union Bank v. Hill, 3 Cold., Tenn 325; Moore v. Shaw, 17 Cal. 218, 79 Am.Dec. 123; State v. Dixon, 66 Mont. 76, 213 P. 227.
[Black's Law Dictionary 4th Edition (1951), p. 1568]*

Government is like the serpent in the story, which is symbolic of Satan himself. It has made a business, or more particularly a very profitable franchise, out of insulating people from the responsibility for all their choices and actions and thereby centralizing all power and sovereignty to itself. It has done this through "social insurance" programs, all of which are implemented as franchises that completely destroy your sovereignty and constitutional rights. This corruption is described in:

The Unlimited Liability Universe, Family Guardian Fellowship

The vast majority of the rest of the Bible after Gen. 3 documents ALL the consequences of Adam and Eve's disobedience to God's commandments and laws, as well as that of their descendants. The lesson you should learn from this story is that life got REALLY complicated for Adam and Eve and their descendants because they wanted to be disobedient, irresponsible, and rebellious toward God and His laws. This proves that the main purpose God's laws is to simplify your life and avoid all the problems and complications that people invite into their lives by failure to recognize God's commands as law or a failure to obey them to the best of their ability. Such rebellion and disobedience manifests itself in several forms:

1. Refusing to acknowledge the authority of the ENTIRE bible of whatever religion you believe in as LAW. This means that if you are a Christian, you must acknowledge both the Old and New Testaments as law.
2. Questioning the credibility of any portion of the bible of your respective religion in order to justify violating any part of God's law.
3. Claiming that God's grace is a license to sin without consequence, and in willful disobedience of God's law.

The success of your efforts to restore your sovereignty and freedom depends entirely on the following factors in descending order of importance:

1. Treating the bible of your religion as a law book and a covenant in which you are not entitled to the rewards without fruit or actions of obedience towards the law book. The rewards, which are UNEQUAL, will be received AFTER you leave Earth, but not here on Earth. See:
  - 1.1. Delegation of Authority Order from God to Christians, Form #13.007, Section 3.6
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

1.2. Corruption Within Modern Christianity, Form #08.012, Section 4.2

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

2. Learning, reading, knowing, and obeying God's laws to the best of your ability. This will allow you to govern your own life and family without any external interference or need for the government, family courts, civil courts, etc. See:

Laws of the Bible, Form #13.001

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

3. Taking complete, exclusive, and personal responsibility for all of you and your family's actions and choices. This means only requesting help from others as your very last resort after you have made every possible effort to correct the problem yourself and executed your due diligence by studying the law and finding out for yourself what your options are.
4. Not allowing yourself to be in the position of ever having to depend on others, and especially in emergencies. When you want it REALLY bad, you will get it REALLY bad. Bend over.
5. Planning and executing every facet of your life and your choices consistent with the above priorities.
6. Violation of the above principles in the case of Christianity are extensively documented in:

Corruption Within Modern Christianity, Form #08.012

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

Benjamin Franklin, one of the Founding Fathers, was quoted as saying as he left the Constitutional convention when questioned about what kind of government they had created, the following:

"A republic, Maam. If you can keep it."

The measure of whether you can "keep it", meaning the Republic indicated by Ben Franklin, is the degree to which you take complete and exclusive responsibility for yourself. The minute you refuse this calling, is the minute you will not only become a slave to your own sin, but to sinful rulers who will try to profit from your sin by offering you franchises designed to exchange your rights for a bowl of pottage. When you want ANYTHING REALLY BAD, you will get it in the rear end. BEND OVER. See:

Overview of America, Liberty University Section 2.3

<http://sedm.org/LibertyU/LibertyU.htm>

President Theodore Roosevelt agreed with these conclusions when he summed up the essence of what it means to be "sovereign":

"We of this mighty western Republic have to grapple with the dangers that spring from popular self-government tried on a scale incomparably vaster than ever before in the history of mankind, and from an abounding material prosperity greater also than anything which the world has hitherto seen."

As regards the first set of dangers, it behooves us to remember that men can never escape being governed. Either they must govern themselves or they must submit to being governed by others. If from lawlessness or fickleness, from folly or self-indulgence, they refuse to govern themselves then most assuredly in the end they will have to be governed from the outside. They can prevent the need of government from without only by showing they possess the power of government from within. A sovereign cannot make excuses for his failures; a sovereign must accept the responsibility for the exercise of power that inheres in him; and where, as is true in our Republic, the people are sovereign, then the people must show a sober understanding and a sane and steadfast purpose if they are to preserve that orderly liberty upon which as a foundation every republic must rest."
[President Theodore Roosevelt; Opening of the Jamestown Exposition; Norfolk, VA, April 26, 1907]

The quickest and easiest way for you to:

1. Destroy your own credibility.
2. Indicate to us that you:
  - 2.1. Really DON'T want to be free.
  - 2.2. Don't understand what freedom is about.
  - 2.3. Don't want or deserve our help.

Is for you to:

1. Refuse to take responsibility for the above or demonstrate your commitment and diligence in taking responsibility at every step of your life.

2. Expect someone else to do your homework or hard work needed to restore your sovereignty in order to avoid pain or discomfort. For instance, posting questions in our forums or contacting us for answers BEFORE you have made any effort to answer the questions yourself. Instead, make every possible effort to research the issue yourself and volunteer all the answers you have found so far when posing the question. This will demonstrate that you REALLY care and want to be responsible for yourself.
3. Not learn how to use our website and then force us to find the answer to your question and do your research for you so you don't have to learn anything. You should download the following and watch it several times so you are completely familiar with our website. It is a large file so don't watch it off the internet:

Website Video Orientation, Form #12.010

YOUTUBE: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3Qs7\_oq9I2w

4. Expect that simply paying money to us to execute the sovereignty process or answer an immediate question or emergency will be a "silver bullet" that will keep them from pain or effort or prevent the need for commitment on their part. No amount of money paid to others will solve the main problem, which is your own ignorance of the law, laziness, and irresponsibility.

All of the above are summed up by the following proverbs and scriptures:

"Liberty Means Responsibility. That's why most men dread it."
[George Bernard Shaw]

"The hand of the diligent will rule, but the lazy [or irresponsible] man will be put to forced labor [slavery!]."
[Prov. 12:24, Bible, NKJV]

"Go to the ant, you sluggard! Consider her ways and be wise, which, having no captain, overseer or ruler, provides her supplies in the summer, and gathers her food in the harvest, how long will you slumber, O sluggard? When will you rise from your sleep? A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep--so shall your poverty come on you like a prowler, and your need like an armed man."
[Prov. 6:6-11]

"...we should no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the cunning craftiness of deceitful plotting, but speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the head—Christ."
[Eph. 4:14, Bible, NKJV]

Your deceitful government knows all of the above. They know that those who refuse to pay their "taxes" want to evade responsibility for paying for the so-called "benefits" they consume by living in this country. In fact, their knowledge of this section is the main weapon they use to prosecute tax crimes in court. When they want to convict you of a tax crime, they will assemble a grand jury and petit jury full of tax consumers, government dependents, and government public officers called statutory "U.S. citizens" and "taxpayers", tell them that you are a "leech" who won't pay his "fair share" and that your omission is increasing THEIR tax bill, and then watch them hang you. In proving that you are a leech, they will show the "benefits" you collected and then accuse you of stealing because you refuse to reimburse them for the cost of providing the benefit. That will get the jury mad and make them want to hang you.

Below is the language that the Supreme Court used to describe their "benefit" franchise. Note that your corrupt government describes their mere EXISTENCE as a "benefit" and refuses to recognize your right NOT to procure their protection or services. Hence, they believe in SLAVERY that is a violation of the Thirteenth Amendment:

"The contention was rejected that a citizen's property without the limits of the United States derives no benefit from the United States. The contention, it was said, came from the confusion of thought in 'mistaking the scope and extent of the sovereign power of the United States as a nation and its relations to its citizens and their relation to it.' And that power in its scope and extent, it was decided, is based on the presumption that government by its very nature benefits the citizen and his property wherever found, and that opposition to it holds on to citizenship while it 'belittles and destroys its advantages and blessings by denying the possession by government of an essential power required to make citizenship completely beneficial.' In other words, the principle was declared that the government, by its very nature, benefits the citizen and his property wherever found, and therefore has the power to make the benefit complete. Or, to express it another way, the basis of the power to tax was not and cannot be made dependent upon the situs of the property in all cases, it being in or out of the United States, nor was not and cannot be made dependent upon the domicile of the citizen, that being in or out of the United States, but upon his relation as citizen to the United States and the relation of the latter to him as citizen. The consequence of the relations is that the native citizen who is taxed may have domicile, and the property from which his income is derived may have situs, in a foreign country and the tax be legal—the government having power to impose the tax."
[Cook v. Tait, 265 U.S. 47 (1924)]

The “benefit” being taxed above is, in fact, the “privilege” of calling yourself a statutory “U.S. citizen”, which is entirely voluntary. Those who choose not to avail themselves of this privilege must instead declare themselves to be all of the following:

1. Constitutional but not Statutory “citizens” under 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21).
2. Statutory “non-resident non-persons”.
3. “Transient foreigners”.
4. Having no civil status under the statutory codes of Congress by virtue of a legislatively foreign domicile.

This is covered in:

Why You are a “national”, “state national”, and Constitutional but not Statutory Citizen, Form #05.006
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

We must remember, however, that the corrupt government also has an obligation to abide by the following maxims of law which obligate them to make it at least POSSIBLE to avoid receiving any and all “benefits”:

Invito beneficium non datur. No one is obliged to accept a benefit against his consent. Dig. 50, 17, 69. But if he does not dissent he will be considered as assenting. Vide Assent.

Quilibet potest renunciare juri pro se inducto. Any one may renounce a law introduced for his own benefit. To this rule there are some exceptions. See 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 83.

Potest quis renunciare pro se, et suis, juri quod pro se introductum est. A man may relinquish, for himself and his heirs, a right which was introduced for his own benefit. See 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 83.

Quod meum est sine me auferri non potest. What is mine cannot be taken away without my consent. Jenk. Cent. 251. Sed vide Eminent Domain.

[Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;
SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviersMaxims.htm>]

The above maxims would seem to imply to us the following, which are a great way to defend oneself from illegal franchise enforcement:

1. Governments can't FORCE you to accept a benefit.

Invito beneficium non datur. No one is obliged to accept a benefit against his consent. Dig. 50, 17, 69. But if he does not dissent he will be considered as assenting. Vide Assent.

Quilibet potest renunciare juri pro se inducto. Any one may renounce a law introduced for his own benefit. To this rule there are some exceptions. See 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 83.

[Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;
SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviersMaxims.htm>]

2. Governments MUST at all times ensure that there is a way at every point to SURRENDER eligibility to receive the “benefit”. That means they must publish (and not HIDE) forms and procedures for doing so and allow you to accumulate evidence in your administrative record that you DO NOT consent.

Potest quis renunciare pro se, et suis, juri quod pro se introductum est. A man may relinquish, for himself and his heirs, a right which was introduced for his own benefit. See 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 83.

[Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;
SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviersMaxims.htm>]

3. Government statutes and codes offering the franchise:
  - 3.1. Must acknowledge the existence of NON-PARTICIPANTS, most of whom in most cases are COMPELLED TO PARTICIPATE but who do not consent.
  - 3.2. Must acknowledge the voluntary nature of the program and the absolute RIGHT to quit at any time. For instance, the Internal Revenue SERVICE needs to be acknowledged as an OPTIONAL “service” for those who DO NOT WANT to be serviced by the “trade or business”/public officer franchise that it implements.

3.3. Must identify the government offering the franchise as engaging in PRIVATE business activity for which official, judicial, and sovereign immunity is implicitly and explicitly waived in all court proceedings involving the benefit.<sup>27</sup>

4. Government forms and procedures for administering a franchise benefit must at all time acknowledge and provide administrative AND judicial remedies for those who:

4.1. Are FORCED to participate but who do not want the “benefits”. . .or

4.2. What their status changed to “non-participant” or “non-resident”. . .or 4.3. Are non-residents not even eligible for the “benefit”, and especially if they live outside the territory or geography where the benefit can lawfully be offered. In other words, to change your civil status because you changed your domicile to be outside the location of eligibility.

For an example of the above, see:

Your Rights as a Non-Taxpayer, IRS Publication 1a, Form #08.008

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

5. Those who force others to participate in “benefits” must be promptly prosecuted criminally, to protect the VOLUNTARY nature of any and every franchise.

5.1. The enforcement should be as swift and decisive as the FRANCHISE enforcement against those who DO participate voluntarily. Otherwise they are playing favorites to pad their pockets. That’s a crime. See 18 U.S.C. §208.

5.2. Those who are prosecuted for such crimes should be as widely publicized as those who refuse to pay for the benefits they receive.

6. If governments want to enforce the OBLIGATIONS associated with the ACCEPTANCE of a benefit, they have the burden of PROVING with evidence on the court or administrative record of the enforcement proceeding that you consented on the record of any enforcement proceeding.

7. Governments are presumed to be CRIMINALLY STEALING if they take property in connection with a franchise enforcement proceeding and they:

7.1. Don’t have evidence of your consent in their possession.. or

7.2. Can’t or won’t produce that evidence...or

7.3. Refuse to provide forms and procedures to quit the franchise...or

7.4. Have hidden the forms and procedures to quit. . .or

7.5. Have “conveniently LOST” the forms you sent them quitting the program (dog ate my homework excuse).

8. Governments MAY NOT destroy or interfere with the production of evidence in your administrative record that you DO NOT consent. The reason is that if they do, they are engaging in a conspiracy to destroy your PRIVATE rights and protect criminal activity. That means that governments CAN’T:

8.1. Drag their feet when they receive a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) or Privacy Act (PA) request asking for copies of the evidence you sent them terminating your participation.

8.2. Conveniently LOSE evidence you submitted terminating participation and blame it on their own incompetence. Instead, they should be prosecuted for a failure to promptly acknowledge receipt of the evidence quitting the program.

United States*, 231 Ct.Cl. 823, 826 (1982) (sovereign acts doctrine applies where, “[w]here [the] contracts exclusively between private parties, the party hurt by such governing action could not claim compensation from the other party for the governing action”). The dissent ignores these statements (including the statement from Jones, from which case Horowitz drew its reasoning literally verbatim), when it says, post at 931, that the sovereign acts cases do not emphasize the need to treat the government-as-contractor the same as a private party.

2 5.2 Summary of how to protect your freedom

3 This section summarizes all the basics that you need to know to be free. The most important principles we want to
4 emphasize throughout this document in order for you to protect and defend your status as free, Sovereign, and "foreign" but 5 not "alien" in respect to a government that is obviously totally corrupted are that:

6 1. You must study and learn the law if you want to be free.

7 "One who turns his ear from hearing the law [God's law or man's law], even his prayer is an abomination."
8 [Prov. 28:9, Bible, NKJV]

9 "This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do
10 according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success. Have I not
11 commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever 12 you go."

13 [Joshua 1:8-9, Bible, NKJV,

14 IMPLICATION: If you aren't reading and trying to obey God's law daily, then you're not doing God's will and you will not
15 prosper]

16 "But this crowd that does not know [and quote and follow and use] the law is accursed."
17 [John 7:49, Bible, NKJV]

18 "Salvation is far from the wicked, For they do not seek Your [God's] statutes."
19 [Psalm 119:155, Bible, NKJV]

20 "Every man is supposed to know the law. A party who makes a contract or enters into a [franchise, which is also a contract] with an
21 officer [of the government] without having it reduced to writing is knowingly accessory to a violation of duty on his part. Such a 22 party aids in the violation of the law."
23 [Clark v. United States, 95 U.S. 539 (1877)]

24 2. You must learn how to diligently seek, discern, accept, and act on the Truth:

25 2.1. God is Truth. Those who run from the Truth are running from God and towards Satan

26 Jesus said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me."
27 [John 14:6, Bible, NKJV]

28 "But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they have been done in God."
29 [John 3:21, Bible, NKJV]

30 2.2. Those who run from the truth will suffer the following fate:

31 A Rebellious People

32 Now go, write it before them on a tablet,
33 And note it on a scroll,
34 That it may be for time to come,
35 Forever and ever:

36 That this is a rebellious people,

37 Lying children,

38 Children who will not hear the law of the LORD;

39 Who say to the seers, "Do not see,"

40 And to the prophets, "Do not prophesy to us right things;

41 Speak to us smooth things, prophesy deceits.

42 Get out of the way,

43 Turn aside from the path,

44 Cause the Holy One of Israel

45 To cease from before us."

46 Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel:

1 "Because you despise this word,
2 And trust in oppression and perversity,
3 And rely on them,
4 Therefore this iniquity shall be to you
5 Like a breach ready to fall,
6 A bulge in a high wall,
7 Whose breaking comes suddenly, in an instant. And He shall break it like the breaking of the potter's vessel,
8 Which is broken in pieces;
9 He shall not spare.
10 So there shall not be found among its fragments
11 A shard to take fire from the hearth,
12 Or to take water from the cistern."
13 [Isaiah 30:8-14, Bible, NKJV]

14 2.3. The truth is the most important thing you can possess.

15 "Buy the truth, and do not sell it, also wisdom and instruction and understanding."
16 [Prov. 23:23, Bible, NKJV]

17 "Happy is the man who finds wisdom,
18 And the man who gains understanding;
19 For her proceeds are better than the profits of silver,
20 And her gain than fine gold.
21 She is more precious than rubies,
22 And all the things you may desire cannot compare with her."
23 [Prov. 3:13-15, Bible, NKJV]

24 2.4. The only source of absolute, unchanging Truth is God.

25 "Sanctify them by Your truth. Your [God's] word is truth."
26 [John 17:17, Bible, NKJV]

27 "You are near, O LORD, And all Your commandments are truth."
28 [Psalm 119:151, Bible, NKJV]

29 "The entirety of Your word is truth, And every one of Your righteous judgments endures forever."
30 [Psalm 119:160, Bible, NKJV]

31 "Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, And Your law is truth."
32 [Psalm 119:142, Bible, NKJV]

33 2.5. Knowledge and understanding of the Truth BEGINS with loving and knowing God:

34 "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge,
35 But fools despise wisdom and instruction."
36 [Prov. 1:7, Bible, NKJV]

37 "The fear of the LORD is to hate evil; Pride and arrogance and the evil way And the perverse mouth I hate."
38 [Prov. 8:13, Bible, NKJV]

40 2.6. The product of seeking the Truth is knowledge and wisdom.

41 "For the LORD gives wisdom; From His mouth come knowledge and understanding;"
42 [Prov. 2:6, Bible, NKJV]

43 "I, wisdom, dwell with prudence, And find out knowledge and discretion."
44 [Prov. 8:12, Bible, NKJV]

45 2.7. The wisdom that results from seeking truth will unavoidably cause much grief and sorrow. This grief and sorrow
46 will result from the realization of how hopelessly corrupt man and every creation of men truly is and why we 47 desperately need God. This explains why all the sin and sorrow in the world began from Adam and Eve eating of 48 the fruit of the tree of knowledge:

49 "For in much wisdom is much grief,
50 And he who increases knowledge increases sorrow."

The following video linked from the opening page of our website describes this sorrow as “anguish”:

A Call to Anguish, David Wilkerson
<https://youtu.be/QcUh2xLmJy4>

- 2.8. The truth about government corruption can sometimes be SO painful, fear inducing, or risky that many if not most people would rather engage in “willful blindness” or pretend they don’t know about it than to confront and reform it. See:

The Dangers of “Willful Blindness”, Margaret Heffernan, TED
http://www.ted.com/talks/margaret\_heffernan\_the\_dangers\_of\_willful\_blindness.html

- 2.9. The reason people avoid the truth and are enticed by a lying media and a lying government is because they:
2.9.1. Want to avoid responsibility, liability, or risk. Avoidance of responsibility was the main original sin committed by Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden as explained previously in section 5.1. See:

The Unlimited Liability Universe, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Spirituality/Articles/UnlimitedLiabilityUniverse.htm>

- 2.9.2. Want to avoid the grief and sorrow that results from knowing the truth. This avoidance of the truth will ultimately lead them to rebel against and offend God and to commit idolatry towards government:

“Woe to the rebellious children,” says the Lord, “Who take counsel, but not of Me, and who devise plans, but not of My Spirit, that they may add sin to sin; who walk to go down to Egypt, and have not asked My advice, to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh [the “government”], and to trust in the shadow of Egypt for the District of Criminals, Washington, D.C. in this case! Therefore the strength of Pharaoh shall be your shame, and trust in the shadow of Egypt shall be your humiliation ...

Now go, write it before them on a tablet, and note it on a scroll, that it may be for time to come, forever and ever: that this is a rebellious people, lying children, children who will not hear the law of the Lord; who say to the seers, “Do not see,” and to the prophets, “Do not prophesy to us right things” Speak to us smooth [politically correct] things, prophesy deceits. Get out of the way, turn aside from the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us.”

Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel:

“Because you despise this word [the Truth], and trust in oppression and perversity, and rely on them, therefore this iniquity shall be to you like a breach ready to fall, a bulge in a high wall, whose breaking comes suddenly, in an instant. And He shall break it like the breaking of the potter’s vessel, which is broken in pieces; He shall not spare. So there shall not be found among its fragments a shard to take fire from the hearth, or to take water from the cistern.”
[Isaiah 30:1-3, 8-14, Bible, NKJV]

- 2.10. The Truth is codified in God’s Holy Laws:

Laws of the Bible, Form #13.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 2.11. The Truth can be verified:

2.11.1. By the Holy Spirit in the case of spiritual matters.

2.11.2. By evidence in the legal field. Anything not based on evidence is a state-sponsored religion and not a REAL law.

- 2.12. The Truth never conflicts with itself. Anyone who contradicts themselves is a liar.

“But if one walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light [Truth] is not in him.”
[John 11:10, Bible, NKJV]

It is, of course, true that statutory construction “is a holistic endeavor” and that the meaning of a provision is “clarified by the remainder of the statutory scheme ... [when] only one of the permissible meanings produces a substantive effect that is compatible with the rest of the law.” United Sav. Assn. of Tex. v. Timbers of Inwood Forest Associates, Ltd., 484 U.S. 365, 371, 108 S.Ct. 626, 98 L.Ed.2d. 740 (1988).
[U.S. v. Cleveland Indians Baseball Co., 532 U.S. 200, 121 S.Ct. 1433 (2001)]

- 2.13. The Truth is best obtained from those who are not trying to sell you anything:

“It is good for nothing,” cries the buyer; But when he has gone his way, then he boasts.
[Prov. 20:14, Bible, NKJV]

- 2.14. If, in seeking the truth, you become confused, it is usually because someone with an agenda is trying to hide or conceal the truth, usually with “words of art” and deception:

1 "For where [government] envy and self-seeking [of money they are not entitled to] exist, confusion [and deception] and every
2 evil thing will be there."
3 [James 3:16, Bible, NKJV]

4 "Shall the throne of iniquity, which devises evil by law, have fellowship with You? They gather together against the
5 life of the righteous, and condemn innocent blood. But the Lord has been my defense, and my God the rock of my refuge. He has
6 brought on them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; the Lord our God shall cut them off."
7 [Psalm 94:20-23, Bible, NKJV]

8 2.15. If you seek to eliminate confusion, ask of the Lord in all sincerity of heart and in fervent prayer, and it will be 9 revealed to you:

10 "If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and it will be given to him."
11 [James 1:5, Bible, NKJV]

12 "Trust in the LORD with all your heart,
13 And lean not on your own understanding;
14 In all your ways acknowledge Him,
15 And He shall direct your paths."
16 [Prov. 3:5-6, Bible, NKJV]

17 2.16. Those who refuse to learn, accept, and act upon the Truth will first be deceived and ultimately destroyed:

18 "For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only He [God] who now restrains will do so until He is taken out of the way.
19 And then the lawless one [Satan] will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and destroy with the 20 brightness of His coming. The coming of the lawless one [Satan] is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and 21 lying wonders, and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that
22 they might be saved [don't be one of them!]. And for this reason God will send them strong delusion [from their own
23 government], that they should believe a lie, that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in 24 unrighteousness."
25 [2 Thess. 2:3-17, Bible, NKJV]

26 3. The most important skills you can have in a legal setting and as a free man is the ability to:

27 3.1. Quickly recognize when a government actor is trying to convert YOUR PRIVATE property to PUBLIC property
28 without your consent and often without your knowledge and be able to call him on it and prosecute him for it.

29 See:

Separation Between Public and Private, Form #12.025
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

30 3.2. Quickly recognize what constitutes legal evidence of a reasonable belief about something. Anything NOT based 31 on legally admissible evidence, if proffered in the legal field, constitutes a state sponsored religion. See:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

32 3.3. Quickly recognize, understand, and challenge the unsubstantiated presumptions of others NOT based on legally 33 admissible evidence. See:

Presumption: Chief Weapon for Unlawfully Enlarging Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.017
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

34 3.4. Quickly recognize, understand, and challenge contradictions and cognitive dissonance in the logic, statements,
35 and actions of others. Anything that contradicts itself cannot be truthful and therefore should not be trusted.

36 3.5. Control your own emotions and think logically and rationally in all circumstances. Otherwise, your enemies will 37 use your emotions and especially your ego to victimize and control you.

38 3.6. Question authority and especially if that authority asserts rights superior to your own. Our system of law is based 39 on equality of all persons. No public servant can have any more delegated authority than the public at large, and 40 if they do, then you must have consented to it and you should enforce the mandatory requirement that they must 41 PROVE that you consented to it.

42 4. If you find yourself confused about the meaning of a legal term, the following guidelines apply for arbitrating any 43 dispute about the meaning of the term. These guidelines derive from the following:

Legal Deception, Propaganda, and Fraud, Form #05.014
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

44 4.1. You aren't allowed to PRESUME what the word means. All presumption is a violation of due process of law for 45 those protected by the Constitution because physically present within a constitutional and not statutory "State", and also results in the creation of a state-sponsored religion in violation of the First Amendment if the presumption causes a surrender of rights to the government or destroys equal protection. See:

Presumption: Chief Weapon for Unlawfully Enlarging Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.017
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 4.2. The maxim of law applies that if it isn't expressly included and authorized somewhere in the statutes, then it must be presumed to be purposefully unauthorized and excluded. In that sense, all law functions as a delegation of authority order from the Sovereign People, We the People, and public servants cannot add to that delegation order using presumptions or vague definitions.

"Expressio unius est exclusio alterius. A maxim of statutory interpretation meaning that the expression of one thing is the exclusion of another. Burgin v. Forbes, 293 Ky. 456, 169 S.W.2d. 321, 325; Newblock v. Bowles, 170 Okl. 487, 40 P.2d. 1097, 1100. Mention of one thing implies exclusion of another. When certain persons or things are specified in a law, contract, or will, an intention to exclude all others from its operation may be inferred. Under this maxim, if statute specifies one exception to a general rule or assumes to specify the effects of a certain provision, other exceptions or effects are excluded."
[Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 581]

- 4.3. If your interpretation of the statute would result in the commission of a crime or violation of law elsewhere in the code, then you can't possibly be interpreting the meaning correctly.
- 4.4. If you aren't aware of a statute that expressly identifies the meaning of the questionable term, you must give yourself and not the government the benefit of the doubt under the Ninth and Tenth Amendment, which states that all powers not expressly granted to the government are reserved to the states and the people respectively.

"In the interpretation of statutes levying taxes it is the established rule not to extend their provisions, by implication, beyond the clear import of the language used, or to enlarge their operations so as to embrace matters not specifically pointed out. In case of doubt they are construed most strongly against the government, and in favor of the citizen."
[Gould v. Gould, 245 U.S. 151 (1917)]

5. If you don't want to play by their rules, you cannot EVER describe yourself as ANYTHING they have jurisdiction over or anything mentioned anywhere in their deliberately void for vagueness "codes", such as:
- 5.1. "person" as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(1), 26 U.S.C. §6671(b), and 26 U.S.C. §7343.
  - 5.2. "individual" as defined in 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1(c)(3).
  - 5.3. "taxpayer" as defined in 26 U.S.C. §§7701(a)(14) and 1313.
  - 5.4. "U.S. citizen" as defined in 26 U.S.C. §1401 or 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c).
  - 5.5. "U.S. resident" as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(A).
  - 5.6. "U.S. person" as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(30).
  - 5.7. Engaged in the "trade or business" franchise, which is defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26) as "the functions of a public office".
6. To avoid being associated with any of the privileged statuses in the previous item, you should consistently do the following:
- 6.1. Avoid filling out government forms.
  - 6.2. If compelled to fill out government tax forms, write on the tax form "Not Valid Without the Attached Tax Form Attachment, Form #04.201 and Affidavit of Citizenship, Domicile, and Tax Status, Form #02.001" and attach the following forms to every tax form you are compelled to fill out:
    - 6.2.1. Tax Form Attachment, Form #04.201
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
    - 6.2.2. Affidavit of Citizenship, Domicile, and Tax Status, Form #02.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
  - 6.3. Every "word of art" on the forms you fill out should be legally defined either on the form itself or in the attachment you provide. Signing a form that uses terms that are not defined is like signing a blank check and putting undue discretion in the hands the bureaucrat or judge who receives or uses the form. The definitions you provide for the terms on the form should specifically state that the term DOES NOT mean what is defined in any federal or state law, and that you are not declaring a status or availing yourself of a benefit of any government franchise, but rather waive your right to ever receive the benefits of any franchise and reserve ALL your rights under U.C.C. §1-307. This practice:
    - 6.3.1. Prevents misunderstandings and arguments with the recipient of the form.
    - 6.3.2. Prevents litigation caused by the misunderstandings.
    - 6.3.3. Prevents you from being the victim of the false presumptions of those reading the form who do not know the law. The Bible makes it a sin to presume and Christians cannot therefore condone or encourage presumptions by others, and especially those that cause a surrender of rights protected by the Constitution.

6.3.4. Puts the recipient in the box so that they cannot make any commercial use or abuse out of the form by compelling you to engage in franchises or assume a status that would connect you to franchises.

6.4. Whenever you fill out a government form you should remember that the government that prepared the form will always self-servingly omit the two most important options in the "status" or entity type boxes, which are:

6.4.1. "none of the above" AND

6.4.2. "not subject but not exempt"

By omitting the two above options, the government is indirectly compelling you to contract with and associate with them, because all franchises are contracts, and you must associate (exercise your First Amendment right to associate) with them by choosing a domicile WITHIN their jurisdiction (as a "protected person" and therefore a "customer" called a "citizen" or "resident") before they can even lawfully contract with you to begin with under the civil law. The approach should always be to add a new box that says "Not subject but not exempt" and check it. This is further detailed in:

Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid, Form #08.004, Section 8.13

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

7. There are only TWO ways that they can enforce their CIVIL rules against you. All of these rules are documented in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b):

7.1. If you have a domicile on their territory.

7.2. If you are acting in a representative capacity as a "public officer" of the United States federal corporation described in 28 U.S.C. §3002(15)(A). This includes participation in any government franchise because all such franchises inevitably turn you into government agents and officers. See:

Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

Another way of stating the above two rules is that whenever a sovereign wants to reach outside its physical territory, it may only do so using its right to contract with other fellow sovereign states and people. If you aren't domiciled on their territory, they have to produce evidence that you consented to some kind of contract or agreement with them. This is consistent with the maxim of law that debt and contract know no place:

Debitum et contractus non sunt nullius loci.

Debt and contract [franchise agreement, in this case] are of no particular place.

Locus contractus regit actum.

[Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;

SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviersMaxims.htm>]

8. If you don't want them enforcing their rules against you, you can't act like someone they have jurisdiction over either by:

8.1. Describing yourself as a "person", franchisee (e.g. "taxpayer", "driver", "benefit recipient", "U.S. citizen"), or entity referenced in their private law franchise agreement.

8.2. Invoking the "benefits" or protections of any portion of the franchise agreement. For instance, the following remedy is ONLY available to franchisees called "taxpayers" and may not be invoked by "nontaxpayers":

TITLE 26 > Subtitle F > CHAPTER 76 > Subchapter B > § 7433

§ 7433. Civil damages for certain unauthorized collection actions

(a) In general

If, in connection with any collection of Federal tax with respect to a taxpayer, any officer or employee of the Internal Revenue Service recklessly or intentionally, or by reason of negligence, disregards any provision of this title, or any regulation promulgated under this title, such taxpayer may bring a civil action for damages against the United States in a district court of the United States. Except as provided in section 7432, such civil action shall be the exclusive remedy for recovering damages resulting from such actions.

8.3. Filling out forms that are only for use by franchisees called "taxpayers". The IRS mission statement at Internal Revenue Manual (I.R.M.), Section 1.1.1.1 (02-26-1999) says they can ONLY help or assist "taxpayers" and the minute you ask for their help, you are implicitly admitting you are a franchisee called a "taxpayer" engaged in the "trade or business" franchise. Do you see "nontaxpayers" or persons who are sovereign and not privileged in their mission statement:

The IRS Mission: Provide America's taxpayers top quality service by helping them understand and meet their tax responsibilities and by applying the tax law with integrity and fairness to all.

- 8.4. Asking for licenses such as a Taxpayer Identification Number or Social Security Number on a IRS Form W-7, IRS Form W-9, or SS-5 respectively. The only people who need such “licenses” are those receiving some kind of government “benefit”. All such benefits are government franchises that are listed in the IRS Form 1042-S Instructions and within 26 C.F.R. §301.6109-1(b), where they identify the criteria for when you MUST provide a “Taxpayer Identification Number”:

Box 14, Recipient's U.S. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

You must obtain a U.S. taxpayer identification number (TIN) for:

- Any recipient whose income is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States. Note. For these recipients, exemption code 01 should be entered in box 6.
- Any foreign person claiming a reduced rate of, or exemption from, tax under a tax treaty between a foreign country and the United States, unless the income is an unexpected payment (as described in Regulations section 1.1441-6(g)) or consists of dividends and interest from stocks and debt obligations that are actively traded; dividends from any redeemable security issued by an investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (mutual fund); dividends, interest, or royalties from units of beneficial interest in a unit investment trust that are (or were, upon issuance) publicly offered and are registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Act of 1933; and amounts paid with respect to loans of any of the above securities.
- Any nonresident alien individual claiming exemption from tax under section 871(f) for certain annuities received under qualified plans.
- A foreign organization claiming an exemption from tax solely because of its status as a tax-exempt organization under section 501(c ) or as a private foundation.
- Any QI.
- Any WP or WT.
- Any nonresident alien individual claiming exemption from withholding on compensation for independent personal services [services connected with a “trade or business”].
- Any foreign grantor trust with five or fewer grantors.
- Any branch of a foreign bank or foreign insurance company that is treated as a U.S. person.
- If a foreign person provides a TIN on a Form W-8, but is not required to do so, the withholding agent must include the TIN on Form 1042-S.

[IRS Form 1042-s Instructions, Year 2006, p. 14]

- 8.5. Using government license numbers on government forms such as the EIN, TIN, or SSN.
- 8.6. Failing to rebut the use of government issued identifying numbers against you by others. See:

About SSNs and TINs on Government Forms and Correspondence, Form #05.012
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 8.7. Submitting the WRONG withholding paperwork with your private employer, bank or financial institution. The correct paperwork is the an AMENDED version of the IRS Form W-8BEN. Everything else will unwittingly make you into a statutory “U.S. person”, a “resident alien”, a “person”, and an “individual” in the context of the IRS:

About IRS Form W-8BEN, Form #04.202
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 8.8. Failing to rebut false Information Returns such as IRS Forms W-2, 1042-S, 1098, and 1099 filed against you by ignorant people who aren't reading or properly obeying the law. All such documents connect you with the “trade or business” franchise and make you into a person in receipt of federal “privilege” and therefore subject to federal jurisdiction. See:

Correcting Erroneous Information Returns, Form #04.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 8.9. Petitioning a “franchise court” called “United States Tax Court” that is ONLY for franchisees called “taxpayers”. Tax Court Rule 13(a) says that the court is ONLY available to “taxpayers”. You can't petition this administrative tribunal without indirectly admitting you are a “taxpayer”. See:

The Tax Court Scam, Form #05.039
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

1 "Although Crowell and Raddatz do not explicitly distinguish between rights created by Congress and other rights, such a
2 distinction underlies in part Crowell's and Raddatz' recognition of a critical difference between rights created by federal statute and
3 rights recognized by the Constitution. Moreover, such a distinction seems to us to be necessary in light of the delicate
4 accommodations required by the principle of separation of powers reflected in Art. III. The constitutional system of checks and
5 balances is designed to guard against "encroachment or aggrandizement" by Congress at the expense of the other branches of
6 government. Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S., at 122, 96 S.Ct., at 683. But when Congress creates a statutory right [a "privilege" in this
7 case, such as a "trade or business"], it clearly has the discretion, in defining that right, to create presumptions, or assign burdens
8 of proof, or prescribe remedies; it may also provide that persons seeking to vindicate that right must do so before particularized
9 tribunals created to perform the specialized adjudicative tasks related to that right.<sup>FN35</sup> Such provisions do, in a sense, affect the 10 exercise of judicial power, but they are also incidental to Congress' power to define the right that it has created. No comparable
11 justification exists, however, when the right being adjudicated is not of congressional creation. In such a situation, substantial
12 inroads into functions that have traditionally been performed by the Judiciary cannot be characterized merely as incidental
13 extensions of Congress' power to define rights that it has created. Rather, such inroads suggest unwarranted encroachments upon 14 the judicial power of the United States, which our Constitution reserves for Art. III courts."
15 [Northern Pipeline Const. Co. v. Marathon Pipe Line Co., 458 U.S. at 83-84, 102 S.Ct. 2858 (1983)]

17 Because a number of people don't understand the above subtleties, they discredit themselves by claiming to be a
18 "nontaxpayer" not subject to the I.R.C. and yet ACTING like a "taxpayer". The IRS and the courts fine and sanction
19 such ignorant and presumptuous conduct.

- 20 9. Franchises are the main method for destroying your sovereignty. Unless and until you understand exactly how they 21 work and how they are used to trap and enslave the ignorant and those who don't consent, you will never be free.
22 Government "benefits" are the "bribe" that judges and tyrants use to entice you to participate in government franchises
23 and thereby surrender your sovereign immunity and contract away your rights. Government franchises are 24 exhaustively explained below:

Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 25 10. You can't accept a financial "benefit" or payments of any kind from the government without becoming part of the 26 government. In that sense, there are always "strings" attached to money you get from the government, many of which
27 are completely invisible to most people. The only thing the government can lawfully pay public monies to are public
28 officers and agents. Those who engage in such benefits must have a government license (a TIN or SSN) and thereby 29 become a government officer or agent.

30 "A tax, in the general understanding of the term and as used in the constitution, signifies an exaction for the support of the 31 government. The word has never thought to connote the expropriation of money from one group for the benefit of another."
32 [U.S. v. Butler, 297 U.S. 1 (1936)]

- 33 11. All government "benefits" or payments do not constitute "consideration" that can lawfully make the subject of any 34 enforceable contract or franchise in the case of most Americans. The reason is because:

- 35 11.1. The "benefits" are paid with Federal Reserve Notes that have no intrinsic value because they are not redeemable 36 by the government in anything of value. See:

The Money Scam, Form #05.041

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 37 11.2. The government doesn't have an obligation that is enforceable in a true, constitutional court in equity to those 38 who sign up for it. All the remedies they give you are in administrative "franchise courts" that are not true
39 constitutional courts and all participants in these proceedings are biased because they are executed by 40 "franchisees" (e.g. "taxpayers") with a criminal and financial conflict of interest in violation of 18 U.S.C. §208,
41 28 U.S.C. §455, and 28 U.S.C. §144. You will always lose in these tribunals. You ought to avoid begging for 42 anything from the government because you will be tricked into becoming their slave and whore. See:

The Government "Benefits" Scam, Form #05.040

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

43 5.3 Understanding the importance of separation between PUBLIC and PRIVATE

44 All your freedom comes from equality and understanding and opposing attempts to abuse property law to create inequality
45 and servitude. The story of Jesus being tempted by Satan in Matt. 4:4-11 was about the abuse of commerce to make him a 46 servant and slave of Satan.

47 Satan Tempts Jesus

1 Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. And when He had fasted forty days and forty
2 nights, afterward He was hungry. Now when the tempter came to Him, he said, "If You are the Son of God, command that these
3 stones become bread."

4 But He answered and said, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of 5 God.'"

6 Then the devil took Him up into the holy city, set Him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, "If You are the Son of God,
7 throw Yourself down. For it is written:

8 'He shall give His angels charge over you.'

9 and,

10 'In their hands they shall bear you up,
11 Lest you dash your foot against a stone.'"

12 Jesus said to him, "It is written again, 'You shall not tempt the LORD your God.'"

13 Again, the devil took Him up on an exceedingly high mountain, and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory.
14 And he said to Him, "All these things I will give You if You will fall down and worship me."

15 Then Jesus said to him, "Away with you, Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship the LORD your God, and Him only you shall 16 serve.'"

17 Then the devil left Him, and behold, angels came and ministered to Him.
18 [Matt. 4:4-11, Bible, NKJV]

19 Notice the prepositional phrases above relating to equality:

- 20 1. "pinnacle of the temple".
21 2. "over you".
22 3. "high on a mountain".
23 4. "bow down".

24 In the last case above, Satan took Jesus on a high mountain ABOVE everyone else, and said that he would give Jesus all the 25 kingdoms of the world if Jesus would bow DOWN and worship Satan rather than God. In other words, Satan said: "If you
26 place yourself BELOW me (Satan), I will put you ABOVE everyone else". This was a direct violation of the First four
27 commandments in Exodus 20:1-11 to love the Lord with all your heart, mind, soul, and strength and to not serve other
28 gods, meaning idols. The lust for power and to be above everyone else was the idolatry Satan was using to tempt Jesus. In 29 effect, Satan was abusing COMMERCE and materialism to create inequality, servitude, and sin. This same theme was 30 again evident earlier in the Bible about Satan:

31 "By the abundance of your trading [corrupt and injurious commerce]
32 You became filled with violence within,
33 And you sinned;
34 Therefore I [God] cast you [Satan] as a profane thing
35 Out of the mountain of God;
36 And I destroyed you, O covering cherub,
37 From the midst of the fiery stones.

38 "Your heart was lifted up [ABOVE all others to become SUPERIOR] because of your beauty;
39 You corrupted your wisdom for the sake of your splendor;
40 I cast you to the ground,
41 I laid you before kings,
42 That they might gaze at you."
43 [Ezekial 28:16-17, Bible, NKJV]

44 Like Matt. 4:4-11 earlier, the scripture above uses LOTS of prepositions:

- 45 1. High things: "mountains".
46 2. Low things: "Cast you to the ground".
47 3. "Lifted up".

The following document describes exactly how property law is abused to create inequality, make you a slave and chattel of the government, and make you a slave of materialism. Materialism is a form of idolatry:

Separation Between Public and Private, Form #12.025
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

5.4 Avoiding traps with government forms and government ID

1. The purpose of all government forms is to create and enforce usually false and prejudicial presumptions about your status that will damage your Constitutional rights and undermine your sovereignty.
  - 1.1. They use vague terms that are deliberately not defined either on the form or in the law itself in order to:
    - 1.1.1. Encourage false, unconstitutional, and prejudicial presumptions about what they mean that will financially benefit the corrupt government.
    - 1.1.2. Facilitate and encourage abuse of “words of art”.
    - 1.1.3. Give judges and administrative personnel undue discretion and latitude to exceed their authority and violate the separation of powers doctrine.
    - 1.1.4. Transform a society of law into a society of men and the policies of men.The following maxims of law illustrate WHY they will do this:

"Dolus versatur generalibus. A deceiver deals in generals. 2 Co. 34."

"Fraus latet in generalibus. Fraud lies hid in general expressions."

Generale nihil certum implicat. A general expression implies nothing certain. 2 Co. 34.

Ubi quid generaliter conceditur, in est haec exceptio, si non aliquid sit contra jus fasque. Where a thing is concealed generally, this exception arises, that there shall be nothing contrary to law and right. 10 Co. 78.
[Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856]

- 1.2. Nothing on government forms or in government publications are trustworthy or reliable.

"IRS Publications, issued by the National Office, explain the law in plain language for taxpayers and their advisors... While a good source of general information, publications should not be cited to sustain a position."
[Internal Revenue Manual (I.R.M.), Section 4.10.7.2.8 (05-14-1999)]

- 1.3. It is positively FOOLISH to sign a government form under penalty of perjury that even the government agrees is untrustworthy.
- 1.4. The ONLY way to prevent being victimized by false, unconstitutional, and prejudicial presumptions created by government forms is to define ANY and EVERY “word of art” on the form to exclude you from the government’s jurisdiction and make THEM the obligatory party rather than YOU. This is covered in:
  - 1.4.1. Avoiding Traps in Government Forms, Form #12.023
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
  - 1.4.2. Requirement for Consent, Form #05.003, Sections 6.1 and 11.2
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
  - 1.4.3. Socialism: The New American Civil Religion, Form #05.016, Section 16: Undermining and destroying the Civil Religion of Socialism using the government’s main recruitment mechanism –shows how to undermine the civil religion of socialism using the beast’s own forms.
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
- 1.5. For further details on the above scam, see:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

2. You will always lose when you play by their rules, use their biased forms, or declare any statutory status used on their biased forms or in their “void for vagueness” franchise “codes”. He who makes either the forms or the rules or officiates either always wins. Instead:
  - 2.1. Always add an “Other” box and make sure the form points to an attachment that completely describes your status.
  - 2.2. On the attachment, provide court admissible evidence signed under penalty of perjury that defines all words used on the government form in such a way that they are NOT connected with any status found in any state or federal law, thus making you “foreign” in respect to said law.

3. To avoid being associated with any privileged statutory franchise status (“taxpayer”, “person”, “individual”, etc), you should consistently do the following:
- 3.1. Avoid filling out government forms.
- 3.2. If compelled to fill out government tax forms, write on the tax form “Not Valid Without the Attached Tax Form Attachment, Form #04.201 and Affidavit of Citizenship, Domicile, and Tax Status, Form #02.001” and attach the following forms to every tax form you are compelled to fill out:
- 3.2.1. Tax Form Attachment, Form #04.201
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
- 3.2.2. Affidavit of Citizenship, Domicile, and Tax Status, Form #02.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
- 3.3. Every “word of art” on the forms you fill out should be legally defined either on the form itself or in the attachment you provide. Signing a form that uses terms that are not defined is like signing a blank check and putting undue discretion in the hands of the bureaucrat or judge who receives or uses the form. The definitions you provide for the terms on the form should specifically state that the term DOES NOT mean what is defined in any federal or state law, and that you are not declaring a status or availing yourself of a benefit of any government franchise, but rather waive your right to ever receive the benefits of any franchise and reserve ALL your rights under U.C.C. §1-307. This practice:
- 3.3.1. Prevents misunderstandings and arguments with the recipient of the form.
- 3.3.2. Prevents litigation caused by the misunderstandings.
- 3.3.3. Prevents you from being the victim of the false presumptions of those reading the form who do not know the law. The Bible makes it a sin to presume and Christians cannot therefore condone or encourage presumptions by others, and especially those that cause a surrender of rights protected by the Constitution.
- 3.3.4. Puts the recipient in the box so that they cannot make any commercial use or abuse out of the form by compelling you to engage in franchises or assume a status that would connect you to franchises.
- 3.4. Whenever you fill out a government form you should remember that the government that prepared the form will always self-servingly omit the two most important options in the “status” or entity type boxes, which are:
- 3.4.1. “none of the above” AND
- 3.4.2. “not subject but not exempt”
- By omitting the two above options, the government is indirectly compelling you to contract with and associate with them, because all franchises are contracts, and you must associate (exercise your First Amendment right to associate) with them by choosing a domicile WITHIN their jurisdiction (as a “protected person” and therefore a “customer” called a “citizen” or “resident”) before they can even lawfully contract with you to begin with under the civil law. The approach should always be to add a new box that says “Not subject but not exempt” and check it. This is further detailed in:
- Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid, Form #08.004, Section 6.12
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
4. If you want a form to accurately describe your status as a “nontaxpayer”, you will have to make your own or modify what they offer. The only types of forms the government makes are for franchisees called “taxpayers”. This is confirmed by the IRS Mission Statement contained in Internal Revenue Manual (I.R.M.), Section 1.1.1.1 (02-26-1999), which empowers the IRS to help and “service” only “taxpayers”.
- 4.1. For modified versions of IRS forms, see:
- Federal Forms and Publications, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/Forms/IRS/IRSFormsPubs.htm>
- 4.2. For replacement forms for use by persons not engaged in government franchises or who are “nontaxpayers”, see:
- SEDM Forms/Pubs
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
5. If anyone receiving a government form tries to argue with you about what you put on the form, respond as follows:
- 5.1. Indicating that the words you use to describe yourself on forms is the method by which you both contract and politically associate with a specific government of your own choosing in order to procure protection. The First Amendment protects your right to both politically associate (and thereby become a statutory but not constitutional “citizen”, “resident”, or inhabitant) and to be free from compelled association. Therefore, no one but you has the right decide or declare your status on a government form, unless of course you appoint them to practice law on your behalf or represent you, which you should NEVER do. See:
- Your Exclusive Right to Declare or Establish Your Civil Status, Form #13.008
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
- 5.2. Arguing that anyone who wants to compel you to describe yourself on a government form in a way that you know does not accurately characterize both your status and your intentions is committing the crime of suborning perjury and criminally tampering with a witness. All government forms are signed under penalty of perjury and therefore constitute "testimony of a witness". YOU and not them are the witness and all witnesses are protected from duress, coercion, and retaliation because if they weren't, the evidence they produce would be of no value and would not be admissible in a court of law. You and only you have the exclusive right to declare and establish your status under the civil law because doing so is how you exercise your Constitutionally protected rights to contract and associate. Any violation of those two rights defeats the entire purpose of establishing the government to begin with, which is the protection of private rights by preventing them from being involuntarily converted to public rights.

5.3. Insisting that it constitutes involuntary servitude in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment to compel you to either complete a government form or to fill it out in a certain way. It also means PROSECUTING those who engage in such slavery privately and personally because no lawyer is ever going to bite the hand that feeds him or jeopardize the license that his government benefactors use to silence dissent.

5.4. Emphasizing to those receiving the form that even if they are private parties, they are acting as agents of the government in either preparing or accepting or insisting on the form and that they are therefore subject to all the same constitutional constraints as the government in that capacity, including a Constitutional Tort Action for violation of rights. For instance, those accepting tax forms are statutory "withholding agents" per 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(16) who are agents and officers of the government and therefore constrained by the Constitution while physically situated on land protected by the Constitution within the exclusive jurisdiction of a state of the Union.

6. If you try to submit a form to a company that accurately describes your status, they frequently may try to interfere with the process by refusing to accept it because if they do, it might create a civil or criminal liability and generate evidence in their records of such a liability. For instance, they may say any of the following:

6.1. We will not accept your form if you add any boxes to the form.

6.2. We will not accept your form if you add any attachments to the form.

6.3. We will not accept your form if modify our form or terms on the form.

7. If those receiving forms you fill out use any of the approaches described in the previous step, the best way to handle it is one of the following:

7.1. Send the information you wanted to submit separately as an addendum to an original account or job application you gave them, and indicate in the attachment that it must accompany any and every form you submit in the past, present and future, and especially if requested as part of legal discovery. Say that all forms you submit, if not accompanied by the addendum, are invalid, misleading, deceptive, and political but not legal or actionable speech without the attachment.

7.2. Send then an amendment IMMEDIATELY AFTER the transaction is completed via certified mail using a Certificate/Proof/Affidavit of Service, Form #01.002 that adds everything and all attachments they refused to accept WITH the form

For both instances above, the correspondence you send should say that this amends any and all forms submitted to the company or person for the past, present, and future and must accompany all such forms in the context of any and all legal discovery relating to you and directed at the recipient. Say that if they don't include it, they are criminally obstructing justice and tampering with a protected witness of criminal activity. Don't EVER allow them to have anything in their possession that isn't associated with explanatory and exculpatory information that reflects your true status or which creates a prima facie presumption that you are voluntarily associated with any statutory status within any franchise agreement. Otherwise, they are going to use this as evidence in litigation and exclude everything else, leaving you with no method to deny the status you claimed or what you meant in claiming it. The mandatory Legal Notice of Change in Domicile/Citizenship Records and Divorce from the United States, Form #10.001 also helps as a defense against such tactics, because it too is required to be associated with everything the government receives about you or else the information is not valid, untrustworthy, deceptive, and misleading.

8. We have produced forms you can submit for the occasion described in the previous step whereby a properly executed government form is rejected and the witness filling it out is criminally tampered with in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1512. Submit the following forms AFTER THE FACT to remove the risks created by the witness tampering and prevent fraud charges against you:

8.1. Resignation of Compelled Social Security Trustee, Form #06.002-updates an existing SSA Form SS-5 to correct the status of the applicant.

8.2. Passport Amendment Request, Form #06.016-amends a previous USA passport application to remove false presumptions about your citizenship status and domicile

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

8.3. Legal Notice to Correct Fraudulent Tax Status, Reporting, and Withholding, Form #04.401-send this form to any company you have financial dealings with that threatened to either fire, not hire, or not do business with you because of the tax withholding paperwork you gave them. Send it AFTER the transaction or hiring is completed to correct their records.

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 8.4. Employer Identification Number (EIN) Application Permanent Amendment Notice, Form #06.022-updates an EIN application to disconnect you permanently from all franchises.

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 8.5. Notice and Demand to Correct False IRS Form 1099-S, Form #04.403-send this form to an itinerant Escrow company that REFUSES to accept correct tax withholding paperwork on a real estate transaction and threatens to hold up the sale if you don't fill out the tax paperwork in a way that you KNOW is FRAUDULENT. Send AFTER the escrow transaction is completed so that you don't have to hold up the sale.

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 8.6. Retirement Account Application Permanent Amendment Notice, Form #04.217-Changes the character of a retirement account to a PRIVATE, non-taxable account

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

9. BEWARE THE DANGERS OF GOVERNMENT ISSUED ID:

- 9.1. Application for most forms of government ID makes you APPEAR as a privileged statutory "resident" domiciled on federal territory and divorces you from the protections of the Constitution. The "United States" they are referring to below is NOT that mentioned in the Constitution, but the statutory "United States" consisting of federal territory that is no part of any de jure state of the Union.

State of Virginia

Title 46.2 - MOTOR VEHICLES.

Chapter 3 - Licensure of Drivers

§46.2-328.1. Licenses, permits and special identification cards to be issued only to United States citizens, legal permanent resident aliens, or holders of valid unexpired nonimmigrant visas; exceptions; renewal, duplication, or reissuance.

*A. Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, except as provided in subsection G of § 46.2-345, the Department shall not issue an original license, permit, or special identification card to any applicant who has not presented to the Department, with the application, valid documentary evidence that the applicant is either (i) a citizen of the United States, (ii) a legal permanent resident of the United States, or (iii) a conditional resident alien of the United States.

- 9.2. Most states cannot and will not issue driver's licenses to those who are nonresidents of the statutory but not Constitutional "United States", which consists only of federal territory that is no part of any state of the Union. If you give them an affidavit of non-residency, in fact, they will tell that you aren't eligible for a license and issue you a certificate of disqualification saying that they refused to issue you a license. Now wouldn't THAT be something useful to have the next time a cop stops you and tries to cite you for not having that which the government REFUSED to issue you, which is a LICENSE!

- 9.3. When or if you procure government ID of any kind, including driver's licenses, you should always do so as a NON-RESIDENT, a "transient foreigner", and neither a statutory "citizen" or statutory "resident". The place you are a "citizen" or "resident" of for all government ID applications is federal territory and not the de jure republic. Government ID is a privilege, not a right.

- 9.4. The only type of government ID you can procure without a domicile on federal territory and without being a statutory "citizen" or statutory "resident" who is effectively an officer and "employee" of the government are:

- 9.4.1. A USA passport. See:

Getting a USA Passport as a "state national", Form #09.007

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 9.4.2. ID issued by your own government or group.

- 9.4.3. ID issued by a notary public, who is a public officer and therefore part of the government.

- 9.5. For details on the dangers of government ID, see:

Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Form #05.002, Section 13.6

5.5 Responding to Offers or Demands

We have an unlimited ability to contract with our fellow human beings in any way that we choose. Our choices are dependent not upon our circumstances, but only upon our knowledge and will and creative intelligence.

Whether in commerce or law or life, whenever someone demands something from us, it is an offer to contract. There are only five ways we can respond to an offer to contract.

1. We can ignore.
2. We can argue or contest.
3. We can reject the offer or refuse for cause, without dishonor, as long as it is an erroneous claim and there is no liability evidenced (see U.C.C. §3-501).
4. We can accept. or
5. We can conditionally accept.

Ignoring is dishonoring, both to the offeror and the offeree. In commerce, it means agreeing by acquiescence. If someone sends us a bill and we ignore it, we have committed a commercial dishonor and we have agreed that we owe it. They have become the creditor in the matter and we have become the debtor/ slave.

Arguing is dishonoring to everyone as well, no matter how righteous it seems. Ultimately, no points of view are absolutely valid and in a fight, force and deception are relied upon by all but the saintliest of parties. The loser will certainly become a debtor in the matter; the victor's creditorship may be a crime.

Honorably rejecting and the two ways of accepting are the only ways we can remain in honor and take full responsibility for our life and our world and not be a victim or a debtor. Full acceptance is appropriate when we agree with the substance and form of whatever is being offered. Conditional acceptance is more appropriate when we are not sure about those things.

All conditional acceptances are counter-offers: "Sure, I'll go to town with you if you help me clean up that mess first" OR "Sure, I'll accept that upon proof of your claim, in the form of a signed affidavit by you, under penalties of perjury and under your personal, unlimited commercial liability".

Learning how to accept conditionally is fundamental to learning how to remain in creditor relationship with and be able to freely control any situation.

5.6 Merchant or Buyer?

*"The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower [is] servant to the lender."
[Prov. 22:7, Bible, NKJV]*

Within the Uniform Commercial Code (U.C.C.), there are only two types of entities that you can be:

1. Merchant (U.C.C. §2-104(1)). Sometimes also called a Creditor.
2. Buyer (U.C.C. §2-103(1)(a)). Sometimes also called a Debtor.

Playing well the game of commerce means being a Merchant, not a Buyer, in relation to any and every government. Governments try to ensure that THEY are always the Merchant, but astute freedom minded people ensure that any and every government form they fill out switches the roles and makes the GOVERNMENT into the Buyer and debtor in relation to them. On this subject, the Bible FORBIDS believers from EVER becoming "Buyers" in relation to any and every government:

"You shall make no covenant [contract or franchise] with them [foreigners, pagans], nor with their [pagan government] gods [laws or judges]. They shall not dwell in your land [and you shall not dwell in theirs by becoming a "resident" or domiciliary in the process of contracting with them], lest they make you sin against Me [God]. For if you serve their [government] gods [under contract or agreement or franchise], it will surely be a snare to you."
[Exodus 23:32-33, Bible, NKJV]

"I [God] brought you up from Egypt [slavery] and brought you to the land of which I swore to your fathers; and I said, 'I will never break My covenant with you. And you shall make no covenant [contract or franchise or agreement of ANY kind] with the inhabitants of this [corrupt pagan] land; you shall tear down their [man/government worshipping socialist] altars. But you have not obeyed Me. Why have you done this?

"Therefore I also said, 'I will not drive them out before you; but they will become as thorns [terrorists and persecutors] in your side and their gods will be a snare [slavery!] to you.'"

So it was, when the Angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voices and wept.
[Judges 2:1-4, Bible, NKJV]

The Bible also forbids believers from ever being borrowers or surety, and hence, from ever being a Buyer. It says you can LEND, meaning offer as a Merchant, but that you cannot borrow, meaning be a "Buyer" under the U.C.C., in relation to any and every government:

"For the Lord your God will bless you just as He promised you; you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow; you shall reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over you."
[Deut. 15:6, Bible, NKJV]

"The Lord will open to you His good treasure, the heavens, to give the rain to your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand. You shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow."
[Deut. 28:12, Bible, NKJV]

"You shall not charge interest to your brother--interest on money or food or anything that is lent out at interest."
[Deut. 23:19, Bible, NKJV]

"To a foreigner you may charge interest, but to your brother you shall not charge interest, that the Lord your God may bless you in all to which you set your hand in the land which you are entering to possess."
[Deut. 23:20, Bible, NKJV]

Buyers take positions, defend what they know and make statements about it; they ignore, argue and/or contest. Extreme buyer-minded people presume victimhood and seek to limit their liability. Buyers operate unwittingly from and within the public venue. They are satisfied with mere equitable title - they can own and operate, but not totally control their property. Buyer possibilities are limited and confining, as debtors are slaves.

Merchants are present to whatever opportunity arises; they ask questions to bring remedy if called for; they accept, either fully or conditionally. Accomplished Merchants take full responsibility for their life, their finances and their world. Merchants understand and make use of their unlimited ability to contract privately with anyone they want at any time. They maintain legal title and control of their property. Merchant possibilities are infinite. Merchants are sovereign and free.

Governments always take the Merchant role by ensuring that every "tax" paid to them is legally defined as and treated as a "gift" that creates no obligation on their part:

31 U.S.C. §321 - General authority of the Secretary

(1) The Secretary of the Treasury may accept, hold, administer, and use gifts and bequests of property, both real and personal, for the purpose of aiding or facilitating the work of the Department of the Treasury. Gifts and bequests of money and the proceeds from sales of other property received as gifts or bequests shall be deposited in the Treasury in a separate fund and shall be disbursed on order of the Secretary of the Treasury. Property accepted under this paragraph, and the proceeds thereof, shall be used as nearly as possible in accordance with the terms of the gift or bequest.

(2) For purposes of the Federal income, estate, and gift taxes, property accepted under paragraph (1) shall be considered as a gift or bequest to or for the use of the United States.

Hence, you should never describe ANYTHING you pay to them as a "tax" or a "gift", but rather a temporary LOAN that comes with strings, just like the way they do with all their socialist franchise handouts. Likewise, you should emulate their behavior as a Merchant and ensure that EVERYTHING they pay you is characterized and/or legally defined as a GIFT rather than a LOAN.

"The State in such cases exercises no greater right than an individual may exercise over the use of his own property when leased or loaned to others. The conditions upon which the privilege shall be enjoyed being stated or implied in the legislation authorizing its grant, no right is, of course, impaired by their enforcement. The recipient of the privilege, in effect, stipulates to comply with the conditions. It matters not how limited the privilege conferred, its acceptance implies an assent to the regulation of its use and the compensation for it."

[Munn v. Illinois, 94 U.S. 113 (1876) ]

This approach is also consistent with the following scripture:

*"The rich rules over the poor,
And the borrower is servant to the lender."*
[Prov. 22:7, Bible, NKJV]

Remember:

1. If everything you give any government is a LOAN rather than a GIFT, then they always work for you and you can NEVER work for them.
2. They can only govern you civilly with your consent. If you don't consent, everything they do to you will be unjust and a tort per the Declaration of Independence.
3. Everyone starts out EQUAL. An entire government cannot have any more rights than a single human being. That's what a government of delegated authority means. NEVER EVER consent to:
  - 3.1. Become CIVILLY unequal.
  - 3.2. Be civilly governed under civil statutory law.
  - 3.3. Waive your sovereign immunity. Instead insist that you have the SAME sovereign immunity as any and every government because we are ALL equal. If they assert their own sovereign immunity they have to recognize YOURS under the concept of equal protection and equal treatment.
4. Any attempt to penalize you or take away your property requires that all of the affected property had to be donated VOLUNTARILY and EXPRESSLY to a public use and a public purpose before it can become the subject of such a penalty. The right of property means that you have a right to deny any and every other person, including GOVERNMENTS, the right to use, benefit, or profit from your property. If they can take away something you didn't hurt someone with, they have the burden of proving that it belonged to them and that you gave it to them BEFORE they can take it. All property is presumed to be EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE until the government meets the burden of proof that you consented to donate it to a public use, public purpose, and/or public office.

Below is a sample from our Tax Form Attachment, Form #04.201, showing how we implement the approach documented in this section:

This form and all attachments shall NOT be construed as a consent or acceptance of any proposed government "benefit", any proposed relationship, or any civil status under any government law per U.C.C. §2-206. It instead shall constitute a COUNTER-OFFER and a SUBSTITUTE relationship that nullifies and renders unenforceable the original government OFFER and ANY commercial, contractual, or civil relationship OTHER than the one described herein between the Submitter and the Recipient. See U.C.C. §2-209. The definitions found in section 4 shall serve as a SUBSTITUTE for any and all STATUTORY definitions in the original government offer that might otherwise apply. Parties stipulate that the ONLY "Merchant" (per U.C.C. §2-104(1)) in their relationship is the Submitter of this form and that the government or its agents and assigns is the "Buyer" per U.C.C. §2-103(1)(a).

Pursuant to U.C.C. §1-202, this submission gives REASONABLE NOTICE and conveys FULL KNOWLEDGE to the Recipient of all the terms and conditions exclusively governing their commercial relationship and shall be the ONLY and exclusive method and remedy by which their relationship shall be legally governed. Ownership by the Submitter of him/her self and his/her PRIVATE property implies the right to exclude ALL others from using or benefitting from the use of his/her exclusively owned property. All property held in the name of the Submitter is, always has been, and always will be stipulated by all parties to this agreement and stipulation as: 1. Presumed EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE until PROVEN WITH EVIDENCE to be EXPRESSLY and KNOWINGLY and VOLUNTARILY (absent duress) donated to a PUBLIC use IN WRITING; 2. ABSOLUTE, UNQUALIFIED, and PRIVATE; 3. Not consensually shared in any way with any government or pretended DE FACTO government. Any other commercial use of any submission to any government or any property of the Submitter shall be stipulated by all parties concerned and by any and every court as eminent domain, THEFT, an unconstitutional taking in violation of the Fifth Amendment, and a violation of due process of law.

3 Governments can only tax or regulate that which they create. That which they create, in turn, is the thing that they “sell” as
4 Merchants under the Uniform Commercial Code (U.C.C.):

5 "The power to tax involves the power to destroy; the power to destroy may defeat and render useless the power to create; and
6 there is a plain repugnance in conferring on one government [THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT] a power to control the

8 supreme over that which exerts the control."

9 Van Brocklin v. State of Tennessee, [117 U.S. 151 (1886)]

10 "What is a Constitution? It is the form of government, delineated by the mighty hand of the people, in which certain first principles
11 of fundamental laws are established. The Constitution is certain and fixed; it contains the permanent will of the people, and is the 12 supreme law of the land; it is paramount to the power of the Legislature, and can be revoked or altered only by the authority that 13 made it. The life-giving principle and the death-doing stroke must proceed from the same hand."

14 [VanHorne's Lessee v. Dorrance, 2 U.S. 304 \(1795\)]

15 "The great principle is this: because the constitution will not permit a state to destroy, it will not permit a law [including a tax law]

18 DEFINITIONS found in franchise statutes are the precise place where government CREATES things. If you want to attack
19 a tax or regulation, you have to attack and undermine its DEFINITIONS.

20 Governments didn't create human beings. God did. Therefore, if they want to tax or regulate PRIVATE human beings,
21 they must do it INDIRECTLY by creating a PUBLIC office or franchise, fooling you into volunteering for it (usually 22 ILLEGALLY), and then regulating you INDIRECTLY by regulating the PUBLIC office.

- 23 1. The PUBLIC OFFICE was created by the government and therefore is PROPERTY of the government.
- 24 2. The PUBLIC OFFICE is legally in partnership with the CONSENTING human being volunteer filling the office. It is
- 25 the ONLY lawful "person" under most franchises.
- 26 3. Most people are enticed to volunteer for the PUBLIC OFFICE by having a carrot dangled in front of their face called
- 27 "benefits".
- 28 4. The human being volunteer becomes SURETY for and a representative of the PUBLIC office and a debtor, but is not
- 29 the PUBLIC OFFICE itself. Instead, the human being is called a PUBLIC OFFICER and is identified in Federal Rule
- 30 of Civil Procedure 17(d). The all caps name in combination with the Social Security Number is the name of the
- 31 OFFICE, not the human filling the office. The SSN behaves as the "de facto license" to represent the public office.
- 32 We say "de facto" because this is an unconstitutional method of creating new public offices.

33 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure

34 Rule 17. Plaintiff and Defendant; Capacity; Public Officers

35 (d) Public Officer's Title and Name.

36 *A public officer who sues or is sued in an official capacity may be designated by official title rather than by name, but the court
37 may order that the officer's name be added.

- 38 5. Once you take the bait and apply for the PUBLIC OFFICE by filling out a government "benefit" form such as an
- 39 S.S.A. SS-5, I.R.S. W-4, etc., they LOAN you the office, which is THEIR property and continues to be THEIR
- 40 property AFTER you receive it. The BORROWER of said property is ALWAYS the servant, "PUBIC SERVANT",
- 41 and DEBTOR relative to the lender, which is "U.S. Inc.":

42 *"How, then, are purely equitable obligations created? For the most part, either by the acts of third persons or by equity alone. But
43 how can one person impose an obligation upon another? By giving property to the latter on the terms of his assuming an
44 obligation in respect to it. At law there are only two means by which the object of the donor could be at all accomplished,
45 consistently with the entire ownership of the property passing to the donee, namely: first, by imposing a real obligation upon the
46 property; secondly, by subjecting the title of the donee to a condition subsequent. The first of these the law does not permit; the* 47 second is entirely inadequate. Equity, however, can secure most of the objects of the doner, and yet avoid the mischiefs of real 48 obligations by imposing upon the donee (and upon all persons to whom the property shall afterwards come without value or with 49 notice) a personal obligation with respect to the property; and accordingly this is what equity does. It is in this way that all trusts
50 are created, and all equitable charges made (i.e., equitable hypothecations or liens created) by testators in their wills. In this way,
51 also, most trusts are created by acts inter vivos, except in those cases in which the trustee incurs a legal as well as an equitable obligation. In short, as property is the subject of every equitable obligation, so the owner of property is the only person whose act or acts can be the means of creating an obligation in respect to that property. Moreover, the owner of property can create an obligation in respect to it in only two ways: first, by incurring the obligation himself, in which case he commonly also incurs a legal obligation; secondly, by imposing the obligation upon some third person; and this he does in the way just explained.”

[Readings on the History and System of the Common Law, Roscoe Pound, Second Edition, 1925, p. 543]

"The rich rules over the poor, and the borrower is slave to the lender."
[Proverbs 22:7, Bible, NKJV]

The above is confirmed by the statutory definition of “person” within the criminal provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, Subtitle A “trade or business” franchise agreement. Without this partnership, there is no statutory “person” to regulate or tax:

TITLE 26 > Subtitle F > CHAPTER 75 > Subchapter D > Sec. 7343.
Sec. 7343. - Definition of term "person"

The term "person" as used in this chapter [Chapter 75] includes an officer or employee of a corporation [U.S. Inc.], or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs

The PUBLIC office that they reach you through is also called the “straw man”:

“Straw man. A “front”; a third party who is put up in name only to take part in a transaction. Nominal party to a transaction; one who acts as an agent for another for the purpose of taking title to real property and executing whatever documents and instruments the principal may direct respecting the property. Person who purchases property, or to accomplish some purpose otherwise not allowed.”
[Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1421]

Once you volunteer for the office or acquiesce to OTHER PEOPLE volunteering you for the office with FALSE information returns such as IRS Forms W-2, 1042-S, 1098, and 1099, etc., then and only then do you become “domestic” and thereby subject to the otherwise “foreign” franchise agreement:

26 U.S.C. §7701 - Definitions

(a)When used in this title, where not otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof—

(4) Domestic

The term “domestic” when applied to a corporation or partnership means created or organized in the United States [GOVERNMENT, U.S. Inc., NOT the geographical “United States”] or under the law of the United States or of any State unless, in the case of a partnership, the Secretary provides otherwise by regulations.

If you never volunteer or you were non-consensually volunteered by others, then you remain both “foreign” and “not subject” but not statutorily “exempt” from the provisions of the franchise agreement:

26 U.S.C. §7701 - Definitions

(a)When used in this title, where not otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof—

(31) Foreign estate or trust

(A) Foreign estate

The term “foreign estate” means an estate the income of which, from sources without the United States [U.S. Inc. the government] which is not effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business [public office, per 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26)] within the United States[U.S. Inc. the government corporation, not the geographical “United States”], is not includible in gross income under subtitle A.

Jesus warned of this above mechanism of enslaving you as follows:

“Most assuredly, I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.”<sup>2</sup> But he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.”
[John 10:1-2, Bible, NKJV]

Consonant with the right of governments to CREATE franchises and the PUBLIC offices that animate them, is the right to DEFINE every aspect of the thing they created:

But when Congress creates a statutory right [a "privilege" in this case, such as a "trade or business"], it clearly has the discretion, in defining that right, to create presumptions, or assign burdens of proof, or prescribe remedies; it may also provide that persons seeking to vindicate that right must do so before particularized tribunals created to perform the specialized adjudicative tasks related to that right [such as "Tax Court", "Family Court", "Traffic Court"] etc.].FN35 Such provisions do, in a sense, affect the exercise of judicial power, but they are also incidental to Congress' power to define the right that it has created. No comparable justification exists, however, when the right being adjudicated is not of congressional creation. In such a situation, substantial inroads into functions that have traditionally been performed by the Judiciary cannot be characterized merely as incidental extensions of Congress' power to define rights that it has created. Rather, such inroads suggest unwarranted encroachments upon the judicial power of the United States, which our Constitution reserves for Art. III courts.
[Northern Pipeline Const. Co. v. Marathon Pipe Line Co., 458 U.S. at 83-84, 102 S.Ct. 2858 (1983)]

The definitions within the government franchise are the main method by which the innocent and ignorant are trapped, deceived, and ensnared. Why? Because the definitions are where the CIVIL STATUS is created that franchise privileges or public rights attach to. In order for the franchise to be enforceable, the offeror, which is the government, and the applicant MUST agree on the SAME definitions in order to have a meeting of minds and an enforceable contract based on CONSENT. In lawyer speak, "the language of the offer and the acceptance MUST be the same". The following educational legal videos show how this process works:

- 1 Mirror Image Rule, Mark DeAngelis
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=j8pgbZV757w>

Those who wish to avoid franchises and government "benefits" but who are compelled to apply for them by the criminal coercion of others can invalidate the application by simply:

1. Indicating the existence of the duress. . .AND
2. Filing a criminal complaint asking the source of the duress to be prosecuted. . .AND
3. Either DEFINING or REDEFINING all the words on the application in order to make the GOVERNMENT the franchisee instead of the applicant. Most government forms DO NOT define the terms and in fact are NOT even trustworthy for a definition even if they did define the terms.<sup>28</sup> Therefore, the applicant MUST provide definitions to remove any opportunity for presumption on the part of administrators and judges in the event of dispute. NOT doing so is the equivalent of signing and submitting a BLANK check and putting oneself at the "arbitrary whims" of a corrupted thieving government.
4. Turning the GOVERNMENT'S offer of THEIR franchise into a COUNTER-OFFER of YOUR franchise and making YOU the merchant/seller instead of them. That way, the ONLY possible outcome of the interchange is the GOVERNMENT becoming YOUR slave and franchisee, rather than the other way around. You can also make YOUR acceptance of THEIR offer contingent or conditional upon THEIR acceptance of YOUR counter offer. Your counter offer, in turn, can be something like the following:

Sovereignty Franchise and Agreement , Form #06.027 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm
--

The above approach is what we call an "anti-franchise franchise". The use of the above tactics are based upon the concept of EQUAL PROTECTION and EQUAL TREATMENT that is the foundation of the U.S.A. Constitution. Whatever the government can do, YOU TOO can do. Many of our forms take this approach to prevent you from surrendering sovereignty by being compelled to apply for or participate in franchises. See, for instance, the following forms that take advantage of this tactic:

5.8 Three Useful Tools for Responding to Claims or Demands

In any legal dispute, the moving party ALWAYS has the burden of proof. We want to establish facts for the record, but it is best to be careful making positive statements, which are statements that the speaker has to prove on the record with evidence. It is always better to force your opponent, and especially a government opponent, to have to satisfy the burden of proof in demonstrating their claim or assertion against you. Below are the three different ways we can respond to a demand or claim from an opponent in a legal setting:

1. Negative Averment: An averment that is negative in form but affirmative in substance that must be proved by the alleging party. "There is no evidence that I am not correct in this matter and there is no evidence that you are not wrong in this matter, and I don't believe that any such evidence exists." You're stating what is not; not what is.
2. Confession & Avoidance: A response in which the accused admits (via passive acquiescence) the allegations but asks for additional facts that deprive the admitted facts of an adverse legal effect. Accusation: "Is this your signature on this document?" Response(s): "Is there a defect in that instrument?" "Well, tell me the defect is and I'll correct it." "Well, if there is no defect in the instrument, then why are you here?" "Why should I answer your question when you can't even answer mine?" "Are you telling me that you are not even qualified to make any determinations on that negotiable instrument?" "Why are you here?"
3. Conditional Acceptance: A response, in honor without argument, that is a counter-offer. The only offer that is ever relevant is the one on top. Offer: "Let's go to town and go shopping." Counter-offer(s): "Sure, just come over and help me finish cleaning up the kitchen first." "I'll accept that upon proof of bona-fide claim in the form of a signed affidavit by you under penalty of perjury and under your own personal, unlimited commercial liability within 30 days."

The most effective way to respond to government enforcement claims or demands using the above techniques is to:

1. Define all terms and your legal status in the context of both your response and theirs so that the government cannot play word games. Do so under penalty of perjury and state that a failure to deny by the responding party constitutes an admission of the facts so stated per Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(b)(6).
2. Use a combination of negative averment and conditional acceptance to put the burden of proof upon the government to provide evidence that they have the authority to make the demand they are making. For instance:
  - 2.1. "I am not in receipt of either a contract or legal evidence of the existence of a public office that would grant you any enforcement powers, as required by the U.S. Supreme Court."

"All the powers of the government [including ALL of its civil enforcement powers against the public] must be carried into operation by individual agency, either through the medium of public officers, or contracts made with [private] individuals."
[Osborn v. Bank of U.S., 22 U.S. 738 (1824)]

- 2.2. "I am not in receipt of evidence that I am lawfully and consensually engaged in a public office and 'trade or business' within the United States government. Please provide legally admissible evidence of same."
- 2.3. "I am not in receipt of any evidence that the national government has the authority to establish franchises (such as the 'trade or business' franchise) or the public offices that animate them within the borders of a constitutional state of the Union or that they can use SSNs or TINs as de facto license numbers to license them."

"Thus, Congress having power to regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among the several States, and with the Indian tribes, may, without doubt, provide for granting coasting licenses, licenses to pilots, licenses to trade with the Indians, and any other licenses necessary or proper for the exercise of that great and extensive power; and the same observation is applicable to every other power of Congress, to the exercise of which the granting of licenses may be incident. All such licenses confer authority, and give rights to the licensee."

1 But very different considerations apply to the internal commerce or domestic trade of the States. Over this commerce and trade
2 Congress has no power of regulation nor any direct control. This power belongs exclusively to the States. No interference by
3 Congress with the business of citizens transacted within a State is warranted by the Constitution, except such as is strictly
4 incidental to the exercise of powers clearly granted to the legislature. The power to authorize a business within a State is plainly
5 repugnant to the exclusive power of the State over the same subject. It is true that the power of Congress to tax is a very extensive
6 power. It is given in the Constitution, with only one exception and only two qualifications. Congress cannot tax exports, and it must
7 impose direct taxes by the rule of apportionment, and indirect taxes by the rule of uniformity. Thus limited, and thus only, it reaches
8 every subject, and may be exercised at discretion. But, it reaches only existing subjects. Congress cannot authorize a trade or
9 business within a State in order to tax it."
10 [License Tax Cases, 72 U.S. 462, 18 L.Ed. 497, 5 Wall. 462, 2 A.F.T.R. 2224 (1866)]

- 11 2.4. "I am not in receipt of a response from the criminal complaint I filed against all those who filed information
12 returns in connection with my name or identity. Hence, you admit that they are correct and that you are 13 perpetuating the crime of impersonating a public officer."
- 14 2.5. "I am not in receipt of evidence that the SSN or TIN on the collection notice is exclusively my property or that I 15 can use such number as an exclusively private person not engaged in a public office without STEALING."
- 16 2.6. "I am not in receipt of evidence proving that the laws you seek to enforce are applicable to a legislatively but not 17 constitutionally foreign state against a nonresident party such as myself who is not 'purposefully availing 18 themselves' of commerce within your exclusively legislative jurisdiction."
- 19 2.7. "I am not in receipt of evidence proving that any internal revenue districts have been lawfully established within 20 the exclusive jurisdiction of the state that I occupy. 26 U.S.C. §7601 only allows you to enforce within internal 21 revenue districts."
- 22 2.8. "I am not in receipt of evidence proving that you have jurisdiction over those who are EXCLUSIVELY
23 PRIVATE such as myself and who have a right to exclude all others from the use, benefit, or enjoyment of their 24 property. The purpose of establishing governments is to protect my right to exclude all others including 25 governments from using or benefitting from the use of my absolutely owned private property."
- 26 2.9. "I am not in receipt of evidence that I can have any civil status including 'taxpayer' as a human being and not 27 legal 'person' not domiciled on federal territory subject to your exclusive jurisdiction and not consenting to do
28 business with you."
- 29 2.10. "I am not in receipt of evidence proving that you can add whatever you want to statutory definitions (such as 30 'trade or business', 'person', 'employee', 'United States', or 'State') without unlawfully exercising legislative 31 powers, violating the rules of statutory construction, committing fraud, and criminally STEALING."

32 "When a statute includes an explicit definition, we must follow that definition, even if it varies from that term's ordinary 33 meaning. Meese v. Keene, 481 U.S. 465, 484-485 (1987) ("It is axiomatic that the statutory definition of the term excludes
34 unstated meanings of that term"); Colautti v. Franklin, 439 U.S. at 392-393, n. 10 ("As a rule, 'a definition which declares what a
35 term "means" . . . excludes any meaning that is not stated"); Western Union Telegraph Co. v. Lenroot, 323 U.S. 490, 502 (1945);
36 Fox v. Standard Oil Co. of N.J., 294 U.S. 87, 95-96 (1935) (Cardozo, J.); see also 2A N. Singer, Sutherland on Statutes and
37 Statutory Construction § 47.07, p. 152, and n. 10 (5th ed. 1992) (collecting cases). That is to say, the statute, read "as a whole,"
38 post at 998 [530 U.S. 943] (THOMAS, J., dissenting), leads the reader to a definition. That definition does not include the Attorney
39 General's restriction -- "the child up to the head." Its words, "substantial portion," indicate the contrary."
40 [Stenberg v. Carhart, 530 U.S. 914 (2000)]

- 41 2.11. "Provided that you provide the above within the constraints of all attachments to this correspondence, I will be 42 happy to comply."
- 43 3. Insist that no presumptions be made about your status and that whatever status they claim you have, that they provide 44 evidence that you consented to it. Otherwise, they are engaging in identity theft. This includes "driver", "taxpayer",
45 "spouse", "citizen", "resident", etc. All presumptions that prejudice constitutional rights are a violation of due process
46 of law and THEFT. This is covered in:

Presumption: Chief Weapon for Unlawfully Enlarging Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.017
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 47 4. Insist that the government's response be signed under penalty of perjury as required by 26 U.S.C. §6065 so that it is 48 admissible as evidence in a court of law. They cannot exempt themselves from this requirement without exempting
49 YOU also, under the concept of equal protection and equal treatment.
- 50 5. Insist on the REAL legal birthname of the government agent, the address they actually work and can be served with 51 legal papers (rather than a PO Box) and a copy of their PRIVATE ID rather than agency ID. IRS agents very 52 commonly use pseudo names and refuse to use their real names.
- 53 6. Insist that they as the moving party asserting a liability have the burden of proof that you are subject to the laws in 54 question and that you will cooperate AFTER they satisfy the burden of proof.

5.9      Rules for Effective Activism

Inspiration:

In 1971, Saul Alinsky wrote a text on grassroots organizing titled "Rules for Radicals" (Prologue). Those who prefer cooperative tactics describe the book as out-of-date. Nevertheless, it provides some of the best advice on confrontational tactics. Alinsky begins this way:

What follows is for those who want to change the world from what it is to what they believe it should be -- there's that word, "change." The Prince was written by Machiavelli for the Haves on how to hold power. Rules for Radicals is written for the Have-Nots on how to take it away.

His "rules" derive from many successful campaigns where he helped poor people fighting power and privilege

For Alinsky, organizing is the process of highlighting what is wrong and convincing people they can actually do something about it. The two are linked. If people feel they do not have the power to change a bad situation, they stop thinking about it.

According to Alinsky, the organizer -- especially a paid organizer from outside -- must first overcome suspicion and establish credibility. Next the organizer must begin the task of agitating: rubbing resentments, fanning hostilities, and searching out controversy. This is necessary to get people to participate. An organizer has to attack apathy and disturb the prevailing patterns of complacent community life where people have simply come to accept a bad situation. Alinsky would say, "The first step in community organization is community disorganization."

Through a process combining hope and resentment, the organizer tries to create a "mass army" that brings in as many recruits as possible from local organizations, churches, services groups, labor unions, corner gangs, and individuals.

Alinsky provides a collection of rules to guide the process. But he emphasizes these rules must be translated into real-life tactics that are fluid and responsive to the situation at hand.

RULE 1: "Power is not only what I have, but what the enemy thinks I have." Power is derived from two main sources -- money and people. "Have-Nots" must build power from flesh and blood.

(These are two things of which there is a plentiful supply. Government and corporations always have a difficult time appealing to people, and usually do so almost exclusively with economic arguments.)

RULE 2: "I never go outside the expertise of 'my people'." It results in confusion, fear and retreat. Feeling secure adds to the backbone of anyone.

(Organizations under attack wonder why radicals don't address the "real" issues. This is why. They avoid things with which they have no knowledge.)

RULE 3: "Whenever possible, I go outside the expertise of the enemy." I look for ways to increase insecurity, anxiety and uncertainty.

(This happens all the time. Watch how many organizations under attack are blind-sided by seemingly irrelevant arguments that they are then forced to address.)

RULE 4: "Make the enemy live up to its own book of rules." If the rule is that every letter gets a reply, I send 30,000 letters. I can kill them with this because no one can possibly obey all of their own rules.

1 (This is a serious rule. The besieged entity's very credibility and reputation is at stake, because if activists catch it lying or
2 not living up to its commitments, they can continue to chip away at the damage.)

3 RULE 5: "Ridicule is man's most potent weapon." There is no defense. It's irrational. It's infuriating. It also works as a key
4 pressure point to force the enemy into concessions.

5 (Pretty crude, rude and mean, huh? He wants to create anger and fear.)

6 RULE 6: "A good tactic is one 'my people' enjoy." They'll keep doing it without urging and come back to do more. They're 7 doing their thing, and will even suggest better ones.

8 (Radical activists, in this sense, are no different than any other human being. We all avoid "un-fun" activities, and but we 9 revel at and enjoy the ones that work and bring results.)

10 RULE 7: "A tactic that drags on too long becomes a drag." Don't let it become old news.

11 (Even radical activists get bored. So to keep them excited and involved, organizers are constantly coming up with new 12 tactics.)

13 RULE 8: "Keep the pressure on. Never let up." I keep trying new things to keep the opposition off balance. As the 14 opposition masters one approach, I hit them from the flank with something new.

15 (Attack, attack, attack from all sides, never giving the reeling organization a chance to rest, regroup, recover and re-16 strategize.)

17 RULE 9: "The threat is usually more terrifying than the thing itself." Imagination and ego can dream up many more 18 consequences than any activist.

19 (Perception is reality. Large organizations always prepare a worst-case scenario, something that may be furthest from the 20 activists' minds. The upshot is that the organization will expend enormous time and energy, creating in its own collective 21 mind the direst of conclusions. The possibilities can easily poison the mind and result in demoralization.)

22 RULE 10: "If I push a negative hard enough, it will push through and become a positive." Violence from the other side can 23 win the public to my side because the public sympathizes with the underdog.

24 (Unions used this tactic. Peaceful [albeit loud] demonstrations during the heyday of unions in the early to mid-20th Century 25 incurred management's wrath, often in the form of violence that eventually brought public sympathy to their side.)

26 RULE 11: "The price of a successful attack is a constructive alternative." I never let the enemy score points because I'd be 27 caught without a solution to the problem.

28 (Old saw: If you're not part of the solution, you're part of the problem. Activist organizations have an agenda, and their
29 strategy is to hold a place at the table, to be given a forum to wield their power. So, they have to have a compromise
30 solution.)

31 RULE 12: "Pick the target, freeze it, personalize it, and polarize it." I cut off the support network and isolate the target from 32 sympathy. I go after people and not institutions; people hurt faster than institutions.

33 (This is cruel, but very effective. Direct, personalized criticism and ridicule works.)

34 According to Alinsky, the main job of the organizer is to bait an opponent into reacting. "The enemy properly goaded and 35 guided in his reaction will be your major strength."

5.10 Get educated in the law and administrative process.

The government systematically manufactures legal ignorance in the public fool system and then harvests it using the fraudulent tax system when ill-prepared citizens enter the work force. They are like sharks and will attack when they smell blood in the water. They are predators, not protectors. The Holy Bible explains why the Lord has raised up these predators to avenge a wicked people who refuse to follow His laws:

"The Lord is well pleased for His righteousness' sake; He will exalt the law and make it honorable. But this is a people robbed and plundered! [by a WICKED government] All of them are snared in [legal] holes [by the sophistry of covetous lawyers who devise evil by law], and they are hidden in prison houses; they are for prey, and no one delivers; for plunder, and no one says, 'Restore!'"

Who among you will give ear to this? Who will listen and hear for the time to come? Who gave Jacob for plunder, and Israel to the robbers? [wicked government] Was it not the Lord, He against whom we have sinned? For they would not walk in His ways, nor were they obedient to His law, therefore He has poured on him the fury of His anger and the strength of battle; it has set him on fire all around, yet he did not know; and it burned him, yet he did not take it to heart."*
[Isaiah 42:21-25, Bible, NKJV]

"For you have trusted in your wickedness; you [a wicked government] have said, 'No one sees me'; your wisdom and your knowledge have warped you; and you have said in your heart, "I am and there is no one else besides me." Therefore evil shall come upon you; you shall not know from where it arises [Iraq? Afghanistan? Who knows?]. And trouble shall come upon you; you shall not be able to put it off [war on terrorism will have no end]. And desolation shall come upon you suddenly [9-11-2001 in New York City], which you shall not know. Stand now with your enchantments [New Age philosophy, "people friendly" churches that don't preach doctrine and God's word and have become vanity] and the multitude of your sorceries [drugs], in which you have labored from your youth—perhaps you will be able to profit, perhaps you will prevail. You are wearied in the multitude of your counsels [greedy lawyers and corrupt politicians who we have too many of in this country]; Let now the astrologers, the stargazers [horoscopes, weathermen], and the monthly prognosticators [stock market analysts] stand up and save you from these things that shall come upon you. Behold, they shall be as stubble, they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame; it shall not be a coal to be warmed by, nor a fire to sit before! Thus shall they be to you with whom you have labored, your merchants from your youth; they shall wander each one to his quarter. No one shall save you."
[Isaiah 47:10-11, Bible, NKJV]

*"Run to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem;
See now and know;
And seek in her open places
If you can find a man,*

If there is anyone who executes judgment,
Who seeks the truth,
And I will pardon her.

Though they say, "As the LORD lives," Surely they swear falsely."

*O LORD, are not Your eyes on the truth?
You have stricken them,
But they have not grieved;
You have consumed them,
But they have refused to receive correction.
They have made their faces harder than rock [PROUD, rebellious, presumptuous];
They have refused to return [to Your ways].*

*Therefore I said, "Surely these are poor.
They are foolish;
For they do not know the way [for the Law] of the LORD,
The judgment of their God.
I will go to the great men and speak to them,
For they have known the way of the LORD,
The judgment of their God."*

*But these have altogether broken the yoke
And burst the bonds.
Therefore a lion from the forest shall slay them,
A wolf of the deserts shall destroy them;
A leopard will watch over their cities.

1 Everyone who goes out from there shall be torn in pieces,
2 Because their transgressions are many;
3 Their backslidings have increased.

4 "How shall I pardon you for this?
5 Your children have forsaken Me
6 And sworn [on tax returns] by those [in government] that are not gods.
7 When I had fed them to the full,
8 Then they committed adultery [and fornication and sexual perversity]
9 And assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.
10 They were like well-fed lusty stallions;
11 Every one neighed after his neighbor's wife [sexual perversion].
12 Shall I not punish them for these things?" says the LORD.
13 "And shall I not avenge Myself on such a nation as this?"

14 "Go up on her walls and destroy,
15 But do not make a complete end.
16 Take away her branches,
17 For they are not the LORD's.
18 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah
19 Have dealt very treacherously with Me," says the LORD.

20 They have lied about the LORD [evolutionism],
21 And said, "It is not He.
22 Neither will evil come upon us,
23 Nor shall we see sword or famine.
24 And the prophets become wind,
25 For the word is not in them.
26 Thus shall it be done to them."

27 Therefore thus says the LORD God of hosts:

28 "Because you speak this word,
29 Behold, I will make My words in your mouth fire,
30 And this people wood,
31 And it shall devour them.
32 Behold, I will bring a nation [in the District of Criminals, Washington D.C.] against you from afar,
33 O house of Israel," says the LORD.
34 "It is a mighty nation,
35 It is an ancient nation,
36 A nation whose language [legalese] you do not know,
37 Nor can you understand what they say [in their deceitful laws].
38 Their quiver is like an open tomb;
39 They are all mighty [deceitful] men.
40 And they [and the IRS, their henchmen] shall eat up your harvest and your bread,
41 Which your sons and daughters should eat.
42 They shall eat up your flocks and your herds;
43 They shall eat up your vines and your fig trees;
44 They shall destroy your fortified cities [and businesses and families],
45 In which you trust, with the sword.

46 "Nevertheless in those days," says the LORD, "I will not make a complete end of you. And it will be when you say, "Why does the 47 LORD our God do all these things to us?" then you shall answer them, "Just as you have forsaken Me and served foreign gods in 48 your land, so you shall serve aliens in a land that is not yours."

49 "Declare this in the house of Jacob
50 And proclaim it in Judah, saying,
51 "Hear this now, O foolish people,
52 Without understanding [ignorant and presumptuous],
53 Who have eyes and see not,
54 And who have ears and hear not:
55 Do you not fear Me?" says the LORD.
56 "Will you not tremble at My presence,
57 Who have placed the sand as the bound of the sea,
58 By a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass beyond it?
59 And though its waves toss to and fro,
60 Yet they cannot prevail;
61 Though they roar, yet they cannot pass over it.
62 But this people has a defiant and rebellious heart;
63 They have revolted and departed.

1 They do not say in their heart,
2 "Let us now fear the LORD our God,
3 Who gives rain, both the former and the latter, in its season.
4 He reserves for us the appointed weeks of the harvest."
5 Your iniquities have turned these things away,
6 And your sins have withheld good from you.

7 "For among My people are found wicked men [the IRS, federal reserve, bankers, lawyers, and politicians];
8 They lie in wait as one who sets snares;
9 They set a trap;
10 They catch men [with deceit and greed as their weapon].
11 As a cage is full of birds,
12 So their houses are full of deceit [IRS publications and law books and government propaganda].
13 Therefore they have become great and grown rich [from plundering YOUR money illegally].
14 They have grown fat, they are sleek;
15 Yes, they surpass the deeds of the wicked;
16 They do not plead the cause,
17 The cause of the fatherless;
18 Yet they prosper,
19 And the right of the needy they do not defend.
20 Shall I not punish them for these things?" says the LORD.
21 "Shall I not avenge Myself on such a nation as this?"

22 "An astonishing and horrible thing
23 Has been committed in the land:
24 The prophets prophesy falsely,
25 And the priests [federal judges] rule by their own power;
26 And My people love to have it so,
27 But what will you do in the end?"
28 [Jeremiah 5, Bible, NKJV, Emphasis added]

29 Blood in the water for a corrupted government and legal profession is legal ignorance or ill-preparedness. Indicators that 30 your blood is in the water include:

- 31 1. You don't understand what your rights are and you don't immediately recognize when your rights have been violated
32 by your opponent. See:
  - 33 1.1. Enumeration of Inalienable Rights, Form #10.002
34 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
  - 35 1.2. Know Your Rights and Citizenship Status, Form #10.009
36 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
- 37 2. You do not understand the subject of jurisdiction and do not know how to challenge it. See:
  - 38 2.1. Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.018
39 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
  - 40 2.2. Federal Enforcement Authority Within States of the Union, Form #05.032
41 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
- 42 3. You use government identifying numbers or tolerate their use against you by others without correcting them. This 43 constitutes fraud on your part and makes you unlawfully APPEAR as and impersonate a "public officer" or "federal 44 personnel" within the government. This process is called "dissimulation". See:
  - 45 3.1. About SSNs and TINs on Government Forms and Correspondence, Form #05.012
46 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
  - 47 3.2. Why It is Illegal for Me to Request or Use a "Taxpayer Identification Number", Form #04.205
48 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
  - 49 3.3. Why You Aren't Eligible for Social Security, Form #06.001
50 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
  - 51 3.4. Social Security: Mark of the Beast, Form #11.407
52 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
- 53 4. You engage in presumptions and do not challenge presumptions of others. See:

Presumption: Chief Weapon for Unlawfully Enlarging Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.017
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

54 For instance:

- 55 4.1. You falsely and erroneously call yourself a "taxpayer" or you don't argue with people who call you a "taxpayer".
56 You don't even know what a "taxpayer" is. See:

Who Are "Taxpayers" and Who Needs a "Taxpayer Identification Number"?, Form #05.013

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

4.2. You falsely and erroneously call yourself a “citizen” or a “resident” of the “United States”. You don’t even know what the legal definition of “United States” is within the particular statute that is being enforced. See:

Why You are a “national”, “state national”, and Constitutional but not Statutory Citizen, Form #05.006

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

4.3. You falsely and erroneously call yourself an “employee”. You don’t even know what the legal definition of “employee” is. See:

Why Your Government is Either a Thief or You are a “Public Officer” for Income Tax Purposes, Form #05.008

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

4.4. You falsely and erroneously assume that you earn “income” and you don’t know its legal definition. It is defined as earnings associated with a “trade or business” and a “public office” within the U.S. government, or payments received from the U.S. government that are not connected to a “public office”, all of which are listed in 26 U.S.C. §871. See:

The “Trade or Business” Scam, Form #05.001

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

5. You use any of the flawed tax arguments documented below:

Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid, Form #08.004

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6. You respond improperly to collection notices. You:

6.1. Do not respond.

6.2. Respond late

6.3. Make presumptuous or unsubstantiated statements in your response.

6.4. Do not properly rebut false information returns upon which the collection notices are based.

For guidance on how to respond properly, see:

State Response Letter Index, Form #07.201

<http://sedm.org/SampleLetters/States/StateRespLtrIndex.htm>

Federal Response Letter Index, Form #07.301

<http://sedm.org/SampleLetters/Federal/FedLetterAndNoticeIndex.htm>

7. You do not ask any questions at examinations or on the telephone. Excellent questions to ask are found at the end of nearly every Memorandum of Law found on our Forms/Pubs page at:

SEDM Forms/Pubs, Section 1.5: Memorandums of Law

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

8. You do not engage in any kind of legal discovery.

9. You do not identify any aspect of the enforcement action as being illegal.

10. When financial institutions and companies refuse to cooperate with you in correcting their illegal practices and fraudulent records about you and tell you to write the legal department, you don’t do it. For an example of such a correspondence, see:

Legal Notice to Correct Fraudulent Tax Status, Reporting, and Withholding, Form #04.401

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

11. You do not file criminal complaints against offending employees to stop illegal enforcement activity. For example criminal complaints, see:

SEDM Litigation Tools, Section 1.8

<http://sedm.org/Litigation/LitIndex.htm>

12. You do not know how to prepare legal pleadings and must rely on an expensive attorney that you can’t afford. Consequently, you are easily coerced economically into submission. For templates of several types of legal pleadings, see:

SEDM Litigation Tools

<http://sedm.org/Litigation/LitIndex.htm>

The best place to quickly and inexpensively come up to speed on law and administrative process is to use the free information offered in the following portion of our website:

SEDM Liberty University

5.11 Build an administrative record that will immunize yourself from persecution and litigation.

The most attractive target for the government to prosecute in willful failure to file tax prosecutions are people who have nothing in their IRS administrative record. In tax prosecutions, courts will usually only allow information that is ALREADY in the agency administrative record to be admitted into evidence. The U.S. Department of Justice knows this, which is why typically they will go after people who file NOTHING, and therefore have no evidence to defend themselves with in litigation. In the courtroom, admissible evidence is the only weapon and the most defenseless litigants are those who have no evidence to justify why they did what they did. It is therefore very crucial to systematically build a complete and comprehensive administrative record. Details for building a good administrative tax record are described below:

Techniques for Building a Good Administrative Record, Form #07.003

5.12 Joining, forming, and/or running your own law and freedom study group in your area

Another important method of defense against government corruption and a source of great personal enrichment and encouragement is to form a law and freedom study and activism group in your county or city. Such groups can be useful for the following purposes:

1. Provide an organized system of study of the law.
2. Provide mentorship from more experienced members.
3. Develop a community pleading library for reuse by other members.
4. Provide encouragement to members in studying and learning.
5. Share experiences and tools developed by others.
6. Develop people's litigation skills. Many such groups hold "mock court", in which members serve as pretend judges and attorneys and give other members an opportunity to develop their courtroom presentation skills. Many law schools also have such mock courts. Our forums are also structured as a mock court for people to learn to argue their points with law and evidence so they learn to speak and argue logically using the Socratic method.

The above advantages of forming your own freedom study group locally can supplement what you read on our website and provide a critical component to your learning and progress that we are simply not equipped or resourced to provide individually. We encourage all our members to form their own Activism Groups. Here is the way to do that:

1. Please do not pursue us personally in pursuit of the above goals. We are not equipped to provide that level of help and you should form your own local freedom group among your friends and associates.
2. Our website provides a way for you to volunteer to start your own freedom group in your county as an Activist Group Leader. All you have to do is join our forums and check the box in your User Profile that says "Activist Group Leader". Shortly thereafter:
  - 2.1. We will vet/screen you and then
  - 2.2. Change your user profile to APPOINT you as the Activist Group Leader in your county.
  - 2.3. Send you an email informing you of the above.After the above steps are complete you will then appear on the USA state pages in the clickable map on our opening site page at <http://sedm.org>. You can then use our forums to notify members of training and activism news and events in your area on the state and county pages simply by using your forum account.
3. If you want to find members from our ministry to join in your group, you may visit the following forums in doing so. You will need to join the referenced forums in order to post to them:
  - 3.1. SEDM Forums: <http://sedm.org/forums/>. Login, click on the "Members" tab at the top, and then click on "More Search Options" to search based on specific counties or states or zip codes. Then send private messages to the members you are interested in.
  - 3.2. SEDM Forums, Forum #3.7: Members Seeking Members.
<http://sedm.org/forums/>
  - 3.3. Family Guardian Forums, Forum 5.8: Members Seeking Members
<http://famguardian.org/forums/>

Below is a guide we have prepared for those who want to volunteer to become Activism Group Leaders in their area using the procedure above:

Some members who wish to start their Activism Groups or enhance the quality of an existing group have asked us what materials on our website would be useful in putting together a systematic, organized law study course for their members. On this subject, we recommend the following approach.

1. Insist that members guide their study using this document, and that they attempt to complete section 2 of this document while attending the sessions listed below.
2. Use the materials in our Liberty University:
<http://sedm.org/LibertyU/LibertyU.htm>
3. Give the following items from the Liberty University in a group setting. Have people in the group take turns giving the individual presentations:
  - 3.1. 2.2 through 2.6. (5 sessions)
  - 3.2. 3.1 through 3.3, 3.6. (4 sessions)
  - 3.3. 4.1. (1 session)
4. Assign homework, which should include reading the following sections of the Liberty University:
  - 4.1. 2.7 through 2.11. (5 meeting sessions)
  - 4.2. 3.4, 3.5, and 3.7 through 3.11. (7 meeting sessions)
  - 4.3. 4.2. (1 meeting session)Schedule a full meeting session to discuss and debate each individual item in the above.
5. Require that you cannot become a full-fledged sovereign member without at least completing the following steps in the Liberty University.
  - 5.1. 2.1 through 2.11.
  - 5.2. 3.1 through 3.11.

Beginning in early 2012, we expanded our Member Forums to support and facilitate those who want to either form or to join a Member study group in their area. Here is how to access and use it:

1. Go to the opening page:
<http://sedm.org>
2. Navigate to the SEDM Clickable Activism Map, which looks like the following:

5. You will now see a list of members in your state at the bottom of the above page.
6. If you want to view a list of members in your county, click on the drop down list under "Select County" and then click the "Find" button. You will then see a hot linked map of all the members in your county. Here is a sample:

7. If you want to look at the biographical information for each member, you can click on their name, and you will be able to view their profile. HOWEVER, you must have an SEDM Forum account AND be logged into the forums before you click on each name, or the profile will not be displayed properly. We do this to protect the privacy of our members and to screen out moles from viewing their personal information.

After you execute the steps above, you will have a list of members in your area and know which ones have law study groups, and also be able to find those who WANT to form or join a group. Then you can send them a message and meet with them.

Keep in mind that the legal names of our members are not disclosed in our forums, so you will not know the names of our members unless they decide to divulge that information to you. We also recommend to members to not use their legal names when meeting other members or going to law study groups, at least initially, until you get to know the people. This will prevent being victimized by government moles.

5.13 Going on the offensive: Presenting and debating our research and evidence with legal and government professionals on the record

We encourage and always have encouraged our members and readers to present and debate our research and evidence with anyone and everyone in the legal, government, tax, or accounting professions so as to help us improve their quality and accuracy. An important reason for the existence of our website, in fact, is to gain the widest possible audience for peer review of our research so that it will be the most accurate it can be.

Below are some suggestions for presenting our materials to third parties in the legal, government, tax, and accounting professions in order to both convince you that they are true and to develop legally admissible evidence that they are true that you can defend yourself with in front of any jury, should it ever come to that.

1. You may want to approach government employees, attorneys, and judges and offer to pay them money or buy them lunch to present any evidence at all that would disprove the research. The more money you offer them, the more likely you are to get a rebuttal. This technique is especially effective if you happen to have such professionals within your own family or who are relatives.
2. Present the research via certified mail or with the following proof of service, so that you have proof that you sent it and exactly what was sent.

Certificate/Proof/Affidavit of Service, Form #01.002
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

3. If you meet them in person, bring a witness.
4. You can use the following as a source for your questions:
  - 4.1. Answering the following questions on a signed affidavit:

Test for Federal Tax Professionals, Form #03.009

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 4.2. Answering the Admissions at the end of our Memorandums of Law and pointing out anything that is inconsistent with reality in each. See:

SEDM Forms/Pubs, Section 1.5: Memorandums of Law

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 4.3. Answering the following questions on a signed affidavit.

Tax Deposition Questions, Form #03.016

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 4.4. Rebutting the content of:

Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid, Form #08.004

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

If you get anything back OTHER than simply irrelevant opinion, then please be sure to scan it in as a PDF and post it as an attachment to our forums so that we can review and publish it:

SEDM Forums, Forum #9.4: Errata Reports

<http://sedm.org/forums/>

Our experience has consistently been that those in the legal profession and the government who are presented with what amounts to legally admissible evidence that proves all the following get hostile and defensive and have absolutely no evidence they can defend their misconduct with:

1. That they only care about money and not about justice.

*"For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, for which some have strayed from the faith in their greediness, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows."
[1 Tim. 6:10, Bible, NKJV]*

2. That they have not read the law, even though they are in charge of enforcing it. This makes them a bad citizen, according to the U.S. Supreme Court.

*"Every man is supposed to know the law. A party who makes a contract or enters into a [franchise, which is also a contract] with an officer [of the government] without having it reduced to writing is knowingly accessory to a violation of duty on his part. Such a party aids in the violation of the law."
[Clark v. United States, 95 U.S. 539 (1877)]*

3. That they do not understand the law.

4. That the only thing that matters is the opinion of a judge that cannot be justified with what the law actually says. This means the courtroom is really a state sponsored church and the judge is just a priest of a civil religion who conducts worship directed at himself.

5. That they have substituted "public policy" perpetrated by a corrupted judge with a financial conflict of interest in place of what the law actually says, just like the Pharisees did.

*"The king establishes the land by justice, But he who receives bribes [socialist handouts, government "benefits", or PLUNDER stolen from nontaxpayers] overthrows it."
[Prov. 29:4, Bible, NKJV]"*

6. That they are engaged in an organized crime syndicate that not only doesn't protect you, but only protects its own criminal activities and charges you "protection money".

"Don't steal: The government hates competition."

"Sometimes the law defends plunder and participates in it. Thus the beneficiaries are spared the shame and danger that their acts would otherwise involve... But how is this legal plunder to be identified? Quite simply. See if the law takes from some persons what belongs to them and gives it to the other persons to whom it doesn't belong. See if the law benefits one citizen at the expense of another by doing what the citizen himself cannot do without committing a crime. Then abolish that law without delay ... No legal plunder; this is the principle of justice, peace, order, stability, harmony and logic."

1 [\[The Law, Frederic Bastiat, 1848\]](#)

2 It should interest Christians to know that directly confronting evil in the government and the legal profession as described
3 in this section is how Jesus BEGAN His ministry, and when He visited people in these professions, He called them to 4 repentance, just as you should, if they could not defend their behavior with legally admissible evidence:

5 Matthew the Tax Collector

6 9 As Jesus passed on from there, He saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, "Follow Me."
7 [REPENT!] So he arose and followed Him.

8 10 Now it happened, as Jesus sat at the table in the house, that behold, many tax collectors and [OTHER SIMILAR] sinners came 9 and sat down with Him and His disciples. 11 And when the Pharisees [lawyers] saw it, they said to His disciples, "Why does your 10 Teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

11 12 When Jesus heard that, He said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. 13 But go
12 and learn [STUDY! By reading the LAW] what this means: 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice.' For I did not come to call the 13 righteous, but sinners, to repentance."
14 [Matt. 9:9-13, Bible, NKJV]

15 Here is what some credible authorities say about confronting evil in the government and the legal profession, who together
16 are characterized as "The Beast" in Rev. 19:19:

17 "Shall the throne of iniquity, which devises evil by law, have fellowship with You? They gather together against the
18 life of the righteous, and condemn innocent blood. But the Lord has been my defense, and my God the rock of my refuge. He has
19 brought on them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; the Lord our God shall cut them off."
20 [Psalm 94:20-23, Bible, NKJV]

21
22 "He has shown you, O man, what is good; And what does the Lord require of you but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk
23 humbly with your God?"
24 [Micah 6:8, Bible, NKJV]

25 "Those who already walk submissively will say there is no cause for alarm. But submissiveness is not our heritage. The First
26 Amendment was designed to allow rebellion to remain as our Heritage. The Constitution was designed to keep the government off
27 the backs of the people. The Bill of Rights was added to keep the precincts of belief and expression, of the press, of political and
28 social activities free from surveillance. The Bill of Rights was designed to keep agents of government and official eavesdroppers
29 away from Assemblies of People. The aim was to allow men to be free and independent to assert their rights against government."
30 [Laird v. Tatum, 408 U.S. 1; 92 S.Ct. 2318 (1972)]

31 Below are some legal standards you should impose on the evidence that people use to disprove our research. This will 32 ensure that the debate stays focused on legally admissible evidence rather than political opinions that are irrelevant in a
33 court of law. All of these requirements are consistent with what the law and the courts actually say on the subject of what 34 constitutes a "reasonable belief":

- 35 1. Must conform completely with the conclusions contained in the pamphlet below about what constitutes legally 36 admissible evidence about tax liability:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 37 2. Must be admissible, non-prima facie evidence.

- 38 2.1. The 1939 code upon which the present internal revenue code was based has been REPEALED. See 53 Stat 1,
39 Section 4. Not only did it repeal itself, but it also repealed all prior revenue laws from the Statutes at Large 40 before January 2, 1939. Therefore, nothing from the Statutes at large prior to January 2, 1939 can be cited as 41 positive law.
42 2.2. 1 U.S.C. §204 legislative notes, the Government Printing Office \(G.P.O.\) Website, and the House of
43 Representatives websites all say that the Internal Revenue Code was not presently enacted into positive law.
44 Therefore, if your evidence consists of cites from the I.R.C., you must prove that every section of the code you
45 cite is individually a positive law, which is the only type of admissible, non-presumptive evidence having to do
46 with written law. The way to prove that is to cite a section of the Statutes at Large AFTER 1939 which was 47 enacted into positive law. We remind you that it is a religious sin for Christians (see Numbers 15:30) and a 48 violation of due process to "presume" or "assume" anything, and therefore the government cannot compel us to
49 "presume" that a section of the I.R.C. is enacted positive law without proving it. See the following for why 50 "presumption" is a violation of due process.

Presumption: Chief Weapon for Unlawfully Enlarging Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.017
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

3. If your evidence is from a witness, then the witness must agree on a notarized affidavit to be financially liable for making a false statements.
4. Your evidence may not come from any IRS publication, because the IRS Internal Revenue Manual says in section 4.10.7.2.8 that IRS publications may not be cited to sustain a position. See the following for further details on this scam.

Federal Courts and the IRS' own IRM Say the IRS is NOT RESPONSIBLE for Its Actions or its Words or For Following Its Own Written Procedures!, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Articles/IRSNotResponsible.htm>

5. If the evidence relates to the liability of a person who does not reside on federal property and is not a federal "employee", agent, or contractor, then any court cites must come from a state court, because:
- 5.1. The Supreme Court said in Erie Railroad v. Tompkins, 304 U.S. 64 (1938) that there is no federal common law in a state of the Union.
- 5.2. The Rules of Decision Act, 28 U.S.C. §1652 says that the law to be applied in the courts is state law and not federal law, and especially when the domicile of the Defendant is on state property and not on federal property.
- 5.3. The IRS Internal Revenue Manual \(I.R.M.\), Section 4.10.7.2.9.8 says that courts below the Supreme Court may only be cited as precedent for the particular person involved in the proceeding.
- 5.4. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17\(b\) states that the capacity to sue or be sued is based on the domicile of the Defendant. If that domicile is in a state and not on land ceded to the federal government or under general federal jurisdiction, then no federal statute or no federal judicial precedent may be cited as authority in the case.
6. Cannot consist of either The Truth About Frivolous Tax Arguments, Internal Revenue Service or the Frequently Asked Questions About the Federal Income Tax, Congressional Research Report 97-59A. The reasons for this are many, not the least of which consist of:
- 6.1. The IRS document doesn't identify the IRS or anyone in the IRS as a source and is not signed or authenticated. Under the Federal Rules of Evidence, nothing can be used as evidence without at least the identity of the author being known and the author being sworn under oath and held just as accountable as those who relied on his statements.
- 6.2. The Office of the Chief Counsel of the IRS (202-622-3300) positively refuses to either sign or take personal responsibility in writing for publication of this document and thereby be held legally liable for false statements contained therein, even though his administrative help indicated on the telephone that he was the author. How ironic it is that anyone from the government would insist on calling anything "truth" that absolutely no one conspicuously will claim legal responsibility for. How ironic also is it that the IRS would base all of its positions against allegedly "frivolous" positions that it can't and won't take personal and legal responsibility for, even though the people who argue against their unofficial position can and are held legally responsible for making "frivolous" arguments by courts that demonstrably don't even have any jurisdiction. Therefore, both of these publications for similar reasons are simply hearsay evidence that is excludible under the Hearsay Rule (Federal Rule of Evidence 802) and also amount essentially to "political propaganda" and "false commercial speech" unless and until they are authenticated and the authors are identified and held liable for their dubious and deliberately vague and deceptive statements therein.
- 6.3. Federal courts have repeatedly said that one may not rely upon the statements of public servants in forming a reasonable belief. See the following for some of the reasons why.

Reliance Upon Government Representations, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Articles/reliance.htm>

5.14 Protecting your credibility and that of the freedom community generally

In your quest for freedom and sovereignty remember the following important considerations:

1. It is important to protect your credibility and that of the freedom community generally. Reform can never be instituted without credibility.
2. Governments unfairly advantage themselves by "shooting the messenger", meaning destroying the credibility of those who attack its usually illegal activities. This is done mainly by propaganda on U.S. Department of Justice, Internal Revenue Service (I.R.S.), and Department of Homeland Security (D.H.S.) websites by attacking "sovereign citizens", freedom advocates, or tax freedom advocates.
3. To protect you credibility, you should never pursue reform or fight corruption for personal gain or benefit, and ESPECIALLY for monetary gain. The love of money is the root of all evil, and pursuing justice for the love of money

1 simply invites evil people into your life who will try to slander you. Selfish motives are easy to attack or discredit,
2 especially in front of juries. Always be motivated out of an external purpose of loving and protecting others in
3 fulfillment of the unselfish purpose of obeying God and his holy commandments. Then if the government attacks you,
4 they will be violating the First Amendment and discriminating against a religion by interfering with your free religious 5 exercise.

- 6 4. Find a way to be useful and protective, even of your enemies in at least one important way, and do it for FREE. That 7 way, they will be hurting themselves if they attack you. People generally will avoid hurting themselves and avoid
8 attacking virtue generally. This is also the Golden Rule: Do unto others what you would have them do unto you.

9 Love Your Enemies

10 <sup>43</sup> "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' <sup>44</sup> But I say to you, love your enemies,
11 bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you, <sup>45</sup> that
12 you may be sons of your Father in heaven; for He makes His sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and
13 on the unjust. <sup>46</sup> For if you love those who love you, what reward have you? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? <sup>47</sup> And if
14 you greet your brethren only, what do you do more than others? Do not even the tax collectors do so? <sup>48</sup> Therefore you shall be 15 perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect.
16 [Matt. 5:43-48, Bible, NKJV]

- 17 5. Do not be prideful, brag about your accomplishments, or taunt your enemy with things like "Operation Prosecute Me", 18 such things as Larken Rose did. That landed him in jail eventually. This fight isn't about YOU, but about glorifying
19 God and loving and protecting your neighbor.

20 "Pride goes before destruction,
21 And a haughty spirit before a fall.
22 Better to be of a humble spirit with the lowly,
23 Than to divide the spoil with the proud."
24 [Prov. 16:19, Bible, NKJV]

- 25 6. Don't attack PEOPLE, but attack ILLEGAL or CRIMINAL acts. This is a fulfillment of the second of two great 26 commandments to love your neighbor. This is also the equivalent in the religious field of attacking the sin, but loving 27 the sinner. The minute you personalize the attack is the minute the double edged sword will come back and cut and 28 possibly kill and destroy you personally.

29 "Do not curse the king, even in your thought; Do not curse the rich, even in your bedroom; For a bird of the air may carry your 30 voice, And a bird in flight may tell the matter."
31 [Eccl. 10:20, Bible, NKJV]

32 6. Situational Resources for Members

33 After you have accomplished as much as you can of the Basic Checklist for Freedom in section 2 earlier, you may find
34 yourself in various situations. This section lists what you can do in each situation. Our website also has an index of forms 35 organized by situation in the following two locations:

- 36 1. SEDM Liberty University, Section 6.1: Situational References
37 <http://sedm.org/LibertyU/LibertyU.htm>
38 2. SEDM Forms/Pubs, Section 2: Situational Index of Forms and Publications

6.7 Avoiding or Terminating Participation in Franchises

This section will describe forms and techniques for avoiding government franchises. All forms and tools for avoiding government franchises are found in the following places on our website:

1. SEDM Liberty University, Section 4: Avoiding Government Franchises, Licenses, and Identity Theft.

<http://sedm.org/LibertyU/LibertyU.htm>

2. SEDM Forms/Pubs, Section 1.6: Avoiding Government Franchises.

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6.7.1 Quitting Social Security

If you want to terminate Social Security participation, the following form provides all the tools required:

Resignation of Compelled Social Security Trustee, Form #06.002

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6.7.2 Correcting your citizenship and domicile status

If you want to correct your citizenship and domicile status with the U.S. government and your state, the following form is excellent:

Legal Notice of Change in Domicile/Citizenship Records and Divorce from the United States, Form #10.001

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6.7.3 Responding to compelled use of Social Security Numbers (SSNs) and Taxpayer Identification Numbers (TINs)

The following resources are available for those being unlawfully compelled to apply for or use Social Security Numbers (SSNs) or Taxpayer Identification Numbers (TINs):

1. About IRS Form W-8BEN, Form #04.202-Explains why non-resident non-persons not engaged in the “trade or business”/public office are exempted by regulation from the requirement to use SSNs and TINs and exempted from reporting and provides a form that cites all the legal authorities. Attach to withholding paperwork. Non-resident non-person not engaged in a “trade or business” is the only status that members of this ministry may have who wish to use our materials to interact with third parties.

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

2. About SSNs and TINs on Government Forms and Correspondence, Form #07.004, Sections 8, 9, and 10-Provides background on when SSNs and TINs are mandatory and remedies for those unlawfully compelled to use said numbers.
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
3. About SSNs and TINs on Government Forms and Correspondence, Form #05.012, Sections 8, 9, and 10-Provides background on when SSNs and TINs are mandatory and remedies for those unlawfully compelled to use said numbers.
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
4. Why It is Illegal for Me to Request or Use a “Taxpayer Identification Number”, Form #04.205-Provides legal evidence you can attach to withholding paperwork proving that you cannot lawfully apply for or use SSNs or TINs.
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
5. SEDM Exhibits 07.004 and 07.009-letters from the Social Security Administration proving that use of Social Security Numbers is voluntary and cannot be compelled.

7. Social Security: Mark of the Beast, Form #11.407-detailed biblical scriptural research that proves it is against God’s law to apply for or use Social Security Numbers or Taxpayer Identification Numbers.
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6.7.4 Getting married without a state issued license

If you are getting married and you are a Christian, we strongly recommend getting married with a private contract instead of a state marriage license. The resource below will prove very helpful:

Sovereign Christian Marriage , Form #06.009 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm

6.7.5 Applying for a passport

If you have to apply or reapply for a USA passport, the following forms will be very helpful to Members in protecting their sovereign status:

1. Getting a USA Passport as a “state national”, Form #09.007-use this procedure to apply for a passport as a sovereign national instead of a statutory “U.S. citizen”.
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
2. USA Passport Application Attachment, Form #06.007-attach this to your passport application to correctly reflect your true status

6.7.6 Registering to vote

Members who want to register to vote should use the following form to prevent surrendering any of their sovereignty:

Voter Registration Attachment , Form #06.003 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm

1 6.7.7 Opening a Financial Account Without a Social Security Number (SSN) or Taxpayer Identification Number
2 (TIN)

3 If you want to open a bank account without a Social Security Number or Taxpayer Identification Number, please see the 4 following on our website:

About IRS Form W-8BEN, Form #04.202
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

5 If the financial institution requires additional justification for why you think you are a non-resident non-person, give them
6 the following:

W-8 Attachment: Citizenship, Form #04.219
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

7 If the financial institution argues with you about the definition of “United States” or whether you are required to provide an 8 SSN, you can hand them the following:

- 9 1. Withholding Agent Questionnaire, Form #04.220
10 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
11 2. Why It is Illegal for Me to Request or Use a “Taxpayer Identification Number”, Form #04.205
12 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

13 6.7.8 Preventing False Currency Transaction Reports (CTRs) from Being Filed Against You by Ignorant and 14 Law Breaking Financial Institutions

15 Whenever a you withdraw $10,000 or more in cash from a financial institutions, ignorant clerks who don’t read the law
16 have been told to file a Currency Transaction Report (CTR) to the government. Currency Transaction Reports include the 17 following forms:

- 18 1. FinCEN Form 103, Currency Transaction Report (CTR) by Casinos
19 2. FinCEN Form 104, Currency Transaction Report (CTR)
20 3. FinCEN Form 8300, Report of Cash Payments Over $10,000 Received in a Trade or Business
21 4. IRS Form 8300, Report of Cash Payments Over $10,000 Received in a Trade or Business

22 Federal law only requires this report to be filed in connection with transactions associated with a “trade or business”, which
23 is defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26) as “the functions of a public office” in the U.S. government and nowhere defined to 24 include any other status. In other words, they are only supposed to file these reports in the case of government workers and 25 instrumentalities, which you are NOT. If they attempt to file this report when you make your withdrawal or cash your 26 check, you should vociferously rebut the need for doing this using the following form because it is not only 27 FRAUDULENT, but criminal.

Demand for Verified Evidence of “Trade or Business” Activity: Currency Transaction Report, Form #04.008
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

28 It is VERY IMPORTANT to educate people to STOP filing these false reports. They in effect are impersonating a “public 29 officer” of the government whenever they file such a false report, which is a criminal violation of 18 U.S.C. §912. You
30 may also consider completing a criminal complaint against the clerk at the very same time they are preparing the report and
31 doing it in front of them while they are asking you the same questions. Make a HUGE stink about this and demand to see
32 the supervisor as well. If you don’t educate the ignorant people who file these false reports, the information could end up 33 being used to criminally prosecute you under the following statutes:

- 34 1. Money laundering: 18 U.S.C. §1956.
35 2. Structuring: 31 U.S.C. §5324.

36 For further information on all the commercial crimes that these reports fraudulently connect you to, see:

Family Guardian Website: Money, Banking and Taxation Area, Section 11
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/MoneyBanking/MoneyBanking.htm>

If you want to proactively prevent these reports from even being attempted to be filed in the first place, you may also want to attach the following form to your account application with the financial institution when you join the institution in the first place so they are put on notice that you WON'T tolerate this FRAUD.

Privacy Agreement, Form #06.014

6.7.9 Closing financial accounts with government numbers associated with them

When you close financial accounts, you should take care to ensure that there is a paper trail in the account file and attached to the signature card indicating that the use of government identifying numbers such as Social Security Numbers (SSNs) and Taxpayer Identification Numbers (TINs) was not only under duress, but unlawful, and listing all the evidence supporting that determination. This is an important part of building an effective administrative record that has lots of exculpatory evidence that will prevent criminal prosecution for any crime, and especially tax crime. For details on how to build a good administrative record, see:

Techniques for Building a Good Administrative Record, Form #07.003
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

You should not close the account in person, but send the following correspondence via certified mail with a Certificate of Service as indicated in the instructions. You will need the certified mail card and Certificate of Service along with the original letter as proof that you sent this to the financial institution.

Legal Notice of Financial Account Closure, Form #06.006
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6.7.10 Applying for an Employer Identification Number (EIN)

You should avoid government identifying numbers of all kinds because they connect you to franchises and destroy your rights. The reasons are explained below:

1. About SSNs and TINs on Government Forms and Correspondence, Form #05.012
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
2. About SSNs and TINs on Government Forms and Correspondence, Form #07.004. HTML version of the above form that you can cut and paste from for your reuse.
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

The only reason most people apply for such numbers is because they are forced to mainly by financial institutions or business associates. All such applications for those domiciled within states of the Union are unlawful. At the point of such coercion, we recommend signing and submitting the following form to those instituting the duress using our Certificate/Proof/Affidavit of Service, Form #01.002 attached:

Why It is Illegal for Me to Request or Use a "Taxpayer Identification Number", Form #04.205
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

If they insist on refusing service to you because you refuse to violate the law as documented in the above form, they are violating 42 U.S.C. §408 by compelling the unlawful use of government identifying numbers and compelling you to impersonate a public officer of the United States government. In such a case, you have three choices:

1. Find another provider of the service.. .OR
2. Sue them for violating your rights in STATE court (not federal court!) using the following resources:.. .OR
  - 2.1. Form #04.205 above and the Certificate of Service proving you sent it to them.
  - 2.2. The statutes cited in Form #04.205 above.

2.3. Why You Aren't Eligible for Social Security, Form #06.001

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

2.4. Resignation of Compelled Social Security Trustee, Form #06.002-proves why Social Security is unlawfully administered, in which case those who apply to become "employers" (meaning federal instrumentalities and public officers), do so illegally.

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

2.5. Social Security Policy Manual, Form #06.013

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

3. Apply for the number with the following forms attached that will ensure that duress is indicated that confers no jurisdiction or authority upon the IRS and which makes the party instituting the unlawful duress entirely and personally responsible for all the consequences of the unlawful duress.

3.1. IRS Form SS-4 with the following written above the signature "Not valid without attached form #04.204.

3.2. Employer Identification Number (EIN) Application Attachment, Form #06.023

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

3.3. Why It is Illegal for Me to Request or Use a "Taxpayer Identification Number", Form #04.205

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

3.4. IRS Form 56: Notice Concerning Fiduciary Relationship. Fill out this form making the person instituting the duress the duress the party you are acting on behalf of under duress. Indicate that there is duress as the justification for the existence of the relationship and cite 42 U.S.C. §408(a)(8) as the authority. Ensure that you use the AMENDED version of this form in order to avoid the presumption that you are a "taxpayer" or a "person" under federal law, and obtain it from the following link:

<http://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/Forms/IRS/IRSFormsPubs.htm>

The IRS may come back and say that you aren't eligible for a number based on the submission. If they do, you can use this to prove to the company instituting the duress that you aren't eligible for it and therefore they cannot force you to use one and must give you the service or relationship you desire.

6.7.11 Updating an Existing Employer Identification Number (EIN) Application

If you own a business and previously applied for an Employer Identification Number (EIN) either using a SSA Form SS-4 or online and were compelled to do so, it is VERY important to update the original application to:

1. Change the status of the applicant from a statutory "Employer" to a private, foreign, and nonresident entity.
2. Invalidate the original application.
3. Implicate criminal activity in connection with any and all tax withholding and reporting that uses the number.

You can find the form that does this below:

Employer Identification Number (EIN) Application Permanent Amendment Notice, Form #06.022

6.7.12 Selling precious metals to a precious metals dealer who wants to file CTRs or IRS Form 1099-B's against a "nontaxpayer"

Nontaxpayers selling precious metals to precious metal dealers often are the target of false IRS Form 1099-B information returns and false Currency Transaction Reports (CTRs), which are IRS Form 8300. These reports may only lawfully be filed on those engaged in the "trade or business"/public office franchise within the U.S. government and most Americans are not lawfully engaged in this franchise. In order to avoid becoming the target of false reports, the following tool is useful in educating the precious metal dealer about the requirements of the law and in complying with the laws on reporting.

Precious Metal Transaction Reporting, Form #04.106

6.7.13 Opening a Private Mail Box (PMB)

Use this form if you are opening a Private Mail Box and want to avoid surrendering your sovereignty or compromising your privacy. Note that there are two types of boxes: Private Mail Boxes (PMB's) that are not a residence or domicile and which are maintained by private commercial mail facilities, and Post Office Boxes (POBs), that are for the delivery of mail to public officers. You should NOT open a PO Box, but a PMB.

Postal Service Form 1583 Attachment, Form #06.018

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6.7.14 Responding to a Jury Summons or Jury Duty

Use the following form to respond to a jury summons by a state or federal court.

Jury Summons Response Attachment, Form #06.015

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

We caution that:

1. The above form is among those that can be used by non-members, because it appears in the list of forms indicated in section 2 earlier.
2. Before the IRS or DOJ indicts people criminally for tax crimes, they very frequently will send them a jury summons to establish their domicile in the federal zone. It is therefore VERY important to respond properly to a jury summons as a constitutional but not statutory "citizen" and a statutory "non-resident non-person" in relation to federal government jurisdiction by attaching the above form to the jury summons response and ensuring that the jury summons response says "Not valid, false, and fraudulent without the attached Jury Summons Response Attachment" above the signature on the jury summons response.

If you get to serve as a jurist, we recommend printing and/or viewing the following resources before and during the time that you serve:

1. Jury Nullification: Empowering the Jury as the Fourth Branch of Government, Form #09.010, Fully Informed Jury Association (FIJA)
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Activism/Jury%20Nullification/FIJAJuryNullPamphlet.pdf>
2. Citizens Rule Book, Family Guardian Fellowship

6.7.15 Opening a bank account as a church or religious ministry

If you want to open an account as a church or religious ministry and do so without a government identifying number, use the following form:

Religious Order Articles of Incorporation, Form #13.012

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

If the bank or financial institution insists on an EIN for the organization, you can hand them the following form as proof that no withholding, reporting, or identification number are required:

Why It is Illegal for Me to Request or Use a "Taxpayer Identification Number", Form #04.205

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

1    6.7.16    Updating the account application for a retirement account mistakenly opened as a “taxpayer”

2    If you opened a retirement account before learning about this website and mistakenly did so as a “taxpayer” and have since
3    learned that you were not a “taxpayer” or are not now a “taxpayer”, use the following form to update the account
4    application of the account. This form will make the account a private account, demand removal of any identifying numbers
5    from the account, and prevent any future tax reporting on the account if the recipient follows the laws indicated:

Retirement Account Application Permanent Amendment Notice, Form #04.217

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6    6.7.17    Opening a business or religious ministry bank account as a nontaxpayer and a nonresident without an EIN

7    Those who wish to open a PRIVATE business or religious ministry bank account as a private entity and who want to do so
8    as a nonresident nontaxpayer without an EIN may use the following procedure:

Private Business Account Application Procedure: Nonresident Nontaxpayer, Form #04.219

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

9    6.7.18    Traveling by airplane

10   If you will be traveling by airline, then you should print and take along copies of the following form in order to prevent 11   TSA agents from violating your rights.

TSA Defense Package, Form #06.029

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

12   6.7.19    Traveling Abroad

13   If you find yourself traveling outside the USA and intend to return, you should consider using the following form in 14   responding to questions by customs and border agents asking you questions:

Border Crossing Questionnaire, Form #06.024

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

15   If you don’t use the above form or you answer questions from the border agent carelessly or incorrectly, you could:

- 16   1.    Needlessly compromise the privacy about your financial affairs.
- 17   2.    Find yourself in criminal violation of 31 U.S.C. §5314.
- 18   3.    Misrepresent yourself as being subject to the Social Security and Internal Revenue Code Subtitles A and C “trade or 19   business” franchise.

20   6.7.20    Terminating a Driver License and Traveling without a License

21   The following resources on our website may be used to both terminate a driver license and to build exculpatory evidence in 22   your administrative record that it was issued unlawfully in your case:

Driver License Termination Form, Form #06.025

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

23   In addition to the above, the following book is very useful in helping you travel without a license.

Defending Your Right to Travel, Form #06.010

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

1     6.7.21     Responding to Request for D.H.S. Form I-9 when applying for a new job

2     Those who are applying for a new job are often asked to fill out a D.H.S. Form I-9 and/or submit to E-Verify verification.
3     The following resources are useful in such a situation:

- 4     1.     I-9 Form Amended, Form #06.028-this form avoids all the pitfalls of the standard I-9 form
5             <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
6     2.     Federal and State Tax Withholding Options for Private Employers, Form #09.001-detailed instructions on how to fill
7             out employment withholding paperwork. Section 21.5 talks about the pitfalls of the I-9 Form.

9     6.8         Protecting your sovereignty, life, and family

10    6.8.1       Preventing criminal consequences of defending your rights

11    Some freedom lovers violate criminal laws in the process of trying to defend their rights. To prevent this from happening
12    to you, we recommend reading the following document:

Policy Document: Unlawful Ways of Protecting Your Rights that Should Be Avoided , Form #08.016 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm

13    6.8.2       Governing your life and your family exclusively under God's laws

14    The document below shows you how to govern your own life and your own family so that you can function without being 15    compelled to partake of any government franchises, the legal profession, or the corrupted family courts. Very powerful:

Family Constitution , Form #13.003 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm

16    6.8.3       Starting your own government

17    If you want to start your own government, we have prepared a very powerful document that provides most of the tools you
18    will need. This government can issue driver certifications, marriage certificates, passports, etc. It also has a county notary,
19    county recorder, and its own courts:

Self Government Federation: Articles of Confederation , Form #13.002 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm

20    6.8.4       Responding to a draft or draft registration notice

21    If a Member receives either a draft notice or draft registration request, the following resource is VERY helpful:

Lawfully Avoiding the Military Draft , Form #09.003 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm
---

22    6.8.5       Keeping your financial and medical records PRIVATE

23    Members who are contracting to procure medical services or dealing with financial, credit card, or investment companies
24    should use the following form to maximize the protection for their privacy and to keep their personal information out of 25    government and telemarketer computers:

Privacy Agreement , Form #06.014 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm

6.8.7 Preparing for disasters

Those who wish to prepare for disasters of all kinds need to plan for and accumulate the proper food, water, and weapons to defend their life, liberty, property, and family from the damaging effects of inevitable anarchy that will result. The following document is an extremely useful tool to facilitate such planning:

Disaster Preparedness Plan, Form #13.015

6.8.8 Going through a divorce for a marriage that was licensed

Some of our members after discovering our site and reading our materials may be faced with a divorce for a licensed marriage. They sometimes contact us with questions about how to handle such a situation as members. Below is an example:

It's been only the past 18 months or so that I have become educated on the topics on this site. In my research I have found help and answers from a number of reference materials, including Sovereign Christian Marriage. Unfortunately, I am facing divorce in a marriage that occurred in the "pre-educated" times, i.e. with a license. Can you direct me to information regarding divorce subject to marriage licensing and ways in which I can limit / reduce exposure to the court system? In addition to any links or reference to specific materials, I would appreciate any additional thoughts or ideas (not legal advice, of course) you might share?

I should add that my current spouse, with some desire to avoid court, may be willing to consider a contractual agreement that mirrors part of court-sanctioned pieces (e.g. child and spousal support amounts to be paid), I can't be sure that she will consider removing the entire process from court supervision / jurisdiction. The thought of the children being in under state supervision is appalling.

We know what people like the above feel like and empathize with them. The approach we would take if in the above situation is:

1. Try to stay on friendly terms. The more one argues the more prolonged and expensive the litigation will be. Family law lawyers do not make any money settling disputes or encouraging arbitration. They will prolong the conflict and intensify it as a way to maximize their fees until your estate and your kids college funds are totally destroyed.
2. Try to settle as much as one can out of court and without involving the lawyers.
3. Learn how to litigate using the tools at the following link. Teach yourself law so one does not need to hire an expensive lawyer. Then lawyers and courts cannot milk you and your child's college money dry:

SEDM Liberty University
<http://sedm.org/LibertyU/LibertyU.htm>

4. Buy a family law practice guide for the state in question, if there is one, such as the following:
<http://www.ruttergroup.com/index.cfm?p=200&pg=15>
5. Litigate everything in the REAL superior court and not family court. Family court is a franchise court available only to public officers in the government. States cannot lawfully establish or enforce franchises outside of federal territory, and therefore, family court has no jurisdiction. See:

Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030, Section 24
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6. NEVER, EVER disclose SSNs or TINs in the court record. Members may not use such numbers. See:

About SSNs and TINs on Government Forms and Correspondence, Form #05.012
FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/AboutSSNsAndTINs.pdf>

7. All statutory "income" listed on family court declarations of disclosure of earnings must be zero for members, because only "trade or business" franchise earnings of public officers in the government count as "gross income" on income statements filed with the court. The family court will also tell you that the amounts indicated on their disclosure forms are the SAME amounts listed on tax returns, so ditto for tax returns, if they are filed. The only amounts a nontaxpayer nonresident alien can indicate for statutory "income" is ZERO. See:

The "Trade or Business" Scam, Form #05.001

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

8. If you want to remarry without a license after having your balls hammered on the family court judge's bench, see:

Sovereign Christian Marriage, Form #06.009

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

9. For a good reference on family rights, see:

6.8.9 Dealing with Members who want to reenter the government franchise system

The following document is intended as a message for those Members who intend to return to the bogus Ponzi scheme of government franchises after they completed our Path to Freedom process:

Policy Document: Members Who Reenter the Franchise System, Form #08.017

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6.9 Taxation: Administrative

This section deals with responding to administrative enforcement of taxation and consistently and correctly and truthfully representing your status under the law during the process. Forms available for this purpose on our website are found in the following places on our website:

1. SEDM Liberty University, Section 6: Administrative Activism in Fighting the Fraud.

<http://sedm.org/LibertyU/LibertyU.htm>

2. SEDM Forms/Pubs, Sections 1.2, 1.4, and 1.7.

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6.9.1 Describing and defending your tax status

The following document describes the approach towards income taxation that must be taken by all those who are Members of this Ministry:

Non-Resident Non-Person Position, Form #05.020

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6.9.2 Responding to demands for a Social Security Number or Taxpayer Identification Number

If someone keeps insisting that you MUST provide a Social Security Number or Taxpayer Identification Number, the following resources should be very helpful in proving them WRONG, listed in descending order of value, where the lowest number is the highest value:

1. About SSNs and TINs on Government Forms and Correspondence, Form #05.012

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

2. Why It is Illegal for Me to Request or Use a "Taxpayer Identification Number", Form #04.205

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

3. Why You Aren't Eligible for Social Security, Form #06.001

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

4. Social Security Policy Manual, Form #06.013

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6.9.3 Filling out withholding paperwork when you start a new job or contract

The following form may be submitted by Members who are just starting out a new job or business relationship as either a private employee or a contractor. This will get you off to a very good start and prevent you from becoming the target of false information returns or illegal withholding. The form is filled with lots of evidence to prove the legitimacy of your position both using the IRS publications and the code itself. Excellent.

New Hire Paperwork Attachment, Form #04.203

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6.9.4 Starting, stopping, and modifying employment tax withholding after hired or contracted

The following document describes how Members of this ministry should interface with private employers in starting, stopping, and modifying employment tax withholding:

Federal and State Tax Withholding Options for Private Employers, Form #04.101

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6.9.5 Filling out tax forms under compulsion or containing information that you know is false

Members should NOT be filling out IRS “taxpayer” forms. If they are compelled to fill out and submit such forms, then using the following attachments are MANDATORY:

1. Tax Form Attachment, Form #04.201
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
2. Affidavit of Duress: Illegal Tax Enforcement by De Facto Officers, Form #02.005
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

If the financial institution or employer or company you are working with argues with you about what form to submit or what you put on a particular form, we highly recommend the following document that proves they have NO RIGHT to do so:

Your Exclusive Right to Declare or Establish Your Civil Status, Form #13.008

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6.9.6 Dealing with companies who refuse to accept your withholding paperwork or who unlawfully withhold or report

Members who want to lawfully stop withholding and reporting of their earnings sometimes get into arguments with ignorant, law breaking companies who refuses to read the law. The following options are presented for such a situation:

1. Member should THOROUGHLY study the following resources and become an expert who can confidently defend their legal position:
  - 1.1. Income Tax Withholding and Reporting Course, Form #12.004
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
  - 1.2. Federal and State Tax Withholding Options for Private Employers, Form #09.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
2. The member should approach the corporate counsel and show them the laws and come with a witness and/or record the conversation. If none of that works, then continue with next steps below.
3. SEDM Forms/Pubs, Section 1.4.4: Legal Remedies has forms for fixing the bad withholding and reporting and is sent to the company.
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
4. Those who are consenting and compliant members are required to regularly file a criminal complaint on the filer of the false information returns and illegal withholder of the money. That would be form 04.001.

5. Form 56 should be sent in making the company liable for all taxes resulting from the fraudulent withholding and reporting. See:

About IRS Form 56, Form #04.204

FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6. If none of the above works, then the payroll clerk and NOT the company has to be civilly sued under the common law for damages and be enjoined from the false reporting and illegal withholding.

7. For further information, see:

Federal and State Tax Withholding Options for Private Employers, Form #09.001

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

Sections 24 and 25 of Form #09.001 the above cover this specific situation.

6.9.7 Filing a tax return

We remind our Members that our Terms of Use and Service, Form #01.016, Section 4 STRICTLY FORBIDS us to either prepare or advise in the preparation of tax returns for ANYONE, and especially statutory “taxpayers”. Therefore, please DO NOT contact us for guidance or especially “advice” about how to file or whether to file a statutory “return”. You will have to decide entirely on your own whether to file and how to file. Below is some important information about statutory “returns” that may prove useful in deciding entirely on your own whether or how to file.

1. The legal requirement to file tax returns is described in the following document on our website:

Legal Requirement to File Federal Income Tax Returns, Form #05.009

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

2. The IRS Mission Statement found in Internal Revenue Manual (I.R.M.), Section 1.1.1.1 (02-26-1999) says that they ONLY service “taxpayers”. Hence:

2.1. ALL their forms, procedures, reference tools, publications, and services are available ONLY to statutory “taxpayers” lawfully engaged in a public office within the U.S. government.

2.2. They DO NOT make “nontaxpayer” forms or options on existing forms to indicate the status associated with BEING OTHER than a “taxpayer”. YOU have to add that option or better yet, make or submit your OWN form correctly, completely, and unambiguously indicating your status to leave no room for presumption on their part.

2.3. If you use their approved “taxpayer” forms, you are presumed to be a “taxpayer” subject to the I.R.C. If you want a “nontaxpayer” form, you will either have to:

2.3.1. Make your own

2.3.2. Use ours, but ONLY if you are a Member and in FULL compliance with our Member Agreement, Form #01.001. Membership is free.

2.3.3. Use theirs but attach the “Tax Form Attachment, Form #04.201 and write on the government form “Not valid, false, and fraudulent without ALL the SIGNED attachments provided, quantity ____pages”.

2.4. If you use a “Taxpayer Identification Number” per 26 U.S.C. §6109, you are presumed to be a statutory “taxpayer”.

The above is exhaustively proven in:

Who Are “Taxpayers” and Who Needs a “Taxpayer Identification Number”?, Form #05.013

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

3. The Internal Revenue Code is a private law statutory franchise and the purpose of all IRS services is to help those “taxpayers” who CONSENT to participate in the franchise and consent to occupy a public office in the U.S. government to comply with the franchise contract or quasi-contract codified in Internal Revenue Code, Subtitles A through C. Anyone who would consent to the agreement we call a “useful idiot” and a communist. See:

The “Trade or Business” Scam, Form #05.001

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

4. The entire Internal Revenue Code mentions “persons other than taxpayers” in ONLY one place, which is 26 U.S.C. §7425. If you invoke that section, you MUST consent that the tax sought to be collected was lawfully assessed, which it almost NEVER is. Hence:

4.1. Those who are “nontaxpayers” have NO REMEDIES if they wish to invoke any provision within the I.R.C.

4.2. You CANNOT lawfully petition the U.S. Tax Court without declaring yourself a “taxpayer” to invoke their services under Tax Court Rule 13(a). Hence YOU LOST and are presumed guilty until YOU prove yourself innocent BEFORE you even get the “privilege” to set foot in that corrupt place. See:

The Tax Court Scam, Form #05.039

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 4.3. All remedies for those who are “nontaxpayers” and members instead lie within the common law under equity in a constitutional state court rather than a federal statutory franchise court such as U.S. Tax Court (Article I franchise court per 26 U.S.C. §7433) or U.S. District Court (Article 4 franchise court).
- 4.4. You MAY NOT, under any circumstances as a member, invoke any provision of the I.R.C statutory franchise agreement as a “nontaxpayer” other than those provisions that show who is subject to it, which is clearly not anyone compliant with our member agreement.
5. No one can lawfully make you a “taxpayer” EXCEPT you, because no one can lawfully donate your otherwise private property to a public use, public purpose, or a public office without your consent. If they do, they are committing THEFT and violating the Fifth Amendment Takings clause.
- 5.1. Federal judges cannot declare you either a “taxpayer” or a “nontaxpayer” per 28 U.S.C. §2201(a) forbids this.
- 5.2. Neither federal judges nor the IRS can lawfully expand the definitions of words within the I.R.C. to include anything or class of things not EXPRESSLY identified. This kind of verbicide constitutes THEFT and TREASON. See the following for a defense against such cruel and criminal tactics by THIEVING public servants:

Rules of Presumption and Statutory Interpretation, Litigation Tool #01.006
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 5.3. Neither the IRS nor any court can lawfully make you into a “taxpayer” by PRESUMPTION or without demonstrating your EXPRESS consent to be one in a format that YOU and not THEY specify. See:

Presumption: Chief Weapon for Unlawfully Enlarging Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.017
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 5.4. Third parties cannot unilaterally or lawfully elect you into public office by filing an information return that constitutes prima facie evidence that you lawfully occupy such a public office. See 26 U.S.C. §6041(a). All such false reports are a criminal offense. See:

Correcting Erroneous Information Returns, Form #04.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

If you don’t know and understand all the above, you may become a sad statistic if you ever go face to face with the terrorists who run what Mark Twain calls “The District of Criminals”. There are, in fact, only TWO types of governments:

1. Government by consent.
2. Terrorist governments.

We obviously have never and will never advise you in how to prepare a tax return or whether to prepare a tax return or prepare one for you. In fact, we won’t get involved in any commercial motive because we are a religious ministry and NOT a business. Our only “customer” is, in fact, God Himself. If you do disregard this section or similar contents posted many places on our website and contact us, in violation of our Member Agreement either through our Contact Us Page or in our Member Forums, to ask how or whether to file a “tax return”, we will, in fact:

1. Regard you as a government mole trying to get us into trouble.
2. Identify you as someone who is lazy and/or careless and who does not do their homework. Hence, you will ultimately and likely end up in a LOT of trouble that we want nothing to do with because you don’t know how to read or follow simple directions.
3. Be very hard on you in all future contact with us, because ultimately you are likely to abuse our materials by not applying them properly or diligently, and thus discredit us with third parties. This will bring shame and reproach on us that we cannot and WILL not condone.

The only thing we are allowed to say on the subject of filing of tax returns without putting ourselves in jeopardy or rendering anything that resembles “legal advice” is to tell you what we might file FOR OURSELVES ONLY in order to secure a return of funds unlawfully withheld and paid to the de facto government. This is how we would handle such a situation IN OUR OWN CASE and NOT your case. Nothing written here or anywhere on our website or in any communications you have with us should be regarded as legal advice.

1. We would follow the Member Agreement by annually and regularly filing corrected information returns along with a criminal complaint against the filers of the false report(s). In fact, if you DON’T do this as a member, you are a Member in Bad Standing because doing this is MANDATORY for all members. See:

Correcting Erroneous Information Returns, Form #04.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

2. We would regard the corrected information returns and the accompanying criminal complaints as a fully satisfying the requirement to file a “return”. The Corrected Information Return Attachment Letter, Form #04.002, in fact, makes this assertion.

3. If the IRS refuses to “file” the corrections, we would prosecute them personally and individually for a Bivens action under the Common law in a state court for damages sustained by all the criminal consequences of their malicious refusal to “file” the corrected information returns provided. If they can prosecute us for failure to file, then we can do it to them under the concept of equal protection. We WOULD NOT go into federal U.S. District Court, because it is a statutory franchise court. If we filed in any federal court, it would be in the original jurisdiction U.S. Supreme Court, which is the only true Article III court left at the federal level that we are aware of. For information on how to do this, see:

Civil Court Remedies for Sovereigns: Taxation, Litigation Tool #10.002
<http://sedm.org/Litigation/LitIndex.htm>

4. We WOULD NEVER file in U.S. Tax Court, because it is a legislative franchise court available ONLY to statutory franchisees called “taxpayers” and because Tax Court Rule 13(a) requires that ONLY “taxpayers” can request the services of this legislative franchise court. The most we would do is request a dismissal without filing the petition, because even filing a petition would constitute a criminal impersonation of a “taxpayer”. The following response letters available through our website take that approach:

4.1. IRS LTR3219

4.2. IRS LTR531DO

5. In all our dealings we would emphasize that we are under unlawful duress by either the de facto government or their voluntary officers called “withholding agents” using such forms as the following. This will ensure that we cannot lawfully be prosecuted for falsifying any government form that we were unlawfully forced to complete under duress:

Affidavit of Duress: Illegal Tax Enforcement by De Facto Officers, Form #02.005
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6. If money was unlawfully withheld or paid by third parties to the de facto government, we would NOT file any “taxpayer” forms, but would instead file one of the following non-statutory claim for damages as a “nontaxpayer”:

6.1. Federal Nonresident Nonstatutory Claim For Return of Funds Unlawfully Paid to the Government-Long, Form #15.001

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6.2. Federal Nonresident Nonstatutory Claim For Return of Funds Unlawfully Paid to the Government-Short, Form #15.002

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

7. If we were concerned about substantial “frivolous return” penalties and we were dealing with multiple years that could add up, we would try only one year first to see what the response is before we added additional years to the mix.

8. We would NEVER, EVER file any kind of “resident” or “citizen” tax return, such as IRS Forms 1040, 940, 1120, etc. We would ALWAYS file as a nonresident domiciled outside of exclusive federal jurisdiction. This is a mandatory requirement of the Member Agreement. Anyone who is a statutory “resident”, “citizen”, or “U.S. person” is a consenting party to all federal civil law and is, in fact, a public officer and franchisee within the U.S. government. Even businesses can file nonresident alien tax returns. See:

8.1. Why Domicile and Becoming a “Taxpayer” Require Your Consent, Form #05.002

<http://sedm.org/Litigation/LitIndex.htm>

8.2. Non-Resident Non-Person Position, Form #05.020

<http://sedm.org/Litigation/LitIndex.htm>

One last time for emphasis:

PLEASE DO NOT:

1. CONTACT US FOR HELP OR ADVICE ON HOW TO FILE OR WHETHER TO FILE A TAX RETURN, and DEFINITELY NOT IF YOU ARE, IN FACT OR IN DEED, A STATUTORY FRANCHISEE CALLED A "TAXPAYER".
2. REFER TO ANYTHING WE COMMUNICATE TO YOU AS "ADVICE".

FURTHERMORE, EVEN IF YOU THINK YOU ARE A "NONTAXPAYER", YOU WILL BE REGARDED AS AND PRESUMED TO BE A STATUTORY "TAXPAYER" BY US UNLESS AND UNTIL YOU ADMIT ON EVERY OCCASION IN YOUR CONTACT WITH US THAT YOU:

1. CONSENT UNCONDITIONALLY TO OUR MEMBER AGREEMENT.
2. ARE IN FULL COMPLIANCE WITH EVERY ASPECT OF OUR MEMBER AGREEMENT.

WE WILL NOT TALK TO STATUTORY FRANCHISEES CALLED "TAXPAYERS" ON TAX MATTERS, ADVISE THEM, INTERACT WITH THEM, RENDER TAX SERVICES TO THEM, OR ALLOW THEM TO USE OUR TAX MATERIALS TO INTERACT WITH ANYONE IN THE DE FACTO GOVERNMENT OR THE LEGAL PROFESSION. THIS SAME WARNING APPLIES TO ANYTHING AND EVERYTHING THAT OUR MEMBER AGREEMENT, FORM #01.001, SECTION 4, FORBIDS US TO GET INVOLVED IN. IF YOU WON'T HELP PROTECT US, THEN WE WON'T HELP OR PROTECT OR SERVE YOU FOR ANY AMOUNT OF MONEY OR INCENTIVES.

*"Come out from among them [the unbelievers and government idolaters]
And be separate, says the Lord.
Do not touch what is unclean,
And I will receive you.
I will be a Father to you,
And you shall be my sons and daughters,
Says the Lord Almighty."
[2 Corinthians 6:17-18, Bible, NKJV]*

6.9.8 Responding to a request to file a tax return by state revenue agencies

Nontaxpayers who receive state revenue agency collection notices demanding that they file a tax return should consider the following form for their response:

State Demand to File Response: Nonresident Nontaxpayer/Nonfiler, Form #07.203
<http://sedm.org/Litigation/LitIndex.htm>

For legal authorities on why Members are not required to file federal income tax returns, see:

1. Legal Requirement to File Federal Income Tax Returns, Form #05.009
<http://sedm.org/Litigation/LitIndex.htm>
2. Why I am Not Legally Liable to File Affidavit, Form #07.103
<http://sedm.org/Litigation/LitIndex.htm>

NOTE: The content of this section, like everything on our website, does NOT pertain to and may not be "used" by either those who are not Members or those who do not fully comply with the requirements of our Member Agreement.

6.9.9 Responding to a demand to file a tax return by the IRS

Nontaxpayers who receive IRS collection notices demanding that they file a tax return should consider the following form for their response:

Federal Demand to File Response: Nonresident Nontaxpayer/Nonfiler, Form #07.303
<http://sedm.org/Litigation/LitIndex.htm>

For legal authorities on why Members are not required to file federal income tax returns, see:

1. Legal Requirement to File Federal Income Tax Returns, Form #05.009
<http://sedm.org/Litigation/LitIndex.htm>
2. Why I am Not Legally Liable to File Affidavit, Form #07.103
<http://sedm.org/Litigation/LitIndex.htm>

NOTE: The content of this section, like everything on our website, does NOT pertain to and may not be “used” by either those who are not Members or those who do not fully comply with the requirements of our Member Agreement.

6.9.10 Obtaining AMENDED IRS forms

The IRS Mission Statement found in Internal Revenue Manual (I.R.M.), Section 1.1.1.1 (02-26-1999) says they can ONLY help “taxpayers”.

*Internal Revenue Manual (I.R.M.), Section 1.1.1.1 \(02-26-1999\)
IRS Mission and Basic Organization*

The IRS Mission: Provide America’s taxpayers top quality service by helping them understand and meet their tax responsibilities and by applying the tax law with integrity and fairness to all.

They very deliberately don’t have any forms or procedures for people who aren’t franchisees called “taxpayers” as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(14) . By “taxpayer”, we mean a public officer engaged in the “trade or business” franchise.

Most IRS forms are therefore rigged to create the following false presumptions that are deliberately designed to entrap and enslave those who are not “taxpayers” to participate in franchises and thereby surrender ALL of their rights in the process:

1. That you are a “taxpayer” as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(14) and 26 U.S.C. §1313.
2. That you are an “individual” as defined in 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1(c).
3. That you are a “person” as defined in 26 U.S.C. §§6700(b) and 7343.
4. That you are engaged in the “trade or business” franchise, which is defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26) as “the functions of a public office” in the U.S. government.
5. That you are a statutory “U.S. citizen” domiciled on federal territory pursuant to 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c) and 8 U.S.C. §1401.
6. That because you provided a government identifying number, then you are a federal “benefit” recipient who is “federal personnel” because you participate in a federal retirement program called Social Security pursuant to 5 U.S.C. §552a(a)(13).

Consequently, you must use AMENDED or MODIFIED IRS forms to prevent being victimized these the above presumptions. AMENDED versions of most major IRS forms are available at the address below:

Federal Forms and Publications, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/Forms/IRS/IRSFormsPubs.htm>

Even for the AMENDED forms, Members are still required to ALSO attach the following to prevent prejudicing their status and to completely rule out any false presumptions about their status:

Tax Form Attachment, Form #04.201

6.9.11 Correcting False Information Returns Filed Against You: W-2, 1042-s, 1098, and 1099

Information returns connect you to the “trade or business” excise taxable activity that is the primary subject of Internal Revenue Code, Subtitle A. That activity is defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26) as “the functions of a public office”. 99.9% of all information returns filed against most Americans are simply FALSE and must be rebutted. The resources for doing that can be found below. You should regularly and at least annually correct these false reports until you can educate your business associations from stopping them from being filed to begin with. If you don't, you could become the unlawful target of a failure to file prosecution pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7203.

7. Corrected Information Return Attachment Letter, Form #04.002-Attach this letter to corrected information returns you send to the IRS.
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
8. Demand for Verified Evidence of "Trade or Business" Activity: Information Return, Form #04.007-Use this form in the case where someone you work for or with is trying wants to fill out an Information Return against you, and you are not engaged in a "trade or business". This prevents you from having false or erroneous Information Returns filed against you by educating companies and financial institutions about their proper use.
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
9. Demand for Verified Evidence of "Trade or Business" Activity: Currency Transaction Report, Form #04.008- Use this form in the case where you are trying to withdraw $10,000 or more from a financial institution in cash, and they want to fill out a Currency Transaction Report (CTR), Treasury Form 8300, on the transaction. Typically, banks are not subject to federal legislative jurisdiction AND the CTR's can only be completed on those who are engaged in a "trade or business", which few Americans are.
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
10. Criminal Complaint Attachment: Fraudulent Information Return(s), Form #04.402-Use this form in combination with forms 04.006 and 04.008 to get filers of false information returns into HUGE trouble.
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6.9.12 Federal tax collection notice

If a Member receives a federal tax collection notice, responses are available that properly reflect their status:

Federal Response Letter Index, Form #07.301
<http://sedm.org/SampleLetters/Federal/FedLetterAndNoticeIndex.htm>

6.9.13 State tax collection notice

If a Member receives a state tax collection notice, responses are available that properly reflect their status:

State Response Letter Index, Form #07.201
<http://sedm.org/SampleLetters/States/StateRespLtrIndex.htm>

6.9.14 Attending a tax audit

The following booklet is specifically designed for Members facing audits by state or federal tax personnel:

1. Nontaxpayer's Audit Defense Manual, Form #06.011
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
2. Handling and Getting Collection Due Process Hearings, Form #09.005
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
3. IRS Due Process Meeting Handout, Form #03.008-hand this out at the audit
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6.9.15 Proving IRS Falsification of your tax records

IRS routinely falsifies tax records. Those anticipating litigation against the IRS often want a method to detect such falsification that they can use as legally admissible evidence in court. The following two options are useful for that purpose:

1. Master File (M.F.) Decoder
<http://sedm.org/ItemInfo/Programs/MFDecoder/MFDecoder.htm>
2. Full Service IMF Decoding
<http://sedm.org/ItemInfo/Services/IMFDecoding/IMFDecoding.htm>

6.9.16 Responding to an IRS Notice of Deficiency (NOD)

If you receive a Notice of Deficiency (NOD) from the IRS, such as IRS Letters 530DO, 1862, or 3219, we highly suggest that you read the following important document about U.S. Tax Court, which is a FRAUD for a person who doesn't work as a public officer in the government. All these letters encourage you to petition U.S. Tax Court, and Tax Court Rule 13(a) says that only "taxpayers" can petition the U.S. Tax Court. Consequently, you have to admit that you are a "taxpayer" who is liable before you ever even go into court!

The Tax Court Scam, Form #05.039

6.9.18 Selling real estate

If you are selling your real estate as a Member and would like to lawfully avoid FIRPTA withholding or reporting, the following form information is useful:

1. Income Taxation of Real Estate Sales, Form #05.028-detailed treatment of FIRPTA withholding and reporting
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
2. Seller's Escrow Closing Affidavit, Form #04.212
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
3. FIRPTA Questionnaire, Form #04.214-Use this form as an attachment to forms 04.026 and 04.024 when dealing with escrow and title companies to educate them about the requirements of FIRPTA.
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
4. 1099-S Input Form, Form #04.213-Provide this form to the Escrow Company during a real estate transaction to prevent false 1099-S from being filed.
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
5. IRS Form 1099-S Substitute, Form #04.308
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
6. IRS Form 1099-S Information Return Reporting Requirements, Form #04.105-use this to educate escrow companies about income tax reporting requirements
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
7. Notice and Demand to Correct False IRS Form 1099-S, Form #04.403-Send this form to an escrow company that refused to honor the laws on tax reporting and filed a false 1099-S against the Seller as part of a real estate sales transaction
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
8. Income Tax Withholding and Reporting Course, Form #12.004-there is a whole section on FIRTPA withholding and reporting in this course
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

If you sold your house and the above information didn't help because the escrow company FORCED you by refusing to accept the above paperwork or refused to process the transaction if you didn't fill out paperwork in the way they direct, then the following resource is recommended to undo the damage:

Notice and Demand to Correct False IRS Form 1099-S, Form #04.403
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6.9.19 Filing a return to get unlawfully withheld or paid or collected earnings back

Nontaxpayers who become the target of IRS enforcement or collection should consider filing to get back earnings unlawfully withheld, paid, or collected from their earnings, assets, or property. The following form is useful for doing this and prevents them from becoming "taxpayers" in the process:

Federal Nonresident Nonstatutory Claim For Return of Funds Unlawfully Paid to the Government-Long, Form #15.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6.9.20 Closing an IRA Account after you lawfully become a sovereign and a "nontaxpayer"

Use the following form to close and empty an Individual Retirement Account that you opened before you became a sovereign and a nontaxpayer. It prevents false information returns and all withholdings.

IRA Closure Request: Nontaxpayer, Form #04.216
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6.9.21 Responding to a request to update an IRS form W-8 for an existing NRA account

Those who open bank accounts without SSNs or TINs as either “non-resident non-persons” or “nonresident aliens” using IRS form W-8 may be asked to update their W-8 form on file after the three year expiration of the form. They may be told by the financial institution that if they do not update the form, then the account will be subject to backup withholding. Financial institutions will deceive people filling out this form and try to impose arbitrary criteria for how it is filled out and thereby criminally tamper with the witness filling out the form. This form prevents criminal witness tampering, prevents backup withholding, and updates the IRS Form W-8 on file completely consistent with the I.R.C.

W-8 Update/Backup Withholding Threat Response, Form #04.221

6.9.22 Responding to a request to participate in E-Verify

Those seeking work or a job are sometimes asked to participate in E-Verify in conjunction with the job application process. The process mandates use of a Social Security Number and is therefore unavailable to those who are not eligible for a Social Security Number or those not seeking to be a statutory “employee” by filling out an IRS Form W-4. The following article describes information useful in responding to a request to participate in E-Verify, which is illegal and criminal for those not lawfully occupying a public office in the U.S. government:

About E-Verify, Form #04.107

6.13.5 Filing a Constitutional Tort Action to defend your rights

When rights protected by the Constitution are violated by public servants, the only remedy available that does not invoke some kind of government franchise and prejudice your rights is a Constitutional Tort Action against the public servants who did you wrong. That action can be filed in either a federal court or a state court. Resources available that deal with filing your own Constitutional Tort Action include the following:

1. Family Guardian Website: Sovereignty and Freedom Page, Section 6.6, Litigating to Defend Your Rights -References on Bivens Actions. Family Guardian

6.14 Dealing with the Press and Media

A coordinated campaign to slander those advocating an accountable, law abiding government is being waged by the corrupted corporate media. They are:

1. Trying to label such people with a name such as "sovereign citizen", "terrorist", "super constitutionalist", etc.
2. Connecting them with violent activities or putting labels on them that associate them with violent people.
3. Trying to portray them as being "anti-government".
4. Interviewing you without telling you what their story is about and without offering you an opportunity to know or comment on what others are saying about you or us. We call this "blind siding". Then on their story, they will make statements about you that they never even gave you an opportunity to respond to that are presumptuous and untrue.

Some examples:

1. Time, for instance, recently did an article featured on the cover of the October 11, 2010 Time Magazine about Militias in which they interviewed Bob Schulz (<http://givemeliberty.org>) and tried to connect him with violent militia advocates, even though he has never been involved with militia.
2. ABC Evening News, Dan Harris, did an evening news did a 4 minute story on Sovereign Citizens on 7/1/2010.
3. CBS 60 Minutes did a 20 minute biased story on Sovereign Citizens on 5/15/2011. It was pretty much a repeat of the ABC report, but a little longer. It featured the same people. See:
<http://www.cbsnews.com/video/watch/?id=7365985n>
4. Wikipedia has been conducting a slander campaign against government reform and tax honesty advocates by keeping the authors of its articles SECRET and unaccountable. Bob Schulz was prevented by an anonymous slanderer named "famspear" from editing the Wikipedia article about himself!
5. Congressional Research Service reports and the IRS' own "The Truth About incorrect Tax Arguments" have been slandering freedom fighters by abusing the rules of statutory construction and quoting irrelevant case law. See:

SEDM Liberty University, Section 8: Resources to Rebut Private Sector Deception and False Propaganda
<http://sedm.org/LibertyU/LibertyU.htm>

In addition, a member of the media tried to contact a member of our ministry to slander us by connecting us with the latest whacko, Jerry Kane, who murdered two police officers in Arkansas in 2010. The other person they interviewed in their piece was J.J. McNab, who is famous for trashing freedom advocates and who slandered them in her interview. For a description of her malicious dealings towards the freedom community and slanderous statements to a biased media see the following:

Who's Who in the Freedom Community, Form #08.009, Section 3.1
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

We don't approve of any of the things that any of the following advocate, we don't call ourselves "sovereign citizens", and we are NOT "anti-government":

1. "Sovereign Citizens". The term "sovereign citizen" is an oxymoron used exclusively by those who are MORONS. See:
  - 1.1. Policy Document: Rebutted False Arguments Against This Website, Form #08.011, Sections 9.1 and 9.2
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
  - 1.2. Policy Document: Rebutted False Arguments About Sovereignty, Form #08.018
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
2. Redemption Advocates. See:

Policy Document: UCC Redemption, Form #08.002
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

3. Militias

The fact that we are not affiliated with and do not approve of any of the above groups is also documented in:

Policy Document: Rebutted False Arguments Against This Website, Form #08.011, Section 6
FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/08-PolicyDocs/RebFalseArgAgWebsite.pdf>

If you are contacted by any member of the corrupted media or if you contact the media about government corruption, please be very leery of the bias of the media and to employ the following tools in interacting with the media and/or government:

1. Press Agreement, Form #01.003
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
2. Policy Document: Answers to Press Questions About Sovereignty Advocacy, Form #08.019
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
3. Policy Document: Rebutted False Arguments About Sovereignty, Form #08.018
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
4. Policy Document: Rebutted False Arguments Against This Website, Form #08.011
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
5. Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid, Form #08.004
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

Here are some tactics that will keep both you and us out of harm's way and prevent becoming a target for slander. Insist on the following terms prior to the interview or story:

1. Insist that the press read the above documents BEFORE interviewing you. You should quiz them on the content BEFORE you begin your interview.
2. Insist that they NOT raise any of the false arguments described in Form #08.011 above against either you or the ministry and agree NOT to mention them against you in the story they release to the public.
3. Insist on knowing the title of the story they are doing.
4. Disclose who else they are interviewing BEFORE they release the story.
5. Give you a chance to rebut anything negative the other participants in the story say about you and put it in the story.

When the media representative couldn't spin their story and didn't like the terms of the interview and released their biased story without the participation of the member they contacted, here is what the member sent them:

Dear _____,

I watched with interest your story on the Sovereign Citizen Movement aired on _____. Seeing in hindsight what you reported on, and what you said your inquiry with us was about, it is clear that:

1. You already decided what you wanted to say before you began investigating the story.
2. You tried to deceive me by refusing to identify what your story was about. You were specifically asked what the name of your story was going to be and what you were going to report on. Had I known what the subject of the story was, I would have told you that we don't approve of Jerry Kane, don't claim to be "sovereign citizens", and are not anti-government.
3. You never intended for the complete, unbiased truth to come out. You probably didn't present to Brent Johnson what J.J. McNab said about sovereigns, nor give him a chance to respond to it, nor engage the two of them in a televised or EQUAL debate. You just wanted to SPIN a sensational story.
4. You wanted to connect us with people and philosophies that we clearly disdain who are violent, law breakers, and anti-government. You can't advocate any of these things and be a member of sedm.org. Read the member agreement for yourself and see:
<http://sedm.org/participate/member-agreement/>

Hence, we were not the proper audience for your inquiry.

Our initial intuitions about bias in the media and press were confirmed by your actions and inactions, stealth in refusing to disclose the nature of your investigation, and your avoidance of a complete and balanced inquiry that were mandated by the Nondisclosure Agreement we sent you. When you realized that you couldn't involve us in a story that was spun in any particular direction because of the agreement, you had to air the story without our participation, which turned out to be fortunate based on the content of the story.

Your story didn't address the REAL reason behind the actions of so-called "sovereign citizens", which is corruption in the government and a refusal of the media to expose it or the legal profession or the courts to prosecute and punish it. Recall that this subject was the ONLY thing, along with the law, that we would discuss and which could have or would have balanced your story. [ . . ]

Hence, what you portrayed was not news based on facts, but policy and opinion portrayed as fact. That was the very thing we criticized about Fox News to you and the very thing, the ONLY thing, you presented.

YOU are the reason things not only are lawless and hopeless in this country, but why they will continue to get worse: You aren't interested in the facts or the law. All you want to do and all you DID do in your newscast was entertainment, not exposition or muckraking. This is the same problem in the government, the courts, and the legal profession that is the origin of ALL of the hostility of alleged "sovereign citizens" against all of these entities: Politicizing the legal profession and government and replacing law with policy and franchises. Read about this FRAUD for yourself:

Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

On the other hand, if you want to do a REAL story on the corruption in the alleged government that is the origin of all the violence and hate and anti-government behavior, then look at the extensive evidence portrayed at <http://famguardian.org> and <http://sedm.org> on that subject, right from the government's own mouth and laws.

SHAME ON YOU. A place is reserved in hell for people like you.

7. Interacting with non-sovereigns (foreign relations)

7.1 Sharing the Truths on our Website with Friends, Relatives, and Coworkers

After you have gone through the Basic Checklist to Freedom earlier in section 2, you will be exposed to many opportunities among friends, relatives, and your church in which you will be able to share what you learned with them. This will happen within family, church, and work circles. We would argue that anyone who learns this information and doesn't want to share it does not really love the people they refuse to share it with. The essence of God is love and one always protects those they love by sharing the truth with them.

"God is love, and he who abides in love [obedience to God's Laws] abides in [and is a FIDUCIARY of] God, and God in him."
[1 John 4:16, Bible, NKJV]

"My [God's] people are destroyed [and enslaved] for lack of knowledge [and the lack of education that produces it]."
[Hosea 4:6, Bible, NKJV]

"And thou shalt teach them ordinances and laws [of both God and man], and shalt shew them the way wherein they must walk, and the work [of obedience to God] that they must do."
[Exodus 18:20, Bible, NKJV]

Below are a few guidelines about how to share ministry information with others you love in a non-threatening way that will maximize their interest in the subject and generate the passion in them that will motivate them to learn more:

1. If you present any of our materials to others to teach them, you should:
  - 1.1. Treat each and every opportunity to explain the truth to them as a LEGAL trial and NOT a POLITICAL event. At trials, people are not allowed to presume anything and the only beliefs they can have must be based upon EVIDENCE admissible in court. PRESUMPTIONS are NOT evidence in a legal setting nor can they be a substitute for evidence.
  - 1.2. Learn the rules of evidence backwards and forwards and abide by them as a way to practice your litigation skills.
  - 1.3. Keep an EVIDENCE library of your own discoveries in both paper form and electronic PDF form that you share with people you are educating. Each exhibit should be numbered and ready to show to the people you want to educate. You may even want to make electronic copies of your evidence library and hand it to them. If you want an example of such an evidence library, see the following, which is accessible from the opening page of our website on the menus at the top:

SEDM Exhibits

<http://sedm.org/Exhibits/ExhibitIndex.htm>

- 1.4. Tell them that they should NOT believe you and that they ought to verify EVERYTHING you are saying by examining the evidence you are presenting.
- 1.5. NOT make any claim that you do not have evidence to prove or that you have not PRESENTED the evidence of.
- 1.6. NOT PRESUME anything, meaning believe anything that you do not have evidence to prove.
2. You can never really know a subject until you are put into the position of teaching it to someone else.
  - 2.1. Consider opportunities to teach others as an opportunity to hone your own skills and grow personally.
  - 2.2. The main way to motivate and interest your audience is to be passionate about the subject yourself:

"Do your homework, and know your facts. But remember: It's passion that persuades."

3. Consider your audience and meet them where they are at, not where you are.
  - 3.1. This was the same approach Jesus employed.
  - 3.2. Don't assume that your audience knows as much as you do about legal subjects or understands legal jargon.
  - 3.3. Speak in parables like Jesus did. Relate the information to real world situations by giving examples.
4. Keep your discussion as simple as you can:
  - 4.1. Distill the discussion down to moral principles that will ignite their interest.
  - 4.2. Try to avoid fancy legal terms that you know your audience will not know the meaning of.
5. Progress in complexity as their knowledge level increases.
  - 5.1. Don't feed a baby steak. Give him milk.
  - 5.2. Feed them little tidbits at a time and frame the discussion in the context of something that you know will interest them so that the next time they approach you, they will approach with a question or suggestion that relates to something they view as important. This will open the door for their next "lesson".
6. Read your audience.
  - 6.1. Watch their reaction.
  - 6.2. If their eyes gloss over, then redirect the discussion to something that is more important and relevant to their circumstances.
7. Don't overwhelm them with information on the first opportunity you have to discuss a subject.
  - 7.1. Don't force your audience to drink from a fire hose. Don't force them to learn too much in one visit or session.
  - 7.2. Break the discussion into manageable topics, each of which begins with an introduction, body, summary, and then conclusions.
  - 7.3. Pause frequently for breaks. You should have at least ten minutes for questions and breaks each hour.
  - 7.4. Stop occasionally to invite questions. At least every five minutes, stop and say:

Any questions so far?

Is everyone with me so far?

- 7.5. Don't force them to do anything, because you will appear dogmatic and invite people to accuse you of being a an intolerant maniac who your audience not only won't listen to, but will avoid and criticize.
8. Every few minutes, pause and ask them a question that relates to the subject you are discussing and ask them to answer. This will force them to be on their toes and listen, especially if they are in a large group of people, because they don't like being embarrassed in front of their peers. Form the question in a way that exposes the cognitive dissonance contained in the government propaganda that they have been deceived into believing. This will prove that they have been deceived, piss them off, and impassion them into seeking the truth on the matter.
9. Introduce them to the subjects we cover using the simplest information first. They will need milk initially, so save the meat and vegetables for later. Milk includes:
  - 9.1. Galileo Paradigm, Form #11.303-very good introduction to the tax fraud.
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
  - 9.2. SEDM Sermons Page
<http://sedm.org/Sermons/Sermons.htm>
  - 9.3. What Pastors and Clergy Need to Know About Government and Taxation Course, Form #12.006-introduction to government, law, and taxation for pastors. Useful in getting the church and its members involved.
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

1 9.4. Citizenship and Sovereignty Course, Form #12.001-excellent presentation describing basic citizenship and legal 2 concepts.

3 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

4 9.5. Federal and State Income Taxation of Individuals Course, Form #12.003-excellent presentation describing basic
5 taxation

6 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

7 10. If after being exposed to the “milk” above, people want more, direct their attention to the “meat”:

8 10.1. SEDM Liberty University-a whole curricula for those who want to learn about freedom and sovereignty.

12 Don't force people to drink from a fire hose, literally, when they show interest in learning more. Remember what “step by 13 step” means... The following is Bloom's Taxonomy of Cognitive Development. This will assist you in making your 14 teaching of freedom concepts flow better and meet the varied needs of your audience. The categories can be thought of as 15 degrees of difficulty. That is, the first one must be mastered before the next one can take place.

Table 4: Bloom's Taxonomy of Cognitive Development

#	Category	Example and Key Words
1	Knowledge: Recall data or information.	Examples: Recite a policy. Quote prices from memory to a customer. Knows the safety rules. Key Words: defines, describes, identifies, knows, labels, lists, matches, names, outlines, recalls, recognizes, reproduces, selects, states.
2	Comprehension: Understand the meaning, translation, interpolation, and interpretation of instructions and problems. State a problem in one's own words.	Examples: Rewrites the principles of test writing. Explain in one's own words the steps for performing a complex task. Translates an equation into a computer spreadsheet. Key Words: comprehends, converts, defends, distinguishes, estimates, explains, extends, generalizes, gives Examples, infers, interprets, paraphrases, predicts, rewrites, summarizes, translates.
3	Application: Use a concept in a new situation or unprompted use of an abstraction. Applies what was learned in the classroom into novel situations in the work place.	Examples: Use a manual to calculate an employee's vacation time. Apply laws of statistics to evaluate the reliability of a written test. Key Words: applies, changes, computes, constructs, demonstrates, discovers, manipulates, modifies, operates, predicts, prepares, produces, relates, shows, solves, uses.
4	Analysis: Separates material or concepts into component parts so that its organizational structure may be understood. Distinguishes between facts and inferences.	Examples: Troubleshoot a piece of equipment by using logical deduction. Recognize logical fallacies in reasoning. Gathers information from a department and selects the required tasks for training. Key Words: analyzes, breaks down, compares, contrasts, diagrams, deconstructs, differentiates, discriminates, distinguishes, identifies, illustrates, infers, outlines, relates, selects, separates.
5	Synthesis: Builds a structure or pattern from diverse elements. Put parts together to form a whole, with emphasis on creating a new meaning or structure.	Examples: Write a company operations or process manual. Design a machine to perform a specific task. Integrates training from several sources to solve a problem. Revises and process to improve the outcome. Key Words: categorizes, combines, compiles, composes, creates, devises, designs, explains, generates, modifies, organizes, plans, rearranges, reconstructs, relates, reorganizes, revises, rewrites, summarizes, tells, writes.
6	Evaluation: Make judgments about the value of ideas or materials.	Examples: Select the most effective solution. Hire the most qualified candidate. Explain and justify a new budget. Key Words: appraises, compares, concludes, contrasts, criticizes, critiques, defends, describes, discriminates, evaluates, explains, interprets, justifies, relates, summarizes, supports.

7.2 Defending your beliefs against criticism by others

"Ignorance more frequently begets confidence [and presumptions] than does knowledge."
[Charles Darwin (1809-1882) 1871]

"Believing [PRESUMING without checking the facts and evidence] is easier than thinking. Hence so many more believers than thinkers."
[Bruce Calvert]

"What luck for rulers that men do not think"
[Adolf Hitler]

"The power to create presumptions is not a means of escape from constitutional restrictions."
Bailey v. Alabama, [219 U.S. 219, 238, et seq., 31 S.Ct. 145; Manley v. Georgia, 279 U.S. 1, 5-6, 49 S.Ct. 215]

"Be diligent to [investigate and expose the truth for yourself and thereby] present yourself [and the public servants who are your fiduciaries and stewards] under the Constitution approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word [and the deeds] of truth. But shun profane babblings [government propaganda, tyranny, and usurpation] for they will increase to more ungodliness. And their message [and their harmful effects] will spread like cancer [to destroy our society and great Republic]."
[2 Tim. 2:15-17, Bible, NKJV]

1 "For this is the will of God, that by doing good you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish [government] men— as free, yet
2 not using liberty as a cloak for vice, but as bondservants [fiduciaries, where the Bible is the "bond"] of God. Honor all people.
3 Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king."
4 [1 Peter 2:13-17, Bible, NKJV]

5 As you learn the truths found on our website, you will inevitably butt heads with ignorant and presumptuous people who:

- 6 1. May falsely tell members or officers that what they are doing violates the law, and yet they have never even read the 7 law for themselves in most cases.
- 8 2. Have strong opinions that they cannot justify or defend rationally with legally admissible evidence. We DON'T CARE
9 what your opinion is. All we care about is WHAT statute or law or court case from the domicile of the defendant
10 disproves the assertion made. Opinions are like assholes: Everyone has one and they all stink UNTIL they are backed 11 up with evidence.

12 The freedom community, unfortunately, is plagued with personalities who all have strong egos and often economic 13 agendas. The table below summarizes the specific and major government organizations and freedom personalities who:

- 14 1. Are not members or officers of our ministry that we are aware of.
- 15 2. May either attempt or have attempted to criticize and discredit us or the information and services we offer.
- 16 3. Would be members in bad standing if they tried to become members.
- 17 4. We may have confronted personally at one time or another to try to correct their false or unsubstantiated beliefs about 18 us and were rebuffed without evidence to support their position

19 Each person or organization listed in the left column is associated in the right column with specific authoritative resources
20 you can use to respond to the mostly false, presumptuous, irrational, and ignorant attacks they will no doubt attempt to 21 make in order to unjustly and fraudulently discredit our materials and research and thereby unduly elevate their own
22 importance and credibility:

In addition to the above, the following resource contains memorandums of law on most major freedom subjects. Most of these memorandums end with a series of admissions. These documents are very useful as weapons against people who are arguing about a specific subject covered by the memorandum because you can print these documents on double sided paper and then hand them to the person who is attacking you and demand that they either rebut the admissions at the end and the content of the document within 30 days, or else they agree with you.

SEDM Forms/Pubs, Section 1.5: Memorandums of Law
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

We have also prepared the following document which rebuts the most popular arguments made against our ministry and its teachings. This document is prominently posted on the opening page of our website to discredit our detractors:

Policy Document: Rebutted False Arguments Against This Website, Form #08.011
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

By far, the most frequent resistance we get from people who are reading or viewing our materials for the first time is against our view on the Fourteenth Amendment and citizenship in general. The majority of freedom researchers wrongfully associate a sinister motive to the Fourteenth Amendment and think that it is bad to claim to be a Fourteenth Amendment citizen. We completely disagree and you will need to study the following resources to understand fully why we disagree with what we call "Fourteenth Amendment Conspiracy Theorists":

1. Why the Fourteenth Amendment is NOT a Threat to Your Freedom, Form #08.015
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
2. Why You are a "national", "state national", and Constitutional but not Statutory Citizen, Form #05.006. See in particular section 15.3.
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
3. Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid, Form #08.004, Sections 8.1 and 10.1
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
4. Family Guardian Forums, Forum 6.1: Citizenship, Domicile, and Nationality. See the thread entitled "State citizen falsely argues that he is not a Fourteenth Amendment Citizen":
<http://famguardian.org/forums/index.php?showtopic=3951>

If you have a controversy about anything relating to citizenship, please join the Family Guardian Forums and post your comments and arguments in forum number 6.1 listed above. We are far too busy to argue with you personally or individually, but the above forums will get the attention you need:

<http://famguardian.org/forums/>

Please BEFORE posting anything in the forums, at least read and re-read all the materials on citizenship mentioned in the above list, so that other forum members don't have to review or repeat the vast research that has already been done on citizenship through us and the Family Guardian sister site. Citizenship is a deliberately complex subject so please take time to study it carefully using the above materials BEFORE you go into debate mode.

If you would like a website that agrees 100% with our views but also offers an alternative or expanded view of some subjects we don't cover as thoroughly, please see:

8. Government relations with those possessing sovereignty

8.1 FAQ: How do your materials relate to those working in the government?

If you work for the federal government or any state of the Union, you may be wondering whether we authorize the use of our materials in your case. Our policy on this subject is summarized below:

1. Military personnel: If you are in the military, we regard you as a “public officer” and therefore a “taxpayer” if you are an officer.
  - 1.1. Those who are commissioned officers in the military may not use our tax materials in connection with their government compensation. They may, however, use our materials in connection with their PRIVATE compensation outside the government.
  - 1.2. Those who are enlisted or “non-commissioned officers” (NCO) MAY use our materials in connection with both their government and their private compensation.
2. Federal civil service personnel:
  - 2.1. Those who have a “GS” grade in the federal government may use our tax materials in connection with both their government compensation and their private compensation because we regard them as not occupying a public office in the government.
  - 2.2. Those who have positions in the federal “Selective Service” may not use our tax materials in connection with their government compensation, because we regard them as public officers.
3. State civil service personnel:
  - 3.1. Those holding elected or appointed civil office in the state government may not use our tax materials in connection with their government compensation.
  - 3.2. Those who are ordinary government workers we do not regard as public officers and therefore “taxpayers”.

8.2 FAQ: How does sovereignty effect government relations: security clearance, benefits, etc.?

Below is a summary of the effect of personal sovereignty on various ways we interact with the government, and pointers to resources on this site available to investigate further:

2 Table 6: How sovereignty affects government relations

#	Type of relation	Answer	Relevant resource	Notes
1	Can I hold a government security clearance?	Yes	1. Why You are a “national”, “state national”, and Constitutional but not Statutory Citizen, Form #05.006 , section 9. 2. SECNAVINST 5510.30A, Appendix I.
2	Can I collect Social Security?	No	1. Why You Aren’t Eligible for Social Security, Form #06.001 2. Why It is Illegal for Me to Request or Use a “Taxpayer Identification Number”, Form #04.205	Only those either domiciled on federal territory AND lawfully serving in public offices as statutory “employees” may do so.
3	Can I get a driver’s license?	No	1. Defending Your Right to Travel, Form #06.010 . 2. Sovereignty and Freedom Page, Section 6.8, Family Guardian Website .	Driver licenses are only available to those domiciled on federal territory. They are not available to state citizens.
4	Can I serve on jury duty?	Yes	Follow Form #06.015 to respond to summons. Follow Form #09.010 while serving.
5	Can I get unemployment?	No		Government benefits are only available to those lawfully serving in public offices within the national government. You also need an SSN/TIN to get them, which state citizens are not eligible for and cannot use if they illegally obtained one..
6	Can I fill out an IRS Form W-4 at my employer?	No	Federal and State Tax Withholding Options for Private Employers, Form #09.001	W-4’s are only for those lawfully serving in public offices within the national government.
7	Can I get a student loan?	Yes, if they will do so without a Social Security Number or Taxpayer Identification Number.		Most banks won’t loan without SSNs/TINs. Therefore, you probably will have trouble with this. The Bible forbids borrowing for believers anyway.
8	Can I get a loan from a bank?	Yes, if they will do so without a Social Security Number or Taxpayer Identification Number.		Most banks won’t loan without SSNs/TINs. Therefore, you probably will have trouble with this. The Bible forbids borrowing for believers anyway.

8.3 FAQ: How come Congress can't just pass a law to make your sovereignty irrelevant and compel you to comply?

A question we frequently get from our newest members is the following. We have answered the question in advance.

QUESTION:

I have been reading some of SEDM's materials for a few weeks. I have one question so far...If all the documented evidence regarding establishing sovereignty is fact, and as of right now I believe that to be true, why hasn't our (US De Facto) government simply closed these "loopholes" (enacted positive law) to establishing true sovereignty lawfully and thereby "forced" everyone to be part of their system?

I'm quite sure I'm blatantly missing something here and my question is one of ignorance. However, given the overwhelming amount of info on the site, I have yet to come across a satisfactory answer so I determined to go to the source of the info.

Thank you for your patience.

ANSWER:

Very good question, and thanks for asking it and caring enough to continue your studies of our extensive and credible research. The answer is quite simple.

1. The Declaration of Independence says ALL just authority to govern derives from the consent of those governed. In a free country, no matter what, they have to get your consent and without it, you remain equal to them under the concept of equal protection and therefore exempt from their civil statutory edicts. This is covered in:

Why Statutory Civil Law is Law for Government and Not Private Persons, Form #05.037
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

2. All civil law is and always has been described as a "social compact". All "compacts", in turn, are contracts. The purpose of establishing government is to protect your right to both CONTRACT and NOT BE COMPELLED to CONTRACT with EVERYONE and ANYONE. Hence, they cannot force the civil law upon you without your consent. That is why you must have the status of "citizen" or "resident" in order for the civil law to be enforceable at all. This is covered in:

Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Form #05.002
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

3. With or without the de facto government, involuntary servitude CONTINUES to be unconstitutional per the Thirteenth Amendment. Even the legally ignorant sitting on a jury will recognize that and respond to it when a defendant invokes it if they have it in their administrative record.

4. Like when you sue the government, the government as moving party STILL has the burden of proving that you EXPRESSLY consented to whatever civil obligation they are enforcing against you. Absent EXPRESS consent, they are basically STEALING and ENSLAVING. This is an inevitable result of the constitutional requirement for equal protection and equal treatment. See:

Requirement for Consent, Form #05.003
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

5. Under our system of common law ALL "persons" must be treated EQUALLY. The only way you can become UNEQUAL is with your consent. That consent is usually procured fraudulently and unlawfully by offering franchises where they are not authorized. If they had to explain that they have a constitutional duty to protect your right NOT to consent, then no one would volunteer, so they hide it. Those who are EQUAL cannot be taxed or civilly governed. If you can't personally tax your neighbor, then you can't create a mafia, call it "government", and delegate authority to that mafia to institute a protection racket that taxes them without their consent. All powers of the government are delegated to the government by the people. You can't delegate "sovereignty" that you don't have yourself. Hence, you are equal to the largest most powerful government. Might does not make right nor does it make them superior to you in any way. The minute they compel inequality by pointing a gun in your face, they:

5.1. Cease to be a de jure government.

5.2. Become a de facto government.

- 5.3. Become an organized crime mafia, where the "organizers" are the judges who protect the abuses.
5.4. Are engaging in money laundering. Theft is a crime and spending proceeds from theft is money laundering.

This is covered in:

Requirement for Consent, Form #05.003
FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/Consent.pdf>

The only way around this problem is deception and presumption and omission by abusing words of art, which we have shown is used extensively. That deception is explained in:

8.4 FAQ: Why won't you help me enforce statutory privileges under a franchise rather than common law rights? Don't you claim to want to help people obey the law?

QUESTION:

I am a REAL public officer in the U.S. military. I am trying to adopt a status under a government franchise and enforce statutory privileges against the government under the franchise. You claim that you want to educate people about the "law", and yet you refuse to help me enforce franchise law. Why is this?

ANSWER:

Very good question and thanks for submitting it. Thank you for risking your life to defend our country.

First of all, the ONLY thing that licensed attorneys do is help government idolaters participate in statutory franchises and enforce privileges under these franchises. They neither know nor enforce common law or equity. There is plenty of overpriced help from them and if you want government privileges, please go back to the franchise cage and become an economic slave hiring one to help you. We only help people here who want to be TRULY free and outside of the government franchise cage entirely.

Furthermore, what you propose to follow is not "LAW" as classically defined, but STATUTES that implement franchises. Even a Harvard law professor, Roscoe Pound, agrees with us on this subject. What he calls "compact" is synonymous with what franchises and contracts are. The basis of the subject he is discussing is the COMMON LAW, which is founded entirely upon ABSOLUTE EQUALITY of ALL:

Municipal law, thus understood, is properly defined to be "a rule of civil conduct prescribed by the supreme power in a state, commanding what is right and prohibiting what is wrong."

[ . . . ]

It is also called a rule to distinguish it from a compact or agreement; for a compact is a promise proceeding from us, law is a command directed to us. The language of a compact is, "I will, or will not, do this"; that of a law is, "thou shalt, or shalt not, do it." It is true there is an obligation which a compact carries with it, equal in point of conscience to that of a law; but then the original of the obligation is different. In compacts we ourselves determine and promise what shall be done, before we are obliged to do it; in laws, we are obliged to act without ourselves determining or promising anything at all. Upon these accounts law is defined to be "a rule."

[Readings on the History and System of the Common Law, Second Edition, 1925, Roscoe Pound, p. 4]

REAL LAW respects and protects the ABSOLUTE EQUALITY of all under God's law and the supreme law. Franchises DESTROY equality and make the government into a supernatural power and parens patriae, but ALL are equal under God's

1 law. Even President Obama said so in his inauguration speech! Are you gonna call him a liar? We'd probably agree with 2 you if you did!

SEDM Exhibit #02.008

3 Obedient Christians cannot submit or consent to any system of franchises that creates inequality because it produces
4 idolatry that violates the Ten Commandments. For an instructive video on the subject, see:

Foundations of Freedom, Video 1: Introduction, Form #12.021
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

5 Hence, what you seek is help in committing idolatry by contracting essentially with the government Beast, and you are 6 trying to enlist our help in essentially surrendering your sovereignty and equality to that Beast, which we cannot do. For an 7 exhaustive treatment of your equality and why you can't and shouldn't give it up, see:

Requirement for Equal Protection and Equal Treatment, Form #05.033
FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/EqualProtection.pdf>

8 What you propose is anarchy and lawlessness under God's law and yet Pharisaical or humanistic idolatry under man's law.
9 Devout Christians cannot have it both ways. Jesus is an anarchist in respect to man's laws but NOT God's laws:

Jesus Is An Anarchist, James Redford
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Spirituality/ChurchvState/JesusAnarchist.htm>

10 We must choose WHOM we will serve. No man can serve two masters and that is EXACTLY what you propose. Putting 11 obedience or allegiance to Caesar above God violates the Ten Commandments and proposes and promotes anarchy under 12 God's law.

13 "But as for me and my house, WE WILL SERVE [ONLY] THE LORD!"
14 [Josh. 24:15, Bible, NKJV]

15 We are commanded to always strive for God's law order. The source of law is the God in any society. You propose to 16 place man's law above God's law. See:

Why All Man-Made Law is Religious in Nature, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/LawAndGovt/ChurchVState/WhyAllManmadeLawRelig.htm>

17 Even doing the right thing, but for the wrong reasons, is bad.

18 Jesus said that those who place loyalty to family or comfort above truth and righteousness are not worthy of Him, and yet
19 these very goals are the only justifications you propose for your misplaced priorities. We have made no "ASSumptions" on 20 this subject. The ONLY defense you have offered basically is that you don't want to be "uncool" with your family. If you
21 have other motivations beyond this, please clearly reveal what those are, because we can't honestly think of any:

22 Christ Brings Division

23 "Do not think that I came to bring peace on earth. I did not come to bring peace but a sword. <sup>35</sup>For I have come to 'set a man
24 against his father, a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law'; and 'a man's enemies will
25 be those of his own household.' He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or 26 daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who 27 finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it."
28 [Matt. 10:34-39, Bible, NKJV; SOURCE: <http://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=Matthew%2010&version=NKJV>]

29 By no means are you the only one with this kind of "cognitive dissonance" or logical fallacy
30 (<https://yourlogicalfallacyis.com/>). We do not mean to single you out. This is a very common problem. Many others even in the freedom community have your same misplaced priorities and logical fallacies. This problem is not unique to you, and hence we do not intend to attack you personally on this subject.

Irwin Schiff, a famous and vocal freedom personality, for instance, beats his chest and says he should be free, and yet supports himself entirely and exclusively off a Social Security check and used that resource to essentially look his gift horse in the mouth in the courtroom before he was convicted. You can't be a government dependent and yet at the same time FALSELY CLAIM to be free, sovereign and INDEPENDENT. That is an oxymoron or what George Orwell called "doublethink". In a past conversation, he said that those who receive government benefits should be disenfranchised. When he was told that he should be included in that list as a Social Security recipient, he became completely irrational in defending his right to collect the plunder. In a sense, you could say he was "radicalized" in defense of socialism by criminal "bribes" that he legally isn't entitled to receive from the very franchises that have completely destroyed nearly all constitutional rights for the average American that he was fighting for. Talk about hypocrisy.

---

"The government that robs Peter to pay Paul can always count on the support of Paul."

---

"A tax, in the general understanding of the term and as used in the constitution, signifies an exaction for the support of the government. The word has never thought to connote the expropriation of money from one group for the benefit of another."
[\[U.S. v. Butler, 297 U.S. 1 \(1936\)\]](#)

"To lay, with one hand, the power of the government on the property of the citizen, and with the other to bestow it upon favored individuals to aid private enterprises and build up private fortunes, is none the less a robbery because it is done under the forms of law and is called taxation. This is not legislation. It is a decree under legislative forms."

"Nor is it taxation. 'A tax,' says Webster's Dictionary, 'is a rate or sum of money assessed on the person or property of a citizen by government for the use of the nation or State.' 'Taxes are burdens or charges imposed by the Legislature upon persons or property to raise money for public purposes.' Cooley, Const. Lim., 479."
[\[Loan Association v. Topeka, 20 Wall. 655 \(1874\)\]](#)

Schiff is not alone. Many other freedom advocates we have met are committing the same kind of vain hypocrisy and "doublethink". On the subject of such hypocrisy, consider what the Bible says:

<sup>27</sup> "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs which indeed appear beautiful outwardly, but inside are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness. <sup>28</sup> Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness."
[Jesus in Matt. 23:27-28, Bible, NKJV]

"Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor what is evil. Cling to what is good."
[Romans 12:9, Bible, NKJV]

"But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy."
[James 3:17, Bible, NKJV]

"Therefore, laying aside all malice, all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and all evil speaking"
[1 Peter 2:1, Bible, NKJV]

"Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees [lawyers], which is hypocrisy."
[Jesus in Luke 12:1, Bible, NKJV]

Even some family members have the same problem, and it is very frustrating for us to deal with them because socialism and self-interest divides rather than unites people. The evil tendency of the flesh to put self-interest above the requirements of the law and abusing it to create conflicts of interest that deny justice is, in fact, the main tool used to corrupt governments and subvert the Constitution.

*"Where do wars and fights come from among you? Do they not come from your desires for pleasure [unearned money from the government] that war in your members [and your democratic governments]? You lust [after other people's money] and do not have. You murder [the unborn to increase your standard of living] and covet [the unearned] and cannot obtain [except by empowering your government to STEAL for you!]. You fight and war [against the rich and the nontaxpayers to subsidize your idleness]. Yet you do not have because you do not ask [the Lord, but instead ask the deceitful government]. You ask and do not receive, because you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures. Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that

1 friendship [citizenship or domicile] with the world [or the governments of the world] is enmity with God? Whoever therefore
2 wants to be a friend of the world [or the governments of the world] makes himself an enemy of God."
3 [James 4:4, Bible, NKJV]

4 This may be why the U.S. Supreme Court called socialism a "war on capital" in Pollock v. Farmers' Loan and Trust. Why?
5 Because it pits the HAVE NOTS against the HAVES, and makes the voting booth and the jury booth into the battleground.

6 "Here I close my opinion. I could not say less in view of questions of such gravity that go down to the very foundation of the 7 government. If the provisions of the constitution can be set aside by an act of congress, where is the course of usurpation to end?
8 The present assault upon capital is but the beginning. It will be but the stepping-stone to others, larger and more sweeping, till
9 our political contests will become a war of the poor against the rich,-a war constantly growing in intensity and bitterness. 'If the 10 court sanctions the power of discriminating taxation, and nullifies the uniformity mandate of the constitution,' as said by one
11 who has been all his life a student of our institutions, 'it will mark the hour when the sure decadence of our present government
12 will commence.' If the purely arbitrary limitation of four thousand dollars in the present law can be sustained, none having less
13 than that amount of income being assessed or taxed for the support of the government, the limitation of future congresses may be
14 fixed at a much larger sum, at five or ten or twenty thousand dollars, parties possessing an income of that amount alone being
15 bound to bear the burdens of government; or the limitation may be designated at such an amount as a board of 'walking delegates'
16 may deem necessary. There is no safety in allowing the limitation to be adjusted except in strict compliance with the mandates of the 17 constitution, which require its taxation, if imposed by direct taxes, to be apportioned among the states according to their
18 representation, and, if imposed by indirect taxes, to be uniform in operation and, so far as practicable, in proportion to their
19 property, equal upon all citizens. Unless the rule of the constitution governs, a majority may fix the limitation at such rate as will 20 not include any of their own number."
21 [Pollock v. Farmers Loan and Trust Co., 157 U.S. 429 (1895)]

22 All that you prove with your flawed and dissonant advocacy is that you are on the WRONG side of this "war". Making
23 slaves out of one's own children at gunpoint and making them a casualty of this "war" could hardly be termed "in the best 24 interests of the child" in a family court. It's cannibalism, not parenting if it is enforced at gun point as the tax system is.
25 The least any self-respecting and God-fearing parent can and should do is give their own children a CHOICE as to whether 26 to support their parents in their old age. Instead, you propose to hand Uncle a loaded gun to perform a stick up on your 27 own children and even pay for the gun with your tax withholding (criminal bribes to treat you like a public officer) and
28 endorse the abuse of the gun as a jurist and voter. That's not being law abiding under either man's law or God's law.
29 Instead, that's being a criminal under BOTH law systems. That is why Justice Antonin Scalia of the U.S. Supreme Court
30 says that the law DESTROYS families:

SEDM Exhibit #03.005
<http://sedm.org/Exhibits/ExhibitIndex.htm>

31 The only reason anything we say on this subject could truthfully be called "righteous" to begin with is because it is in 32 conflict with our own self (fleshly) interest and in complete harmony with scripture. In fact, we couldn't truthfully be 33 classified as a religious ministry if we spoke for ourselves instead of God. All legitimate religious ministries are 34 fiduciaries, agents, trustees, and public officers of the Kingdom of Heaven, Inc. and of NO OTHER.

35 "I can of Myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge; and My judgment is righteous, because I do not seek My own will but the will of the 36 Father who sent Me."
37 [Jesus in John 5:30, Bible, NKJV]

38 What we have consistently said and emphasized on our website and ministry publications about our desire to learn and
39 promote the law needs to be qualified by defining what we mean by "law". Franchises are not "law" in a classical or 40 common law sense, but merely contracts or agreements or what Roscoe Pound calls "compacts" that Christians cannot 41 consent to (without committing MUTINY) and which therefore can NEVER acquire the "force of law" against a devout and 42 OBEDIENT Christian:

43 "You shall make no covenant [contract or franchise] with them [foreigners, pagans], nor with their [pagan government] gods
44 [laws or judges]. They shall not dwell in your land [and you shall not dwell in theirs by becoming a "resident" or domiciliary in
45 the process of contracting with them], lest they make you sin against Me [God]. For if you serve their [government] gods [under
46 contract or agreement or franchise], it will surely be a snare to you."
47 [Exodus 23:32-33, Bible, NKJV]

48
49 "I [God] brought you up from Egypt [slavery] and brought you to the land of which I swore to your fathers; and I said, 'I will never
50 break My covenant with you. And you shall make no covenant [contract or franchise or agreement of ANY kind] with the inhabitants of this [corrupt pagan] land; you shall tear down their [man/government worshipping socialist] altars.' But you have not obeyed Me. Why have you done this?

"Therefore I also said, 'I will not drive them out before you; but they will become as thorns [terrorists and persecutors] in your side and their gods will be a snare [slavery!] to you.'"

*So it was, when the Angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voices and wept.
[Judges 2:1-4, Bible, NKJV]*

No amount of philosophizing or rationalizing can remove the fundamental cognitive dissonance, dichotomy, and therefore logical fallacy that you propose. It simply can't be the truth, because it conflicts with itself and with scripture. Love rejoices in TRUTH, not in self-gratification, trusting Caesar rather than God for "benefits", or "feeding the flesh".

Don't shoot the messenger. God is the source. If readers don't like what God has to say on the subject, then they must either admit they are disobedient or admit that He isn't God and that they are taking His place as god, just like Lucifer and the serpent. Anyone who puts their own desires above God's law is practicing idolatry and violating the Ten Commandments. The following pastor agrees with us on this subject:

Counterfeit Gods, Tim Keller
https://youtu.be/\_mK65lpveSM

Any attempt to invalidate the Bible as a law book in our Member Forums is anarchy under God's law that gets members expelled, according to the forum rules.

The worse that could be said about what we propose is that it is idealistic and possibly even impractical. But "practicality" is synonymous with feeding the flesh and thereby placing man above god and practicing idolatry.

Logical fallacies like those you propose are the "fig leaf" that deceivers hide behind, just like Adam and Eve after they ate the fruit in the Garden of Eden. Government is famous for such fallacies. Such fallacies are the main mechanism that it expands and protects its power with, in fact. Now we have YET ANOTHER government public officer spreading them here in our Member Forums. If your goal was to literally play "devil's advocate" in these forums, you're doing a good job by encouraging everyone to take the franchise trap bait and become government property and chattel in the process. Drink that government Kool-Aid. SLURP! SLURP! Would you expect anything less from someone who took the franchise bait hook line and sinker as a true public officer in the U.S. military?

With all due respect, Father forgive them, for they know not what they do, or refuse to admit the fallacy or hypocrisy or deceit of what they do.

8.5 FAQ: How will a system of welfare to the aged, needy, and poor be provided if the government doesn't or can't do it because everyone leaves the tax system?

For an interesting read containing this question, the answer, and the discussion surrounding it, see:

SEDM Forums, Section 3.1: General Law: Are we missing a Key element?
<http://sedm.org/forums/topic/are-we-missing-a-key-element/>

QUESTION:

Are we missing a key element here?

Just exiting the system is not enough. Who will take care of the elderly and needy and those who cannot care for themselves referred to as the poor, fatherless, and widows in the scriptures?

I want my liberty just as much as the next fella. I will not see that liberty, however, unless I am willing to set my neighbor at liberty and seek his liberty and welfare as much as I would/do seek my own. That is part of loving our neighbor as we love ourselves.

God, through Moses, set up a system of social welfare that operated on freewill offerings and charity. The Levites administered the free will offerings according to the needs of the people. They redistributed what was tithed or offered out of free will to the poor, fatherless, and widows. The free will offerings/tithes were called “burnt offerings”. They were burnt because once donated one relinquished all control over it and gave it completely to those deemed fit to administer the tithes according to their conscience before God. Metaphors.

The people were warned to not go back to the ways of Egypt. That “way” was where people elected authoritarian benefactors to exercise authority over their neighbor to compel them to contribute to their security and welfare like Jesus says here;

*And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.
[Luk_22:25, Bible]*

and here in Mark;

*But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.
[Mar 10:42, Bible]*

Jesus said we are not to be like them. We are not to exercise authority over our neighbor to compel them to contribute. To compel our neighbor to contribute is the same as coveting our neighbors goods.

God did not just lead them out of Egypt to not pay taxes. He had another way in which to care for the needy and welfare of their society, called the kingdom of God. Jesus preached this kingdom just like John did alongside the prophets and apostles. This other way is based on faith, hope and charity under the perfect law of liberty. It uses free will or “burnt” offerings based on the faith of the people. Just “coming out” will not avail anything unless we have a way to care for one another just like John and Jesus said to do. Like God says to do.

Peace be with you

ANSWER:

Thanks for raising that important point so that we can discuss it, because it is not often discussed in the Member Forums or our materials. You express yourself eloquently and your coverage of the subject is complete and praiseworthy. The rarity (but not absence) of discussing this important issue on our site appears to have created the false impression that we don't think about or haven't considered the issue.

This ministry and website is NOT missing this key element. It has already been addressed in our publications. If anyone is missing this element, it is the churches and the families who have this responsibility. Instead, they throw their own needy people to the government wolves instead of helping them personally. We cover this subject in About Us Page, Section 9, Item 1.6:

*1.6 That the family, and government, and church are God-ordained institution; and, that the family is the institution of education; that the government is the institution of justice; and that the Church is the institution of grace.
[SOURCE: <http://sedm.org/Ministry/AboutUs.htm#9>. About religious tolerance and this ministry]*

We also discuss all the legal elements of this system of charity in:

Laws of the Bible, Litigation Tool #09.001, Section 3 DIRECT LINK: http://sedm.org/Litigation/09-Reference/LawsOfTheBible.pdf
--

Look in the above under: Section VIII. Social Security and Welfare Laws

You are biblically correct on the subject of charity. On this subject:

1. Churches and families are the only place authorized by God to administer ANY system of charity. Not government. We call that charity “grace”. Governments are in charge of law/force/justice and churches and families are in charge of grace. The following scripture is an indirect reference to this requirement:

1           "But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an
2           unbeliever."

3           [1 Tim. 5:8, NKJV;

4           SOURCE: <https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=1%20Timothy+5:8&version=NKJV>]

5       2. The ministry to people in need is a Christian duty that must be pursued WITH JOY. The Israelites were punished by
6       God because they refused to approach this ministry with joy. By "joy" we believe is meant that they shouldn't grumble
7       about volunteering, tithing, or free will offerings that facilitate the VOLUNTARY system of charity. See:

8       <http://nikeinsights.famguardian.org/forums/topic/joy-going-for-an-oscar/>

9       <http://sedm.org/why-be-happy/>

10      3. If churches and families REFUSE their duty to God to provide charity/grace to their members, then socialism will 11      inevitably result. See:

Socialism: The New American Civil Religion, Form #05.016, Section 5.3

FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/SocialismCivilReligion.pdf>

12      4. When people refuse their duty to God to provide charity to families and churches, the government inevitably takes over
13      this exclusive domain of families and churches and a totalitarian state will inevitably ensue. Licensure and franchises are 14      the legal vehicles to create the totalitarianism. Social Security, FICA, etc., currently UNLAWFULLY fulfill this role in 15      states of the Union, even though they cannot lawfully be offered there. These programs are supposed to be voluntary and
16      no person in their right mind should volunteer because it will interfere with the exclusive domain of churches and families
17      by STEALING the revenue that would fund these charity within families and churches. Tacitus, the famous Roman 18      historian, said on this subject:

19           "The more corrupt the state, the more numerous the laws."

20           [Tacitus, Roman historian 55-117 A.D.;

21           SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/taxfreedom/CitesByTopic/law.htm>]

22      The laws must become numerous because the people are corrupt, and the main type of corruption we are talking about here
23      is selfishness and narcissism.

24      5. The democratic process under a government mandated charity system funded by taxation then becomes the means of 25      control over charity and/or wealth redistribution. Political debates become needlessly polarized in this environment
26      because people are fighting over the economic "benefits" and who should receive them. This corrupts the system because:

27      5.1. It violates the purpose of government to use the taxing power to pay private people or redistribute wealth.

28      5.2. It is a crime to bribe a jurist or voter, and therefore those who receive these economic benefits should not be allowed to 29      serve as a jurist or vote.

30      5.3. Judges become criminals, because their pay is derived from these "benefits" and therefore they have an economic,
31      personal, and financial conflict of interest that prevents them from judging righteously.

32      6. Even if people are willing to leave the franchise system and implement private charity, there is still much resistance that
33      will inevitably come from those in government who lust for power. Putting all charity into the exclusive hands of families
34      and churches takes SIGNIFICANT political and economic power away from civil rulers. They are not likely to give up that 35      power without significant resistance.

36      7. We tell people that when they leave the franchise and public charity system, they should take the money they save from 37      not paying taxes and use it to provide charity within their own churches and families, just as the bible requires. However,
38      since the tax rates are higher than the ten percent tithe rates in the Bible, they would see a significant increase in disposable
39      income by switching to God's mandates for charity.

40           "We of this mighty western Republic have to grapple with the dangers that spring from popular self-government tried on a scale incomparably
41           vaster than ever before in the history of mankind, and from an abounding material prosperity greater also than anything which the world has 42           hitherto seen.

1 As regards the first set of dangers, it behooves us to remember that men can never escape being governed. Either they must govern
2 themselves or they must submit to being governed by others. If from lawlessness or fickleness, from folly or self-indulgence, they refuse to
3 govern themselves then most assuredly in the end they will have to be governed from the outside. They can prevent the need of government
4 from without only by showing they possess the power of government from within. A sovereign cannot make excuses for his failures; a
5 sovereign must accept the responsibility for the exercise of power that inheres in him; and where, as is true in our Republic, the people are
6 sovereign, then the people must show a sober understanding and a sane and steadfast purpose if they are to preserve that orderly liberty
7 upon which as a foundation every republic must rest."

8 [President Theodore Roosevelt; Opening of the Jamestown Exposition; Norfolk, VA, April 26, 1907]

9 8. We are not a church and we are not intended to take over the system of charity mandated by God for families and 10 churches.

11 9. Our ministry operates consistent with the above premises because we tell people that if they pursue government charity
12 or "benefits" or refuse to quit those systems, then they:

13 9.1. Should PAY for those benefits. If they don't, they are stealing, which makes them just as bad as the government.

14 9.2. Should not seek to avoid paying the "taxes" that pay for those benefits, but ONLY if they have not left the system and 15 committed to NOT receiving said benefits.

16 10. Governments know the above. In fact, the Social Security System was modeled after a similar system of charity set up
17 by the Mormons. The main difference between the government system and the Mormon system is that although both are 18 SUPPOSED to be voluntary by law, the Social Security system for all intents and purposes is compelled because of the way
19 that payroll deductions are forced through PRACTICE rather than law. That is why the current Social Security system and 20 the tax system that piggy backs it is "de facto" rather than "de jure": because it uses force to turn something
21 VOLUNTARY into something COMPELLED. See De Facto Government Scam, Form #05.043.

22 This FAQ section also helps deflect the main criticism against those who want to leave the franchise system, which is that
23 they are selfish, anarchistic "pay-tri-ots for profit". In fact, the money saved by leaving the system STILL does not benefit
24 those who do so personally, because MOST of the money saved must be diverted to family and church charity as required
25 by God's law. There would furthermore be strong motivation for people to contribute to private charity, because all such 26 charities would be likely to scrutinize all those who come to them for help, and require that they must demonstrate a history
27 of donation before they can receive the "benefits" of the donations as a needy person.

28 Lastly, we tell all those who have quit the system and then later decide to go back INTO it the following message, which is 29 a compilation of what God says on this subject from the Bible:

30 THEIR RESPONSE:

31 Below the following line is their response to our ANSWER to their question.

32 _____
33 I think this is an issue that eludes a great many people and it has eluded me for a long time. I also think that people need to 34 do what Moses, Abraham, and the early Church did. People will need to return to the "old paths wherein is the good way".

35 I see the people will need to have an alternative when the "ship sinks" and it will sink. So what did Moses and Abraham do
36 and know? They had set up an alternative social welfare system based on sacrifice and "burnt offerings" (tithes). The 37 Levites administered these offerings according to the needs of the people just like the governments of men do except they 38 are not forced contributions. Everyone was required to give as he was able (tithe) as it is written;

39 "Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee. "

40 [Deuteronomy 16:17]

1 In socialist systems men elect benefactors to exercise authority over their neighbor, benefactors like Caesar's, Nimrod's
2 and Obama's. These benefactors take and take and take to give to those that covet what belongs to their neighbor just like
3 we are told in 1 Samuel.

4 One key element that I think is being overlooked is that there is no daily ministration to which there needs to be. There has
5 to be people willing to serve to administer the tithes. We see this taking place with Moses and this same Spirit doing
6 likewise in Acts:

7 "And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews,
8 because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration. Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and 9 said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables."
10 [Acts 6:1-2, Bible]

11 We see here that there was an issue with the daily ministration (welfare) in caring for the "widows". We also see that the 12 Apostles could not leave the Word of God, they had to continue setting up the network of charity. It goes on to say:

13 Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint
14 over this business. But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

15 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and
16 Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch: Whom they set before the apostles: and 17 when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.
18 [Acts 6:3-6, Bible, NKJV]

19 We also see here that the people chose those they thought who would serve best or "full of the Holy Ghost". Men of Honest
20 report. So how did the ones they chose handle the daily ministration or "social security" funds/items that came through free
21 will offerings to care for those widows who had need? What was this daily ministration?

22 I'll type boldly here. If we are not coming together to learn to be the welfare for one another, gathering in a network of free
23 assemblies with hearts to serve and GIVE to ministers of God (social security agents in God's government) then we might
24 not be doing what Jesus said to do. People will have to learn how to love and care for one another so that people DO NOT
25 have to go to authoritarian benefactors that exercise authority one over the other. This will require that people GIVE. This 26 will require a network of ministers who come to serve, just like Jesus says.

27 You see, religion is and always has been how we care for one another;

28 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep 29 himself unspotted from the world.
30 [James 1:27, Bible, NKJV]

31 There is a system in which to do this and it is called the Kingdom of God. This social welfare system of charity works as 32 shown by God through Moses. It is when people began to care more about their own security as opposed to their neighbors
33 liberty did they begin to ask for a king in 1 Samuel. It was up and running. It required a diligent minority of un-slothful
34 people. People who were willing to sacrifice for one another. "Lay down their lives" for one another. It is a workable
35 doable thing and we see it through the scriptures.

36 By the way, Tally of brings and the gleaning of straw are metaphors for taxes and benefits.

37 The "golden statute" they made....they deposited all their wealth into it. Kingdoms use to do this. It bound people not by faith, hope,
38 charity, and love. It bound them by force...if they ever fell under attack and a family sought to flee, they had to flee their wealth
39 also...and I quote:

40 "It was not mere superstition that motivated them, but a practicality stimulated by fear and a lack of faith. The people literally
41 deposited their gold, as well as other goods, sacrificed the right to it, and took, in turn, some sort of exchangeable token. The gold
42 was poured into a large statue for all to see. The wealth of the community was melted together. No one person could leave in the 43 face of an enemy or trouble without leaving behind the golden idol (THEIR WEALTH). His scarabs or tokens were worthless except 44 at his community. The priests of the temple kept track of all the complexities of this monetary system and, of course, the profits from 45 interest and usury.

46 This was a common plan found in many governments of that day and this (FEDERAL RESERVE modern day calf). They deposited 47 their family wealth in a central vault controlled by trusted men of government, in this case the golden calf was their "reserve fund”.<sup>80</sup> Moses understood how it was a wicked thing to bind the people by anything more than love for one another, a passion for mercy and justice and the way of God the Father.

Greek geographer Strabo wrote of a 40-foot-high, gold-and-ivory, statue of the ruler of the gods seated on a throne.

“It seems that if Zeus were to stand up, he would unroof the temple.”

[Money v. Mammon; His Holy Church;
SOURCE: <http://www.hisholychurch.org/study/gods/cog11movma.php>]

Here is a footnote from the same writing;

<sup>80</sup> Athens, under the leadership of Pericles, was driven to her golden goddess, their reserve fund, and compelled to melt it down and coin it into money Peloponnesian Wars. They eventually minted a plated bronze tetradrachms in Athens during the hard times which followed the Athenian collapse, viz. from B.C. 406-393. “In 393 the wretched bronze money of necessity was cried down, the Town Crier being sent round to proclaim that silver was once more to be the only legal tender :” ARIST. Eccl. 8:19.

“Aerarium ” (from Lat. aes, in its derived sense of “money”) the name (in full, aerarium stabulum, treasure-house) given in ancient [[Rome]] to the public treasury, and in a secondary sense to the public finances. The treasury contained the moneys and accounts of the state, and also the standards of the legions; the public laws engraved on brass, the decrees of the senate and other papers and registers of importance. These public treasures were deposited in the temple of Saturn, on the eastern slope of the Capitoline hill... In addition to the common treasury, supported by the general taxes and charged with the ordinary expenditure, there was a special reserve fund, also in the temple of [[Saturn]], the aerarium sanctum (or sanctius), probably originally consisting of the spoils of war, afterwards maintained chiefly by a 5% tax... The later emperors had a separate aerarium privatum, containing the moneys allotted for their own use, distinct from the fiscus, which they administered in the interests of the empire. ”

Here is the link which has some amazing history in it.

They would actually, in times of war, cut and melt off pieces of the statue as said in the above reference to fund the war and purchase weapons and such. They returned to the ways of Egypt with the “molten image”.

“It is historical naivety to imagine that this calf of gold was anything more than a depository of wealth, designed to bind the people together into a loyal community of contributors and investors. By depositing all their wealth in the Golden Calf, they were assured that no one would desert without departing destitute. Gates were set up and men and wealth were kept in as well as out.

This practice was used in city-states in order to protect them against trade deficits and to guarantee loyalty. It also secured the power of the ruling elite. The walls served the purpose of keeping the people in as well as intruders out. The king of Sodom had put more value on the human resources than the treasure of his city. They had a system of accounting for the contributions and deposits of the enfranchised citizenry, and some form of exchange amongst the persons of the city was provided, but regulated in value. “

9. About Membership

9.1 Why Basic Membership is mandatory but free

The only way God relates to those who are TRULY His people is through contracts and covenants. The entire Bible, in fact, is nothing but a big contract, covenant, and trust indenture complete with case law to back it up. See:

Delegation of Authority Order from God to Christians, Form #13.007

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

We operate just like God, in that you can only obtain our services and petition us for help in PROTECTING you if you are party to a covenant with the legal “person” you are asking for help from. That covenant is our Member Agreement, Form #01.001. You can only earn and deserve our help and protection if you are able and willing to help and protect us by consenting unconditionally and complying completely with our Member Agreement. That’s the Golden Rule found in Matt. 7:12 and Luke 6:31:

1. Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.
2. You can only deserve what you are willing to earn. The best way to deserve help is to demonstrate when you ask for it that you have done everything humanly possible to help yourself and resolve your problem BEFORE contacting us.
3. You will always reap what you sow. If you sow help you will reap it.

Basic membership in the Sovereignty Education and Defense Ministry (SEDM) is and always has been absolutely free. Requirements for membership are found in our Member Agreement:

SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

We caution that our Member Agreement requires that:

1. Anyone are free to read and obtain our materials and by doing so, they mandatorily become Members.
2. Anyone, including non-Members, may obtain or use the materials required to complete Steps 1 through 14 of this section and by doing so they become Members. In addition, completing up to step 14 of this section makes them “Members in Good Standing”.
3. All materials and services OTHER than our “tax materials and services” are available for “use” by any Member, including those who have not completed steps 1 through 14 of this section.
4. Only those who are Members and who have completed up to step 14 of this section and thereby become “Members in Good Standing” may “use” our tax services or materials other than those listed in this section in order to interact with third parties in the government or the legal profession.
  - 4.1. By “use”, we mean using them in your interactions with any third party, such as the state or federal governments, financial institutions, employers, or the legal profession.
  - 4.2. For a list of “tax information and services”, see section 2 of the SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001.
5. Non-Members are not authorized to “use” any of our materials or services, including our tax materials.

The above requirements are for the protection of you, us and the third parties who receive our materials and is intended to prevent:

1. Either you or us from being discredited.
2. Abuses of our materials by those who are not qualified to use them or who have not taken all the steps necessary to become legally qualified to lawfully use them.
3. Needlessly burdening innocent third parties with correspondence that is not only irrelevant, but possibly even false.
4. Violations of law by those using our materials.

If you bypass the Path to Freedom process described earlier in Section 2, do not become or intend to become a Member, and jump right into USING our “tax materials or services” OTHER than those necessary to become a Member, then you:

1. Become a “Member in Bad Standing” but still a Member subject to the terms of our Member Agreement, Form #01.001.

2. Are still subject to the Copyright/Software/License Agreement covering all materials on this website. That agreement is a subset of the Member Agreement and is found in section 5 of that agreement. It also appears in our Disclaimer: <http://sedm.org/disclaimer.htm>

We do the above in order to ensure that we have recourse if people abuse our materials, bring reproach on us, or litigate against either us or other members using our materials as evidence. The main audience this defensive measure is directed against is corrupted public/government dis-servants, who have been infamous in the past for misusing our materials in order to unlawfully attempt to slander, enjoin, or penalize our protected activities.

Basic Membership and all the information and forms needed to become a Member is absolutely free. Reading or obtaining materials from our bookstore is optional and not considered mandatory or even essential in order to become a Member. Our religious ministry is not some kind of scam or Multi-Level Marketing (MLM) scheme to profit from anything, but rather a sincere, unselfish effort to practice, renew, and enhance one's religious faith, to set people free, and to help them defend their sovereignty from unethical, criminal, unlawful, and injurious encroachments, mostly by a corrupted government and legal profession. We don't operate on commissions, use referrals of any kind, nor is it our goal to encourage or promote any commercial arrangement whatsoever. We even tell you in section 4 of this document NOT to believe people who DO have a commercial motive.

*"Buy the truth, and do not sell it, also wisdom and instruction and understanding."
[Prov. 23:23, Bible, NKJV]*

9.2 BAD or Unauthorized Motivations for becoming a Member<sup>29</sup>

Membership in SEDM should NOT be pursued for any of the following reasons:

1. As a get out of jail free card. We don't promote or condone sovereignty as an excuse to be free from the criminal laws, for instance. EVERYONE is subject to real, de jure criminal laws and SHOULD be subject.
2. As an excuse to be irresponsible for any loans or commitments you previously made. Some people for instance are only interested in sovereignty so they can cancel debts or obligations they previously made. We, on the other hand, believe that one should always honor every commitment or debt they previously consented to, even if their consent at the time was not fully informed.
3. As an excuse to engage in violent, harmful, or criminal behavior. We believe that everyone should be accountable and responsible for the harms they cause to others under the concept of equality of all. In a civil context, that accountability is the common law and NOT the civil statutory law.
4. As an excuse to reject ALL man-made law and thereby be an anarchist. We think that true sovereignty can only truly exist among a people who:
  - 4.1. Are accountable under God's laws at all times.
  - 4.2. Cannot pick or choose which subset of God's laws they CONSENT to be accountable under.
  - 4.3. Are accountable under the criminal laws of the country they are physically present within, regardless of their civil status or domicile.
  - 4.4. Do not surrender their sovereignty by consenting to be civil statutory persons or choosing a civil domicile within the statutory jurisdiction of any government.
5. As a justification to call yourself a "sovereign citizen" or ANY OTHER name, label, or stereotype the government might use to persecute whistleblowers that insist on an accountable, law abiding government. We are simply crime fighters who seek to enforce the sovereignty delegated to use by the only true sovereign, which is God.
6. As a justification to enforce superior rights or importance to yourself or inferior rights to anyone else under any law. ALL are equal under REAL law. That which creates or enforces an unequal or inferior status in the eyes of the government is and must at all times be a voluntary franchise that I seek to avoid.

In short, we are NOT anarchists who reject all man-made law or all government made law. We believe that to do THAT would be not only completely lawless, but would satisfy the biblical definition of Satanism itself. We explain this in:

Problems with Atheistic Anarchism, Form #08.020
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

1     9.3     Citizenship requirements to become fully “sovereign”

2     Anyone may become a member. However, those who qualify to become fully “sovereign” must meet the citizenship status
3     found in items 3.1, 3.3, 4.3, or 4.5 of the table on the following page. The reason for discussing this issue is because most
4     countries typically treat aliens as privileged and unequal, and therefore such parties are unable to become fully “sovereign”.

5     We also follow the table with diagrams to show the various statutory and constitutional citizenship statuses and domicile to
6     make this requirement perfectly clear. We then answer a question from a prospective member about why they can’t be 7     fully “sovereign”, because we get this question frequently.

NOTES:

1. Domicile is a prerequisite to having any civil status per Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17. One therefore cannot be a statutory "alien" under 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(3) without a domicile on federal territory. Without such a domicile, you are a transient foreigner and neither an "alien" nor a "nonresident alien".
2. "United States" is described in 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(38), (a)(36) and 8 C.F.R. §215.1(f) and includes only federal territory and possessions and excludes all Constitutional Union states. This is a product of the separation of powers doctrine that is the heart of the United States Constitution.
3. A "nonresident alien individual" who has made an election under 26 U.S.C. §6013(g) and (h) to be treated as a "resident alien" is treated as a "nonresident alien" for the purposes of withholding under I.R.C. Subtitle C but retains their status as a "resident alien" under I.R.C. Subtitle A. See 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1(c)(3)(ii).
4. A "non-person" is really just a transient foreigner who is not "purposefully availing themselves" of commerce within the legislative jurisdiction of the United States on federal territory under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. Chapter 97. The real transition from a "NON-person" to an "individual" occurs when one:
  - 4.1. "Purposefully avails himself" of commerce on federal territory and thus waives sovereign immunity. Examples of such purposeful availment are the next three items.
  - 4.2. Lawfully and consensually occupying a public office in the U.S. government and thereby being an "officer and individual" as identified in 5 U.S.C. §2105(a). Otherwise, you are PRIVATE and therefore beyond the civil legislative jurisdiction of the national government.
  - 4.3. Voluntarily files an IRS Form 1040 as a citizen or resident abroad and takes the foreign tax deduction under 26 U.S.C. §911. This too is essentially an act of "purposeful availment". Nonresidents are not mentioned in section 911. The upper left corner of the form identifies the filer as a "U.S. individual". You cannot be an "U.S. individual" without ALSO being an "individual". All the "trade or business" deductions on the form presume the applicant is a public officer, and therefore the "individual" on the form is REALLY a public officer in the government and would be committing FRAUD if he or she was NOT.
  - 4.4. VOLUNTARILY fills out an IRS Form W-7 ITIN Application (IRS identifies the applicant as an "individual") AND only uses the assigned number in connection with their compensation as an elected or appointed public officer. Using it in connection with PRIVATE earnings is FRAUD.
5. What turns a "non-resident non-person" into a "nonresident alien individual" is meeting one or more of the following two criteria found in 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1(c)(3)(ii):
  - 5.1. Residence/domicile in a foreign country under the residence article of an income tax treaty and 26 C.F.R. §301.7701(b)-7(a)(1).
  - 5.2. Residence/domicile as an alien in Puerto Rico, Guam, the Commonwealth of Northern Mariana Islands, the U.S. Virgin Islands, or American Samoa as determined under 26 C.F.R. §301.7701(b)-1(d).
6. All "taxpayers" are STATUTORY "aliens" or "nonresident aliens". The definition of "individual" found in 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1(c)(3) does NOT include "citizens". The only occasion where a "citizen" can also be an "individual" is when they are abroad under 26 U.S.C. §911 and interface to the I.R.C. under a tax treaty with a foreign country as an alien pursuant to 26 C.F.R. §301.7701(b)-7(a)(1)

And when he had come into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings [governments] of the earth [lawfully] take customs or taxes, from their sons [citizens and subjects] or from strangers ["aliens", which are synonymous with "residents" in the tax code, and exclude "citizens"]?"

Peter said to Him, "From strangers ["aliens"/"residents" ONLY. See 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(a)(2)(ii) and 26 C.F.R. §301.6109-1(d)(3)]."

Jesus said to him, "Then the sons ["citizens" of the Republic, who are all sovereign "nationals" and "nonresident aliens" under federal law] are free [sovereign over their own person and labor. e.g. SOVEREIGN IMMUNITY]."

1 QUESTION:

2 Why are your materials limited to those who are born or naturalized in the USA? Can't resident aliens or permanent
3 residents with a green card be sovereign?

4 I'm a Canadian national with a Green Card and who is physically in America. Why can't I be sovereign in America?

5 ANSWER:

6 No, those who are constitutional aliens in America can't be entirely sovereign because they are treated UNEQUALLY,
7 prejudicially, and therefore are inferior to those who are born or naturalized in America.

8 You can be sovereign IN CANADA, but not in America, if you are a Canadian national but not an American national.

9 Foreign nationals are CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY aliens when they are within a country they are not born or 10 naturalized in. The Law of Nations upon which the American Constitution was written says that those who are "residents"
11 or "permanent residents" need PERMISSION to be here and the laws that implement it require that aliens need
12 PERMISSION to work in America.

13 "Residents, as distinguished from citizens, are aliens who are permitted to take up a permanent abode in the country. Being bound
14 to the society by reason of their dwelling in it, they are subject to its laws so long as they remain there, and, being protected by it,
15 they must defend it, although they do not enjoy all the rights of citizens. They have only certain privileges which the law, or custom,
16 gives them. Permanent residents are those who have been given the right of perpetual residence. They are a sort of citizen of a less
17 privileged character, and are subject to the society without enjoying all its advantages. Their children succeed to their status; for 18 the right of perpetual residence given them by the State passes to their children."
19 [The Law of Nations, Vattel, Book 1, Chapter 19, Section 213, p. 87]

20 Anyone who is PRIVILEGED can't be sovereign. Anyone who needs PERMISSION from anyone to do anything can't be 21 entirely sovereign. This is also confirmed by the I-9 form, which says that if you are an alien, you need an Alien #,
22 PERMISSION to work in the USA, and a green card when searching for employment.

23 AND, if you seek to be naturalized, the immigration authorities are going to insist that you pay income taxes before they 24 will naturalize you. Granted, in doing this they are misapplying the law, because being a "RESIDENT" under Title 8 of the 25 U.S. Code is NOT the same as being a "resident" under Title 26, since the two titles presume a DIFFERENT "United 26 States" that one is a resident of. Nevertheless, because a bureaucrat is between you and something you want, they force you
27 to give up rights.

28 Likewise, Constitutional Aliens are subjected to discriminatory treatment by DHS at airports that constitutional citizens are 29 not:

30 8 C.F.R. §235(b)

31 U.S. citizens.

32 A person claiming U.S. citizenship must establish that fact to the examining officer's satisfaction and must present a U.S. passport if 33 such passport is required under the provisions of 22 C.F.R. part 53. If such applicant for admission fails to satisfy the examining 34 immigration officer that he or she is a U.S. citizen, he or she shall thereafter be inspected as an alien.

35 (d) Alien applicants for admission.

36 (1) Each alien seeking admission at a United States port-of-entry must present whatever documents are required and must establish
37 to the satisfaction of the inspecting officer that the alien is not subject to removal under the immigration laws, Executive Orders, or 38 Presidential Proclamations, and is entitled, under all of the applicable provisions of the immigration laws and this chapter, to enter
39 the United States.

40 Until one is naturalized in AMERICA to become a constitutional citizen, they are not TREATED EQUAL to those who are 41 constitutional citizens, and therefore cannot be entirely SOVEREIGN.

1 Note that we are NOT saying we condone or agree with treating anyone unequally, but from a practical matter, anyone who
2 by law needs PERMISSION to either work or exist or be here is, in fact UNEQUAL and therefore PRIVILEGED and
3 cannot therefore be entirely sovereign.

4 THEIR REPONSE:

5 Thank you so very much.

6 So what is my solution? If I gave up my green card can I become sovereign in Canada and still reside here?

7 I do not work in the U.S., well I have an internet business.

8 Thanks

9 OUR RESPONSE:

10 The solution is to get naturalized in whatever country you want to be sovereign in.

11 THEIR RESPONSE:

12 May I call you? Do you have a phone number where I can reach you?

13 I plan on living in several countries in the next few years. And I cannot imagine that as a straw man with an SS# I cannot 14 use any of the information you provide?

15 I may not be able to be a sovereign but I am certain other things apply to me.

16 Thank you for your kindness in educating me on this.

26 9.4 About religious tolerance and this ministry<sup>30</sup>

27 The scriptures and religious references used on this website come primarily from the Bible. Some people who are not
28 necessarily Christians have asked us about our view of other religions and how that view relates to whether they can
29 become members. The Member Agreement, Form #01.001 says that all people who wish to become members must believe 30 in God, but it very deliberately doesn't say which God. They want to know more about this subject so they can make an informed decision and ensure that we are not religious bigots or extremists. That is the question we will deal with in this section.

The most frequent false allegation we get from secular people is that we intend to implement a theocracy under the Bible. This is FALSE for the reasons explained in the following video:

To Hell With Theocracy, PJ Media
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jTerQAU64Qg>

The main thing we want you to understand is that we don't insist that all Members must be Christian or any other faith for that matter. We just want you to believe in a SINGLE God, follow the laws of that God without selecting which ones you want to follow, practice separation of church and state, and not be against religions other than your own. NOT being against religions other than your own implies NOT doing any of the following:

1. You don't seek to commit genocide against anyone, including those of religions other than your own.
2. You don't seek to behead or punish in any way those who don't share your beliefs using law or the government.
3. You don't deny the Holy Trinity, consisting of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
4. You don't argue with the Christian belief that God had a son. Muslims believe God had no son and argue with Christians about it.
5. You won't support the implementation of any religious law system or theocracy within the government, including especially Sharia law.

All of the above represent the initiation of force, coercion, or punishment against people for their religious beliefs, or impose or enforce religious laws against those who don't support them using the violence or coercion of the state. We aren't saying we oppose Muslims but we oppose Muslims who force their beliefs or laws upon others using the violence of the state. For why we oppose force and violence for religious reasons as indicated above, see:

SEDM does not have any faith requirements, other than that people are believers. We say that people should believe in God singular but we very deliberately do not say WHICH God. To be a member of SEDM, you must understand and accept the fact that SEDM seeks to interact with the issues of our time from a Christian world view; and, you must agree NOT to undermine or subvert or sabotage the Source of our opinions or beliefs . . . but this requirement does not imply that constructive, progressive criticism is not welcome. Our positions on law and politics proceed from the Scripture as we understand it, howbeit, imperfectly. The philosophy you should be compatible with is summarized below:

1. You must understand and accept the following beliefs connected with the tree of life:
  - 1.1. There is only one, true Lawgiver who is the infinite, personal, triune Spirit, the God of Creation, the Author of the Bible, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ; and,
  - 1.2. That this God has spoken in history as recorded in God's Word which is sufficient for our faith and conduct; and,
  - 1.3. That this God has revealed His law to men which is the only true measure of justice; and,
  - 1.4. That this God has revealed His grace and mercy to us in and through His Son for the salvation of men by virtue of His death, burial, and resurrection; and,
  - 1.5. That Christ is the risen, ascended, enthroned King of kings, the King of the Nations, the only Sovereign upon which all de jure governments must build their foundation (Isaiah 9:6); and,
  - 1.6. That the family, and government, and church are God-ordained institution; and, that the family is the institution of education; that the government is the institution of justice; and that the Church is the institution of grace.
  - 1.7. That good government is a blessing to mankind; and, that the purpose of government is not redistribution of wealth, but in place to protect life, liberty, and property; and, that when a government becomes destructive to these ends, it is man's duty to resist or to alter or abolish it, and to institute new governments to the glory of God and to the service of man.

2. You must not concede to the following suppositions as they have a lineage to the poisonous tree:

- 2.1. Religious atheism: the value system that results from a belief that man is a product of time plus chance; or,
- 2.2. Pantheism; the belief that God is everything and everything is God. Such a tautology is the intellectual sin of word magic; or,
- 2.3. Zionism or Judaism: the Talmudic belief that Ashkenazi Jews are God's chosen people and are destined to rule the world and have a God-given right to deceive and use Gentiles to their own ends; or,
- 2.4. Humanism; the belief that man is the measure of all things; or, that man is or becoming a god; or, that man is himself the proper "ultimate concern" and source of law; or,
- 2.5. Pluralism or Universalism: the belief that there are many gods and many religions, that all are good, and that all are roads to the same truth; or,
- 2.6. Mohammedism: the false religion based on the teaching of the false prophet, Mohammed (570-632 A.D.).
- 2.7. Legalism: the belief that law can save society and that society can reach a man-made utopia by enacting more legislation; and,
- 2.8. Multiculturalism: The belief ethical diversity is a strength and not a weakness to overcome; and, that atheists and theists; Christians and Moslems; wolves and sheep can live in the same pasture in peace; or
- 2.9. Racism: The belief that one race commends a man to God or that one race is superior to another; or,
- 2.10. Fascism, Liberalism, or totalitarianism or any belief that government is god; that rights come from government; that service to the State is superior to other callings; or belief in the total subjugation of the total man to total government.

3. Unacceptable characteristics that will result in rejection of your specific faith:

- 3.1. Attack the validity of the Bible as a law book.
- 3.2. Believe they or any currently living man/woman can become gods, EQUAL to God, SUPERIOR to God, or UNACCOUNTABLE to the one and only God. That is what Satan tried to do, which earned him an eternal curse.
- 3.3. Identify god as a physical thing, including themselves, or identify him/her as existing in physical things. See Rom. 1:24-25, which says pagans worship the creation rather than the creator. It results in mysticism and occultism and violates the First Commandment.
- 3.4. Practice "smorgasbord religion". For instance, they write their own divine law or bible or pick subsets of all faiths to make their own hodge-podge religion. This is nothing but a self-serving way to escape accountability or liability under any single divine law. See:

Unlimited Liability Universe, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Spirituality/Articles/UnlimitedLiabilityUniverse.htm>

- 3.5. Treat religion as an intellectual exercise rather than rules for how to treat others and love others.
- 3.6. Seek to escape accountability to the laws of their god by stating that any part of it has been repealed or is not enforceable or is subjectively defined by them.
- 3.7. Put their desire for any earthly physical pleasure or condition or possession higher in priority than their allegiance to God's Holy Laws.
- 3.8. Believe in multiple Gods. That's paganism and idolatry.
- 3.9. Believe they are superior to other religions or that other religions are a product of ignorance. This sort of elitism divides groups, creates animosity, and violates the notion of equal protection and equal treatment.
- 3.10. Believe that any government or civil ruler can or should have more authority or rights than a single human, thus instituting idolatry towards government.
- 3.11. Sanction, condone, or promote violence of any kind in any scenario OTHER than in self-defense where one's life is immediately threatened by a hostile other. This is especially true of violence or hate directed against either other religions or their members, specific governments, or innocent people generally.

Anyone who meets the above criteria, we believe, is capable of being worthy to deserve liberty, which the Declaration of Independence points out comes only from "Nature's God". If you meet the above minimum religious criteria and consent to the rest of the Member Agreement, Form #01.001, then we welcome you as a member. Otherwise, we don't. We have many members who are not Christians and many members from different Christian faiths. There are Catholics, Muslims, Lutherans, Evangelicals, and many other faiths represented. However, we have no atheists and we wouldn't take atheists as members. This is because:

"Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is Liberty [freedom]."
[\[2 Corinthians 3:17\]](#), Bible, NKJV

Conversely, where the spirit of the "Lord" ISN'T, there can be absolutely nothing but sin, slavery, and subjection, as the Bible clearly points out. The Great IRS Hoax, Form #11.302, Section 4.3.10 conclusively proves this. Spiritual evil is not a tangible thing. Instead, it is actually the ABSENCE of God. Hell is a place of eternal separation from God, which is a place where God and His sacred moral laws are completely absent. The word "sin" in Spanish means "without", and the thing that people are "without" when they "sin" is God and His Laws. Consequently, atheists are the epitome of evil because they believe God does not exist and that manifestations of His moral laws should be removed from society. Most religions teach us to avoid evil, and therefore we must avoid atheists. We believe in and vociferously defend freedom OF religion, but we are entirely opposed to freedom FROM religion. Our quote at the beginning of this page from George Washington, our most revered founding father, explains why this MUST be so:

"Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, Religion and morality are indispensable supports. In vain would that man claim the tribute of Patriotism who should labour to subvert these great Pillars of human happiness, these firmest props of the duties of Men and citizens. The mere politician, equally with the pious man, ought to respect and to cherish them. A volume could not trace all their connections with private and public felicity. Let it simply be asked, 'where is the security for property, for reputation, for life, if the sense of religious obligation desert the oaths which are the instruments of investigation in courts of justice?' And let us with caution indulge the supposition that morality can be maintained without religion. Whatever may be conceded to the influence of refined education on minds of peculiar structure, reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle."
George Washington, [Farewell Address (OFFSITE LINK)]

If you want specific examples of religions or belief systems ("isms") that we have determined so far as unacceptable, below are a few and there may be others. All of these "religions" violate one or more of the criteria listed earlier. Those who become members and have any of these beliefs will be Members in Bad Standing:

1. Atheism
2. Satanism
3. Thelema
4. Christian Rationalism

We believe that government should not be used as a vehicle to either establish a religion or to disestablish one, or to promote Christianity over any other faith. To do otherwise would be to deprive people of all faiths the "equal protection of the laws" (see Requirement for Equal Protection and Equal Treatment, Form #05.033). You answer to your God, and not us. We are not the judge of whether you have satisfied the laws of your God and to do otherwise would make us into bigots and zealots and aristocrats. We are, however, the judge of whether you are injuring your neighbor, which is the subject of the last six commandments of the Ten Commandments (OFFSITE LINK) and the origin of all moral and legal authority that the government has.

Then one of them, a lawyer, asked Him [Jesus] a question, testing Him, and saying, "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?"

Jesus said to him, "You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind." This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets."
[Matt. 22:36-40, Bible, NKJV]

We assume that role as a jurist and a voter. Beyond keeping people from injuring each other, governments and religions should BOTH leave people alone to do as they please, and not force them to subsidize or participate in things they don't believe in. Thomas Jefferson said it best, when he said:

"With all [our] blessings, what more is necessary to make us a happy and a prosperous people? Still one thing more, fellow citizens--a wise and frugal Government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another, shall leave them otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not take from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned. This is the sum of good government, and this is necessary to close the circle of our felicities."
[Thomas Jefferson: 1st Inaugural, 1801. ME 3:320]

We also think that it is the moral and political duty of churches to ensure that governments don't get into the charity or the welfare business, because the laws of God say that these are the exclusive province of the family and the church, and NOT the government. By instituting income taxes and using the income taxes to fund charities/insurance such as Social Security, Medicare, FICA, etc., none of which are authorized by the Constitution to be done in states of the Union, the government is 1 usurping sovereignty from churches and families and from individuals and making itself into essentially a false god to be

2 worshipped with our earnings and labor. See:

Unlimited Liability Universe, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Spirituality/Articles/UnlimitedLiabilityUniverse.htm>

3 One very important reason that bible quotes are so prevalent on our website is to grab people's hearts. If their minds are
4 engaged but their hearts aren't, then they won't be willing to fight. Without a fight, the problems will get worse. The only
5 limit of tyrants is the degree to which an apathetic citizenry will tolerate their abuses. The social problems documented on
6 SEDM are primarily evidence of spiritual decay, immorality, apathy, and selfishness. These diseases are destroying our
7 society and they are primarily political diseases which require a political and spiritual change. Spiritual problems need a
8 spiritual remedy. We have a society without morals because we don't teach morality in schools and government has been
9 destroying families and undermining churches so that kids don't have an opportunity to learn morality in these classical
10 contexts. This has made them easy prey for tyrants. Hence, we must overcompensate by reviving the study of morality on 11 our site so that people will be willing to take up arms and mobilize to fight the evil. People have become so jaded and
12 desensitized by TV and media culture that it seems there is nothing that will awaken them from their hedonistic stupor any 13 more. Law is a moral code and a contract that the Sovereign people got together and agreed on. It is based on reason and 14 logic. Law is just the vehicle to implement the needed political changes. It is a tool, but not the end. Morality is the end,
15 and religion is the basis for all morality. Who better to learn the "laws" of morality from than "Nature's God". We only
16 quote the Bible, because that is what we are most familiar with, but if you went to any other sacred book, you would find
17 the same laws of morality, whether it be the Quran, The Teachings of Buddha or Confucius, or any other sacred text. These 18 universal "moral laws" are what we refer to as "natural law" throughout our writings in order to objectify the discussion.
19 We have even taken the time to organize the laws found in the Holy Bible by subject just like the U.S. Code so that you can 20 use them as a law book. See:

Laws of the Bible, Form #13.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

21 Don't get obsessed with the source or the name of the book or the faith or "sect" of the author, because that will only
22 generate conflict that the government will try to exploit to prevent us from combining forces to eliminate the evil. If you
23 are not a Christian or are not familiar with the Bible, then instead of being offended, please instead focus your attention in 24 using our materials on the "moral laws" revealed by scripture we quote and don't be distracted into wrongfully concluding 25 that we are trying to "convert" you in any way.

26 "And blessed is he who is not offended because of Me [God]."
27 [Matt. 11:6, Bible, NKJV]

28 Please try to be more objective by simply treating the Bible less as a "religion" and more simply as a "natural law" or 29 "moral law" book because we certainly don't intend to either brainwash or discriminate against any religious faith. You
30 obviously enjoy the study of law or you wouldn't be visiting our website to begin with. Why is that so hard? Such an 31 approach will keep the discussion focused objectively on morality and logic and establish a common set of beliefs that we 32 all share which can become the basis for cooperation in effecting political change. Paul Harvey described this approach in 33 the following video:

An Open Letter from God, Paul Harvey
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YhCG0Nt7wXs>

34 According to several of our founding fathers, when a people forget or repress God, then tyrants forge their chains:

35 "It is when a people forget God that tyrants forge their chains ..."
36 [Patrick Henry]

37 "Those people who are not governed by GOD will be ruled by tyrants."
38 [William Penn (after which Pennsylvania was named)]

39 "A free people [claim] their rights as derived from the laws of nature, and not as the gift of their chief magistrate."
40 [Thomas Jefferson: Rights of British America, 1774. ME 1:209, Papers 1:134]

"Can the liberties of a nation be thought secure when we have removed their only firm basis, a conviction in the minds of the people that these liberties are of the gift of God? That they are not to be violated but with His wrath?"
[Thomas Jefferson : Notes on Virginia Q.XVIII, 1782. ME 2:227]

"Resistance to tyrants is obedience to God."
[Benjamin Franklin]

"Propitious smiles of heaven can never be expected on a nation that disregards the eternal rules of order and right which heaven itself has ordained."
[George Washington (1732-1799)]

Those who are admitted atheists and who reject God and morality deserve an immoral and tyrannical government that acts like a false god, steals their property, and lies to you. We should always reap the consequences of that which we sow. This is an extension of the Golden Rule: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you. In the scientific field, this also happens to be one of Newton's Universal Laws:

"For every action, there is an equal and opposite reaction."

Those who insist on a world entirely without God are encouraged to not use this website and not to become Members. We believe in separation of church and state. We are the "church" (believer) and atheists are obviously the "state". Let's separate. Atheists can go to HELL and we'll go to Heaven. For those who don't believe there is a HELL, then we'll just have to wait and see about that, friend! Those who insist on a "moral" government without God or religion are the real "nut case", because they want the golden eggs, which is a moral and righteous government, but also insist on killing the goose that lays them, which is religion and morality.

"Wisdom calls aloud outside; she raises her voice in the open squares, she cries out in the chief concourses, at the openings of the gates in the city she speaks her words; how long, you simple [atheist] ones, will you love simplicity? For scorers delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge. Turn at my rebuke; surely I will pour out my spirit on you; I will make my words known to you. Because I have called and you refused, I have stretched out my hand and no one regarded, because you despised my counsel and My law: [God's law], and would have none of my rebuke, I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your terror [a corrupted WICKED government that is God's competitor rather than His servant] comes. When your terror [corrupted government] comes like a storm, and your destruction comes like a whirlwind, when distress and anguish come upon you. Then they will call on me, but I will not answer; they will seek me diligently, but they will not find me. Because they hated knowledge [and were too lazy and complacent to seek it out], and did not choose the fear of the Lord. They have none of my counsel and despised my every rebuke. Therefore they shall eat the fruit of their own way, and be filled to the full with their own fancies. For the turning away of the simple will slay them. And the complacency of fools will destroy them; but whoever listens to me [God and the wisdom that comes ONLY from God] will dwell safely, and will be secure, without fear of evil."
[Prov. 1:20-33, Bible, NKJV]

10. About Us

Our mission is to fulfill the two Great Commandments spoken of by Jesus:

Then one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, perceiving that He had answered them well, asked Him, "Which is the first commandment of all?"

Jesus answered him, "The first of all the commandments is: 'Hear, O Israel, the LORD our God, the LORD is one. And you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. This is the first commandment. And the second, like it, is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these.'"

So the scribe said to Him, "Well said, Teacher. You have spoken the truth, for there is one God, and there is no other but He. And to love Him with all the heart, with all the understanding, with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love one's neighbor as oneself, is more than all the whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."
[Mark 12:28-33, Bible, NKJV]

We fulfill the above commandments by educating people about law and helping them obey and enforce it so as to help them honor the two main requirements of the common law, which are:

1. Do not harm the equal rights of your neighbor. The term "neighbor" includes "government", which is just an artificial entity created by men. This is a fulfillment of the second Great Commandment above to love your neighbor as yourself.
2. Honor all contracts and commitments you make.

1 Therefore, our mission, when you merge the requirements of God's Law and Man's law is:

- 2 1. Do not harm the equal rights of your neighbor. The term "neighbor" includes "government", which is just an artificial
3 entity created by men. This is a fulfillment of the second Great Commandment above to love your neighbor as 4 yourself.
- 5 2. Honor all contracts and commitments you make.
- 6 3. Enforce the requirement for consent in all interactions between everyone, including between any government or civil 7 ruler and "the governed". Emphasize that the MAIN purpose of government is to prosecute those who injure others
8 without the consent of the injured:

Requirement for Consent, Form #05.003

FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/Consent.pdf>

- 9 4. Do not respect, subsidize, or cooperate with any effort to enforce or impute any more rights to a government or civil 10 ruler than the people individually themselves have. Otherwise, the first Great Commandment above has been violated
11 because idolatry and a state sponsored religion has been established. This is described in:

Socialism: The New American Civil Religion, Form #05.016

FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/SocialismCivilReligion.pdf>

- 12 5. Do not allow the government to make those protected, meaning "citizens" and "residents", into a public officer, and 13 therefore to serve TWO masters, because this is not only idolatry, but a violation of the separation of powers between 14 what is public and what is private.

15 "No servant [or religious ministry or biological person] can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or 16 else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon [government]."

35 11. In defense of the size and complexity of our website

36 Sometimes our readers complain about the size and complexity of our website with comments like the following:

37 As a new member who is overwhelmed with the amount of data to read and "master", my question is should one read and 38 COMPLETELY UNDERSTAND EVERY form and article in the documents on this website before submitting any document to the 39 parties in question?

40 Just the reading alone could take months if not years if you must master the concepts.

41 *I understand that eternal vigilance is necessary to maintain ones freedom and I am very anxious to move on this information I am
42 learning on this website but I do not want to proceed unprepared and find myself in unfortunate circumstances.*

43 I solicit any "advice" or opinion on my cautious procedure.

1 In response to such inquiries, we say the following.

2 You specifically asked for "advice". You are forewarned that our Member Agreement, Form #01.001, Section 4, Items 4
3 and 6 and Section 1.1 forbid:

- 4 1. Either the GIVING OF or the ASKING FOR advice.
- 5 2. Offering promises or assurances of any kind about the effectiveness of our materials
- 6 3. You to construe anything on this website as "advice".

7 The ONLY source of "advice", in fact, that is consistent with our Member Agreement is YOUR OWN READING of what
8 the law actually says on the subject of inquiry, as is pointed out by our Member Agreement. Therefore, this response is 9 NOT "advice" as you call it and please DO NOT ever refer to anything available from this ministry as "advice" or rely on 10 anything but your own reading of the law as your basis for reasonable belief.

11 Your problem in following our materials is no different than that faced by compliant statutory "taxpayers" also. In order to 12 operate ONLY upon what the law actually says and thereby completely avoid all presumptions, statutory "taxpayers" have 13 to read:

- 14 1. 9,500 pages of Internal Revenue Code
15 http://www.law.cornell.edu/uscode/html/uscode26/usc\_sup\_01\_26.html
- 16 2. 20,000 pages of Treasury Regulations
17 <http://www.access.gpo.gov/nara/cfr/cfr-table-search.html>
- 18 3. 20,000 pages of Internal Revenue Manual
19 <http://www.irs.gov/irm/index.html>
- 20 4. Thousands of pages of IRS forms and publications.
21 <http://www.irs.gov/formspubs/index.html>
- 22 5. Countless court rulings.

23 . . . which NO ONE we have met EVER does. Hence, even statutory "taxpayers" must therefore operate on "faith" for the 24 most part ALSO. This is covered in:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007 FORMS PAGE: http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm DIRECT LINK: http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/ReasonableBelief.pdf
---

25 What the corrupt de facto government has done, in fact, is use this franchise as a basis to establish its OWN competing
26 religion in violation of the First Amendment, and as described in:

27 At least with our approach:

- 28 1. The amount of materials one must learn to follow OUR procedure is FAR LESS than theirs.
- 29 2. We emphasize that you only need to learn enough about their law to show WHERE and WHY you are not subject to it.

30 Wouldn't you rather follow the SIMPLEST approach? And is there a reason that you apply a different standard to us than 31 you do to statutory "taxpayers"? The law makes us all entitled to equality of treatment and the foundation of all free
32 government and freedom itself is equal protection and equal treatment.

33 Central both to the idea of the rule of law and to our own Constitution's guarantee of equal protection is the principle that
34 government and each of its parts remain open on impartial terms to all who seek its assistance. "Equal protection of the laws is 35 not achieved through indiscriminate imposition of inequalities." "Sweatt v. Painter, 339 U.S. 629, 635 (1950) (quoting Shelley 36 v. Kraemer, 334 U.S. 1, 22 (1948)). Respect for this principle explains why laws singling out a certain class of citizens for 37 disfavored legal status or general hardships are rare. A law declaring that in general it shall be more difficult for one group of 38 citizens than for all others to seek aid from the government is itself a denial of equal protection of the laws in the most literal

sense. "The guaranty of 'equal protection of the laws' 634*634 is a pledge of the protection of equal laws." " Skinner v. Oklahoma ex rel. Williamson, 316 U.S. 535, 541 \(1942\) (quoting Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356, 369 \(1886\)). [Romer v. Evans, 517 U.S. 620 \(1996\)]

Eternal vigilance implies a continuing and sincere effort to learn as much as one can about law and legal foundation behind the materials on this website as one reasonably has time for. Attorneys, for instance, must undergo "continuing education of the bar" of their state in order to be qualified to continue to hold their "license to practice law". That means turning off the TV and spending a budgeted amount of time UNLEARNING all the lies the government told you in the public/government school. That deprogramming can take as long as the original programming took. Be patient with yourself. It has taken us that long.

The willful misrepresentation and misapplication of the Internal Revenue Code by a complicit and corrupted IRS is a WAR. In war, one can never have too many weapons, and the ONLY weapon one has is evidence, law, and knowledge in this war. We are not clairvoyant in predicting whether you are capable of waging a convincing war, and it is unreasonable of you to expect that we can predict the future. As a matter of fact, the Bible makes it a sin to even TRY to predict the future:

"Calvin, in his excellent classification of the law in his Commentaries on the Four Last Books of Moses Arranged in the Form of a Harmony, cites Deut. 18:9-22; 13:1-4; Lev. 18:21; 19:26,31; and Deut. 12:29-32, as basic to the first commandment. These passages relate to man's attempt to know and control the future. Since God is the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth, and the determiner of all things, any attempt to know and control the future outside of God is to set up another god in contempt of the LORD."
[The Institutes of Biblical Law, Rousas Rushdoony, Library of Congress Catalog Number 72-79485, 1973, p. 30]

But God commands Christians to resist evil to the best of their ability, or else they are lukewarm Christians who He vomits out of his mouth (Rev. 3:16).

1. "Fearing the Lord" is the essence of our faith. See Deut. 6:13, 24; Deut. 10:20.
2. To "fear the Lord" is to "hate evil" and oppose it. See Prov. 8:13.
3. Hating evil is the way we love and protect our neighbor, in fulfillment of the last six commandments of the ten commandments.

All we can say is, do your best, keeping in mind that:

1. All tax crimes have willfulness as a prerequisite.
2. One cannot violate a law that one doesn't know about or which one has evidence in one's administrative record to prove one is not subject to, which is what the steps in the Path to Freedom, Form #09.015 do.
3. One can only be sovereign if one agrees to:
  - 3.1. Take complete, exclusive, and personal responsibility for yourself
  - 3.2. Blame NO ONE for the consequences of their choices or actions.
  - 3.3. Rely ONLY on what the courts say constitutes a reasonable source of belief about their responsibilities. That means that you can't rely on any man and can rely ONLY on what POSITIVE law actually says as a basis for determining "willfulness". Only positive law is evidence. Non-positive law is a presumption that violates due process of law absent express written consent of the party being enforced against.

Ignorance IS an excuse in tax crimes, but not in other crimes. That ought to be your first CLUE that the Internal Revenue Code, Subtitles A through C is a civil franchise which activates and acquires the "force of law" by your consent, and that so-called "crimes" are really just malum prohibitum violations of the civil franchise agreement in which you consent to temporarily become government property warehoused in a building called a "jail".

Here is what God and the U.S. Supreme Court say our duties are in this circumstance:

"The true danger is when liberty is nibbled away, for expedients, and by parts ... the only thing necessary for evil to triumph is for good men to do nothing [or to trust dishonest or deceitful public servants to do the right thing]."
[Edmund Burke]

1 "...the greatest menace to freedom is an inert [passive and uneducated] people [who refuse, as jurists and voters
2 and active citizens, to expose and punish evil in the government]"
3 [Whitney v. California, 274 U.S. 357 (1927)]

4 "The violence of the wicked will destroy them [a free people] because they refuse to do justice [by exposing, rebuking, and
5 resisting, and punishing evil]."
6 [Prov. 21:7, Micah 6:8]

7 "Therefore submit to God. Resist the devil [in the government] and he will flee from you."
8 [James 4:7, Bible, NKJV]

9 Unfortunately, all we can realistically offer you is the truth, law, information about the experiences of others, and the 10 inspiration of one's unfailing commitment to a just God. We are educators and servants, not leaders. We can't and won't
11 and are prohibited from offering you insurance or promises or guarantees of any kind. We are told as Christians to trust
12 ONLY the Lord and not any vain man or promise from a vain man such as us. Josh. 24:15. You have to trust the Lord and 13 you should trust no other so promises would be meaningless anyway.

14 "That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men [we are men/women], but in the power of God."
15 [1 Corinthians 2:5, Bible, KJV]

16 "Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man [we are a man/woman], and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart
17 departeth from the LORD."
18 [Jeremiah 17:5, Bible, KJV]

19 We offer the same thing God offers you. God warns you that following Him will come with a high price. And because we 20 also follow God in this ministry, then those who follow our materials are sure to be just as persecuted as God promised for 21 the same reasons.

22 "Look, I am sending you out as sheep among [government] wolves. Be as wary as snakes and harmless as doves. But beware!
23 For you will be handed over to the [corrupted] courts [by licensed attorneys with a conflict of interest] and beaten in the 24 synagogues[501(c)(3) churches]. And you must stand trial before governors and kings [and federal judges, who are the equivalent
25 of modern-day Monarchs] because you are my followers. This will be your opportunity to tell them about me—yes, to witness to the 26 world. When you are arrested [by the de-facto corporate government MAFIA because you threaten their organized crime ring],
27 don't worry about what to say in your defense, because you will be given the right words at the right time. For it won't be you
28 doing the talking—it will be the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.

29 "Brother will betray brother to death, fathers will betray their own children [by aborting them or selling them into federal slavery
30 by giving them Social Security Numbers, the "badge of allegiance to the Beast", and by falsely claiming they are "U.S. citizens" on 31 their tax returns], and children will rise against their parents [using Child Protective Services] and cause them to be killed [or 32 persecuted by a zealous state eager to justify its existence and expand its jurisdiction at the expense of our sovereignty and
33 Constitutional Rights]. And everyone [and especially misbehaving public DIS-servants] will hate you [and persecute you illegally
34 and unconstitutionally] because of your [exclusive] allegiance to me [God]. But those who endure [and expose the Truth] to the 35 end will be saved [and thereby prevent eternal harm at the price of temporary earthly discomfort]. When you are persecuted in 36 one town, flee to the next. I assure you that I, the Son of Man, will return before you have reached all the towns of Israel.

37 "A student is not greater than the teacher. A [public] servant is not greater than the [Sovereign] master. The student [us] shares the 38 teacher's [Jesus'] fate. The servant [believers and followers of God] shares the master's [Jesus'] fate. And since I, the master of the 39 household, have been called the prince of demons, how much more will it happen to you, the members of the household! But don't 40 be afraid of those [thieves and tyrants masquerading as "public servants"] who threaten you. For the time is coming when 41 everything will be revealed [and evil punished at the final judgment]; all that is secret will be made public. What I tell you now in 42 the darkness, shout [from websites like this one] abroad when daybreak comes. What I whisper in your ears, shout from the 43 housetops for all to hear [and on websites like this one that are outside of government jurisdiction]!

44 "Don't be afraid of those who want to kill you. They can only kill your body; they cannot touch your soul. Fear [and obey] only
45 God [and His laws, not the government's unless they are consistent with God's laws], who can destroy both soul and body in 46 hell. Not even a sparrow, worth only half a penny, can fall to the ground without your Father knowing it. And the very hairs on your 47 head are all numbered. So don't be afraid; you are more valuable to him than a whole flock of sparrows."
48 [Jesus in Matt. 10:16-31, Bible, New Living Translation]

49 Our prayers are with you in your own fight. The extent of that fight and what you personally can and should accomplish
50 can only be decided by you as the sovereign based on your intimate knowledge of your own capabilities.

51 We're not trying to be mean and we are here because we care about you. We are blunt sometimes only because we are 52 trying to keep you out of trouble.

12. Should the Federal Bureau of Investigation Arrest the Members of the U.S. Supreme Court?

"Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you seems to be wise in this age, let him become a fool that he may become wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, 'He catches the wise in their own craftiness'; and again, 'The LORD knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile.'"
[1 Cor. 3:18-23, Bible, NKJV]

The Homeland Security Department has ranked the sovereignty and freedom movement as a major threat. Its members are alleged to violate the law, and some are even alleged to kill police. Read more:

So WHO gave Americans the CRAZY idea that Americans were Sovereign?

In Chisholm v. Georgia The Supreme Court ruled:

"[A]t the Revolution, the sovereignty devolved on the people; and they are truly the sovereigns of the country, but they are sovereigns without subjects. with none to govern but themselves; the citizens of America are equal as fellow citizens, and as joint tenants in the sovereignty."
[Chisholm v. Georgia, 2 Dall. (U.S.) 419,471-472, 454 L.Ed. 440, 455 Dall (1793)]

In Yick Wo v. Hopkins, Sheriff, the Supreme Court ruled:

"Sovereignty itself is, of course, not subject to the law, for it is the author and source of law, but in our system, while sovereign powers are delegated to the agencies of government, sovereignty itself remains with the people, by whom and for whom all government exists and acts... For, the very idea that one man may be compelled to hold his life or the means of living or any material right essential to the enjoyment of life, at the mere will of another, seems to be intolerable in any country where freedom prevails, as being the essence of slavery itself. (118 U. S. 356.)"
[Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886)]

In Scott v. Sandford they ruled:

"The words 'sovereign people' are those who form the sovereign, and who hold the power and conduct the government through their representatives. Every citizen is one of these people and a constituent member of this sovereignty."
[Scott v. Sandford, 60 U.S. 393 404 (1856)]

The LA Times Article Continues:

"This is a movement that has absolutely exploded," said Mark Potok, a senior fellow at the Southern Poverty Law Center, a nonprofit organization based in Montgomery, Ala., that tracks domestic terrorists and hate groups. More than 100,000 Americans have aligned themselves with the sovereign citizens, the center said."

14. Warnings and Notices

14.1 Legal Notice

We caution the reader that:

1. This publication should not be cited to sustain a reasonable belief. This is the same warning that the IRS places on its publications and forms in Internal Revenue Manual 4.10.7.2.8.

*"IRS Publications, issued by the National Office, explain the law in plain language for taxpayers and their advisors... While a good source of general information, publications should not be cited to sustain a position."
[Internal Revenue Manual (I.R.M.), Section 4.10.7.2.8 (05-14-1999)]*

Our Disclaimer (see <http://sedm.org/disclaimer.htm>) statement says that under the concept of "equal protection of the law", we are also entitled to the same disclaimer as the IRS. Instead, readers are admonished to verify and question absolutely everything appearing in this and every other document on this website, and to not trust anything except that which they have personally verified for themselves to be accurate and truthful based on credible sources of good-faith belief documented below:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

2. The only source of reasonable, good faith belief and admissible, non-presumptive evidence is enacted positive law and the rulings of the U.S. Supreme Court. The IRS Internal Revenue Manual \(I.R.M.\), Section 4.10.7.2.9.8 admits that rulings of federal courts below the Supreme Court may be applied only to the person who litigated the case and to no one else. The legislative notes under 1 U.S.C. §204 states that the Internal Revenue Code is not positive law and is therefore "prima facie evidence" of law. That means it is "presumed" to be the law but that presumption is rebuttable.
3. By reading, using, or obtaining this information or any information appearing on the Sovereignty Education and Defense Ministry Website (<http://sedm.org>), the reader agrees to abide fully by our current Disclaimer and the Copyright License Agreement appearing within it.
4. By reading or using our materials, readers and/or Members agree to take full and complete and exclusive responsibility for any attempt to use any of the information appearing here.
5. It is not the intention of this or any other document written by or statement made by the author to encourage anyone to do anything based on reading this publication other than get educated. Education is the ONLY purpose.
6. Readers are encouraged to obey all positive laws which apply within the jurisdiction where they are domiciled. We do not question or challenge legitimate, Constitutional exercises of power by any public servant.

14.2 DO NOT use website downloading software on our site!

We monitor our server regularly to ensure it is not overloaded. The most common source of server overload is website downloading software such as the following:

1. Automation Anywhere
<https://www.automationanywhere.com/>
2. HTTrack-PC
<http://www.httrack.com/>
3. Sitesucker-MAC
<http://www.sitesucker.us/>
4. Teleport Pro-PC
<http://www.tenmax.com/teleport/pro/home.htm>

We caution readers that anyone who uses website downloading software to download our site will have their IP address PERMANENTLY BLOCKED from accessing our site in the future using our firewall.

If you need a copy of our website, please order the Sovereignty Research DVD rather than make your own copy.

The reason for this policy is that website downloading software:

1. Blocks others from accessing the site.
2. Slows down the server to the point of making it unusable for the typical use.
3. Overloads our server.
4. Maximizes our CPU utilization.
5. Needlessly adds to the cost of web hosting by forcing us to get a much beefier server.

A list of IP addresses that have been PERMANENTLY BLOCKED because they use website downloading software is contained in our Member Forums at the link below:

<http://sedm.org/forums/topic/user-ips-that-have-been-blocked-because-they-used-site-downloading-software/>

If your IP address appears in the above post within our Member Forums, the only way we will unblock your IP address is for you to order the above DVD and promise NEVER again to use site sucking software on our site.

It's rude to steal from us and punish other users on the site with slow performance. Please be a good network citizen or you will suffer the consequences. Caveat emptor.

15. Getting help or answers to questions

The following subsections address how to get help or answers to your questions.

15.1 Guidance on participating in our Member forums

Our Member Forums operate as what we call a “mock court” where people go to improve their litigation skills, writing skills, and rhetoric skills. They should be treated just as seriously as a real litigation because they are a method of practicing litigation skills. We don't clean out the forums or delete or censor posts, so please help us preserve, protect, and improve the quality of what is posted there for the benefit of all.

If you post anything in our Member Forums, please take the time to do all the following in respect to your post:

1. Proofread.
2. Spell check.
3. Grammar check.
4. Verify the accuracy of all court case cites you provide.

If you don't do the above, you will FORCE us to either do it for you or delete your post because it is incomprehensible or knowingly false. Remember that the purpose of our Member Forums is to help you develop reading and writing skills that are indispensable in a litigation setting. That is why we refer to the forums as a “mock court”. Any sane person would carefully do all the above things with their pleadings in court, so you should ALSO do the SAME thing with your posts in our Member Forums.

We remind the reader that our Member Forums are frequented by thousands of people who rely on what is on our website as a starting point for their own legal research. There is no quicker way to discredit both yourself and us than to post inaccurate information with spelling or grammar errors. This portrays the author and all those they associate with as presumptuous, illiterate fools ripe for exploitation by a corrupted de facto government. It's bad enough that those who are too lazy to exercise their due diligence dump their problems in our forums and offer nothing in return. Forcing us to proofread, correct, and research the post before we can even respond only adds insult to injury.

The SEDM Member Forums operate on the following rules as indicated in the forums themselves:

Forum Rules

Users who violate the rules below will have their accounts disabled or deleted and all of their posts removed:

1. Blaspheme the name of God or Jesus.;
  2. Use cuss words or four letter words. ;
  3. Use the word "frivolous" to describe any of the arguments of other board members. Instead, use the word "incorrect" and then provide evidence and law to document why you believe this.;
  4. Denigrate or criticize or use derogatory nicknames for other board members.;
  5. Post internet pornography or links to internet pornography;
  6. Post copyrighted materials that they do not have advanced permission from the author to reuse.;
  7. Advocate illegal activity or violence of any kind;
  8. Post commercial advertising;
  9. Advance hate of the government or of a person. We are not against the government, but against crime and injustice;
  10. Challenge the validity of the Holy Bible or its value as a law book;
  11. Ask legal questions without following the rules contained in our Guide to Asking Questions, Form #09.017,
<http://sedm.org/Membership/GuideToAskingQuestions.htm>
- [SOURCE: <http://sedm.org/forums/index.php?showforum=77>]

If you really want to ensure you are quickly and permanently banned from our Member Forums and have your posts and access deleted, then do any one or more of the following:

1. Call us, the moderator, or other members names or use cuss words in describing them. There is no room for emotions in our forums, just like there is no room for emotions in a real courtroom.
2. Accuse us or our materials of being incorrect without supplying any facts or evidence supporting the allegation. In other words:
  - 2.1. Operate entirely by emotions.
  - 2.2. Engage in political speech directed at slandering us.
3. Operate in a political mode rather than a legal mode. This includes:
  - 3.1. Calling us or our materials "frivolous" without providing legally admissible evidence that it is incorrect from the domicile of the accused party. Instead use the word "incorrect" and then provide legally admissible evidence proving WHY which is relevant to the DOMICILE of the parties involved. Every position you take should always have supporting evidence.
  - 3.2. Quoting case law from a legislatively foreign domicile outside that of the affected party. This is an abuse of case law for POLITICAL rather than LEGAL purposes.
  - 3.3. Presuming that anyone is subject to a specific statute without proving WHY or HOW they became subject. In other words, refusing to prove HOW a specific statute acquired the "force of law" against the specific party it is being enforced against.
4. Refuse to recognize the GOVERNMENT content or speech posted on this site that is admissible as evidence within our many documents as non-factual and therefore not worthy of credibility or as a basis of belief. This forces us to:
  - 4.1. Rewrite all of the materials on this site in the forums, which is an insurmountable and pointless task.
  - 4.2. Forces us to be a personal tutor for people in the forums without compensation.
5. Be lazy and presumptuous and put the entire burden of proof on the other party to avoid or evade your responsibility to prove your case with evidence. This includes:
  - 5.1. Refusing to read or rebut materials on this site that directly pertain to the subject matter, allegation, or dispute before posting your comments on the subject.
  - 5.2. Slandering other forum members and putting them on the defensive so you don't have to prove anything and they are left in the unfortunate position of proving they are NOT the thing you accuse them of being. As a practical matter, proving a negative is an impossibility.

1 People who do the above are operating in a political or religious rather than a scientific mode. They deal in opinions and
2 beliefs rather than facts and law, and therefore are beyond reason and the scientific method itself. Without facts and law
3 supporting every statement, there is no basis for rational discussion or association. All of the above tactics also represent 4 “injustice” as legally defined because they:

- 5 1. Interfere with the right of others to simply be left alone.
- 6 2. Undermine the dignity and equality of others.

7 When users violate the forum rules, we will warn them once to stop and if the request goes unheeded, then they will be
8 permanently banned. The warning will arrive via a Personal Message (PM) which is delivered by email. Please therefore 9 ensure that you keep your email address current in the forum profile so that you receive our messages.

10 Lastly, we have always welcomed lively debate and CONSTRUCTIVE criticism of our materials directed ONLY at fixing
11 what is wrong and improving the materials on the website, rather than slandering or discrediting either the author or us.
12 Attack the accuracy of the message, not the messenger, just like any lawyer would do in a courtroom. Likewise, if we 13 violate any of the forum rules, please notify us so that we can fix the content and remove the offending post. Forum 14 members police the forums.

15 We look forward to seeing and talking with you in the forums.

15.2 Constraints on all communications with and between members and with the general public

"The heart of the righteous studies how to answer [does their OWN homework], but the mouth of the wicked pours forth evil."
[Prov. 15:28, Bible, NKJV]

"The hand of the diligent will rule [be SOVEREIGN], but the lazy [or irresponsible] man will be put to forced labor. "
[Prov. 12:24, Bible, NKJV]

"Liberty means responsibility. That's why most men dread it."
[George Bernard Shaw]

"Freedom, liberty, and sovereignty are NOT spectator sports."
[SEDM]

"The price of freedom is eternal vigilance on EVERYONE'S part, not just OUR part."
[SEDM]

"You can only DESERVE or have a RIGHT to that which you are willing to GIVE and to EARN. That's a corollary to The Golden Rule in Matt. 7:12: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you. It is also a restatement of the requirement for equal protection and equal treatment that is the foundation of American jurisprudence."
[SEDM]

"A person dependent on somebody else for everything from potatoes to opinions may declare that he is a free [SOVEREIGN] man, and his government may issue a certificate granting him his freedom, but he will not be free. ... How can he be free if he can do nothing for himself? ... Men are free precisely to the extent that they are equal to their own needs. The most able are the most free."
[Wendell Berry, "Discipline and Hope" in A Continuous Harmony (1972), p. 124]

"It is good for a man to bear [experience the consequences of] the yoke [ignorance and inexperience] in his youth. "
[Lamentations 3:27, Bible, NKJV]

"Some people do not want true liberty. They want kinder masters and a more comfortable cage on the government slave plantation."
[SEDM]

Patriot v. Liberal (NO liberals allowed)

The only weapon that a corrupted government has to enslave people, short of pulling out the guns, is lies and deceit and the abuse of words of art. These tactics are thoroughly documented in:

Foundations of Freedom, Video 4: Willful Government Deception and Propaganda, Form #12.021
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

Those who seek liberation from such abuses must learn to use their tongue just as skillfully and carefully as their corrupted and stealthful government opponents.

"The tongue of the wise uses knowledge rightly, but the mouth of fools pours forth foolishness."
[Prov. 15:2, Bible, NKJV]

"A wholesome tongue is a tree of life, but perverseness in it breaks the spirit."
[Prov. 15:4, Bible, NKJV]

"Whoever guards his mouth and tongue keeps his soul from troubles."
[Prov. 21:23, Bible, NKJV]

"Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruit."
[Prov. 18:21, Bible, NKJV]

"An evildoer gives heed to false lips; A liar listens eagerly to a spiteful tongue."
[Prov. 17:4, Bible, NKJV]

Our ministry therefore observes very stringent constraints relating to all its communications with its officers and Members and other third parties. If you either attempt to contact us to ask a question using our Contact Us Page or intend to post a question you may have to our Member Forums, you are required to strictly observe these guidelines or:

1. Your offending post to the SEDM Member Forums may be flagged as a violation and eventually deleted. Before we delete it, you will be asked to repost or resubmit your question rephrased to comply with this page.
2. Your offending question may go ignored or rejected if it was submitted through our Contact Us Page.
3. You may be regarded as a careless, reckless, and presumptuous person who ultimately will be victimized by their sin and who therefore will bring reproach upon us by carelessly or presumptuously using our materials in violation of the Member Agreement protecting them. Hence, we will distance ourselves from you because of the harm or blame you will inevitably bring to us for your own self-inflicted and predictable failures and omissions.

This ministry does NOT cooperate with, condone, help, or interact with spammers, stalkers, or terrorists. Our members interact with each other on a voluntary basis founded on mutual respect and not violence, force, theft of other people's time or resources, or compulsion of any kind.

The purpose for these guidelines is to avoid and prevent the following violations of either God's law or man's law:

1. Turning people away or alienating them from learning or studying the truth. This makes their prayers and their faith an abomination per Prov. 28:9. People who ask questions that have already been answered by content on this site instead of finding the existing answer needlessly enlarge a site that is already too big and too complex. This leads to further complaints about the size and complexity of the site that discourages people from studying our materials.

"One who turns his ear from hearing the law [PDF God's law or man's law], even his prayer is an abomination."
[Prov. 28:9, Bible, NKJV]

2. Holding us to a higher standard than the government itself. Their rules prohibit anyone relying on anything they say or write other than positive law itself, so we must do the same thing in order to be on an equal playing field. See our Disclaimer and the following for details:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

3. Undermining your sovereignty. The purpose of this website is to make you entirely sovereign, independent, and self-governing in as many respects as possible. You can't be sovereign and let someone else run, or even suggest how to run, your life, nor can you or should you trust or rely on any person, ministry, or statement of any third party. We are a society of law, not men, so you shouldn't rely on men or any creation of men. The only thing you can or should rely on is legally admissible evidence published by the government and POSITIVE law which you are subject to in making a decision about what to do. This is covered both in our Member Agreement and also in the following document:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

4. Violating any part of our Member Agreement, Form #01.001.

5. The rendering of legal advice. Our Member Agreement, Form #01.001, Section 4, Item 4 strictly forbids us to give legal advice.

6. Creating the appearance that we intend to violate any law or conspire with anyone else in doing so and thereby make us the unjust and undeserving subject of a criminal investigation or enforcement activity.

7. Encouraging false presumptions by law enforcement personnel about the nature of our ministry, our members, or our activities. See:

Presumption: Chief Weapon for Unlawfully Enlarging Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.017

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

8. Misunderstandings and illegal and unconstitutional enforcement caused by abuse of “words of art”. See the following for details:

Rules of Presumption and Statutory Interpretation, Litigation Tool #01.006

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

9. Giving anyone the opportunity or excuse to blame us for their choices or actions or the consequences of their choices and actions. We are not an insurance company and we will not accept responsibility for anyone else, for ANY amount of money. See Prov. 6:1-5, Prov. 11:15, Prov. 17:18, and Prov. 22:26.

10. Rewarding or encouraging laziness and irresponsibility, which are the opposite of being sovereign and which violate God's laws. See Prov. 6:1-5, and Prov. 12:24.

11. Making assurances or guarantees of any kind about the effectiveness or success of any of the information or services we offer. Our Member Agreement, Form #01.001, Section 4, Item 6 strictly forbids us to make promises or assurances about anything. You cannot be sovereign in any sense of the word if you don't agree to take complete and exclusive responsibility for all of your choices and actions, or if you delegate decision making to anyone other than yourself for any aspect of your life. See Prov. 6:1-5, Prov. 11:15, Prov. 17:18, and Prov. 22:26.

12. Breaches of the privacy of officers of this ministry which might make us vulnerable to political or legal persecution by public servants whose illegal and/or criminal deeds are exposed by information available through our ministry. Matt. 6:3.

If you want to find out what happens to people who violate any of the above, visit the following links. We have no desire to imitate the fate of any of the people described in the following links.

1. Persecution of Tax Honesty Advocates, Family Guardian Fellowship:

<http://famguardian.org/PublishedAuthors/Govt/TaxHonestyPersecution/TaxHonPersec.htm> (OFFSITE LINK).

2. Who's Who in the Freedom Community, Form #08.009.

3. U.S. Department of Justice, Press Releases: <http://www.justice.gov/tax/TEN.htm> (OFFSITE LINK). A lot of what is said here is LIES and propaganda. For a rebuttal, see Liberty University, Section 8.

We also caution readers and members that the rules for interpreting the meaning of words and statements within all questions and comments that you make in our forums and when communicating with us or any member shall be those that appear in the following resources available on this site:

1. SEDM Disclaimer, Section 4: Definitions

2. Tax Form Attachment, Form #04.201, Section 4

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

3. Legal Notice of Change in Domicile/Citizenship Records and Divorce from the United States, Form #10.001, Section 8.6.1 and following

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

Even if you follow the protocol for asking questions documented herein, and successfully get your questions answered, be advised that our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 says that you agree to take complete, exclusive, and personal responsibility for all of your actions and choices and that you aren't allowed to believe or trust anything that anyone, including either us or those in government, says. Instead, it says that you can ONLY rely upon your own reading of the law itself as a reasonable basis for your belief. This is also covered in our memorandum of law Reasonable Belief About

Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007, which you should read. It is a biblical sin to rely on either a man or anything other than God and your own reading of His law and man's law.

*"Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man [we are a man], and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD."
[Jeremiah 17:5, Bible, KJV]*

*"That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God."
[1 Corinthians 2:5, Bible, KJV]*

*"It is better to trust in the Lord, than to put confidence in man. It is better to trust in the Lord, than to put confidence in princes [or political rulers, who are but "men"]."
[Psalm 118:8-9, Bible, NKJV]*

*"Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding [because YOU are a "man"]. In all your ways acknowledge Him, And He [RATHER THAN THE winds of political opinion] shall direct your paths."
[Prov. 3:5, Bible, NKJV]*

*"The [Moloch \[socialist\] state](#) simply represents the supreme effort of man to command [or PREDICT] the future, to predestine the world, and to be as God [which was Lucifer's original sin]. Lesser efforts, divination, spirit-questing, magic, and witchcraft, are equally anathema to God. All represent efforts to have the future on other than God's terms, to have a future apart from and in defiance of God. They are assertions that the world is not of God but of brute factuality, and that man can somehow master the world and the future by going directly to the raw materials thereof. Thus King Saul outwardly conformed to God's law by abolishing all black arts, but, when faced with a crisis, he turned to the witch of Endor (1 Sam. 28). Saul knew where he stood with God: in rebellion and unrepentant. Saul knew moreover the judgment of the law and of the prophet Samuel concerning him (1 Sam. 15:10-35). Samuel alive had declared God's future to Saul. In going to the witch of Endor, Saul attempted to reach Samuel dead, in the faith and hope that Samuel dead was now in touch with and informed concerning a world of brute factuality outside of God which could offer Saul a God-free, law-free future. But the word from the grave only underscored God's law-word (1 Sam. 28:15-19): it was the word of judgment."
[The Institutes of Biblical Law, Rousas Rushdoony, 1973, p. 35]*

If you want sovereignty and the ability to be self-governing, then you must take exclusive and personal responsibility for all your choices and actions. Sovereignty begins with personal responsibility. ALL RIGHTS and ALL sovereignty come from responsibilities to a higher power, and that higher power is God and not any vain man or government.

*"Has the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices,
As in obeying the voice of the LORD [and the people in the Constitution]?
Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice,
And to heed than the fat of rams.
For rebellion of either the [Constitution or the Bible] is as the sin of witchcraft,
And stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry.
Because you have rejected the word [and laws] of the [sovereign] LORD or "We the People" in the [Constitution],
He also has rejected you from being king [and a sovereign over your government as a private citizen, or a public servant]."
[1 Sam. 15:22-23, Bible, NKJV]*

Therefore, if you are harmed because you didn't do all your homework or didn't read all the relevant laws or more usually, because the government didn't follow the law, then you are not allowed to blame us or transfer responsibility to us for that consequence. It is human nature to try to blame or transfer responsibility to anyone but you for your own choices, but our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 says you aren't allowed to victimize us in that way. This tendency is thoroughly described in the article below:

The Unlimited Liability Universe, Family Guardian Fellowship (OFFSITE LINK)
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Spirituality/Articles/UnlimitedLiabilityUniverse.htm>

15.3 Where to post your questions

1. Questions should not be sent to our Contact Us page unless they meet the strict criteria for use of the Contact Us page found at:

Important Notice to All Who Communicate with SEDM Via Phone, Email, or This Page
<http://sedm.org/about/contact/important-notice-to-all-who-communicate-with-sedm-via-phone-email-or-this-page/>

2. The ONLY place to post Basis Member questions should be posted in the Member Forums.
3. Member Subscribers may submit their three free questions to our Contact Us Page, but only if they are personal in nature or would compromise privacy to post in the Member Forums. Otherwise, please use the Member Forums, and especially the Member Subscriber areas of the Member Forums. Generally, if you have to include personal or sensitive information in a question that would keep it out of the Member Forums, chances are you haven't phrased the question in accordance with our Guide To Asking Questions, Form #09.017. Questions with personal information in them are usually framed as a request for legal advice PROHIBITED by our Terms of Use and Service, Form #01.016, Section 4.

4. Questions should NOT be posted to your personal profile as a public or private message. If you violate this requirement, we will delete the public or private message and sent you a notice.
5. Questions should not be posed as a Comment (under Participate->Site Activity) to anything on the site. Rather, they should only be posed as an ORIGINAL topic or reply to an original topic in the Member Forums.
6. There are many reasons for this policy:
  - 6.1. You make the questions and answers difficult to find.
  - 6.2. You encourage people to ask the same question over and over because they don't already see the answer.
  - 6.3. You create way too much extra work for us in needlessly answering the same question over and over.

15.4 Your attitude determines your altitude

It's a source of great concern to us that such a large percentage of people come here and the first and most pressing concern upon their first contact with us or first post in the Member Forums is:

1. Not whether what we teach is "lawful" as they can verify for themselves by studying the massive database of supporting evidence.
2. But rather. . .
  - 2.1. How much "benefit" they personally can get out of it.
  - 2.2. How much cost or responsibility they can avoid.

The above observations also seem to explain why many Americans are more interested in getting "opinions" about the effectiveness of our materials from others that DON'T even constitute legally admissible evidence than in actually reading the laws (that ARE legal evidence) that are behind it. Such an approach betrays that they narcissistically think:

1. We are a society of men rather than law, and that men rather than law is the only thing that matters, even though the U.S. Supreme Court said exactly the opposite in Marbury v. Madison.
2. Political correctness or following "the collective" is more important than what the law actually says. See the following for details.
<https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLinIscINPTOv7LqXZcynfvZezBZEKnryc>
3. COLLECTIVE/PUBLIC rights supersede INDIVIDUAL/PRIVATE rights. This is the heart of humanism that worships men or creations of men instead of God.
4. Worshipping (paying "tithes", or tribute, or serving or supporting) Caesar is more important than worshipping God and obeying God's laws. The Bible says you aren't allowed to have an earthly king or anyone ABOVE you. 1 Sam. 8, Mark 10:43.
5. Fear is a greater motivation than love. The Bible disagrees on this in 1 John 4:8, 1 John 4:16-18.

The above motivations are the motivations of animals, not civilized humans. Animals only think about maximizing pleasure and minimizing pain. Are you an animal or a civilized human who works for a greater good than merely self? The greatest period of failure documented in the Bible book of Judges consisted entirely of people doing only what "was right in their own eyes" or what "feels good". Here is what our Bible (the Open Bible) says on this subject:

The Book of Judges stands in stark contrast to Joshua. In Joshua an obedient people conquered the land through trust in the power of God. In Judges, however, a disobedient and idolatrous people are defeated time and time again because of their rebellion against God.

In seven distinct cycles of sin to salvation, Judges shows how Israel had set aside God's law and in its place substituted "what was right in his own eyes" (21:25). The recurring result of abandonment from God's law is corruption from within and oppression from without. During the nearly four centuries spanned by this book, God raises up military champions to throw off the yoke of bondage and to restore the nation to pure worship. But all too soon the "sin cycle" begins again as the nation's spiritual temperance grows steadily colder.

The Book of Judges could also appropriately be titled "The Book of Failure."

Deterioration (1:1-3:4). Judges begins with short-lived military successes after Joshua's death, but quickly turns to the repeated failure of all the tribes to drive out their enemies. The people feel the lack of a unified central leader, but the primary reasons for their failure are a lack of faith in God and lack of obedience to Him (2:1-2). Compromise leads to conflict and chaos. Israel does not drive out the inhabitants (1:21, 27, 29, 30); instead of removing the moral cancer [IRS, Federal Reserve?] spread by the inhabitants of Canaan, they contract the disease. The Canaanite gods [money, sex, covetousness] literally become a snare to them (2:3). Judges 2:11-23 is a microcosm of the pattern found in Judges 3-16.

Deliverance (3:5-16:31). In verses 3:5 through 16:31 of the Book of Judges, seven apostasies (fallings away from God) are described, seven servitudes, and seven deliverances. Each of the seven cycles has five steps: sin, servitude, supplication, salvation, and silence. These also can be described by the words rebellion, retribution, repentance, restoration, and rest. The seven cycles connect together as a descending spiral of sin (2:19). Israel vacillates between obedience and apostasy as the people continually fail to learn from their mistakes. Apostasy grows, but the rebellion is not continual. The times of rest and peace are longer than the times of bondage. The monotony of Israel's sins can be contrasted with the creativity of God's methods of deliverance.

Depravity (17:1-21:25). Judges 17:1 through 21:25 illustrate (1) religious apostasy (17 and 18) and (2) social and moral depravity (19-21) during the period of the judges. Chapters 19-21 contain one of the worst tales of degradation in the Bible. Judges closes with a key to understanding the period: "everyone did what was right in his own eyes" (21:25) [a.k.a. "what FEELS good"]. The people are not doing what is wrong in their own eyes, but what is "evil in the sight of the Lord" (2:11).

[The Open Bible, New King James Version]

The above passage is why this ministry defines God as the only "customer". The above problem of unbiblical motivations of people who request our services is a great concern because it seems to indicate that their motivations are out of fear and selfishness, rather than the love for our neighbor that is the foundation of following God's law.

"Master, which is the greatest commandment in the law?" Jesus said to him, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law..."
[Matthew 22:36-40, Bible, NKJV]

The source of law in any society is ALWAYS the god of that society. The only way to avoid idolatry is therefore to recognize God as the ONLY source of law. See:

Why All Man-Made Law is Religious in Nature, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/LawAndGovt/ChurchVState/WhyAllManmadeLawRelig.htm>

If you make yourself into "the source of law" by doing "what is right in your own eyes", you become the false pagan god being worshipped. You also fire God as your protector, thus bringing damnation upon yourself by removing the protection of God's holy laws from your life. This is what the Bible means when it says that God "hides his face", in fact. God is LAW. That is why the Bible says on this subject:

"...in the beginning was the [WORD \[LAW\]](#), and the [WORD \[LAW\]](#) WAS with God and WAS God. . ."
[John 1:1, Bible, NKJV]

"For the Lord is our Judge,
The Lord is our Lawgiver,
The Lord is our King;
He will save us"
[Isaiah 33:22, Bible, NKJV]

What makes the Lord our KING is that He is our ONLY "lawgiver", which implies that NEITHER Caesar NOR us personally can be our lawgiver, at least from a civil perspective. This very approach was taken by the Israelites and is documented in Esther chapters 3 through 6.

Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of your kingdom; their laws are different from all other people's, and they do not keep the king's laws. Therefore it is not fitting for the king to let them remain. If it pleases the king, let a decree be written that they be destroyed, and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who do the work, to bring it into the king's treasuries."
[Esther 3:8, Bible, NKJV]

The following pastor even makes it his motto to start every speech with: "I will have NO KING, but KING JESUS."

To make things even worse, you have atheist anarchists like Larken Rose idiotically telling people that you're a fool and an idiot if you DON'T do "what is right in your own eyes"! This does nothing but further corrupt society.

Limits=Freedom, Larken Rose

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OdZMnflORNs>

These types of motivations for so many Americans may explain how the system became so corrupted to begin with and why it will continue to get MUCH worse until people change their thinking and more importantly their motivational priorities. The corruption of these priorities, in fact, is what the following minister of the gospel calls "idolatry" and the thing being narcissistically "worshipped" is "self":

Counterfeit Gods, Tim Keller

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=\_mK65lpveSM

"Enlightened self-interest" may be the foundation of capitalism and of Ayn Rand's brand of "objectivism", but it has no place in a legal field whose main purpose ought to be to protect EVERYONE EQUALLY rather than benefit only or primarily SELF. When that kind of narcissism invades our motivations for remedy in the legal field, corruption inevitably results on the scale we are now seeing. We believe this is the fatal flaw in Rand's philosophy, in fact. That corruption is documented in:

Government Corruption, Form #11.401

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

Jesus Himself explained why self-interest in the context of the moral and legal issues we fight cannot be a proper sole motivation. We are only righteous when we seek the Father's will rather than our own will or desire in the context of justice:

"My judgment is righteous, because I do not seek My own will but the will of the Father who sent Me."

[John 5:30, Bible, NKJV]

"For I have come down from heaven, not to do My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me."

[John 6:38, Bible, NKJV]

We have met the enemy and it is us. The sinful habits of man are man's worst enemy. The following sermon by a Christian preacher describes why selfishness DESTROYS spirituality:

Follow Me, Part 8: Spiritually Disoriented -Newbreak.org

<http://newbreak.org/resources/messages/follow-me/spiritually-disoriented>

Lastly, here is the blessing that God promises to all those who pursue the justice we seek with the unselfish motive of helping and protecting everyone BUT themselves.

"Because you [Solomon, the wisest man who ever lived] have asked this thing, and have not asked long life for yourself, nor have asked riches for yourself, nor have asked the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern justice, behold, I [God] have done according to your words; see, I have given you a wise and understanding heart, so that there has not been anyone like you before you, nor shall any like you arise after you. And I have also given you what you have not asked: both riches and honor, so that there shall not be anyone like you among the kings all your days. So if you walk in My [God's] ways, to keep My statutes and My commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days."

[1 Kings 3:11-14, Bible, NKJV]

15.5 Warning to lazy people who refuse to do their homework before contacting us

We meet people half way. We don't play nanny or parent or an uncompensated paralegal slave for them. We also don't reward them for being too lazy or irresponsible to at least TRY to solve their own problems before they burden others for help.

The reason things are so screwed up in our country is because laziness, irresponsibility, and a prideful and malicious sense of “entitlement” have become the norm.

“Don't go around saying the world owes you a living. The world owes you nothing. It was here first.”
[Mark Twain]

These evils are what cause many Americans to abuse their right to vote and serve on jury duty to empower evil rulers who institutionalize government theft that subsidizes and rewards their idleness and irresponsibility. We don't need more of the same within our ministry.

The price of freedom is eternal vigilance. If you don't exercise your mandatory due diligence BEFORE asking questions or BEFORE commenting on our approach, you are guaranteed to piss us off and represent yourself not only as a person who is not sovereign, but who is lazy, irresponsible, and presumptuous and not deserving of help.

*“He who answers a matter before he hears it,
It is folly and shame to him.”*
[Prov. 18:13, Bible, NKJV]

One of the main goals of this ministry is to seek “justice” as legally defined. “Justice”, in turn, is legally defined as “the right to be left alone”. It is hypocritical for YOU to seek justice in your OWN case and yet to NOT leave US alone to the maximum extent possible while attaining it for YOURSELF. Likewise, when you do contact us and violate our right to be left alone, you should feel obligated to offer something of value in return to compensate us for the use of our time, which is property that has value. That is the only way that those who are truly “sovereign” can justly interact with each other and respect each other's equal rights.

PAULSEN, ETHICS (Thilly's translation), chap. 9.

Justice, as a moral habit, is that tendency of the will and mode of conduct which refrains from disturbing the lives and interests of others [INCLUDING us], and, as far as possible, hinders such interference on the part of others. This virtue springs from the individual's respect for his fellows as ends in themselves and as his co equals. The different spheres of interests may be roughly classified as follows: body and life; the family, or the extended individual life; property, or the totality of the instruments of action; honor, or the ideal existence; and finally freedom, or the possibility of fashioning one's life as an end in itself. The law defends these different spheres, thus giving rise to a corresponding number of spheres of rights, each being protected by a prohibition. . . . To violate the rights, to interfere with the interests of others, is injustice. All injustice is ultimately directed against the life of the neighbor; it is an open avowal that the latter is not an end in itself, having the same value as the individual's own life. The general formula of the duty of justice may therefore be stated as follows: Do no wrong yourself, and permit no wrong to be done, so far as lies in your power; or, expressed positively: Respect and protect the right.
[Readings on the History and System of the Common Law, Second Edition, 1925, Roscoe Pound, p. 2]

“The makers of our Constitution undertook to secure conditions favorable to the pursuit of happiness. They recognized the significance of man's spiritual nature, of his feelings and of his intellect. They knew that only a part of the pain, pleasure and satisfactions of life are to be found in material things. They sought to protect Americans in their beliefs, their thoughts, their emotions and their sensations. They conferred, as against the Government, the right to be let alone - the most comprehensive of rights and the right most valued by civilized men.”
[Olmstead v. United States, 277 U.S. 438, 478 (1928) (Brandeis, J., dissenting); see also Washington v. Harper, 494 U.S. 210 (1990)]

“Justice [the RIGHT to be LEFT ALONE by EVERYONE, INCLUDING THE GOVERNMENT] is the end of government. It is the end of civil society. It ever has been, and ever will be pursued, until it be obtained, or until liberty be lost in the pursuit.”
[The Federalist No. 51 (1788), James Madison]

“He [God] has shown you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?”
[Micah 6:8, Bible, NKJV]

[Psa. 37:30, Bible, NKJV]

“Blessed are those who keep justice, and he who does righteousness at all times!”
[Psa. 106:3, Bible, NKJV]

There is therefore an inverse relationship between the amount of work you expend to answer or resolve your own question or issue and the amount of offense we have to helping you. The more of your own effort you expend in governing your own life and answering your own questions before contacting us, the more likely we are to not only help you, but respect and admire you.

Our website and ministry is not a dumping ground for all the tasks or problems that people are too lazy to execute or confront on their own. Those who must be spoon fed or force fed every step of the way toward freedom are lukewarm Christians who should go back to their government cage on the federal plantation and leave us alone. Christ vomits them out of His mouth (Rev. 3:16) and so do we. The Bible also says such people need AND DESERVE a nanny government.

*"Turn at my [God's] rebuke;
Surely I will pour out my spirit on you;
I will make my words known to you.
Because I have called and you refused,
I have stretched out my hand and no one regarded,
Because you disdained all my counsel,
And would have none of my rebuke,
I [God] also will laugh at your calamity;
I [God] will mock when your terror comes,
When your terror comes like a storm,
And your destruction comes like a whirlwind,
When distress and anguish come upon you.
Then they will call on me [God, or even God's servants such as us], but I will not answer;
They will seek me diligently [going to SEDM], but they will not find me.
Because they hated knowledge
And did not choose the fear of the LORD,
They would have none of my counsel
And despised my every rebuke.
Therefore they shall eat the fruit of their own way,
And be filled to the full with their own fancies.
For the turning away of the simple will slay them,
And the complacency of fools will destroy them;
But whoever listens to me [and KEEPS my commandments per John 14] will dwell safely,
And will be secure [protected], without fear of evil."
[\[Prov. 1:23-33\]](#), Bible, NKJV]*

Remember: The purpose of this website is for YOU to learn and enforce the law, and NOT for:

1. Us to become an "expert" who you rely upon to avoid learning the law. An "ex" is a has been and a "spert" is a drip under pressure.
2. Us to make a profitable business out of offering "insurance" to people who are too lazy or irresponsible to either learn the law or confront their own problems.
3. Us to become an uncompensated slave to people who are too lazy to do their own homework. Our time and labor, like any right, is property that has value. Anyone who uses it without equal consideration and express consent is stealing.

The only way you are going to learn the law, in turn, is by having an incentive and reason to study it in order to solve a problem that matters to you personally. The only thing we do by solving problems for you rather than you solving them yourself is to undermine the very purpose of this website.

Those who:

1. Want insurance or guarantees.
2. Seek prosperity or are only pursuing our services or information for personal benefit to them or for commercial benefit.
3. Think they are entitled to that which they did not earn with their own labor.
4. Seek to be legally unequal to every other American in the eyes of the civil law, or to receive "benefits", special favors, or "privileges" \(franchises\) from the government. See the video below on this subject:

Foundations of Freedom, Video 1: Introduction, Form #12.021

5. Seek emotional counseling. We aren't a counseling website, but a law enforcement site. Our forums are structured as a mock court that can discuss facts and law ONLY, and not as a source of free therapy. There is no end of people who lack confidence in themselves and who will deny any and every opportunity to take responsibility for themselves. We would therefore not have a life and would get NOTHING else done if we did this. Click on the link below for the ONLY interchange on this site which talks about such subjects. We will NOT entertain further questions on this subject.

6. Think being "entertained" with eye candy is more important than shutting off the stinking TV and taking it to the dump and using the time it frees up to READ THE LAW for themselves.

"Teach me, O LORD, the way of Your statutes [law].
And I shall keep it to the end.
Give me understanding, and I shall keep Your law;
Indeed, I shall observe it with my whole heart.
Make me walk in the path of Your commandments,
For I delight in it.
Incline my heart to Your testimonies,
And not to covetousness.
Turn away my eyes from looking at worthless things [TV].
And revive me in Your way.
Establish Your word to Your servant,
Who is devoted to fearing You.
Turn away my reproach [the corrupted de facto government] which I dread,
For Your judgments are good.
Behold, I long for Your precepts;
Revive me in Your righteousness. "
[Psalm 119:33-40, Bible, NKJV]

. . .don't belong here and will ultimately discredit themselves and the freedom community generally. You can only deserve what you are willing to give and earn. If you SOW indifference, irresponsibility, and lack of commitment on your part, you can and most assuredly will REAP it and deserve it from us. That is the Golden Rule spoken of by Jesus: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you. Click on the link below for a sermon on the Golden Rule, which you can also listen to on our Sermons Page, Section 7.11:

 Payday is Coming 2, January 2, 2013, Joyce Meyer \(OFFSITE LINK\)

Anything worth having is worth earning, and we will make sure you earn it if you expect our help. This is NOT "unchristian" or satanic, but simply God's own stated approach to freedom in the Bible. This concept also happens to be the foundation of the concept of equal protection and equal treatment under the law.

*"The hand of the diligent will rule [be sovereign and govern themselves], But the lazy [or irresponsible] man will be put to forced labor. "
[Prov. 12:24, Bible, NKJV]*

*"Go to the ant, you sluggard! Consider her ways and be wise, which, having no captain, overseer or ruler, provides her supplies in the summer, and gathers her food in the harvest, how long will you slumber, O sluggard? When will you rise from your sleep? A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep--so shall your poverty come on you like a prowler, and your need like an armed man."
[Prov. 6:6-11, Bible, NKJV]*

You shouldn't use the SEDM Forums or our Contact Us Page as a dumping ground for problems that you haven't even BEGUN to attempt to solve and have not expended any effort or research to solve. Sovereigns respect others and don't burden them unless it is absolutely necessary, and only after they have expended every possible effort to ensure that they don't burden or injure the EQUAL rights of others. That is what it means to be self-governing and self-supporting and seek "justice" as legally defined. All rights come from responsibilities, and the FIRST responsibility one has is never to injure their neighbor, and that responsibility is owed to God as one of the two Great Commandments.

We sincerely believe that evil, covetous, and tyrannical rulers are God's chosen punishment for those who refuse to take responsibility for governing themselves under His law. Who are we to interfere with that sovereign punishment by God Himself and how can we do so without committing mutiny and blasphemy against His holy name?

1 Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah, and said to him, "Look, you are old, and your sons do
2 not walk in your ways. Now make us a king to judge us like all the nations [and be OVER them]".

3 But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, "Give us a king to judge us." So Samuel prayed to the Lord. And the Lord said to
4 Samuel, "Heed the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have rejected Me [God], that I should not reign over
5 them. According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt, even to this day—with
6 which they have forsaken Me and served other gods [Kings, in this case]—so they are doing to you also [government becoming
7 idolatry]. Now therefore, heed their voice. However, you shall solemnly forewarn them, and show them the behavior of the king
8 who will reign over them."

9 So Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who asked him for a king. And he said, "This will be the behavior of the 10 king who will reign over you: He will take [STEAL] your sons and appoint them for his own chariots and to be his horsemen,
11 and some will run before his chariots. He will appoint captains over his thousands and captains over his fifties, will set some to 12 plow his ground and reap his harvest, and some to make his weapons of war and equipment for his chariots. He will take
13 [STEAL] your daughters to be perfumers, cooks, and bakers. And he will take [STEAL] the best of your fields, your vineyards,
14 and your olive groves, and give them to his servants. He will take [STEAL] a tenth of your grain and your vintage, and give it to 15 his officers and servants. And he will take [STEAL] your male servants, your female servants, your finest young men, and your 16 donkeys, and put them to his work [as SLAVES]. He will take [STEAL] a tenth of your sheep. And you will be his servants
17 [SLAVES!]. And you will cry out in that day because of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves, and the LORD will not 18 hear you in that day."

19 Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, "No, but we will have a king over us, that we also may 20 be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles."
21 [1 Sam. 8:4-20, Bible, NKJV]

29 We believe that OWNERSHIP and RESPONSIBILITY are inseparable and go together at all times. You can't OWN
30 yourself unless and until you take COMPLETE, EXCLUSIVE, and PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY for Yourself and all
31 of your choices and actions under the delegated authority of ONLY God's laws. It is the desire to evade this responsibility
32 that is the cause of ALL of the problems documented on this website AND was the very thing that got Adam and Eve
33 kicked out of the Garden of Eden and alienated from God to begin with.

34 15.6 Due Diligence: Sequence to help you find the answer to your question on your own BEFORE contacting us

35 We don't enjoy repeating ourselves if the answer is already on our website. We remind our readers and Members that only
36 the educated and vigilant are free. If you are lazy or you don't want to take as much of the responsibility for educating and
37 defending yourself as you possibly can, the Bible says you are headed for slavery and can't therefore be sovereign in any 38 sense of the word:

39 "Liberty Means Responsibility. That's why most men dread it."
40 [George Bernard Shaw]

41 "The hand of the diligent will rule, but the lazy [or irresponsible] man will be put to forced labor [slavery!]."
42 [Prov. 12:24, Bible, NKJV]

43 "Go to the ant, you sluggard! Consider her ways and be wise, which, having no captain, overseer or ruler, provides her supplies in
44 the summer, and gathers her food in the harvest, how long will you slumber, O sluggard? When will you rise from your sleep? A
45 little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep--so shall your poverty come on you like a prowler, and your need
46 like an armed man."
47 [Prov. 6:6-11, Bible, NKJV]

48 "...we should no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the 49 cunning craftiness of deceitful plotting, but speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the head—Christ."

Any good lawyer will tell you that you should NEVER ask a question that you don't already know the answer to in advance. By insisting that you exercise due diligence in answering your own question BEFORE you ask it of us, we are:

1. Getting you in the habit of being able to not only answer your own questions, but anticipate and prepare for and prosecute DISHONEST responses from the government.
2. Preventing those with any of the following motivations from consuming our valuable and limited resources and time:
  - 2.1. Seeking not information, but someone to blame so they can evade responsibility.
  - 2.2. Laziness.
  - 2.3. Humanistic fear rather than the perfect love of God.
  - 2.4. Scoffers who only want to denigrate or injure us, rather than learn and document the truth and thereby improve our materials and services for the benefit of everyone.
  - 2.5. Want a more comfortable cage as a slave than true freedom.
  - 2.6. Want to avoid the social responsibility that goes with knowing the truth.

Do not stream it directly from our website because you will over utilize our precious bandwidth. This video is also available on the opening page (<http://sedm.org>) by clicking on "WEBSITE VIDEO ORIENTATION" in big letters. The video answers just about every question you could have about how to use the website.

6. Search our Member Forums for the answer to the question, which has probably already been asked and answered previously. You will need to sign up for an account in the upper right corner to post questions.
<http://sedm.org/forums/>
7. Go to our Search Page and click on Subject Index for information about the topic you are interested in.
  - 7.1. SEDM Search Page: <http://sedm.org/Search/Search.htm>
  - 7.2. SEDM Subject Index: <http://sedm.org/Search/SubjectIndex.htm>
8. If you are faced with a specific situation that you have questions about, go to our Search Page and click on SEDM Situational Index. This page arranges information on this page by situation.
9. If you have questions about a particular subject area, you should go to SEDM Forms/Pubs, Section 1.5, download the relevant Memorandum of Law, and read it as a starting point for investigating the subject matter.
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

10. If you have questions about how to respond to a tax collection notice, go to one of the following pages:
- 10.1. Federal Response Letter Index, Form #07.301
<http://sedm.org/SampleLetters/Federal/FedLetterAndNoticeIndex.htm>
  - 10.2. State Response Letter Index, Form #07.201
<http://sedm.org/SampleLetters/States/StateRespLtrIndex.htm>
11. If none of the above resources answer your question, then and only then should you contact us with your question. We prefer that you post your question to our Member Forums and NOT our Contact Us Page.
- 11.1. You must consent unconditionally to our Member Agreement before you can join the Member Forums to post your question. See:

Member Agreement, Form #01.001
<http://sedm.org/participate/member-agreement/>
  - 11.2. The reason we insist that you post your question to the Member Forums instead of to our Contact Us Page is because we want everyone to benefit from the answer, and not just you. Otherwise, we will have to keep re-answering the same question over and over again, thus wasting our valuable time. If the answer appears in the Member Forums or the FAQs, everyone can read it and therefore will not need to ask the question again.
  - 11.3. By posting to the Member Forums rather than the Contact Us Page, you are more likely to get a diversity of answers instead of our own view of things. This facilitates more thorough peer review instead of only our view of things.
<http://sedm.org/forums/>
  - 11.4. The SEDM Contact Us Page is reserved primarily for contact relating to personal issues that would be inappropriate to talk about in a public venue, such as Member Subscriptions. See:

SEDM Contact Us Page
<http://sedm.org/about/contact/>
12. After you locate the information that addresses your question, download and read the materials and do your best to understand them.

ONLY AFTER you have executed all the above steps should you consider posting to our Member Forums for help, and when you post, please address the following issues in your question:

- 1. List all of the books you have read so far and all the people or organizations you have contacted to try to resolve this problem, and their response. This helps understand the context for the question.
- 2. Indicate how to improve our EXISTING materials on the subject to make them better at addressing your specific concern.
- 3. Come up with the best proposed solution possible to your problem based on reading the materials available here.
- 4. Post the solution you propose WITH your question and ask for feedback on whether your proposed solution is the best solution.
- 5. Ask for input on things you missed.

15.7 Why We Don't Give Legal Advice

Our Terms of Use and Service, Form #01.016, forbids us to give "legal advice" of any kind. We don't, however, explain WHY we maintain this policy. Our reasons for this policy are the following:

- 1. The beginning of sovereignty is PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY. The giving of "legal advice" permits, protects, and even encourages the TRANSFER of legal liability to the advice giver. Therefore, we would undermine our mission by the offering of "legal advice".
- 2. Those who provide "legal advice" to violent or terrorist activities can be criminally convicted for providing material support to terrorism. See:

How the Law is Used to Destroy Equality and Protect the Powerful, Noam Chomsky
<https://youtu.be/eYBJDRmSMRY>
- 3. "Sovereign citizens", of which we are NOT, are being connected to violent behavior so that they can be wrongfully associated with BEING "terrorists". This allows the government to subject them essentially to state-sanctioned terrorism. Imagine the hypocrisy of INSTITUTING state terrorism and using the FALSE allegation of YOU BEING a terrorist as the only means to justify and protect GOVERNMENT terrorism. See:

Policy Document: Rebutted False Arguments About Sovereignty, Form #08.018, Sections 6.1, and 6.2
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

15.8 Protocol for composing questions

Therefore, in all communications with us, any member of the ministry, or any third party about our ministry or the services or information that it offers, the following rules for communication must be observed in asking questions:

1. If your question requires legal research, you should do your best to find the answer yourself FIRST before asking the question, and
  - 1.1. Post with your question your proposed answer and all the evidence supporting it.
  - 1.2. Thoroughly explain and justify your proposed answer to your own question and invite others to critique and improve it.The reason for the above is to prevent people who are too lazy to do their own research from abusing and STEALING the time and resources of others. Sovereignty BEGINS with taking complete, personal, and exclusive responsibility for yourself to the fullest extent that you are able, and to help others only after they have demonstrated an EQUAL commitment to the subject matter but are at an earlier stage of development in their committed self-progress.
2. You should state that you consent unconditionally to all present and future versions of our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 and are a Member in Good Standing.
3. You must not ask a question that has already been asked and answered. Our website contains answers to hundreds of questions that have been previously asked. Please carefully read and/or search these answers before contacting us. You can read the answers at:
  - 3.1. SEDM Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs):
<http://sedm.org/support-main/faqs/>
  - 3.2. SEDM Forums, Forum #8: Questions and Answers from Members to Ministry Staff. You must become a member of this separate fellowship before you can post to this forum:
<http://sedm.org/forums/forum/8-questions-and-answers-from-members-to-ministry-staff-guests-may-view-but-not-post/>
4. You must emphasize at the end of your question that you are not asking for legal advice.
5. Questions MAY NOT:
  - 5.1. Relate to an activity prohibited by section 4 of our Member Agreement, Form #01.001.
  - 5.2. Advance or promote any of the flawed tax arguments appearing in the Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid, Form #08.004
  - 5.3. Advance or promote any of the flawed legal arguments contained in our forum entitled "Flawed Legal Arguments and Practices to Avoid".
  - 5.4. Advance or promote any of the flawed legal arguments contained in our Policy Document: Rebutted False Arguments About Sovereignty, Form #08.018.
6. If you have a several questions (lawyers call this "compound questions") in unrelated fields or subject areas, do not post them on the Member Forums in a SINGLE topic or thread. Rather, break your questions up into several separate posts filed in the appropriate areas under our forum topics. This will allow us to organize the treatment by non-overlapping subject areas to make it easier to locate for those searching the topics on our site for a quick answer to their specific issue.
7. You must ask for law and information that is pertinent to the HYPOTHETICAL and not REAL situation you describe and not to YOUR situation.
8. You should seek more than one option in pursuing the course that you want to undertake, with the goal of deciding for yourself based on the best information available, which is the best option. You can share your choice and the reasons for your choice on our forums if you like.
9. If you refer to anyone other than us in your question, you have to refer to them as "a human being" or "a hypothetical human being" who is a Member and not a statutory "person", "U.S. citizen", "U.S. person", "inhabitant", "taxpayer", etc.
10. You may not ask any ministry officer personally or individually does in a given situation. This would breach our privacy and invite government persecution of the ministry or its officers. That persecution would likely come from public servants whose illegal and/or criminal deeds are exposed by information available through this website.
11. You should avoid "words of art" or at least qualify their meaning when you use them. See the following for examples of "words of art":
  - 11.1. Sovereignty Forms and Instructions Online, Form #10.004: Cites by Topic
<http://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/FormsInstr-Cites.htm> (OFFSITE LINK)
  - 11.2. Great IRS Hoax, Form #11.302, Section 3.9.1:
<http://famguardian.org/Publications/GreatIRSHoax/GreatIRSHoax.htm>
12. You should avoid "privileged" words. See

Sovereignty Forms and Instructions Online, Form #10.004, Instructions, Step 2.6:

<http://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/Instructions/2.6WatchLanguageWithGovt.htm>

13. You should avoid all the following language in your question, all of which create the impression that you are seeking legal advice:
- 13.1. You should not ask us to approve, sanction, or condone your choice. You can inform us of your choice and the consequences of your choice, but you should not expect us to approve of or condone it.
- 13.2. You aren't allowed to personalize questions, refer to "I", or "me" or "my" in your question. Instead, use the phrase "a hypothetical sovereign" in place of these words. The only pronoun you can use is "you" and be referring to us.
- 13.3. You cannot use the words "should" or "must" in a question. That would constitute advice. Instead, you have to use the word "may" or "might".
- 13.4. You should not ask us for our "opinion" on any subject. We don't share "opinions" when responding to legal questions. The only thing we will talk about or want to talk about, both in person and in the forums, is WHAT THE LAW ACTUALLY SAYS about the subject you are discussing, whether the interested party is the proper subject of that law, and what kind of law it is: Private/special law or public law.
14. You should not base your criteria for acceptance of any proposition based on OPINIONS of third parties. The only thing you should post in the forums or provide as a basis for belief is evidence that satisfies the court rules of evidence for the forum in question. Don't cite what your family member or friend says or even what your attorney says. WE DON'T CARE about OPINIONS of third parties, including anyone in the government or the IRS or even the legal profession about a given subject. This is what the courts call "political speech" and it is NOT evidence. The reason WE DON'T CARE about opinions of third parties is because they are not admissible as evidence in any legal proceeding, and we ONLY make decisions based on what the courts says constitutes legally admissible evidence on the subject matter. Rather, please keep your discussion focused ONLY on WHAT THE LAW says or what a court says in the jurisdiction one is referring to. The reasons are:
- 14.1. True constitutional courts cannot entertain "political questions". An example of a "political question" is one involving a religious belief or an "opinion", even from an expert. Under Federal Rule of Evidence 610, religious beliefs or opinions are not admissible as evidence. See:

Political Jurisdiction, Form #05.004

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 14.2. The U.S. Supreme Court has declared that "we are a society of law, not men" (Marbury v. Madison). Hence, the OPINIONS of men are irrelevant and ONLY what the law actually says is relevant when interpreted using the STRICT rules of statutory construction and interpretation. Even the law itself can be irrelevant if it is a private law franchise and it is being cited against someone who is NOT the subject of the franchise. See:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 14.3. The only "courts" that can act in a political capacity are administrative franchise courts in the Executive and not Judicial branch who are arbitrating disputes INSIDE the government EXCLUSIVELY among fellow public officers. PRIVATE parties not consensually engaged in franchises are committing a crime of impersonating a public officer in violation of 18 U.S.C. §912 to enter into franchise courts. Franchise courts include family court, traffic court, and tax court. Members are NOT allowed to participate in government franchises and therefore are NOT allowed to employ such "pseudo courts" in any dispute against a government officer or to quote or use the rulings of such "pseudo courts" in their defense.
15. You should not ask any questions of the following nature:
- 15.1. What's the "best" way to _____. "best" is subjective and depends on what your goals are.
- 15.2. What "works" [or works best] to do _____. "works" is a subjective.
- 15.3. What is the most "successful" way to _____. Instead, ask for options to accomplish a task and you decide what is best. The word "successful" is subjective.
16. The best way to rephrase questions is to use the following form:

"What are some options that you would investigate if you were in the hypothetical situation described, which is not necessarily my situation?"

15.9 Examples of how to ask questions

We emphasize some of the above in our Member Agreement, Form #01.001. Below is a sample question format:

Dear SEDM,

I am a consenting Member in good standing who is following the Path to Freedom, Form #09.015 and has completed up to step 14 of section 2 of that document. I will not use SEDM materials or services in connection with a tax liability for any tax year in which I was not in full compliance with the Member Agreement or which occurred before I completed the steps in section 2 of the Path to Freedom.

I have already exhausted all options for obtaining an answer by following the Guide to Asking Questions, Form #09.017, section 2. I am approaching you as a last resort to obtain an answer that I cannot find anywhere else.

I do not seek legal advice and I will not interpret your response as legal advice. Rather, I seek education and corroborating information useful in making my own educated choices.

Since I am asking a tax question, I have signed up for Member Subscriptions using order number _____ as of _____ (date).

My question(s) relate to the following hypothetical situations:

1.

Thanks,

John Doe

Let us give you a few examples to illustrate: The forbidden "advice" words are in red and the statement on the right removes them.

Table 8: Approved Methods for Asking Questions

#	Bad way to ask the question	Right way to ask the question.	Reason
1	What should I do?	1. What would you do if you were in the hypothetical situation I just described? 2. What law and other information might be pertinent to a hypothetical person in the situation I just described?	You can't personalize your questions because then the answers become legal advice. You can't use "should" or "must", nor can you use pronouns like "I", "Me", "My", etc.
2	I am going to. . .	This hypothetical person might do. . .	You can't personalize your questions because then the answers become legal advice.
3	The IRS told my employer . . .	What if the IRS told a private employer . . .	Only "public officers" have "employers". You can't be a Member and also be a "public officer". See Federal and State Tax Withholding Options for Private Employers, Form #09.001
4	Is there anything else I should do ?	Is there anything that a person in the situation I described can study on this website that might help them?	You need information to study, not advice. We aren't an insurance company and we can't act as your parent or legal representative. The most we can do is point you to law and other information that might be helpful and relevant, but we can't advise or insure or indemnify you against your own mistakes.
5	Why should I trust or believe what you say or that it is factual or truthful?	What law is consistent with what you just said? Where and how can I find that law so I can read it myself?	The only reasonable basis for believing ANYTHING on this website is your own reading of the law, and not anything we or anyone else says, including government employees or publications.

#	Bad way to ask the question	Right way to ask the question.	Reason
6	1. How many people have been successful using this technique?  2. Will that "work"?	Is what you just described completely consistent with what the law says? Where does the law say that? Why doesn't the IRS follow the law on this subject?	"Success" and "work" are very subjective words and everyone has a different definition. We aren't allowed to share personal information about other members and we don't compile statistics on the success of the techniques and laws described on this website because each person has a different definition of success. We aren't an insurance company. All we can do is show you the law that is pertinent to help you live within its limitations, or to explain why that law is pertinent to a certain circumstance.

One last very important point. Even if you follow the protocol for asking questions above, and successfully get your questions answered, be advised that our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 says that you agree to take complete, exclusive, and personal responsibility for all of your choices and that you aren't allowed to believe anything that anyone, including either us or those in government, says. Instead, it says that you can ONLY rely upon your own reading of the law itself as a reasonable basis for your belief. This is also covered in our memorandum of law Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007, which you should read. If you want to be a sovereign, then you must take exclusive and personal responsibility for all your choices and actions. Sovereignty begins with personal responsibility. Therefore, if you are harmed because you didn't do all your homework or didn't read all the relevant laws or more usually, because the government didn't follow the law, then you are not allowed to blame us or transfer responsibility to us for that consequence. It is human nature to try to blame or transfer responsibility to anyone but you for your own choices, but our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 says you aren't allowed to victimize us in that way. This tendency is thoroughly described in the article below:

The Unlimited Liability Universe, Family Guardian Fellowship (OFFSITE LINK)
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Spirituality/Articles/UnlimitedLiabilityUniverse.htm>

If you fail to abide by the rules or any part of the rules for asking questions documented herein, then:

1. Your offending post to the Member Forums will either be flagged as a violation, or deleted.
2. Your offending question will go ignored or rejected if it was submitted through our Contact Us Page.
3. The rules for interpreting the meaning of your words and statements shall be those that appear in the following:
  - 3.1. Tax Form Attachment, Form #04.201, Section 4
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
  - 3.2. Legal Notice of Change in Domicile/Citizenship Records and Divorce from the United States, Form #10.001, Section 8.6.1 and following
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
4. You will be regarded as a careless, reckless, and presumptuous person who ultimately will be victimized by their sin and who therefore will bring reproach upon us by carelessly or presumptuously using our materials in violation of the SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001 protecting them. Hence, we will distance ourselves from you because of the harm or blame you will inevitably bring to us for your own self-inflicted failures and omissions.

15.10 Things we CAN and CAN'T help you with

Below is a list of situations that we CAN'T help you with. Please don't contact us if you are in this situation.

#	Situation	Why We CAN'T help You	Circumstances when we CAN help you
1	TAX WITHHOLDING AND REPORTING (requires Compliance Questionnaire, Section 16.3)

#	Situation	Why We CAN'T help You	Circumstances when we CAN help you
1.1	My private financial institution or private employer is forcing me to get a Social Security Number or Taxpayer Identification Number as a human being. I need your help prosecuting them because I don't qualify.	If you didn't use our Form #06.002 to quit social security or our Form #04.401 to notify the company that their request is illegal, we can't help you.	If you used our Resignation of Compelled Social Security Trustee , Form #06.002 to quit social security and our Why It is Illegal for Me to Request or Use a "Taxpayer Identification Number" , Form #04.205 to notify the company that their request is illegal, and you have third party Certified Mail proof and a Certificate of Service that they were sent, we would be happy to help you.
1.2	My private employer won't accept my withholding document and I want help suing them in court because they are now STEALING from my pay.	Not applicable	If you have Certified Mail PROOF and a Certificate of Service that you submitted or New Hire Paperwork Attachment , Form #04.203 or AMENDED IRS Form W-8BEN and they REFUSED to honor it, then they are violating the law and we would be happy to help you litigate against the private employer. You must FIRST, however, complete the first sixteen steps of section 2 or else your walk won't match your talk.
1.3	You filed a W-4 or W-4 Exempt and they are levying your "wages"	You're a "taxpayer" and we can't help "taxpayers".	If you have Certified Mail PROOF and a Certificate of Service that you submitted or New Hire Paperwork Attachment , Form #04.203 or AMENDED IRS Form W-8BEN and they REFUSED to honor it, then they are levying illegally and we can help you because you don't earn "wages" and levy can only be on "wages" and not ALL EARNINGS.
1.4	Employer is levying your Social Security benefits	You're a "taxpayer". You're also in violation of our Member Agreement, which requires you to QUIT social security using Form #06.002. 26 U.S.C. §861(a)(8) and 26 U.S.C. §871(a)(3) say Social Security benefits are "gross income", even for nonresident aliens not engaged in the "trade or business" franchise. It's THEIR money and they can keep as much of it as they want.	None
2	INTERACTIONS WITH FEDERAL AND STATE TAX AGENCIES (requires Compliance Questionnaire, Section 16.3)
2.1	I want a statutory refund pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7422 and they won't give it to me.	You're a "taxpayer". Only "taxpayers" can cite or use the protections of the I.R.C. in their defense.	None
2.2	I want a non-statutory refund under equity as a nonresident alien not engaged in a "trade or business" for earnings ILLEGALLY withheld	Not applicable	All
2.3	I want to enjoin ILLEGAL collection action as a "nontaxpayer"	If you haven't followed our checklist in Section 2, you're a "taxpayer".	If you have followed our checklist in Section 2.
2.4	I need to respond to an IRS notice as a "taxpayer"	You're a "taxpayer" and we can't help "taxpayers".	None

#	Situation	Why We CAN'T help You	Circumstances when we CAN help you
2.5	I got one of your response letters and later found out they are for "nontaxpayers" and I am a "taxpayer". I need help modifying it to fit my circumstances.	We can't help "taxpayers". All response letters are non-refundable. Caveat emptor. Read our Response Letter FAQs BEFORE you get them. Your fault.	None
2.6	I think the Internal Revenue Code is unconstitutional and I want your help to litigate that in court and/or notify the IRS and the government.	You're absolutely mistaken and you are a fool. It's perfectly constitutional. What is unconstitutional and unlawful is the way it is unlawfully enforced and misrepresented to the American public. You are headed for HUGE trouble and we want no part of it.	None
3	RIGHT TO TRAVEL
3.1	You are being prosecuted for driving without a license	Not applicable	All cases.
3.2	You want to fight a traffic ticket.	Not applicable	All cases
4	MARRIAGE
4.1	We need help drafting a marriage contract that avoids a marriage license.	Not applicable	All cases.
4.2	We want to get married without a marriage license.		See our Sovereign Christian Marriage , Form #06.009
5	LITIGATION
5.1	We need paralegal litigation support.	Not applicable	All cases.

If you are an atheist, don't bother contacting us for ANYTHING. There's a warm place reserved for you where the sun doesn't shine.

15.11 How to increase the likelihood that you will receive help

You are much more likely to get help from us or others if you offer something of equal value in return. That thing of value can take many forms and helps remind others that you care about them, and that you respect and want to protect their equality, dignity, and self-ownership. You can only deserve help if you are willing to give it and have given it in the past. Likewise, there is no end of people who want to over utilize our services because we are a nonprofit ministry and they think everything is free. We have grown weary and might have to disestablish this website because there are so few people who offer anything in return for the services or information they demand. In some cases people even try guilt trips to make us feel guilty for not helping them, even though they refuse to follow their own advice and equal obligation to help us. That kind of guilt mafia is just as bad as the corrupt practices of the present government. A sense of entitlement, in fact, is the foundation of socialism itself and is the main reason why governments have become corrupt and grown so large: to redistribute the wealth that OTHERs think they are entitled to without trying to earn it.

Yes, sovereigns can and should help each other, but they should do so with the idea of never being a burden to others and of offering something of EQUAL value in return. That is called "symbiosis" in nature, and it is the only way to reinforce and protect the notion that we are all equal, in fact. It is also the foundation of the idea of justice itself, which is the right to be "left alone". When you ask for help from others, you disturb their right to be left alone and should feel a corresponding obligation to compensate them in some way for disturbing that absolute right.

If you want to offer others things of value to encourage other members and us to help you and thereby increase the likelihood of getting help, we suggest the following approach:

1. Hang out in our Member Forums and offer free help to others, just like you demand from them. That is a great way to learn. Lawyers MUST do it before they can "practice law" and it's called "clerking". In effect, they offer pro bono legal help as interns and "paralegals".
2. Contribute your list of errata of errors you have found in our materials to our Member Forums, Forum 9.4. This will tell us that you are reading and learning our materials, and care about their accuracy and quality, and want to prevent others from being victimized by any errors.
3. Obtain the book that addresses your issue in our Member Bookstore and read it before posting questions in our Member Forums. This will prevent us from having to rewrite the book many times over in the forums. For instance, if your question pertains to right to travel, get our Defending Your Right to Travel, Form #06.010 from the bookstore and read it. Then only post questions to the Member Forums about subjects that are NOT covered in the book.
4. Make a donation to our Donate page. This will help us improve our site and feed our face so we can be here to help you.
5. Become a Member Subscriber if you need more than trivial help. This will incentivize us to provide non-trivial, ongoing, quality support for your problems.
6. Send us your research through our Contact Us page or post it in the Member Forums as an attachment. This will save us the work of having to create new content to post on our website. We will review it, make needed corrections, and post it so others can reuse it. This is a team effort, not a dictatorship!
7. Read our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 before interacting in the Contact Us page or the Member Forums and conform your communications with our policies. Don't come in like a bull in a china shop who doesn't give a damn about us or our rules, and beat your chest and demand free help regardless of the needs of others. Don't ask for "advice" because we can't and won't give it. Loose lips sink ships.

15.12 How to GUARANTEE that you will be banned from our Member Forums and our site

Even though we are a religious ministry, our approach toward law and government is extremely empirical. Every claim people make in our Member Forums about law or government must be supported by evidence admissible in court. The foundation of reason, logic, and discussion with our members both in the Member Forums and in person in fact is legal evidence rather than belief or opinion. Our Member Forums function as a mock court in which everything said about law and government must be supported with legally admissible evidence. You aren't allowed to share beliefs or opinions in a courtroom because they violate the Federal Rules of Evidence. Therefore you can't do so in our Member Forums if you are talking about law or government. We do this to help train our members how to think rationally, logically, and empirically so that they are more effective in court when defending their rights.

Most Americans, on the other hand, receive no formal legal training in grammar school or high school or even college and are therefore unable to distinguish a belief or opinion from a legally admissible fact or evidence. They are not taught to think or debate rationally, logically, empirically, or scientifically and their first exposure to this subject often is our site. On the other hand, we tell people that:

"Opinions are like assholes. Everyone has one and they ALL stink."

Avoidance of opinions is why we avoid live debates or talk shows: Because they are usually devoid of evidence or research and primarily focus on opinions that we don't care about. Our approach to insisting on facts and evidence and avoiding opinions commonly causes problems in the Member Forums because these legal neophytes come into the Member Forums with strong preconceived PRESUMPTIONS, opinions, or beliefs that they falsely think are "facts", and refuse to take responsibility for proving that their beliefs are factually correct using evidence. In the legal field, such presumptions are a violation of due process of law and may not be entertained in a courtroom so they can't be entertained in our Member Forums. An important purpose of our materials is to PREVENT such violations of due process of law not only by the government, but also by our Members.

*"Ignorance more frequently begets confidence [and presumptions] than does knowledge."
[Charles Darwin (1809-1882) 1871]*

*"Believing [PRESUMING without checking the facts and evidence] is easier than thinking. Hence so many more believers than thinkers."
[Bruce Calvert]*

*"What luck for rulers that men do not think"
[Adolf Hitler]*

1       "Prejudices, it is well known, are most difficult to eradicate from the heart whose soil has never been loosened or fertilized by
2       education; they grow there, firm as weeds among stones. "
3       [Charlotte Bronte]

4       "He who knows nothing is closer to the truth than he whose mind is filled with falsehoods and errors."
5       [Thomas Jefferson]

6       These same neophyte people often also do not read this document or study our materials BEFORE they shoot off at the 7       mouth and make unsupported claims in our Member Forums. In effect, they behave as bulls in a China shop by not
8       learning the basic rules of interaction of our ministry before joining and posting in the Member Forums. This causes the 9       forums to be filled with false and/or presumptuous statements that mislead, confuse, deceive, or alienate our members. It is
10      our responsibility to challenge these factually false or unsupported statements and keep them out of our Member Forums
11      not because we want to censor people or because we are afraid of being proven wrong, but rather because we don't want
12      our members to get off to a bad start or become confused, frustrated, or alienated. We always say that a confused mind
13      always says no and avoids us.

14      We want all of our materials and the content of the Member Forums to at all times be consistent with themselves, with the 15      law, and with all the evidence on our site to avoid "cognitive dissonance". We do this because we tell people that the truth
16      cannot conflict with itself or the facts and we want to provide only truth to them. We therefore prevent presumptuous,
17      erroneous, or "lazy thinking" by insisting that Member Forum participants provide legally admissible evidence to support
18      every claim they make in the Member Forums, and especially if their claim relates to something that we know to be a false
19      argument. If they refuse to provide the evidence to support their incorrect or presumptuous position and it is a known and
20      documented false argument, we sometimes have to delete their post. We have taken great care to document all the false 21      arguments, which you can read for yourself at:

22      If you want to GUARANTEE that you will be permanently banned from our forums, here is the approach you should take:

- 23      1. Be a lazy, undisciplined thinker who is unable to distinguish a fact from an opinion or belief.
- 24      2. Refuse to learn or read our policies and this document before engaging us. This makes you a bull in a China shop.
- 25      3. Complain about the content or length of our materials but offer no constructive suggestions about how to improve 26      them. This makes you a whiner trying to slander or discredit us.
- 27      4. Play stupid and ignorant and force us or other members to spoon feed you everything you need to know. Then, if it 28      doesn't work, blame them instead of taking responsibility for all your own actions or choices. This will demonstrate 29      that you don't really want education or learning, but rather insurance so you can make others into involuntary surety
30      for your own actions and choices. That's SLAVERY.
- 31      5. Post questions in our forums asking us to:
  - 32          5.1. Waive the requirements of our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 or make special exceptions for you from any 33          of its provisions. We DO NOT make exceptions!
  - 34          5.2. Violate a law.
  - 35          5.3. Condone, approve, or engage in violent or injurious behavior toward anyone, and especially toward a 36          government.
  - 37          5.4. Steal from the government by refusing to pay taxes, but at the same time trying to protect your eligibility to 38          receive government "benefits".
- 39      The above will betray you as a government mole or informant trying to slander us or shut us down. You better read
40      our mandatory Member Agreement, Form #01.001 because it will cause you to commit commercial suicide the minute
41      you step on the witness stand.
- 42      6. Have an arrogant and closed mind that does not respond to evidence and will not entertain any opinion OTHER than 43      yours, even if yours is proven wrong with evidence. This:
  - 44          6.1. Makes you REALLY high maintenance.
  - 45          6.2. Wastes valuable time that people could be spending on more productive and CONSTRUCTIVE things.
  - 46          6.3. Pisses off our members and causes them to avoid the Member Forums.
- 47      7. Join our Member Forums and don't look at the warnings at the top of each topic about content that is unacceptable.
48      This will give us the idea that you don't give a damn about anyone but yourself and are a narcissist.

8. When posting questions, don't even bother trying to find the answer yourself using the following BEFORE posting your question, but rather be lazy and force another member to do your work for you. This will piss off not only us, but other members as well, who will avoid you.

Guide to Asking Questions, Form #09.017
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

9. In your Member Forum posts shoot off at the mouth about a known flawed argument listed in Section 8 of or Forms and Pubs page above. This will betray you as an arrogant, presumptuous, or lazy fool.

"A prudent man foresees evil and hides himself, But the simple pass on and are punished."
[Prov. 22:3, Bible, NKJV]

10. When inevitably challenged to produce legally admissible EVIDENCE that your argument is FACTUALLY correct, refuse to take responsibility for proving your claim and refuse to post evidence. Since we tell people that PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY is the FOUNDATION of being "sovereign", then indirectly you are proving you are INCAPABLE of being sovereign because you refuse to take responsibility for defending your beliefs WITH EVIDENCE. It is irrational to expect that you can "own" a belief without taking responsibility for defending it. Ownership and responsibility always go together.
11. Continue to vociferously, arrogantly, emotionally, and irrationally state that your opinion is the TRUTH. You will immediately be branded as an ARROGANT ASS. We will no doubt respond to your irrational approach by deleting all your posts in the thread UNTIL you produce legally admissible evidence PROVING your position.

"A wise man fears and departs from evil, But a fool rages [is overly emotional and irrational] and is self-confident."
[Prov. 14:16, Bible, NKJV]

12. Instead of apologizing for your presumptuous beliefs or proving they are correct with evidence, you continue to arrogantly insist they are true without proof because you care more about being "right" than about being TRUTHFUL. This proves that you are completely immune to logic, reason, or evidence, or truth. In effect, you are worshipping yourself as a form of idolatry because you want to be better than everyone else. The bible calls these people "scoffers":

"He who corrects a scoffer gets shame for himself, And he who rebukes a wicked man only harms himself."

"Do not correct a scoffer, lest he hate you; Rebuke a wise man, and he will love you."
[Prov. 9:7-8, Bible, NKJV]

"Judgments are prepared for scoffers, And beatings for the backs of fools."
[Prov. 19:29, Bible, NKJV]

"A proud and haughty man— "Scoffer" is his name; He acts with arrogant pride."
[Prov. 21:24, Bible, NKJV]

13. When your follow-on posts inevitably get deleted because you refuse to produce evidence PROVING your position is correct, say that our ministry and our Member Forums are a SHAM and a FRAUD. This will immediately PISS US OFF.
14. We will then respond to your abusive irrational behavior by deleting your account and adding your email address to our spam list so you can't EVER re-register in the forums again. We will then send you an email stating that you have been permanently banned and blacklisted from our site.

"Cast out the scoffer, and contention will leave; Yes, strife and reproach will cease."
[Prov. 22:10, Bible, NKJV]

We have seen the above happen more frequently than we would like. We are explaining this problem to you so that it doesn't repeat itself. Caveat emptor.

Minds are like parachutes: They only work when they are OPEN. The thing that minds need to remain OPEN to is FACTS AND EVIDENCE, which are empirical TRUTH. The reason that pride is the greatest sin in the Bible<sup>31</sup> is because it:

1. Closes minds.
2. Alienates us from others.
3. Makes people completely resistant to the truth so that they cannot learn or improve or repent.
4. Causes people and even societies to become susceptible to great calamities and crises because they refuse to adapt, learn, or improve based on their mistakes.<sup>32</sup>

We strongly admonish you to not fall victim to the pride and vanity that is at the heart of all presumptuous behavior, opinions, and beliefs. Don't presume ANYTHING. Prove and verify ALL things for yourself by insisting on facts to prove EVERYTHING. We tell people to always challenge and question authority and that challenge goes BOTH ways. You will be challenged in our forums just as frequently as you challenge others in your interactions with the government because:

1. You need practice in how to both challenge and defend challenges.
2. We don't want you to be a hypocrite who refuses to eat the dish he or she serves to others.
3. We want you to get used to being treated EQUALLY rather than being superior to everyone else like the elitists in the de facto government. That's the Golden Rule laid down by Jesus: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you. Luke 6:31.

You can't rationally challenge or question authority, however, without ALSO challenging and questioning the naked and usually unsupported presumptions that are frequently the ONLY reason that people believe that authority exists to begin with.

"Be diligent to [investigate and expose the truth for yourself and thereby] present yourself [and the public servants who are your fiduciaries and stewards under the Constitution] approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word [and the deeds] of truth. But shun profane babblings [government propaganda, tyranny, and usurpation] for they will increase to more ungodliness. And their message [and their harmful effects] will spread like cancer [to destroy our society and great Republic]."
[2 Tim. 2:15-17, Bible, NKJV]

"The greatest enemy of the truth is very often not the lie - deliberate, contrived and dishonest - but the myth - persistent, persuasive and unrealistic."
[President John F. Kennedy, at Yale University on June 11, 1962]

"Who can understand his errors? Cleanse me from secret faults. Keep back Your servant also from presumptuous sins; Let them not have dominion over me. Then I shall be blameless, and I shall be innocent of great transgression."
[Psalm 19:12-13, Bible, NKJV]

Our insistence on evidence at every step of a proceeding and our insistence on sanctioning those who refuse to produce evidence is no different than how courts treat litigants. Those who refuse to prove their case and proceed upon opinion and belief absent evidence are very commonly sanctioned by courts for their presumptuous behavior. Those who behave presumptuously are called "vexatious litigants":

VEXATIOUS. Without reasonable or probable cause or excuse. Gardner v. Queen Ins. Co. of America, 232 Mo.App. 1101, 115 S.W.2d. 4, 7.

VEXATIOUS PROCEEDING. Proceeding instituted maliciously and without probable cause. Paramount Pictures v. Blumenthal, 256 App.Div. 756, 11 N.Y.S.2d. 768, 772. Kind of malicious prosecution differing principally because based on civil action. Calvo v. Bartolotta, 112 Conn. 396, 152 A. 311. When the party bringing proceeding is not acting bona fide, and merely wishes to annoy or embarrass his opponent, or when it is not calculated to lead to any practical result. Such a proceeding is often described as "frivolous and vexatious," and the court may stay it on that ground. Sweet.
[Black's Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, pp. 1736-1737]

The U.S. Code even makes vexatious litigation a crime. If you wouldn't do it to a judge, then you shouldn't do it to a forum moderator in the mock court that is our Member Forums.

<sup>31</sup> On this subject, the Bible says: "Pride goes before destruction, And a haughty spirit before a fall." Prov. 16:18, NKJV.

<sup>32</sup> The Bible talks about the calamities that befall arrogant and presumptuous people and societies in Isaiah 30:8-14.

18 U.S.C. §1589 - Forced labor

(a) Whoever knowingly provides or obtains the labor or services of a person by any one of, or by any combination of, the following means—

[ . . . ]

(3) by means of the abuse or threatened abuse of law or legal process; or shall be punished as provided under subsection (d).

[ . . . ]

Lastly, we wish to emphasize that we don't mind being proven incorrect. We welcome it, in fact.

"Rebuke a wise man, and he will love you."
[Prov. 9:8, Bible, NKJV]

We aren't prideful and we don't feel a need to be "better" than anyone else nor do we fear being thought of as inferior because we might have been incorrect at some point.

"Pride goes before destruction, And a haughty spirit before a fall."
[Prov. 16:18, Bible, NKJV]

Making mistakes is a natural part of the learning and growing process that should characterize your entire life. People prove us incorrect all the time and when we are proven incorrect with evidence, we immediately apologize and change our position and update all our materials accordingly. The very purpose of existence of this ministry and this website, among other things, is to ensure that everything we say and do can be validated and verified with facts and evidence and to inform us when we are behaving presumptuously or incorrectly. We therefore are not expecting more out of our Members than we expect out of ourself or than God expects out of us. The foundation of "fellowship", "families", and even FREEDOM itself<sup>33</sup>, in fact, is that ALL are equal under the law and that no one is better or more important than anyone else.

"fellowship 3: a company of equals or friends"
[Webster's Dictionary]

15.13 Frequently Asked Question: Why won't someone from the ministry call and talk to me BEFORE I become a Member?

"I love the man that can smile in trouble, that can gather strength from distress, and grow brave by reflection. 'Tis the business of little minds to shrink; but he whose heart is firm, and whose conscience approves his conduct, will pursue his principles unto death. My own line of reasoning is to myself as straight and clear as a ray of light. "

"All truths pass through 3 stages: 1. First it is ridiculed; 2. Second it is violently opposed; 3. Third it is accepted as self-evident. 97% of people WAIT [as SPECTATORS] until the 'truth' has become self-evident to either believe it or to ACT upon it. Freedom is NOT a spectator sport and we don't talk to or certainly help spectators because we don't want to protect or reward COWARDS."

NOTE:

People who are contacting us for any of the following purposes are NOT the subject of this section:

1. Bring copyright violations on this site or the Family Guardian sister site to our attention.
2. Contact us for an interview as a member of the media.
3. Bring errata in our materials to our attention.
4. Ask questions about our ministry.
5. Ask about whether you qualify for membership or the obligations or "benefits" of membership.
6. Contact us for a media or press interview. Read our Media Press Kit, Form #01.014 on how to do this.

QUESTION:

I am not yet a member. I'm trying to learn more about sovereignty to see if its right for me. I have had so many people tell me so many different things and all the different sites doesn't help either. Trying to understand but it's like no one is willing to talk to you without the right credentials.

ANSWER:

Welcome. The reason you are having so much trouble is because you are relying on men rather than reading the law for yourself. You have become a slave to public opinion and political correctness and will never liberate yourself and your mind unless and until you quit listening to others and read the law for yourself.

Since you are confused or reluctant about how our information and services compare with others, please consult the following, which contains hundreds of pages of resources comparing our offerings with that of others and pointing out inaccurate positions of others:

Path to Freedom, Form #09.015, Section 7.2
<http://sedm.org/forums/>

Beyond that, if you want to interact, go to the Member Forums. You must be a Member to join, but membership is free.

<http://sedm.org/forums/>

Our Member Agreement, Form #01.001, Section 3 says you aren't allowed to believe anything that either we or any man says and can only trust what the law says, so it's pointless to talk at this stage before you make an informed and INDEPENDENT decision to become a Member. Our Member Agreement, Form #01.001, Section 2.1 also says that your decision to join was made completely independently by reading the law for yourself. All we would do by calling you before you make your decision is to unduly influence that decision and undermine or invalidate what the agreement says. The bottom of our Contact Us Page also says we don't call to just talk to people, and especially not to non-members who are presumed to be "statutory taxpayers" until they indicate otherwise by becoming a Member. We won't let you sit on the fence or receive blessings of our individual help that you aren't willing to earn with equal consideration. Christ took the same approach when He said the following and we are just emulating His wise approach:

"He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters abroad."
[Luke 12:30, Bible, NKJV]

"So then, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit you out of My mouth."
[Rev. 3:16, Bible, NKJV]

Talk is cheap and people who make decisions based on talk rather than exclusively reading the law themselves always end up in trouble.

"Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man [we are a man], and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD."
[Jeremiah 17:5, Bible, KJV]

1 "It is better to trust in the Lord, than to put confidence in man. It is better to trust in the Lord, than to put confidence in princes
2 [or political rulers, who are but "men"]."
3 [Psalm 118:8-9, Bible, NKJV]

4 "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding [because YOU are a "man"]. In all your ways
5 acknowledge Him, And He [RATHER THAN THE winds of political opinion] shall direct your paths. "
6 [Prov. 3:5, Bible, NKJV]

7 All you prove by insisting on someone to talk to rather than reading the law for yourself and reaching your own conclusions
8 INDEPENDENTLY and then becoming a member is that:

- 9 1. You want the "benefits" of knowledge without any of the risks or liabilities. In short: You want something for nothing,
10 which is the foundation of SOCIALISM. Recall that Babylon the Great Harlot is a THIEF (Rev. 18:6), and everyone
11 who wants or expects something for nothing is a THIEF.

12 "Araunah said to David, 'Let my lord the king take whatever he wishes and offer it up. Here are oxen for the burnt offering, and 13 here are threshing sledges and ox yokes for the wood. Your Majesty, Araunah gives all this to the king.' Araunah also said to him,
14 'May the Lord your God accept you.'

15 But the king replied to Araunah, 'No, I insist on paying you for it. I will not sacrifice to the Lord my God burnt offerings that cost me
16 nothing.' "
17 [1 Sam. 24:22-24, Bible, NIV]

18 Our way of stating the above is: "Give the LORD what is RIGHT, not what is LEFT."

- 19 2. You do not want to read or learn the law.
20 3. You want your prayers and even your faith to be an abomination to the Lord:

21 "One who turns his ear from hearing [or learning] the law [God's law or man's law], even his prayer is an abomination."
22 [Prov. 28:9, Bible, NKJV]

- 23 4. You don't trust your own judgment in reading the law. Instead you believe the LIES that a government employee called 24 a "teacher" told you in the public fool academy that you need to be told what to do and can't govern your own life.
25 5. You can't or won't govern your own life by reading the law. Therefore, you are doomed to be a slave to the whims of 26 others for the rest of your life.

27 "We of this mighty western Republic have to grapple with the dangers that spring from popular self-government tried on a scale
28 incomparably vaster than ever before in the history of mankind, and from an abounding material prosperity greater also than 29 anything which the world has hitherto seen.

30 As regards the first set of dangers, it behooves us to remember that men can never escape being governed. Either they must govern
31 themselves or they must submit to being governed by others. If from lawlessness or fickleness, from folly or self-indulgence, they
32 refuse to govern themselves then most assuredly in the end they will have to be governed from the outside. They can prevent the 33 need of government from without only by showing they possess the power of government from within. A sovereign cannot make 34 excuses for his failures; a sovereign must accept the responsibility for the exercise of power that inheres in him; and where, as is 35 true in our Republic, the people are sovereign, then the people must show a sober understanding and a sane and steadfast purpose
36 if they are to preserve that orderly liberty upon which as a foundation every republic must rest."
37 [President Theodore Roosevelt; Opening of the Jamestown Exposition; Norfolk, VA, April 26, 1907]

- 38 6. You want to be a bad citizen. The courts have consistently held that every citizen is supposed to know the law. The 39 implication is that those who DON'T know the law themselves are bad citizens. We can't and won't help you become a 40 bad or irresponsible citizen.

41 "Every man is supposed to know the law. A party who makes a contract with an officer without having it reduced to writing is 42 knowingly accessory to a violation of duty on his part. Such a party aids in the violation of the law."
43 [Clark v. United States, 95 U.S. 539 (1877)]

44 "All persons in the United States are chargeable with knowledge of the Statutes-at-Large.... [I]t is well established that anyone who
45 deals with the government assumes the risk that the agent acting in the government's behalf has exceeded the bounds of his 46 authority,"
47 [Bollow v. Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco, 650 F.2d 1093 (9th Cir. 1981)]

1 7. You either don't want or aren't qualified for a REPUBLIC that the U.S. Supreme court describes as "a government of
2 laws and not men" (see Marbury v. Madison).

3 "The government of the United States has been emphatically termed a government of laws, and not of men. It will certainly cease to
4 deserve this high appellation, if the laws furnish no remedy for the violation of a vested legal right."
5 [Marbury v. Madison, 5 U.S. 137 (1803)]

8 We can educate and help you personally ONLY AFTER you become a party to a covenant with us as a Member, but we
9 can't give you "advice" because you are the sovereign and we will NEVER interfere with that sovereignty by becoming an
10 expert, giving you a "sales pitch" or trying to convince you of anything other than to read the law and BELIEVE and act on 11 what you read for yourself. You will never be free until you step out in FAITH towards God and agree to be 12 PERSONALLY RESPONSIBLE for your own education, decisions, and actions and to blame NO ONE, including us, for 13 any of them.

The Unlimited Liability Universe, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Spirituality/Articles/UnlimitedLiabilityUniverse.htm>

14 You only have two choices: BRAVERY....or LIFETIME SLAVERY. Which will you choose? The free materials on this
15 site are more than adequate to make your own independent and informed decision about becoming a member. The problem
16 is not a shortage of information or even education, but of commitment, will, faith in God, and confidence on your part. No
17 amount of talking with us will solve that problem.

1 "If ye love wealth better than liberty, the tranquility of servitude better than the animating contest of freedom, go home from us in
2 peace. We ask not your counsels or arms. Crouch down and lick the hands which feed you. May your chains set lightly upon you,
3 and may posterity forget ye were our countrymen."
4 [Samuel Adams]

5 You can do it! We know you can. You just have to CARE enough to do it.

6 Lastly, by taking the stand in this section, we do not intend to force you into a commercial relationship with us, because 7 Basic Membership is and always has been absolutely free. Our main goal is to:

- 8 1. Protect our materials and credibility from injury or abuse.
- 9 2. Promote efficiency in allocating our limited resources and services to the largest possible audience of the most 10 deserving people.
- 11 3. Prevent rewarding people for being lazy or irresponsible or avoiding ALL risk. Only those who risk can truly be 12 free.
- 13 4. Avoid people who selfishly place their own needs or desires higher than their obedience or allegiance to God and 14 His laws. Only those who are exercising God's delegated authority can be truly sovereign, because God is the 15 ONLY sovereign in the universe. We (believers) all work for Him under His delegation of authority order, the
16 Bible. Anyone who thinks THEY are the "sovereign" apart from God is a fool and a man worshipper who we want
17 no part of, and is emulating Satan himself in wanting to be "like a God".

18 16. Contacting Us

19 Please do NOT contact us with questions about Family Guardian or any of the materials on that website. We are NOT part

- 29 1. You must be an SEDM Member and consent unconditionally to our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 to contact us
30 and ask for help. Submitting a request through our Contact Us Page or our phone number constitutes constructive
31 consent to observe all the terms of said agreement and to become a Member of our religious fellowship.
- 32 2. If the question relates to your personal tax situation, you must participate in Member Subscriptions, which allows you 33 to ask questions. See:
34 <http://sedm.org/participate/member-subscriptions/>
- 35 3. Our Terms of Use and Service, Form #01.016, Section 4 says we cannot and do not provide legal advice or actionable, 36 factual speech. The only thing we can do is point you at educational materials published by the government which 37 constitute legal evidence consistent with the following:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability , Form #05.007 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm

38 16.1 Limitations upon our Ministry in interacting with the public

- 39 1. We ARE NOT a "fish supplier" or "freedom supplier". We instead teach people HOW TO FISH

40 "Fish for a man and you feed him for a day. Teach him HOW to fish, and you feed him for a LIFETIME."
41 [Chinese Proverb]

- 42 2. You may NOT hire us or ask us to execute the steps to restore your sovereignty in this document. YOU must execute 43 the steps in this document PERSONALLY and YOURSELF. We do this because:

- 2.1. We don't want to reward, "enable", or encourage laziness or irresponsibility on your part. Sovereignty BEGINS with personal responsibility and self-governance.
- 2.2. You will never appreciate the value of anything that you didn't have to earn, and especially your freedom.
- 2.3. You will not have a basis to believe that what we are saying is true by studying and verifying it for yourself through your own reading of the law. All tax crimes have willfulness as a prerequisite, which is based on YOUR beliefs and the legally admissible evidence they are based upon, not upon what we tell you. See:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 2.4. Our Member Agreement forbids us from interacting with those who are public officers, franchisees, those in government, or "taxpayers" and before you complete the steps in our Path to Freedom Section 2, the government most of the time has legal evidence in their possession entitling them to at least "presume", usually falsely we might add, that you have one or more of these statuses.
3. If you aren't willing to do enough of your homework to even read this pamphlet and impatiently contact us to ask or beg to help you execute the steps to freedom, mentor you, or advise you in executing the steps to restore sovereignty in Section 2, we are going to:
- 3.1. Tell you that you will never be free because you aren't willing to exercise your due diligence, are lazy, and irresponsible.
- 3.2. Tell you that you don't have enough self-confidence to be sovereign. Sovereigns don't ask for approval from ANYONE for ANYTHING. Get out of slave mode or "co-dependent" mode or BEND OVER and go back to your government cage on the federal plantation. These are your only two choices.
- 3.3. Tell you that you want insurance and someone to blame for your choices and actions, not information or education. We will never put ourselves in a position where you can blame us for any of your choices and actions.
- 3.4. Think you are a government mole trying to discredit us and shut us down by violating our Member Agreement and contacting us as a "taxpayer" or government instrumentality engaged in federal franchises.
4. Please resist the temptation to vent your anger at the corruption of the government on us instead of the government.
- 4.1. We are simply a messenger. Please don't shoot the messenger! We didn't create the massive corruption and mess you may be angry at, but rather we simply exposed it.
- 4.2. A majority of our readers are frustrated people who have been abused by family courts, the government, and/or a corrupted legal and financial system. That abuse is what woke them up to the subjects we cover on our website in the first place and possibly also made them angry at the abusers. They are sometimes full of testosterone and anger and that condition sometimes leads them to be isolated from people around them. When they encounter us in that frustration, we are sometimes the only people in their isolated lives and ironically, they sometimes take that anger out on us. We won't tolerate that kind of abuse and if you take it out on us, then we may end up banning you from the forums and adding you to our spam email list. It has happened several times before and it will undoubtedly happen again.
- 4.3. Please instead be as helpful, constructive, edifying, and positive as you can with us. It's hard enough to do the job we do without ALSO having to fight and argue with or be insulted by the people we are trying to educate and help. This only interferes with our mission and undermines the cause of liberty.
5. Please also resist the temptation to become an arrogant ass in interacting with us or any ministry member by virtue of all the legal education you receive in reading and learning our vast materials.
- 5.1. The main product of education OUGHT to be HUMILITY, not pride.
- 5.2. Pride is the greatest sin in the bible, and among the seven deadly sins that God says He hates in Prov. 6:16-19.
- 5.3. The Bible warns that too much knowledge can make people prideful. The "idol" spoken of in the scripture below is "self" and the flesh.:

"Now concerning things offered to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love edifies."
[1 Cor. 8:1, Bible, NKJV]

- 5.4. Remember that the very sin we are fighting in the corrupted legal profession is use or abuse of knowledge to exploit and enslave people. We shouldn't emulate the very evil we are fighting by abusing our own superior knowledge to violate the Second Great Commandment to love our neighbor. Those who abuse their superior knowledge to exploit, criticize, or enslave people are certainly not loving their neighbor, but rather doing the opposite.
6. If you do not believe in God, WE CAN'T AND WON'T HELP YOU and you will NEVER be free:
- 6.1. The Declaration of Independence says YOUR rights come from "the Creator", not from a Man

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator [not by the government or us or a judge, but by their CREATOR] with certain unalienable Rights,"

[Declaration of Independence]

6.2. If there is no Creator, YOU HAVE NO RIGHTS. On this subject, the author of the above Declaration of Independence said:

"Can the liberties of a nation be thought secure when we have removed their only firm basis, a conviction in the minds of the people that these liberties are of the gift of God? That they are not to be violated but with His wrath?"
[Thomas Jefferson: Notes on Virginia Q.XVIII, 1782. ME 2:227 ]

6.3. The Bible says on this subject:

"Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is Liberty [freedom]."
[2 Corinthians 3:17, Bible, NKJV]

6.4. Therefore, according to the Bible, where there IS no "Lord", there IS no "liberty".

6.5. When the people forget God, then tyrants forge their chains:

"It is when a people forget God that tyrants forge their chains ..."
[Patrick Henry]

"Those people who are not governed by GOD will be ruled by tyrants."
[William Penn (after which Pennsylvania was named)]

7. This attitude is NOT "un-Christian", it is God's approach to freedom in the Bible:

*Turn at my [God's] rebuke;
Surely I will pour out my spirit on you;
I will make my words known to you.
Because I have called and you refused,
I have stretched out my hand and no one regarded,
Because you disdained all my counsel,
And would have none of my rebuke,
I also will laugh at your calamity;
I will mock when your terror comes,
When your terror comes like a storm,
And your destruction comes like a whirlwind,
When distress and anguish come upon you.
" Then they will call on me [God], but I will not answer;
They will seek me diligently [going to SEDM], but they will not find me.
Because they hated knowledge
And did not choose the fear of the LORD,
They would have none of my counsel
And despised my every rebuke.
Therefore they shall eat the fruit of their own way,
And be filled to the full with their own fancies.
For the turning away of the simple will slay them,
And the complacency of fools will destroy them;
But whoever listens to me will dwell safely,
And will be secure, without fear of evil."*
[Prov. 1:23-33, Bible, NKJV]

8. If you don't like this approach:

8.1. You're not a Christian, trustee, or "person" within the protection contract or protection franchise called the Bible

8.2. You need to complain to The Man, not us!

16.2 How to properly interact with the ministry

The following guidelines describe how to frame your questions or request for assistance when you contact us:

1. If you intend to ask a question of us, please ensure that you phrase your question according to the standard protocol identified in sections 15.7 and 15.9.
2. Please DO NOT contact us for any of the following:
  - 2.1. Services or help if you are not at least a Basic Member. We can only help members who consent unconditionally to our Member Agreement. Membership is free and all it requires is that you sign the last page of our Member Agreement and submit the first and last page of our Member Agreement to us before contacting us. See:

<http://sedm.org/participate/member-agreement/>

- 2.2. To join your LinkedIn Network (<http://www.linkedin.com/>). WE AREN'T INTERESTED. If you want to interact with us, the FIRST place you should go is to our Member Forums (<http://sedm.org/forums/>) and avoid other methods of interaction.
- 2.3. Individual mentorship or fellowship. We would never get any work done if we sat around chatting all day with people.
- 2.4. Legal or tax advice of any kind. The rendering of legal or tax advice is prohibited by our Terms of Use and Service, Form #01.016, Section 4.
- 2.5. Value judgments or status determinations about you or any path you have taken or propose to take. This is forbidden by our Member Agreement. We can educate you about the consequences of hypothetical and not actual choices based on our reading of the law, but we can't and won't recommend or choose a specific path for you based on your circumstances because that would undermine your sovereignty.
- 2.6. To whine and complain either about us, our materials, or your situation. People in the freedom community tend to be opinionated and hypercritical almost to the point of being intolerable to be around and we won't tolerate you if you act that way around us. If there is something you don't like, don't contact us to tell us you don't like it, but rather contact us ONLY to tell us HOW to fix it to remove your issue. We need HELP, not more critics. We are not your nanny or free paralegal, but your equal partner, which means you have to bring something to the table if you want to engage us.
- 2.7. Promises or assurances or statistics about the effectiveness or "success" of using our materials or services. This is forbidden by our Terms of Use and Service, Form #01.016, Section 4 because it places us in a position of conflict of interest and subjects us to liability for your choices and actions. All such questions are answered by our FAQs, Section 0. Our Terms of Use and Service, Form #01.016, Section 4 forbids us from sharing opinions about the effectiveness of our materials or promoting or selling you anything and we don't have statistics or assurances to offer. The goals of this website are educational, spiritual, and legal. We do not promise and never have promised or guaranteed any result and especially commercial result through the use of our materials or services. Our materials and services are not intended, recommended, or authorized for use as a "tax shelter", but rather as a legal education and law enforcement tool. If you wouldn't ask a barber whether you need a haircut, then you shouldn't ask us whether our materials are "successful", "right", "factual", or appropriate for your specific circumstances. The minute we make such a determination is the minute we are making decisions about your status, which is prohibited by our Member Agreement. We encourage you to constantly verify the accuracy and authority of everything available on our website with trustworthy sources OTHER than us. We don't, however, consent to or want to become an insurance company for any of your choices or actions because that would simply undermine your sovereignty. Sovereignty BEGINS with taking complete, exclusive, and personal responsibility for ALL of your choices and actions.
- 2.8. Information about our own personal experiences using the materials available on our website. We value our privacy highly and will not reveal ANY personal information about ourselves. We are a persecuted group because of the violations of law that we expose by government actors, and answering all such questions would simply facilitate further persecution.

We are far too busy going about "our Father's business" (as Jesus would say) to provide individual interaction to the over 240,000 visitors a month who frequent us. Please respect our time and don't try to dump your problems on us without at least trying to help us in return in some way. You must either learn to govern your own life using the information and services we provide or you better get used to bending over for predators who are smarter than you. Every minute you take away from us interacting personally with you hurts everyone, because it takes away time and quality from research that is depended on by thousands.

3. Please FIRST consult our Member Forums (<http://sedm.org/forums/>) to get your questions answered BEFORE attempting to contact us via the SEDM Contact Us Page. Participants in our forums can answer most of your questions so that you won't need to contact us. Direct contact with us should be your last resort. It is free to participate in our forums and that of the Family Guardian sister site. You can sign up in the upper right corner of the following pages:
  - 3.1. SEDM Forums: <http://sedm.org/forums/>
  - 3.2. Family Guardian Forums: <http://famguardian.org>
4. If you can't get your questions answered in the our Member Forums or that of the Family Guardian sister website, only then may consider using our Contact Us Page to ask your question. Please DO NOT contact us via phone without first trying forums and THEN our Contact Us Page. We only entertain phone contact as a last resort because it is so resource and time intensive. The SEDM Contact Us Page is at:
<http://sedm.org/about/contact/>

5. Only if you are a Member Subscriber and you need personal services or you want your three free questions answered may you directly use our Contact Us Page. Keep in mind, however, that:
- 5.1. Even through the Contact Us Page, we still don't give legal advice.
- 5.2. Generally, if you have to include personal or sensitive information in a question that would keep it out of the Member Forums, chances are you haven't phrased the question in accordance with our Guide To Asking Questions, Form #09.017. Questions with personal information in them are usually framed as a request for legal advice PROHIBITED by our Terms of Use anService, Form #01.016, Section 4.
- 5.3. Member Subscribers may submit their three free questions to our Contact Us Page, but only if they are personal in nature or would compromise privacy to post in the Member Forums. Otherwise, please use the Member Forums, and especially the Member Subscriber areas of the Member Forums.
6. If you violate our policy by bypassing the Member Forums and go straight to the SEDM Contact Us Page or decide to call us via phone or we call you, be advised that:
- 6.1. You should have your signed Member Agreement ready to send via email (PDF attachment) before you call preferably in Adobe Acrobat format so you can email it to us as an attachment. We may ask you for it before we will entertain your questions.
- 6.2. We do not return calls to 800, 866, 877, or 900 prefix because they disclose our phone number.
- 6.3. The number you leave should have anonymous caller ID blocking TURNED OFF. We will not disable anonymous calling and reveal our number when returning calls.
- 6.4. By speaking with us, you implicitly consent to telephonic recording of the conversation for quality assurance and other purposes.
- 6.5. We do not consent to you recording the call, especially if you work for the government. Doing so makes you a Member in Bad Standing
- 6.6. You may not put us on the speaker phone. We do not consent to a conference call and if we find out that more than just you personally are on the other end, we will promptly hang up and never talk with you again.
- 6.7. We do not leave phone messages because we don't consent to recording of our voice. If you don't answer the phone when we call, we will hang up, try again one more time, and then give up trying to contact you.
- 6.8. If you are calling us about an order, please have your order number ready. We won't provide help with anything you can't prove that you ordered through our SEDM Ministry Bookstore, and especially in the case of those who are not Members.
7. If you need to interact with other third parties or you would like independent third party confirmation of the truths in our ministry publications from people you trust, we recommend that you:
- 7.1. Visit our Member Forums, which are free and open to all. <http://sedm.org/forums/>
- 7.2. Visit the Member Forums of the Family Guardian sister website, which are free and open to all. Go to <http://famguardian.org/forums/>.
- 7.3. Start a local freedom group in your area so that you can mentor and help each other. If you can't find such people, then post in our forums under "Members Seeking Members".
8. Don't expect ANYONE and especially us to care MORE than you do about your FREEDOM:
- 8.1. It is not possible to care more about your freedom than you do, because if we do that, we are only caring about our values about freedom and not yours.
- 8.2. If YOU don't care, then neither do we and we won't do your work for you.
- 8.3. Freedom is NOT a "spectator sport".
- 8.4. Only the vigilant are truly free.
9. Pretending to be stupid or incompetent so you have an excuse to be spoon fed will get you nowhere. Everyone who does this will be directed to:
- 9.1. Follow our Path to Freedom, Form #09.015.
- 9.2. Learn the law as the Bible requires.
- 9.3. Go back to their cage on the federal plantation if they don't want to do the previous two steps because they need and deserve a nanny government. Nanny Governments are reserved for those who either can't or won't govern their own lives according to God's laws.
- If we took any approach other than the above, we would not have the resources to inform and empower the largest possible audience of RESPONSIBLE Americans. Ultimately we would waste most of our lives rewarding and encouraging and even protecting what essentially amounts to irresponsibility and laziness and theft of our valuable time on your part.
10. Remember:
- 10.1. "ONLY the educated are free." [Epicetus, Discourses]
- 10.2. The one who needs the legal education is YOU, not us.
- 10.3. If you have to ask or depend on anyone to "make you free", then you are in fact a SLAVE.

- 1 11. The only thing that you can realistically PREVENT from being enslaved is your mind. Examples:
2 11.1. Victor Frankel. Read his book Man's Search for Meaning.
3 11.2. The Matrix movie.
- 4 12. You can't hire ANYONE to "make" you free or sovereign. It is a state of mind, not a state of body or something you 5 can simply "buy" or "demand" from others.
- 6 13. If you don't care enough to EARN your freedom like the Founding Fathers, then:
7 13.1. You won't get it
8 13.2. You NEED and DESERVE a nanny government to protect you from yourself, because you can't govern your 9 own life if you are not free
- 10 14. We are not a free legal reference service to help you avoid studying or learning the law. We get impatient with people 11 who want to pawn off all their legal work onto others without compensation and refuse to take responsibility for 12 fighting their own battles and governing their own lives. Hence please:
13 14.1. Ensure that you learn and study our free legal research and writing course so you will thoroughly understand how 14 to find legal authorities yourself:
- Legal Research and Writing Techniques Course, Form #12.013
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
- 15 14.2. Do not clutter our forums with questions about authorities on a specific legal subject that you need. Instead, find 16 these authorities yourself using the extensive information we provide. You should watch our videos on how to 17 use our website in SEDM Support Page, Section 3, to learn how to become proficient finding legal information on 18 our website:
19 <http://sedm.org/Support/Support.htm>
- 20 14.3. Ensure that if you visit our forums to post your legal questions only as a LAST RESORT, AFTER you have 21 exercised your own "due diligence" and made every reasonable effort to answer you own legal question before
22 you call for help from others. And when you visit the forums, post a description of all of the legally admissible
23 law and evidence you have located so far that answers your question, and what you think the answer is.
- 24 14.4. Ensure that you contribute as many answers and solutions to us as you receive, unless of course you contribute
25 financially to us to make helping you possible. Otherwise, your emotional bank account will be overdrawn and 26 people will avoid you because you are a parasite that sucks on people.
- 27 15. If you make it a policy to regularly contribute your research in the forums on NEW subjects not already covered on the 28 website, and help other members in our forums, you are more likely to get your own questions answered and receive
29 the help you need not only from us, but from others as well. You can only deserve what you are willing to give. This
30 is the Golden Rule: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you. If the only thing you ever do is post
31 questions and ask for help and never help anyone or post your research in our forums that helps us or other people, then
32 forum participants will avoid you and avoid helping you because they will perceive you as lazy and selfish. You will 33 RECEIVE no help because you GIVE no help and therefore you will sow exactly what you reap: NOTHING. We and 34 those in our Member Forums get very impatient with people who:
35 15.1. Are emotional, angry, blaming, or irrational. Our forums and our ministry are for people who keep their cool,
36 stay focused, and don't allow themselves to be controlled by their emotions.
- 37 15.2. Have purely commercial motives. These people are selfish and headed for HUGE trouble.
- 38 15.3. Show up at the eleventh hour when they have a personal emergency and then disappear forever and quit learning
39 after their personal emergency is handled. Even if these type of people are genuinely helped, they never return
40 the favor by hanging around after the emergency is handled to return the favor by helping others in our forums as 41 much as they were helped. These people are selfish procrastinators and it is sinful to reward their sin with help.
- 42 15.4. Are presumptuous and rely on opinions of other people as the basis for their beliefs. They are supposed to rely 43 instead ONLY on their own reading of the law. The U.S. Supreme Court has held that we are a society of law
44 and not men, and hence, what men think or believe on any subject is IRRELEVANT. Reality is not determined
45 by majority vote, but by FACTS and LAW in the legal field. We are interested ONLY in legally admissible 46 evidence in forming beliefs about anything.
- 47 15.5. Never intend to take any risks and want someone to hold their hand every step of the way. We tell these people to 48 go back to their cage on the federal plantation and lick the socialist hands that feed them because they need and 49 deserve a nanny government.
- 50 15.6. Have a merely academic interest in the subjects we teach but never intend to actually USE or APPLY the 51 information to their own life or situation. Some pastors call such people "neck up Christians", who want grace
52 and entertainment at church but ultimately have no interest in being OBEDIENT to what God's law or man's law
53 actually says or allows. We want DOERS, not TALKERS. Talk is cheap. These people dissipate valuable
54 energy of our ministry away from people who REALLY want to make a difference and DO something about all 55 the evils we document:

"Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven."

Jesus in [Matt. 7:21, Bible, NKJV]

"But why do you call Me 'Lord, Lord,' and not do the things which I say?"

[Luke 6:46, Bible, NKJV]

"My mother and My brothers are these who hear the word of God and do it."

[Luke 8:21, Bible, NKJV]

"He who has [understands and learns] My commandments [laws in the Bible (OFFSITE LINK)] and keeps them, it is he who loves Me. And he who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and manifest Myself to him."

[John 14:21, Bible, NKJV]

"And we have known and believed the love that God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love [obedience to God's Laws] abides in [and is a FIDUCIARY of] God, and God in him."

[1 John 4:16, Bible, NKJV]

"Now by this we know that we know Him [God], if we keep His commandments. He who says, "I know Him," and does not keep His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. But whoever keeps His word, truly the love of God is perfected in him. By this we know that we are in Him [His fiduciaries]. He who says he abides in Him [as a fiduciary] ought himself also to walk just as He [Jesus] walked."

[1 John 2:3-6, Bible, NKJV]

16. You are reminded that our Member Forums and interactions with us are intended as a boot camp and a mock court for people who want to develop the skill to litigate and argue their positions with evidence. You should have the goal of eventually being able to think and act independently for yourself and wean yourself off of milk and the bottle and stand on your own two feet, both legally and emotionally. Those acting in a sovereign capacity don't ask for permission or approval from anyone and know what their rights are. Our Member Forums are:

16.1. Intended as a way to prepare you for a direct, face to face confrontation with black robed Satan worshippers running the courts and within the legal profession who have no sense of morals, who operate on policies and whims of judges and in many cases don't give a damn about what the law actually says. All litigation is an adversarial axe fight, not an interchange between friendly neighbors.

16.2. Not intended as a place to vent emotions or engage in political discussions. The forums of the Family Guardian sister website are better suited for that.

16.3. Not intended for people with a thin skin or who seek approval or permission before they can think or act.

16.4. Intended to prepare you for "safe sex" with the ultimate RAPISTS running a corrupted criminal mafia pretending to be a "government", and which is actually a de facto government. See:

De Facto Government Scam, Form #05.043

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

At times, you may perceive the way we treat people as mean or even "un-Christian" (whatever THAT means), but rest assured that what we say will be said and intended with love and your best interests in mind to wake you up to the vicious reality you are dealing with so as to keep you out of harm's way. Parents and employers do the same thing to children and workers, respectively, while they are under their supervision and responsibility: Discipline them to keep them and others from getting hurt, and they do so out of love and not malice. Psychologist Dr. James Dobson calls this kind of treatment "tough love", and it is needed to overcompensate for the socialism, hedonism, anarchy, and passivity being taught throughout the rest of the corrupted pagan culture:

"My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD,

Nor be discouraged when you are rebuked by Him;

For whom the LORD loves He chastens,

And scourges every son whom He receives."

[Hebrews 12:5-6, Bible, NKJV]

17. Your request for assistance should indicate the following minimum information or it may be ignored:

17.1. Whether you are a Member.

17.2. The specific steps that you have accomplished within section 2 of our Path to Freedom, Form #09.015.

17.3. If you seek a legal authority, whether you looked in the Legal Research Sources link on the top of the opening page (<http://sedm.org>) of our website to locate the authority yourself before asking us to do it for you. All Members are presumed to be able to do legal research, because this is foundational to being sovereign.

17.4. Whether you looked for the answer to your question in the following BEFORE contacting us and if not, why not.

17.4.1. SEDM FAQs page

17.4.2. Member Forums

17.4.3. Family Guardian Forums \(OFFSITE LINK\)

17.5. Exactly what sort of help you expect or require from us.

17.6. What level of donation, if any, you are prepared to provide for the privilege of demanding our services and assistance. Please be specific and list the amount, rather than just saying "a modest donation". Or better yet, make the donation by clicking here before contacting us. We do provide pro bono assistance on occasion, but we are not equipped to do so for EVERYONE in this fellowship. The workman is worthy of his hire. Prov. 26:10, Matt. 10:10. Anything that is always free will always be over-utilized and abused. See FAQ 2.01 and 2.02 for information on how to donate if you don't have a debit or credit card.

18. If you are contacting us for technical support of an item available through our Ministry Bookstore, please provide your order number so that we may verify that you obtained the item properly. We don't support those who plagiarize or steal our materials. You should keep your order confirmation email information available at all times and back it up so that you will always have proof you obtained the item from our bookstore.
19. We do not respond to requests to simply call people and talk, nor can you claim to be entitled to help simply because something you found on this website didn't accomplish the result you sought. Our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 emphasizes and we again emphasize here that our materials come with no guarantees and anyone who guarantees you any result, including a lawful result, is a fool in a society where courts refuse to read, enforce, and obey the law as written in open court. We also can't and won't be an insurance company, whether compensated or not, that indemnifies anyone from exclusive responsibility for ensuring that their public servants obey the law. To do that would be to reward irresponsibility and bad citizenship, which are the antithesis of what we stand for. With all due respect, we believe it's hypocritical to claim to be sovereign on the one hand, and then to expect a nanny or even a compensated expert to make one's decisions or to assume the risks and consequences for the decisions of others, namely yours.
20. We won't tolerate or cooperate with efforts by anyone to claim they are "entitled" to free help simply because something they found on this website didn't accomplish the result they sought or expected. Our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 emphasizes and we again emphasize here that our materials come with no guarantees and anyone who guarantees you any result, including a lawful result, is a fool in a society where courts refuse to read, enforce, and obey the law as written. We also can't and won't be an insurance company, whether compensated or not, that indemnifies anyone from exclusive responsibility for ensuring that their public servants obey the law. To do that would be to reward irresponsibility and bad citizenship, which are the antithesis of what we stand for. With all due respect, we believe it's hypocritical to claim to be sovereign on the one hand, and then to expect a nanny or even a compensated expert to make one's decisions or to assume the risks and consequences for the decisions of others, namely yours.
21. If you are contacting us about a state or federal tax response letter, please also have the letter or notice number ready to give to us so we know what you are asking questions about and can promptly help you.

The above requirements are mandatory in the case of tax matters and also appear in the Compliance Questionnaire at the end of the Path to Freedom, Form #09.015 indicated above. We do this both for your protection and ours to prevent any of our materials from being abused for an unlawful purpose, a commercial purpose, or an actionable or factual purpose. We will prioritize our response and the help we can provide based on your degree of compliance to our Path to Freedom document and your ability to resource us to be able to help you.

If you call us and leave a phone message, be advised that we do not return calls if:

1. You call to request information or a service that our About Us Page, Section 8, indicates that we aren't allowed to provide. This is also a violation of the SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001 and we can't help you violate the Member Agreement.
2. You call to obtain legal advice. We do not give legal advice to anyone.
3. You are calling for anyone associated with the Family Guardian Website. They are a separate ministry and we are not responsible for their offerings or answering their phone calls. Please instead use their Contact Us Page.
4. You call to ask if you can obtain our materials via mail or postal money order or you ask for our mailing address. You can pay us with PERSONAL CHECK, but we don't allow money orders or mail orders. We also DO NOT provide a mailing address to anyone. See our FAQs, Questions 2.01 and 2.02 for reasons.
5. The number you leave has anonymous call blocking turned on which would compel us to reveal our phone number in order to get through to you.
6. The area code for the number you leave is 800, 866, 877, 888, or 900.
7. You do not specifically identify your full name, the purpose for your call, and whether you are a Member who consents unconditionally to the SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001.
8. When we call back, we get an answering machine. We will only talk to live people because we do not consent to voice messages or any tape recording of our communication.

By contacting us at the phone number above or leaving a message to ask us to call you, you are implicitly consenting to electronic telephone recording of all phone conversations if and only if you work for the government or are or will be a witness or informant for the government in any legal proceeding involving us. You are also stipulating to admit any such recordings into evidence in any such legal proceeding per Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 31. Note that we do NOT consent to such recording on your part, except by written, signed agreement provided by an officer or volunteer working for the ministry.

16.3 Bringing errors in our publications to our attention

Our ministry is here to help people protect each other using the law in court. The accuracy and effectiveness of our materials is of extreme importance because of the dire personal consequences that can result from proceeding in court using erroneous materials or mistaken presumptions. We therefore want our materials and services to be truthful and reliable from legal perspective. What you don't know or what you know that is wrong can severely injure you in court, even to the point of ending up in jail for decades!

"My [God's] people are destroyed [and enslaved] for lack of knowledge [and the lack of education that produces it]."
[\[Hosea 4:6, Bible, NKJV\]](#)

"But the person who does anything presumptuously [false belief rather than evidence], whether he is native-born or a stranger, that one brings reproach on the LORD, and he shall be cut off from among his people."
[\[Numbers 15:30, Bible, NKJV\]](#)

Because of the above, it is a very serious responsibility and obligation of each and every Member under the following to keep a record of every error you find in our publications, information, or services as you find them, and to bring them to our attention by submitting errata to correct them:

1. Member Agreement, Form #01.001, Section 1.3, Item 6
2. Terms of Use and Service, Form #01.016, Section 5, Item 12.

The above requirements are the ONLY way our materials can be continually improved in accuracy and effectiveness for the "benefit" of everyone under our Member Agreement.

A very important reason why our materials are therefore made freely available is peer review and correction. The "benefit" of free access to our materials must be paid for by you with corrections to them by you. Nothing in life is free. Here is how we described it to one member in the Member Forums who indicated that he found errors in our materials but didn't notify us:

This is a community effort and what makes it a community effort is that we help each other and help improve the materials here by continually correcting them and improving them. That is everyone's job.

We appreciate your participation, but not this type of participation. You admitted you are violating our member agreement by not keeping a record of errors you find in our publications as you find them and bringing them to our attention. That is an abuse of the materials and our time and services. An important reason these materials are made freely available is precisely and mainly because we want them reviewed and corrected. By refusing to do so on a habitual basis, you have violated the main reason you can even read the materials to begin with. And now you with your comments you are encouraging others to follow your bad example.

This is totally unacceptable. We can't condone that with our silence. The errors you find could cause those who don't recognize them as errors to hurt and discredit themselves. Members are supposed to be helping and protecting each other. You aren't acting like a member if you don't help and protect other members by correcting and improving our materials with errata and suggestions.

We politely and respectfully ask you to reconsider how you approach our materials. Keep a simple text file and make a heading under each document you read, and add to the list as you find it if you are reading the electronic version. Otherwise, keep a small notebook if you print our materials when you read them. If you are reading our materials on a portable device, we suggest using Microsoft OneNote to keep track of errors and keep the OneNote file in the cloud so you can get to it from anywhere.

Sovereignty begins with personal responsibility. Anyone who doesn't want to be responsible for the obligations of being a member and only cares about the "benefits" is not only a thief, but is also just like the rest of the socialists we fight here. See:

<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Spirituality/Articles/UnlimitedLiabilityUniverse.htm>

[SOURCE: <http://sedm.org/forums/index.php?showtopic=2832&hl=>]

We also caution that if you as a Member are also a government worker and DON'T bring errors to our attention when you find them, and then either sue us or help your employer sue us because of the errors, our Terms of Use and Service, Form #01.016, Section 5, Item 12 indicates there will be dire commercial consequences for you personally. Courts call this type of malicious behavior "acting in bad faith" and it deserves to be severely punished.

WARNING: Government readers reading this section should not interpret this section as an admission that we are the cause of harm from the MISuse of our materials or services. Anything that is misused can cause harm and the person who misuses is the cause of the harm. Rather, this section is an admission that IGNORANCE, PRESUMPTION, and LAZINESS in verifying legal authorities on the part of our READERS and not us can cause harm because it can lead to an incorrect understanding of the law. This is explained in the Bible quotes earlier in this section. We therefore seek merely to warn people about these susceptibilities and make our materials as accurate as we and our members can make them to minimize any harm that can come from ignorance, presumption, or laziness on the part of the reader. As we say in our Member Agreement, Form #01.001, the ONLY thing that members can rely on in forming a reasonable belief about their responsibilities is their own reading of the POSITIVE law and courts say from the jurisdiction they are domiciled, and not anything that ANY vain man, including a judge, attorney, or government agent says.

We welcome our readers and members to bring errors to our attention that they find in any of our publications. Please, however, follow the following guidance in doing so:

1. Please use the LATEST version of the document you want to correct errors from. Many readers use an older version, and in many cases, the errors they are pointing out have already been fixed. This wastes our effort. If you want a list of the revision history of all documents on our website to ensure that you have the latest version, please see:

SEDM Resource Revision History, Form #01.009

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

2. DO NOT report errors within a single document one at a time. We don't want to hear "oops...I found another error" and end up with 50 emails in our inbox to separately read and deal with. Instead, read the WHOLE document at least once, compile a list of ALL of the errors, and submit the ENTIRE list all at one time to us. This prevents us from having to go back and change our documents hundreds of times, which can be very labor intensive.
3. The itemized list of ALL errors in a specific document should list the following minimum information for each error:
  - 3.1. Version number or revision date of the document from the lower left corner of each page.
  - 3.2. The page number.
  - 3.3. The line number from the left margin of each page.
4. Submit your list of errors for the ENTIRE document to either of the two locations, where the forums are most preferred:
  - 4.1. SEDM Forums, Forum #9.4: Errata Reports. You will need a free account on the forums to post to the forums, so please apply by clicking "Register" in the upper right corner:
<http://sedm.org/forums/>
  - 4.2. The Contact Us Page on the opening page of our website under "Member Resources"
<http://sedm.org/about/contact/>

16.4 Media/Press Inquiries

If you are a member of the press, please use the following resource in your interactions with us:

Media Press Kit, Form #01.014

<http://sedm.org/media-press-kit/>

16.5 Copyright Issues

If you would like to notify us of a copyright issue, please consult the following resource for procedures, which you can also access from the bottom of the opening page of our site:

SEDM Copyright and Digital Millennium Copyright Policy

17. Compliance Questionnaire

The form beginning on the next page must be completed and either emailed to us or submitted to SEDM Forum 9.7 if you are a Member who wishes to obtain educational or assistance of counsel services from us as described in the previous section in connection with ONLY tax matters. Any matter other than taxation does not require the submission of this form.

If the educational services you seek relate to taxation, our interactions must at all times limit themselves to only those years in which you were in full and conscientious compliance with the terms of the SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001. We cannot talk to you about years in which you violated the Member Agreement and therefore were a Member in Bad Standing. We do this to ensure that:

1. We don't help you violate the Member Agreement.
2. We don't interact with "taxpayers".
3. We don't needlessly interfere with the enforcement of the Internal Revenue Code against its only lawful subject, which is "taxpayers". Anyone who either doesn't consent to or doesn't comply with or willfully violates our Member Agreement is presumed to be a "taxpayer" who we cannot counsel or advise in the context of only tax matters.

COMPLIANCE QUESTIONNAIRE

Please truthfully answer the questions below and email your answers to us or submit them via email to MemberAgreements(AT)sedm.org prior to obtaining our services. Submit an inquiry to our Contact Us Page and ask us for our email address, and we will give it to you if you need it. We do not accept correspondence via postal mail.

3. That I am not contacting SEDM to obtain legal or tax advice, but simply educational services.
4. That all communications with, to, or about SEDM or anyone associated with SEDM are subject to the terms of the SEDM Member Agreement.
5. That I do not work for any state or federal government, any law enforcement entity, and I agree not to act as a witness or informant for any such entity in the context of my interactions with SEDM. If I violate this requirement, I agree to act as the substitute defendant in any action directed against the ministry that involves any testimony about my interactions with any member or officer of SEDM.
6. That my main if not only motivation for using the materials on SEDM are to honor my God and obey His laws and that my motivations are in no way commercial.
